

DEGREE OF HONOR HAVE MEETING

Lincoln Scene of Big Gathering. Miss Hempel Leads for Recorder.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The grand lodge of the Degree of Honor will begin its annual sessions this morning at 9 o'clock. A reception and memorial service was tendered last night in the representative hall of the state capital by local lodges having in attendance about three hundred members, representatives from lodges of the state and local members. An address extending a welcome to the visiting members was delivered by Miss Rose Herrick of Lincoln who acted as mistress of ceremonies. She asked those who had come in from over the state to feel that Lincoln was their's to command while they remained here and assured them that they should receive every attention which the city could give.

She then introduced the Grand Chief of Honor Mary A. Latky, who gave the announcements for the coming meetings. It was announced that today's session would begin at 9 o'clock immediately following the giving of the grand lodge degree which will come at 8:50. In the evening an address by Governor Sheldon is promised which will occur at 8:30. The business to come before the session today will be the hearing of nominations for the grand offices to be filled. The election will occur tomorrow.

The program of the evening consisted of readings and musical numbers. The program was opened with a vocal solo by Miss Josephine Johnson which was followed by a selected reading by Miss Jessie Glass. Miss Florence Chapman also rendered a vocal solo and Miss Francis Gould closed the first part of the program with a reading. Both readings were encored. Music by a local mandolin club was interspersed throughout the program.

The closing part of the program was the putting on of the grand lodge memorial services for Grand Master Workman O. J. Van Dyke and Grand Chief of Honor Anna B. McDonald, which was accompanied by the past chiefs of honor of the Lincoln lodge Mrs. Cauger, Mrs. Travers, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Dudley, Mrs. Davis, and Mrs. Van-Andel, the music for the ceremony being furnished by Mrs. Hattie Woolley of Lincoln. The ceremony which was most impressive was conducted after the form of the Degree of Honor ritual, and involved the many symbolic teachings of the order. Following this memorial service was an hour of social interest in which the members from various sections of the state were given an opportunity to become acquainted. The room was decorated in pink, the colors of the subordinate lodge.

The contest which has been going on for the grand recordership, in which Miss Teresa Hempel of Plattsmouth, the present recorder and Mrs. Hattie Woolley of Lincoln are the contestants was very spirited at the lodge headquarters at the Lindell yesterday afternoon, when the friends of both of the candidates did much lively electioneering. Miss Hempel has been the recorder for ten years and it is the expressed opinion of the supporters of Mrs. Woolley that it is time for the present incumbent to step down and relinquish the office. On the other hand the friends and supporters of Miss Hempel believe that she is acquainted with the affairs of the office and should be permitted to continue in the position so long as her work is satisfactory. The campaign will continue today with the election and settlement tomorrow. Miss Hempel's supporters are confident that she will be chosen.

A Delightful Party

Last Tuesday afternoon a very delightful party was had at the Hotel Plattsmouth, the party honored being Mrs. Peter F. Goos for whom a large number of her lady friends gathered together and tendered her a most pleasant surprise. The time was taken up in a very pleasant manner there being various games another amusements to while away the time, after which the hostess served refreshments which were a delight to the many guests.

Those who attended were Mesdames Olga Croskary, Matt J. Joy, R. Spohn, B. Wurl, J. Busche, Wm. Otterstein, Val. Burkel, P. Mumm, J. Henrich, Will Hinrichsen, J. P. Sattler, J. Lutz, J. Sievers, H. Tams, J. Wichman, Misses Amanda Sattler, Paula Goos, Clara and Hulka Goos, Clara Vachman.

Her First False Step.

E. J. Carpenter's newest offering, "Her First False Step" which will be seen here for the first time on Saturday October 10, 1908 is a play of exceptional merit. The story is really a pathetic one, consistent and true and this alone has won its success. While there is many exciting scenes, there is enough comedy throughout the piece to satisfy the most exacting audience. The play is mounted on an elaborate scale, especially in the second act, showing the interior of the bank and how the robbers tunnel their way underground to rob the bank.

In County Court.

In county court today there was filed a petition by Chas. Bogenreif and wife, asking to be allowed to adopt Marie Sophia Zimmerman, a child of five years, who was turned over to the Nebraska Childrens Society by her father, Frederick Wilhelm Zimmerman, for care. The hearing on the petition is set down for October 17th.

J. D. Standley also filed a petition to have an administrator appointed for the estate of Delia J. Standley. The petition calls for the appointment of Rev. J. H. Salsbury of this city as administrator. It sets out the names of the several heirs of whom three grandsons of deceased, named Elihu, Grant and Richard Standley live at Eagle this county. The object of the administration is to have soldiers right of entry to land preserved to the heirs. The estate is set forth as worth one hundred dollars. Delia J. Standley was the widow of Moses Standley, an old soldier, who had a soldier's homestead rights.

HI HENRY'S MINSTRELS PLEASE

Big House Hears and Applauds a Good Show at the Parmele.

