

WHELAN GETS SMALL DAMAGES

Jury in District Court Allows Him Claim Against the City

From Wednesday's Daily.

After a long and hot session of the court, lasting several hours last evening, the damage case of Whelan vs. The City of Plattsmouth went to the jury last night. After being out for the greater portion of the night the jury finally reached a sealed verdict which was opened in court this morning. They awarded Whelan One Hundred and Fifty dollars as damages. He had sued for Seven Hundred. It is expected that the city will appeal the case.

This morning the personal damage case of Kephart vs. Perry et al. was taken up. This is a case where Kephart sues the Perrys for false imprisonment, he having been placed under arrest, charged with stealing a watch from them, at their instance. The jury which will hear the case is composed of Jos. Armstrong, Carl Day, F. H. Nicholls, John Creamer, Chas. Brann, Ray Pollard, W. C. Timblin, Frank Barnes, John Weirich, L. C. Giberson, John Gonzales, Luke Wiles. At the hour of going to press the case was being argued for submission.

Will Speak to Men.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last night at the Methodist church a good sized audience listened to the evangelist, Mr. Miller, from the "Guilt before God." He urged the fact, that outside of Jesus there is none free from condemnation, that all men have sinned, and "if we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us." By means of the word of God the awful effects of sin were pressed home and the tremendous need of a Savior was urged on all who were present.

Arrangements have been made for a special service on next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock for men only. All men are invited to be present. There will be, in addition to the singing of Mr. Miller, good music and every man will have an opportunity to join in the singing. The men of this city should begin now to arrange to attend.

In Police Court.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Lon Hackenberry whom Marshal Fitzgerald charged last Monday with being drunk and using profane language came into the presence of His Honor, Judge Archer, this morning and separated himself from Eight Dollars, having purchased that much of Judge Archer's Celebrated Brand of Justice. Lon did not make many bones of the matter and yielded up the coin with a readiness which surprised the Court. He probably learned that the way of the liquorer is a hard one. Aside from Lon's appearance before the bar, there was nothing doing in the Court today.

Meets With Sudden Death.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last night Mrs. Albert Hartly of Omaha, who has been visiting in this vicinity with L. B. Brown and family, was greatly shocked to receive a telegram from Omaha telling her of the sudden death of her husband at that point. Mr. Brown brought Mrs. Hartly to the city and at noon they left for Omaha on the fast mail. When Mrs. Hartly left her home some days ago her husband was in good health and she is wholly at a loss to understand the cause of his death unless it was from accident.

Baird Soon A Resident.

It is learned with great pleasure that Superintendent of Shops Baird, has arranged to lease the A. B. Taylor property on Marble street, and will shortly move his family to this city from Lincoln. The Taylor property is one of the finest places in the city and is excellently situated for this estimable family whose coming to the city means the addition of a very fine family to our population.

MEETING IS A BIG SUCCESS

Aug. Esser Holds Large German Speaking at Cedar Creek Monday Night.

Reports received from the democratic meeting at Cedar Creek on Monday night where Mr. Aug. Esser addressed the voters in German, show that he had a large and enthusiastic audience and made an excellent impression. Mr. Esser's speech was a strong and vigorous enunciation of democratic principles making his points clear to the audience which evinced great enthusiasm. After the meeting Mr. Esser visited with a great many of the audience and had a delightful time as well as doing some excellent campaign work in the shape of good democratic talk. He left behind him a host of friends and can be said to have done some very good work for the party.

HAD A SEVERE HEMORRHAGE

Wm. Slater Suffers Great Loss of Blood on Monday Last.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Last Monday Wm. Slater was seized with a sudden hemorrhage of the lungs which gave his friends great alarm. He had been engaged in unloading a car of lumber for F. M. Richey when the hemorrhage came upon him and he began throwing up blood in large quantities. Dr. Cook was hurriedly summoned and soon succeeded in stopping the flow of blood, after which he was conveyed to his home where he has been confined to the house until this afternoon when he was permitted to be out. While still very weak from loss of blood, he is much better than yesterday and with care will soon be himself again. His many friends are solicitous of his health and hope that he soon will be able to return to work without endangering his health.

