Rainey Does Well.

From Saturday's Daily—
Officer Ben Rainey last night covered himself with glory by the capture of the four men who had burglarized the car containing the goods of Supt. Baird of the Burlington shops. The matter had been under investigation by the Burlington authorities and yesterday afternoon Agent Pickett noticed four men camping in a hollow near the big bridge. He reported the matter to Marshal Fitzgerald and there was no action taken at the time. Later Fitzgerald and Mr. Pickett searched the cars of an Italian extra gang in the yards here, but their work was futile, save that they found that the timekeeper of the gang had purchased an overcoat from some men in the earlier part of the day. This proved to be the clue and the officers made a descent upon the camp of the four men seen by Agent Pickett. In company with Mr. Pickett, Marshal Fitzgerald and Officer Rainey went up to the camp and Rainey covered the men with his gun while he placed them under arrest. A search revealed the missing goods and the men were placed in jail. It was a bold and daring move by Officer Rainey and entitles him to much praise. He was taking desperate chances with such men as they are undoubtedly yeggmen of the worst type.

Traveling Mem For Bryan.

J. J. Moriarity, president of the Illinois Division, T. P. A. was a caller at democratic head quarters. He informed E. O. Wood of the Commercial Travelers' League, that a big majority of commercial traveling men are for Bryan and Kern this year. He said:

"In 1896 fully 90 per cent of the traveling men were against Mr. Bryan. I have traveled in the east and middle west recently, and it is my opinion that fully 75 per cent of the traveling men will vote for Mr. Bryan this year. This is a most remarkable change in the attitude of one class of voters, but it is typical of the general drift towards democracy, which convinces me that Judge Taft will be defeated.

"Twenty thousand traveling men who opposed Mr. Bryan in 1896 are now out of jobs. They have lived to see Mr. Bryan's prediction come true. They have lost their positions as a result of the growth and development of trusts and monopolies. The destruction of competition in the commercial world has hit our organization a severe blow. That is one of the strong reasons why so many traveling men will vote for Bryan this year for the first time."

A VERY PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT

The P. E. O. Tender Public School Teachers a Reception.

From Saturday's Daily—

A very large crowd was present last evening at the entertainment given by the P. E. O. society at the home of the Misses Gering on North Sixth street. For the occasion there had been elaborate preparations made, many flowers being in evidence on every hand. There was an elegant program had under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Wescott.

The opening number, a splendid piano solo by Miss Ella Margaret Dovey was rendered with all the grace and characteristic ability which has made the young lady so well liked in this city. Mrs. Edna Marshall Eaton gave "Good Bye Summer," a fine solo, which was heartily enjoyed and thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience.

Ben Windham read an humorous selection covering the experiences of a man at a foot ball game which elicited much applause and laughter, but it remained for Prof. H. S. Austin to capture the audience with "Bandolero." Mr. Austin had proposed to surprise the guests and he certainly succeeded. He suddenly appeared in the room in the midst of the prelude to the music clad in a full Spanish costume, the costume of the bandit and after stirring words of the Spanish air, he proceeded to execute a hold-up of the most daring character, Mr. E. H. Wescott being covered with a revolver and compelled to stand and deliver. It was a daring and bold conception and caused the audience to gasp with astonishment for a few moments. It is needless to say that Mr. Austin was heartily applauded and encored. Miss Kittie Cummins who accompanied Mr. Austin on the piano also came in for her share of the applause as her work was executed without a flaw.

The song cycle "Arcadie" by Nevin was superbly executed, the reading parts being taken by Miss Marie Douglas so well and favorably known in the city as one of the best dramatic readers in the state while Prof. Brooks took the baritone musical part. The finest musical selection of the evening was that of the ladies quartette consisting of Misses Howard and Bates and Mesdames H. E. Wescott and Morgan. They were aptly described by the auditors as splendid.

After the program had been finished there was an elegant luncheon served. The reception was given in honor of the teachers of the public schools who were all present with the exception of three detained by unavoidable causes. The occasion was really one of the most delightful in the history of the city.

Senior Class Entertains.

From Saturday's Daily—

One of the most unique parties ever given in the city was that given last night by the Senior class of the high school. There was a very large attendance, the entire class being present and a number of teachers from abroad lending their presence to the occasion. The class had secured the vacant house on Ninth street, formerly occupied by J. L. Barton for the scene of the festivities and had fitted it up for a genuine good time.

The party typified things as they would appear one hundred years hence and there were many very startling things present, including witches, ghosts, and fortune tellers. The class saw a lot of the future that didn't strike them as so pleasant as it might be. Taken all through the party was a grand success. The attendance was very large as stated above and everyone had a most delightful time. For the information of the public it may be stated there was a scene of real fire and some kind of imaginary imps which did a lot.

A sumptuous luncheon was served which all heartily enjoyed, the star feature of the feast being a great fortune cake which all participated in and which brought nothing but good fortune to the partakers.

Those who were present included the following members of the class: Misses Helen Jess, Ethelyn Bentley, Ida Johnson, Ellen Pollock, Muriel Mullis, Alice Root, Nannie Monroe, Grace Dalton, Mina Thierolf, Anna Kopia, Marie Hiber, Nettie Jirousek, Helen Kline, Ethel Leyda, Marie Bookmeyer, Jennie Johnson, Josephine Hall, Clara Wohlfarth, Mabel Kiser, Marie Fitzgerald, Will Shopp, Carl Smith, Francis Whelan, John Heinrich, Clarence Staats, Clarence Beal. The post graduates who attended were Misses Clara Weyrich, Charlotte Fetzer, and Earl Hassler. The teachers who graced the occasion with their attendance were Misses Coon, Nichols, Mathews, Howard, Wirt, of Council Bluffs, Ia., and Darling of Omaha. Supt. Gamble and wife and Prof. Brooks were also in attendance upon what everyone concedes to be the finest and most unique entertainment of the kind ever given in the city.

Look Up Your Tax Receipts

See how your taxes have soared higher and higher under republican rule. The following is taken from the books of the treasurer of Cass county showing amounts levied each year:

YEAR	AMOUNT
1898	$29,741.22
1899	34,177.17
1890	32,364.13
1901	34,463.24
1902	24,864.50
1903	36,729.95
1804	43,334.33
1905	50,598.01
1906	51,091.61
1907	52,306.61

Since 1902, your taxes for state purposes have actually doubled in value. Has your property double in value?

Think this over and see if under republican rule our state has been run economically. A vote for Shallenberger and the entire democratic ticket will help cure this abuse.

Look Up Your Tax Receipts

See how the railroad taxes have not soared higher and higher. These figures are taken from the treasurer's books and are the taxes paid by the Missouri Pacific Railroad for state and county purposes:

YEAR	AMOUNT
1898	$4,945.00
1899	5,377.69
1900	5,532.11
1901	5,397.39
1902	4,768.24
1903	5,132.28
1904	6,131.80
1905	5,785.65
1906	5,592.79
1907	5,014.23

This shows a net increase of taxes paid by the Missouri Pacific Railroad for state and county purposes of $69.23 while the farmers have paid an increase of $22,565.39 for the same period. Is this fair?

The Missouri Pacific Railroad was taken for example because it has more mileage in Cass county than any other railroad.
