

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Saturday Evening's Daily Journal

O. P. Monroe was a passenger this noon on the mail train for the north.

Perry Utterback was in Omaha and Council Bluffs today on business matters.

Adam Kaffenberger, Jr., is in Omaha this afternoon looking after business matters.

M. G. McQuinn, of near Union, was in the city today attending to business matters.

Miss Lottie Smith was a passenger this morning for Omaha where she will spend the day.

Robert Brissey was a passenger today for Dunphy, Ia., where he will spend Sunday.

Henry Horn came in this morning from his farm west of the city, to transact business.

Geo. Hild, the Cedar Creek thresher man, is looking after business in the city this morning.

Frank Buttery was a north bound passenger this morning going out on company business.

Mrs. John Brady departed this morning for a visit with relatives and friends at Northboro, Iowa.

Mrs. M. A. Waters of Lincoln passed through the city today, stopping over here for a few hours.

Mrs. C. Dasher and children departed for LaPlatte on the fast mail this noon for a brief visit.

Leo Tiberhien and Miss Florence Cory were among those going to Omaha this noon on the fast mail.

Henry Hirz, the popular precinct farmer, came in this morning to look after business matters.

Mrs. R. W. Clement and daughters were among those traveling north this noon on the mail train.

E. H. McCoy was among those who were passengers this morning on the early train for Omaha.

Mrs. J. L. Root is spending the day in Omaha, being a passenger on the early train this morning.

D. J. Pitman, the prominent grain dealer of Murray, was in the city today transacting business.

Mrs. C. H. Parmele and Mrs. S. H. Atwood were north bound passengers this noon on the mail train.

Levi Rusterholtz, and family from near Murray were in the city today, driving in from their farm.

Geo. Horn, the hustling agent for the Woodman Accident Association, is in the city today on business.

Mrs. G. E. Dovey and daughters were passengers this noon on the mail train for Omaha several days.

Miss Josephine Forgarty was a visitor in Omaha today, being a passenger on the early train this morning.

Miss Myrtle Peterson was a passenger this morning for Omaha where she will spend the day with friends.

Mrs. T. E. Parmele and Mrs. F. H. Dunbar were among those going to Omaha on the mail train at noon.

Miss Mae Patterson was a passenger this morning on the early train for Omaha where she will spend the day.

Mrs. J. E. Douglas was among those who were passengers on No. 19 for Omaha this morning to spend the day.

Miss Hilma Erikson was a passenger this noon for Omaha where she will visit with friends for several days.

Mrs. E. D. Cummins and daughters were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will visit during the day.

John McGowan was a passenger this morning for Lincoln after spending several days in the city, the guest of friends.

Mrs. Loretta Ault and Miss Emma Ault were among those visiting in Omaha today, going up on the morning train.

Chas. Janda was a passenger on the mail train at noon for Omaha where he will visit relatives and friends for several days.

W. K. Barnes and John Strohl were two passengers this morning for Omaha going up to witness the close of the carnival.

Judge H. D. Travis, of Plattsmouth, was in the city today holding a brief session of the district court.—Nebraska City News.

Wm. Fahlon and wife were passengers this morning for Lincoln going up to visit over Sunday with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Robert Brissey and little son are in Havelock this afternoon to remain over Sunday, going up on the fast mail at noon.

Mrs. F. E. Denson and children were passengers on the mail train for Omaha and Council Bluffs where she will visit for a few days.

Jas. Robertson, wife and daughter, Marie, were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will attend the ball this evening.

Miss Goldie Haie accompanied by her guest, Mrs. Hodgson, was a passenger this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day.

Ed. Becker, one of the hustling young farmers from west of the city, is looking after matters in town today, driving in this morning.

Frank Marler and wife came in this morning and were passengers on the noon train for Omaha where they will spend the afternoon.

Mrs. C. W. Baylor and little child and Mrs. Eva Reese were passengers on the mail train at noon for Omaha to spend the afternoon.

Jacob Mesinger, one of the strong members of the famous Meisinger settlement, is in the city today looking after business matters.