Rare Treat for German Citizens.

What is promised to be one of the greatest treats accorded to our German-American citizens, will be the speech next Monday night, October 19, at 8 p. m., of Hon Philip J. Heise. Mr. Heise comes from the Democratic National Committee highly recommended as an orator of great ability and one who will expound the principles of the party in a clear, lucid and convincing manner. It will be well worth the time of every German voter to go out and hear this gentleman and learn from his lips just what the party stands for. Remember he speaks here on October 19, at 8 p. m.—Monday next.

Prof. Leffer Surprised.

Monday was the date of Prof. Leffer's birthday and the teachers of the school discovering the fact planned a neat little surprise for Mr. Leffer. Armed with a milk pail, a sack of sugar, a box of crackers, plenty of cheese and other things needed for the "fudge," the teachers took possession of the home. M. C. was engaged in the construction of a "bird chart," and while the chart did not suffer in the gentle (?) handling which Mr. Leffer received, yet it is understood that the surprise of the occasion was so great that he has not had time to think of the chart since. The early part of the evening was given over to a full concert in which Miss Bell and Miss Herrington and the graphophone, played a most important part. The candy making was a great success, and had it not been for an overabundance of pumpkin pie which attracted Guy Clements and Noel Tyson to the place, the evening would have passed without special accident. Mr. Leffer was the recipient of a volume of "Good Stories," the compliments of the "crowd." At an early hour the guests departed, wishing Mr. Leffer many more happy birthdays. The teachers present were: Miss Herrington, Miss Bell, Miss Camp, Miss Moon and Miss Bryan. Guy Clements and Noel Tyson were also present.—Elmwood Leader-Echo.

He Did Excellently.

The Journal has heard many complimentary words for City Attorney Ramsey on the able and masterful manner in which he defended the city in the Whelan damage suit tried Tuesday.

Pitted as he was against Mr. Dwyer, one of the ablest members of the bar, Billy's task was no easy one. And the fact that the claim of Mr. Whelan for $700.00 was reduced to $150.00 by the jury, a saving to the city of $450.00, is practically a victory for Billy, and an indication of his strength as a young lawyer.

Stepping High.

John Brady, the well known and popular democrat of this city, was stepping around Tuesday like a spring chicken and all because he had received word that he was a grandfather, his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Cox, at Greenfield, Ia., having received a visit from the stork, who left behind a fine baby boy. Mr. Brady is sure the boy will follow the example of his grandfather and be a democratic voter as soon as the law will let him.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. Has a Harrowing Experience.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Agent W. L. Pickett had a harrowing experience this morning trying to act as a chauffeur. Mr. Pickett took charge of T. E. Parmele's car, Mr. Parmele leaving it at the depot while he went to Omaha, and endeavored to take the car up town to a garage or some other seaport. He got into the machine and started the spifficator or something else—anyway he got speedy action, as the machine gave an aeroplane exhibition and darted from the depot over the fence at the Burlington park and up a convenient tree, spilling Mr. Pickett out upon the sod with a loud and resounding bang. The spectators were horrified and dashed panic-stricken to the unfortunate man's rescue shouting loudly "Pickett, are you dead," to which he managed to reply he was not. When the rescue party reached him, he rose to his feet, having miraculously escaped damage. The machine was later taken out of the tree branches where it had lodged by Mr. Parmele's chauffeur and taken to its garage. The tree was badly skinned up and Mr. Pickett will have some trouble explaining the difficulty to the railroad company. The general opinion seems to be that Mr. Pickett, being a republican, the machine revolted at being run by him, as it is a democratic machine.

