O. V. Virgin has been on the sick list this week.

Dr. B. F. Brendel was an Omaha visitor Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gopen attended the Bryan speaking Thursday evening.

Mrs. O. A. Davis and her brother, Dick Pittman, were Omaha visitors Monday.

N. Clarence and Colonel Snavely were in Plattsmouth Thursday to hear and see Bryan.

Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Perry drove up to the Bryan speaking last Thursday evening.

John Porter has been quite sick for the past few days, but is improving at this writing.

Mrs. H. C. Long returned home last Tuesday morning from her visit in Furnas county.

Albert Young spent a number of days last week in Knox county, visiting with his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Farris drove to Plattsmouth Thursday to attend the Bryan speaking.

Dave Amick and Col. Seybold shipped two cars of cattle to South Omaha Wednesday evening.

Miss Margaret Jamison visited home folks at Weeping Water Saturday, returning on the evening train.

Come out and hear a good sermon next Sunday, as Mr. Lamp of the Presbyterian church is a fine orator.

Chas. Stone is in Nebraska again and we are pleased that he can't stay away from his home state for we need him here.

Dr. and Mrs. Gilmore were among the number in attendance at the Bryan speaking in Plattsmouth last Thursday night.

Glen Boedecker and wife returned last Saturday from their Denver trip, and will soon be at home in their new residence.

Mrs. John Durman, who was taken seriously ill in Plattsmouth the evening of the Bryan meeting, is at home and doing nicely.

The teachers and pupils of the school will give a program Friday afternoon. Parents and friends of the children are invited to attend.

Those who have been on the sick list the past week are Alva Long, Edward Lewis and Mrs. Buel Virgin. None, however, very serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Beck and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis drove to Murray Thursday evening, taking the five train for the Bryan speaking at Plattsmouth.

Mrs. A. L. Baker was a passenger on the early train Wednesday for Omaha, where she will remain for a number of days for treatment for deafness.

Don't forget that Saturday evening, November 7th, is the date for the great lecturer, L. B. Wickersham, and if you miss this you will miss a great treat.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will serve dinner and supper election day. If you want something good to eat, come over.

Mrs. John Durman had quite a serious experience in Plattsmouth Thursday evening. She and John drove up to the Bryan speaking about seven o'clock, when Mrs. Durman became suddenly ill with appendicitis and was taken to the office of Dr. Cummings. It was thought for a while she would have to be taken to Omaha for an operation, but is much better now.

Uncle Ben Beckman is improving nicely.

Mrs. Bert Hansel is on the sick list.

Mr. Wm. Hendricks made a business trip to Omaha Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lev. Slagle are rejoicing over the arrival of a young boy at their home.

Will Ramsey was a visitor her Monday, going out into Mt. Pleasant precinct. We believe that Will deserves election.

The rain this week has caused a delay in corn husking. As the corn is very light this is thankfully received by the husker—it will prolong his job.

Mrs. Warren Wiley and sister, Isabelle Young, were passengers on the five Sunday evening train for Omaha, where they visited with friends and attended to some shopping Monday.

Pauline Oldham and Gertrude Long were passengers on Bryan's special from Murray to Plattsmouth. The girls wanted the honor of riding on the next President's special, so Pauline telephoned her father, who was aboard the special, asking if possible to stop and let them go to Plattsmouth. At Mr. Oldham's request Mr. Mullen stopped the train. The girls considered it a great honor.

Mrs. Glen Perry entertained a number of her friends Thursday afternoon, and very much to the enjoyment of those present. At five o'clock refreshments were served in two courses. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Perry's hospitality were Mesdames Jas. Walker, Geo. Gilmore, Oscar Gopen, Chas. Perry, Chas. Spencer, Cole, Will Jeans, Harve Beckner, O. A. Davis, Will Sporer; Messrs Gertrude Long, Margie Walker, Pauline Oldham and Verna Cole.

In Honor Miss Ella Virgin.

A birthday party was given in honor of Miss Ella Virgin, at the home of Mr. Buel Virgin, on Saturday evening, October 17, 1908, and to say that those present enjoyed a good time, but half expresses it. The gathering of the young people in honor of Miss Ella was a complete surprise to the estimable young lady. The evening passed off pleasantly, and at the proper hour luncheon was served.

Those present to enjoy the pleasant event were: Misses Pauline Oldham, Margaret Jameson, Teresa Stokes, Grace Graves, Villa Gopin, Lelia Walrley, May Lewis, Lucille Rice, Edith Dill, Isabella Young, Louise Virgin, Ella Virgin; Dr. J. F. Brendel, Prof. Erickson, Arthur Copenhaver, Homer Schlichtemeier, Warner Lewis, Albert Beckner, Tim Tilson, Geo. Wiley, Guy Stokes, Lloyd Lewis, Rex Young, Harry Baxter, J. and W. Minier, Philip Kiel, wife and son, Clarence and daughter, Violet, O. V. Virgin, wife and son, Buel, and Edward Lewis and wife.

Where Bullets Flew.

David Parker of Fayette, N. Y., a veteran of the civil war, who lost a foot at Gettysburg, says: "The road Electric Bitters have done is worth more than five hundred dollars to me. I spent much money doctoring for a bad case of stomach trouble, to little purpose. I then tried Electric Bitters, and they cured me. I now take them as a tonic, and they keep me strong and well." See at F. G. Fricke & Co's, drug store.

Another Pioneer Dead.

Mr. T. D. Thacker, one of the early pioneers of the state, passed away at his home near the old town of Cleveland Wednesday night, after a short illness. Mr. Thacker came to this state in the early sixties and located on a piece of land on Salt Creek. This land is now a part of Lincoln. He was on the ground when David Butler came with other officials to look over the country for a site for the state capitol. They had been imbibing, and the buffoonery and songs were far below the dignity of the state officials. Mr. Thacker bought the present home in 1870, where he has lived ever since. He leaves a large family, all of whom are married and doing well. Uncle Dabner has a lot of friends who will miss him.

We still have plenty of fruit jars, fruit jar caps and rings.

LETTER.

To Mr. C. Heisel, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Dear Sir: A big mill-owner, Spartansburg, S. C. wanted 5,000 gallons of paint, and bought by price; paid 5 cents less than ours; got a "lead-and-zinc" paint; but the lead was sulphate of lead not carbonate. Sulphate costs about half; and covers about half.

That paint was adulterated about six times as much as the 5 cents paid for. He "saved" 5 cents; and it cost him 30. Oh no; it cost him more than that; we forgot the labor. Can't work it out exactly; don't know how long it'll wear.

Short-measure besides; that alone was twice as much as his "saving" 5 cents.

It was thin, too; some loss there; don't know how much.

There was too much dryer in it. The maker made something on that; he didn't.

Taking it altogether, he didn't make much by that 5 cents.

Go by the name; and the name is Devoe lead-and-zinc.

Yours truly
F. W. Devoe & Co.

Chicken Supper a Success.

From Wednesday's Daily.—The chicken supper given last night at the Presbyterian church by the ladies, was a grand success. There was a large attendance and the ladies netted quite a tidy sum from the results. The supper was a very fine one and everyone who patronized it found it to be all that could be asked, and a veritable feast for the money. The many patrons kept the supper going to a late hour which was just what everyone was delighted to have occur.