Supt. of motive power W. Rook in his car No. 81 was in the city overnight the car being attached to No. 7 at noon for the north and west.

Mrs. W. D. Messersmith was a passenger this noon on the mail train for Omaha where she will do some shopping during the afternoon.

Mrs. August Anderson was a passenger this morning on No. 19 for Council Bluffs, Ia., where she will spend the day with relatives.

Will Pirie and wife who have been visiting in the city for several days, the guests of relatives and friends departed this morning for Lincoln.

Mrs. Lulu Bowers who has been visiting her sister Mrs. E. B. Peoples in this city for several days, departed this morning for her home at Falls City.

Jas. Moore and Hugo Menschal of Hastings, Ia., came over this morning for a brief visit with Joe Moore and family, returning home this evening.

Mrs. E. J. Brooks of South Omaha, who has been in the city for several days visiting her sons George and Ben Brooks departed at noon for her home.

D. Hawksworth, wife, and daughter, Mrs. E. W. Cook and Miss Nettie Hawksworth were among those traveling to Omaha today on the mail train.

Miss Barrett of Minneapolis, Minnesota, was in the city for a brief visit with the family of F. M. Richey, returning to Omaha this afternoon on the mail train.

Mrs. O. H. Bayless of Watson, Mo., who has been in the city for several weeks the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brady, returned to her home at Watson, Mo.

Mrs. Guy Bestor of Cozad, Neb., who has been in the city for several days visiting with the family of her father-in-law, Herman Bestor, departed this morning for her home.

Thos. E. Parmele was a passenger on the mail for Broken Bow where he had business to look after. He also thought he might do some hunting while up there if he could get time.

In the County Court today a petition was filed for the probate of the last will and testament of Mrs. Lydia Todd, the aged relict of L. G. Todd. Judge Beeson set the hearing for Oct. 26.

Miss Julia Ehlers of Burlington, Ia., who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Neff, departed this morning for her home at Burlington, Ia. Miss Ehlers is a sister of Mrs. Neff.

Mrs. W. H. Schildknecht and Mrs. W. K. Fox were passengers on the early train this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day. Mrs. Schildknecht going to visit with Dr. Gifford.

Miss Teresa Hempel departed on the mail train this noon for Gretna where she will visit friends for a few days, proceeding from there to Lincoln where she will attend the Grand Lodge of the Degree of Honor.

Frank and Joe Libershal and Victor Anderson departed at noon today for O'Neill, Neb., where they will register for the drawing of the Tripp County lands. They expect to spend several days in that country.

P. H. Dwyer, D. M. Stanley, S. C. Stevens and F. Guycy were a party which took the fast mail at noon for O'Neill where they will register for the land drawing. They will likely stay there for several days.

C. E. Berger of Mynard was in the city today and gave the Journal a pleasant and appreciated call. Mr. Berger is well known in this vicinity as a sterling young man of much worth and excellence.

Victor Sherwood departed for Gregory, S. D., where he will register for the Tripp county land drawing. It is

Bring It Back

If you buy anything in this store that fails to "test out" 100 per cent value for your money bring it back, we'd like to see what it looks like. If we have any poor goods here we don't know it. We always keep in view our "quality" standard. You're save here in buying clothing.

C. E. WESCOTT'S SONS.

Where "Quality" Counts.

to be hoped that he is successful and lands one of the best quarter sections in the new country.

Louis Born, one of the prosperous and hustling young farmers from west of the city, was in today and took occasion to pay this office a call. His coming was much appreciated as he is a fine young man and very pleasant to meet.

John Kelly and wife were in the city today on business and dropped into the Journal office for a little visit. Mr. Kelly is one of the best known citizens of the county, a splendid and worthy man and one whom it is a pleasure to meet.

H. P. Sanders and wife, and Miss Sanders of Grand Island, Neb., who have been in the city, the guests of Wm. Budig and family returned to their home this morning, going by way of Omaha. Mrs. Wm. Budig accompanied the party to Omaha.

T. U. Shepherdson, from down near Nehawka, paid this office a visit this morning and added his name to the list of subscribers. Mr. Shepherdson is a prosperous and hustling farmer and a most estimable gentleman. His visit was greatly appreciated.