FORMER CHIEF

MARY E. LATKY

The Suit Against Her May Fall Flat Through Default.

Justice Minor Bacon was not in his courtroom today when the case of Levi P. Munson against Mary E. Latky, former grand chief of honor of the D. of H., and the case may now fall flat through default. Mrs. Latky was sued for a hotel bill of $57. She claims that the bill was not bona fide because of an agreement made with the manager of the Royal hotel whereby he was to make certain concessions in the way of board and room at his hotel in return for her bringing to him the patronage of a portion of the delegates to the grand lodge. During the recent session of the grand lodge Mrs. Latky changed her hotel and then the storm broke.

Munson sued for the $57 and there were fifty-seven justly famous kinds of trouble started right away. Deputy Hunger would not serve the summons and Joe Mitchell finally invaded the sacred precincts of the hall of representatives at the state house with the legal paper. Mrs. Latky's friends said that the suit was begun purely for political effect and after she was defeated by Mrs. Cleaver, of Neligh, it is said that some of her erstwhile supporters came to her and said they were very sorry to vote against her but when they first heard of the suit that they did not understand how they could go back to their constituents and say that they had supported a woman who was charged with owing a board bill. Since Minor Bacon was not in his justice shop this afternoon the further assertion is made that now that the damage is done to Mrs. Latky's aspirations in the order that the case will be allowed to go.

Back of the suit it appears that two factions within the order are waging a merry scrap. A matter of $75,000 of funds is one of the bones of contention.—Lincoln Star.

Scripture Lesson.

Evangelist Miller says no one can read thoughtfully the following scriptures and remain indifferent: Psalms 14:1, Psalms 19:1-3, Amos 4:12, Heb. 9:27, Deut. 32:29, Prov. 14:12, John 14:6, John 1:11-12, Matt. 27:22, 1 John 5:12, Rom. 10:9-13, Heb. 2:3, Job 31:24, Jer. 13:21.

Matt. 22:12-13, Prov. 1:24-29, Mark 8:36, John 12:48.

I study my R. R. folder thereby show my wisdom; do I study my Bible?

Ernest Richter and wife who spent last week at Osmond, Neb., have returned and report the ex-Plattsmouth people there as getting along fine. They visited with Peter Spader, one of the finest citizens of that section, and of course had a fine time. Mr. Spader has been prospering and has had some fine crops. He sent his regards to the many friends he has in this vicinity by Mr. Richter. Mr. Richter thinks a great deal of that country and regrets that he did not invest there before the boom struck it.

Pays Them High Compliment.

E. C. Bishop of the state superintendent's office, the inspector of Normal Training, was here Wednesday visiting the public schools. He had a conference with the Normal trainers at one o'clock, after which he visited the various rooms. He expressed himself as greatly pleased with the progress of the work and highly complimented Prof. Gamble upon the fine showing the local schools are making. He pronounced the local class as the largest class he has visited this year. The local school authorities are quite justly gratified at the splendid words of praise they have received at his hands.

HE WILL IMPROVE PLANT

George Ballance Commences to Make Laundry Plant a Good One

The Journal is pleased to be able to note that the Plattsmouth Steam Laundry is now in process of being completely overhauled and refitted. Since Mr. George Ballance has taken hold of the plant he has found that it needs a thorough overhauling to enable it to do work which will suit the public and to this end he is taking steps that will insure patrons of receiving the very best service in commands. He has already been able to make a few of the improvements which are calculated to win popular approval and within a very short time there will be many more made. A vigorous effort will be made to secure a much larger patronage so as to keep the plant busy at all times, and enable Mr. Ballance to earn enough on his investment to pay him reasonable interest. It was not Mr. Ballance's desire to take over the plant but the state of health of his brother, Robert, made this almost a necessity, and now that he has taken it up he intends to make it a go and give the people the very best of service. That his efforts will be appreciated in the belief of the Journal which extends its best wishes.