From Wednesday's Daily—
The Hi Henry Minstrels last night filled the Parmele to a comfortable seating, capacity, and gave the good audience a very good show for their money. The show pleased as was evidenced by the continuous applause which greeted almost every number without exception, and the expressions heard after the performance was over. The Henry band gave a number of selections upon the street previous to the performance and furnished good music which attracted quite a crowd and won considerable applause.

Hi Henry himself did not appear and there was little disappointment as the comedians Bob McLaughlin and Pat Crawford did fully as well, if not better, than he. The first part was not up to the standard of big minstrels in the way of stage settings but the music both band and vocal was good and served to redeem any shortcomings in the way of scenic effects. The first part sparkled with good and catchy songs chief among which was "The Rose is the Flower for Me," "Drifting" sung by Wilber S. Westerman, "I didn't Ask, He Didn't Say, So I Don't Know" by George Foster, "I've Got To See the Minstrel Show" by Pat Crawford and several other melodies. Pat Crawford interspersed several local gags which set the audience wild with delight and there were a number of jokes which were new and sparkling while the usual amount of aged stuff sounded just as good as when father saw and heard Billy West fifty years ago. "The Rosary" given by the Manhattan Quartette took well and closed the part.

The numbers in the second part nearly all elicited much applause and were good as a general rule. The best or rather, the most popular were "Napanea" by Westerman and Lyon which was a pretty and attractive Indian song, well executed and with good scenic effects, Henry Neiser in slack wire performance and Baxter and Reid dancer. McLaughlin's monologue also took well.

Laid at Rest.

The funeral of the late Benj. F. Mason took place Tuesday from the county infirmary to Oak Hill cemetery where the remains were interred. The services were simple in their nature being conducted by Rev. J. H. Salsbury of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Salsbury made a short talk extolling the many good qualities of the deceased and paid a tribute to the meekness with which he bore the suffering of his diseases as exemplifying his christian character and noble life.

There were a number of friends and relatives of the deceased present at the services. Among those of his relatives who attended were his daughters Mrs. E. L. Court of Omaha, Miss Belle Mason, his brothers Jacob Mason and wife this city, D. J. Mason and wife and Joseph and Frederick Mason of Ashland and Mrs. Mary Halmes of Greenwood.

Hand Badly Mashed.

E. B. Peoples, who is employed in the freight car department of the Burlington, this afternoon sustained a bad injury by having his right hand badly mashed. Mr. Peoples, who was engaged with Frank Schuldice in removing bolts from a truck, was holding a chisel while Mr. Schuldice was striking it with a heavy sledge. Desiring to adjust the chisel better, Mr. Peoples removed it but put his hand over the bolt and Mr. Schuldice without being aware of the change brought the sledge down upon the exposed hand with terrific force, mashing the two small fingers in a terrible manner, the flesh being laid open along the fingers, as if cut with a knife. Despite the intense pain Mr. Peoples came up town and had the company surgeon give the injury the necessary attention. He will be off from his work for some time to come in consequence of the injury.

"THOMPSONIA" IS NOW OUT

The Private Car of D. E. Thompson
Leaves Shops This Morning.

"Thompsonia" the private car of D. E. Thompson was turned out of the shops this morning and attached to No. 19 for Lincoln, where it will be turned over to Mr. Thompson. Considerable work was done on the car during the time it was in the shops here, and is now practically new. The interior was thoroughly overhauled and revarnished and many minor repairs made. The car is said to be the finest ever in the shops here and the workmen who did the repairing are enthusiastic over it. It is finished throughout in the very finest of woods, is equipped with every modern convenience and, in fact, is little short of a veritable rolling palace. The car has been in use by Mr. Thompson in Mexico during his residence there as Ambassador, and it is a source of wonder to the residents of the southern republic who have been permitted to view it's many beauties. The car will be put to use by Mr. Thompson at once and he will use it in this country until his return to Mexico which will follow shortly.

Retires From Business

Robert Ballance who has been the proprietor of the Plattsmouth Steam Laundry for sometime past, has been compelled to dispose of it, his brother, George Ballance taking it over. Mr. Ballance's health was the occasion for his making the transfer, it having failed badly. He has been a sufferer for sometime from nervous prostration and only recently returned from Denver, Colorado, where he went for his health. He returned in no better shape than when he left but he bravely undertook to look after his business. He has, however, been compelled to give the work up and will remove to Denver permanently, his brother taking up the work until other arrangements can be made.

Now Shipping Alfalfa

Cass county is now in a position to export farm products with a vengeance. Yesterday Julius Pitz and Chas. Shopp completed loading a car of baled alfalfa which they had sold to J. E. McCarthy, at Enfield, Ill., and the car is now on its way to that point. The gentlemen have realized a good price for their alfalfa sales so far and have found the crop to be a very profitable one to them. As alfalfa commands a high price in Illinois, they had no difficulty in disposing of the car which they shipped yesterday, and it is probable they will make other sales in the future. As they are both sterling, upright business men, they can be depended upon to boost the high standard of Cass county crops by their shipments.