Edward Swoboda and Jas. Burianek, departed on the fast mail at noon for O'Neill, Neb., where they will register for the drawing of the Tripp County lands. They had not determined just how long they would stay there but expect to remain sometime.

County Judge Beeson this morning issued the license and united in marriage Jas. Edwards, aged 23 years and Miss Minnie Myers, aged 19, both parties hailing from Glenwood. They drove over and after the ceremony returned to the other shore happy as the day is long.

There was little doing in Justice Court today. Justice Archer entered up a judgement in the case of Wendt vs. Leary et al. finding for the plaintiff $95.86. This case was tried sometime ago and the defense rose over a claimed warranty on a team of horses. The court held the claim not well founded.

C. N. Seybert, the democratic candidate for County Commissioner, is in the city today shaking hands with his many friends and adding new ones to them. Mr. Seybert is making votes whenever he goes and his election is now looked upon as almost assured. He takes well with everyone and is a sure winner.

J. B. Meisinger came in this morning from his farm in Eight Mile Grove precinct to look after some business matters and visit his numerous friends for the day. Mr. Meisinger is still more or less troubled with rheumatism, but it is slowly leaving him and his many friends hope that he will soon be entirely rid of it and himself again.

Chas. L. Graves of the Union Ledger, was in the city for a few hours this morning and made the Journal a much appreciated call. Mr. Graves has edited the Ledger so long that it is now a matter of ancient history and he has made the paper one which its many readers will not be without. It is bright and sparkling and well worth reading.

J. E. Brinkworth, editor of the Eagle Beacon, was in the city today and made this office a very pleasant call. Mr. Brinkworth is an agreeable and pleasant gentleman and one whom it is more than a pleasure to meet. He is also a good newspaper man, as exemplified by the bright, newsy little paper he is getting out. It is pleasant to note that the good people of Eagle appreciate his efforts and give him so liberal support.

LETTER.

To Mr. T. Patterson, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Dear Sir: There are these five ways of badness in paint:

- (1) stuffed-out with chalk, or something like that;
- (2) barytes, better than chalk, but no covering to it, nobody knows it's there;
- (3) benzine in the oil, or water, or other such stulting;
- (4) too thin—too much liquid, what ever it is, for he solid;
- (5) short measure.

Now will you buy by the price per "gallon"?

We furnish our agents with a state chemist's certificate of analysis that tell's what's in Devoe.

Yours truly

F. W. Devoe & Co.

New York, Chicago and Kansas City

P. S. H. L. Asemissen & Son sells our paint.

Reason, Not Prejudice Should Guide.

Parties are indispensable and that each should have its leaders is inevitable. The character of a party from time to time depends upon the character of its leaders. If the leaders are controlled by sinister influences inimical to the interests of the people, the party for the time being will be controlled by such influences, and a victory for that party is a victory for those influences. The representatives of those influences do not ask whether a candidate belongs to the party of Jackson or of Lincoln, but merely whether he is friendly to the interests they represent. The voter with no interest to serve but that of himself and his country should learn a lesson from them, for they seldom make the mistake of voting for a candidate who is likely to thwart their purposes. When they are lined up in favor of a particular candidate, he may rest assured that it is because they have some guarantee that he will serve the interests they represent, and then, if he is true to himself and to his country, he will cast his vote against that candidate, no matter by what party he is put forward.

No Retreat.

For years the people have been demanding relief from corporate abuses and rapacity. The fight for the correction of those evils is now on and they insist that it shall continue until those abuses are wiped out and the doctrine of a "square deal" firmly established as a rule of official conduct.

President Roosevelt has been able to accomplish much in directing the fight. His official position has been of immense advantage, but it would have counted for little had there not been back of it the disposition and desire to make the fight effective. He was not the choice of "predatory wealth" for the presidency, but of the people and has shown both the disposition and the desire to serve them. But his term of office expires next March, while the fight against corporate greed has barely begun.

