CONSUL GENERAL A SUICIDE

S. C. McFARLAND KILLS SELF ON TRAIN IN GERMANY. Was American Representative for European District—Born and Raised in Iowa. Berlin, Oct. 26.—Silas C. McFarland of Iowa, consul-general-at-large for the European district, shot himself on a railroad train Saturday coming from Hamburg to Berlin. He died almost immediately. The American vice-consul general, Frederick W. Cauldwell, and Deputy Consul General Frederik von Versen arranged Sunday at Ludwigsplatz for the removal of the body. It will be taken to Hamburg and cremated in accordance with a request made by Mr. McFarland in a letter which he left for his wife, and which also was full of loving messages. Mr. McFarland, just before his death, also wrote letters to his daughter and to the consul general at Berlin, Alexander M. Thacker, as well as a letter to the public, in which he said that he was constrained to take his life by reason of his ill health and because he could no longer perform the duties of his position.

PERISH IN THE BLIZZARD. Sheepherder in Saskatchewan Dies—Trains Reach Medicine Hat. Medicine Hat, Sask., Oct. 26.—The first trains since Monday reached Medicine Hat from the east Saturday evening. Riders got in from the district south stretching to the United States border, with fearful tales of hardship created by the storm. William Mitchell, after riding since Wednesday, reached the city from his ranch 60 miles south of here and reported the second fatality as a result of the recent storm. Donald Cameron, shepherd, with two others were caught in the storm. They were forced to leave their sheep to perish and seek safety themselves. Cameron, however, became exhausted and died. After being 60 hours without sleep or nourishment, the other two reached a ranch in safety. It is feared that many other herders have perished. A band of 3,000 sheep were driven by the storm into many islands lake and only 300 were saved.

ARRESTED ON SWINDLE CHARGE.

W. H. Hopkins Accused of Using the Mails to Defraud. Seattle, Wash., Oct. 26.—Wallace H. Hopkins has been arrested here at the instance of post-office inspectors on the charge of using the mails in a scheme to defraud. Hopkins, it is charged, engaged in business under the name of the Hopkins Company, of 181 La Salle street, Chicago, and claiming to be fiscal agent for the Consolidated Insurance Company, announced that he represented a merger of mines in Wisconsin and Missouri. The prospectus and other printed matter which he is charged with sending through the mails, inviting the purchase of stock, gave the capital stock of the company at $20,000,000 and for one dollar offered to send two shares of stock, one each of common and preferred, on which Hopkins guaranteed to pay, it is claimed, a minimum of 13 per cent interest per annum.

American Singer Makes Big Hit.

Berlin, Oct. 26.—Miss Janet Spentz, contralto of New York, sang at a charity concert with Miss Geraldine Farrar at the Royal theater here Sunday, and made a remarkable impression. Crown Prince Frederick William and the crown princess asked that she be brought to their box and, after congratulating her, said that she ought to be in opera, as they had heard few such voices.