If the fight is to be kept up and pushed to a successful issue, the choice of a successor to Roosevelt is a matter of supreme importance. His successor will be either Bryan or Taft. The corporations against whom this fight has been made and those who fatten on their lawlessness, are solidly lined up for Taft and in opposition to Bryan. If the people permit them to select the man who shall lead the fight against them for the next four years, the fight for a "square deal" is lost. If the people would win this fight their leaders should be selected by them, not by the enemy.

Photo post cards of Taft at Plattsmouth, now on sale. Ten different views 5 cents each. Nemetz & Co. Next to P. O.

If you haven't the time to exercise regularly, Doan's Regulets will prevent constipation. They induce a mild, easy hepatical action of the bowels without gripping. Ask your druggist for them. 25c.

Stops earache in two minutes; toothache or pain of burn or scald in five minutes; hoarseness, one hour; muscleache, two hours; sore throat, twelve hours—Dr. Thomas Electric Oil, monarch over pain.

Most disfiguring skin eruptions, scrofula, pimples, rashes, etc., are due to impure blood. Burdock Blood Bitters is a cleansing blood tonic. Makes you clear-eyed, clear-brained, clear-skinned.

Wooltex Garments ARE HONEST ALL THE WAY THROUGH!

WOOLTEX styles are good—the result of the combined efforts of fashion authority stationed in Paris and a large staff of trained designers.

WOOLTEX materials are good—the wool is tressed by acid. The silk is pure silk. The interlinings are of high quality. The silk thread is tested for purity of dye.

WOOLTEX garments are good—as good as conscientious workmanship, expert cutting and artistic designing can make them.

Let us show you our stock of WOOLTEX garments. The prices are decidedly reasonable.

Come now. The WOOLTEX garments can be had only in limited quantities.

The entire output of the WOOLTEX factory would provide a WOOLTEX garment for only one woman out of every 250 in the United States.

M. FANGER, Department Store, Plattsmouth, Neb.

A Noble Answer

"I have lived in vain if your accusations have lost me a single friend."

These words, spoken by William J. Bryan, in reply to the intemperate attacks of the Rough Rider who occupies the White House are the words of a man who is enough to be President—of the man who by the grace of God and the votes of the people is the next President of the United States.

No thoughtful person, taking into consideration the speaker and the one to whom these words were addressed, can fail to realize the nobility, the magnificence of this reply. Beside this calm, dispassionate declaration that sprang from the full, pure heart of an upright man—the filthy malignity with which Theodore Roosevelt addressed William J. Bryan appears like a repulsive devil beside an angel of light. And against the upright, irreproachable and impeccable character of the leader of the Democracy, the poisoned shafts of Roosevelt have availed as little as the darts of Satan against the legions of light.

The contrast between Bryan and Roosevelt presented by this recent passage at arms is indeed pitiable for Roosevelt. Even the inborn respect of the American citizen for the position which the accidental President occupies, cannot and should not prevent the conviction that the office of the chief magistrate of the United States has been defiled and debased by the presence of one who is capable of such unthinking, intemperate and wild accusations as those in which the mock-hero of San Juan has indulged.

Mr. Bryan has not lived in vain. His life is an open book before the American people. His goings and comings are known to all, and upon the bright armor of his political prowess are the scars of three battles but not a single stain. True to conviction, unwavering in his confidence in his fellow men, steadfast in the faith that he professes and undaunted in battle, he stands forth a champion without fear and without reproach. All the prestige of the great office that Theodore Roosevelt so unworthily occupies cannot avail to shake the faith in the people in him, for he has kept the faith.

Well may Bryan say to Theodore Roosevelt:

"I have lived in vain if your accusations have lost me a single friend." For, taken at his word, and judged by his deeds, William J. Bryan has not lived in vain.—Kansas City Post.

Fine stationery. Gering & Co.

HOARDED WEALTH

if all right if kept in a secure place, but the majority of the "unwise thrifty" prefer to hide their money, at home, or in some out-of-the-way place, instead of intrusting it to the safe keeping of a reliable bank. We number among our depositors some of the shrewdest and most prominent commercial men in town—a fact that fully attests our reliability.

BANK OF CASS COUNTY, PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.