A complaint was filed this morning before Justice Archer by County Attorney Rawls charging William Riley, Thos. Owens, Michael Neeson and William Murphy with breaking and entering a freight car with the intent to steal and did steal certain personal property of the value of Forty Dollars, the property of one William Baird. These are the four men arrested Friday by Officers Fitzgerald and Rainey on account of the robbery of the car containing the goods of Supt. of Shops Baird. The men are in the county jail and it is unlikely that they can get a preliminary hearing before sometime next week owing to the immense amount of work in the County Attorney's office. They are four desperate men and are apparently of the same type as those who yesterday did terrible deed at Weeping Water. They will doubtless make a strong fight for liberty but the officers have a strong case against them.

Judge M. Archer yesterday received notice from the pension department at Washington that Mrs. Peter Hanrahan of this city had received a pension of twelve dollars per month dating from the 27th day of May last. This will be good news for the ladies' many friends to hear as she was in need of it.

Judge Archer this morning had two men before him charged with having imbibed too freely of the cup that cheers as well as intoxicates. Lincoln Petty in consequence of his periodical appearances before the court drew a large prize package, the judge plastering him Ten Dollars and costs or a total of Fourteen Dollars which was slightly more than Lincoln had with him. He produced Seven Dollars which he paid on account leaving Seven more to be forthcoming after election day or on the 5th inst. Frank Haggerty was in a sick condition and was willing to hit the high places from the city if permitted, so the court fined him One dollar and costs and suspended the fine pending his speedy departure from the city. Frank made the departure forthwith.

Two cases were filed today in the office of District Clerk Robertson. The first was that of William C. Carraher vs. Lillian Carraher and is a divorce suit upon the ground of desertion. Carraher also asks for the custody of the child of the couple. The other case is that of Wendt vs. Leary et al and is an appeal case from Justice Archer's court. It is an action upon a promissory note.

Misses Louisa Meisinger and Anna Heren who have been visiting with relatives and friends in this vicinity for the past nine weeks, departed for their home at Pekin, Ill., this morning. There were a number of friends present at the depot to see them depart. The young ladies left with a great deal of regret and expressed themselves as highly pleased with their very enjoyable visit and the many good times shown them by their good friends. They go back with the recollection of one of the very finest times they ever enjoyed and hope to return in the future for another visit.

Louis Jiran yesterday was much pleased to find that the stork had thought of him and his estimable wife, and left with them a fine bouncing baby girl. This is the first born in Mr. Jiran's family and he is a justly proud father. His many friends were able to tell just the moment they saw him that there had been something doing for he had the happiest possible look upon his face and the step that goes with the biggest event in life. Both Mrs. Jiran and the girl are going finely.

A Card of Thanks.

To the many kind friends and neighbors whose sympathies and many kindnesses were given us during the recent bereavement of our little son, we desire to extend our heartfelt thanks.
Mr. and Mrs. John Murray.

VETERAN ENGINEER IN TOWN

J. S. McCoy Stops Off His Run For a Few Hours With Friends.

J. S. McCoy, one of the veteran Burlington engineers, was in the city this morning for a few hours, having come in to make a flying visit with some of his old time friends. Mr. McCoy is one of the old men in the Burlington service having been running a train for that company for the past thirty years and during the last twelve years he has had the run through this city on Nos. 7 and 4. For many years Mr. McCoy lived here when the division point was located here and in conversation with a Journal reporter, he stated that he still liked Plattsmouth better than any place which he had ever lived in. He says that should he ever retire from the road it is his intention to return to this city where his parents and children sleep in the cemetery. Joe, as all the old timers affectionately call him, is one of the best men in the Burlington service and everyone who met him today hastened to grasp his hand and bid him a hearty welcome to the city. Mr. McCoy will here take occasion to put in a few good, hard licks for W. C. Cowgill, the democratic candidate for railroad commissioner, although he is not a democrat himself. Mr. McCoy has long been known as a republican of republicans, but this year he thinks a change advisable. He returned to Lincoln on the mail train at noon.

County Court a Busy Place.

From Monday's Daily—
In county court today Rev. J. H. Salsbury was appointed administrator of the estate of Delia H. Standley, deceased. The administration is made so that an additional homestead right of the deceased might be sold and a sum realized for the benefit of the heirs.
Judge Beeson also issued a license to wed to Geo. P. Foreman, aged 21, and Miss Azella Bennett, aged 18, both of Alvo, Neb. They are both well known and popular young people of Greenwood precinct and the Journal in common with their many friends bespeaks them a long and happy wedded life.

In the case of the Automatic Button Co. vs. Walker, Attorney D. O. Dwyer for the defendant has filed an answer and counterclaim for One Hundred dollars alleged damages for failure of the plaintiff to furnish buttons as they were contracted for.

Work on the Burlington Subway

Work on the new subway under the Burlington tracks is progressing now with considerable rapidity. The excavation is now fairly way under the tracks and things are commencing to appear real business like. The dirt which is being removed by wheel barrow at present, is being piled over the bank east of the depot, making an embankment along the present roadway leading to the bottom. There is quite a large force engaged upon the work and this force will be increased as soon as the work of concreting is commenced. The excavation will be done by teams just as soon as it is low enough to permit driving through the opening. The dirt will then be hauled out into the river bottom and dumped upon the new road which will be built out into the bar. As soon as the work of excavation is completed the company will commence the extension of their platform to the south and up to the edge of the subway which in itself will be a big improvement. The job when completed will be one of the best improvements ever made in the city.

Funeral of Gus. Johnson.

From Thursday's Daily—
The funeral of the late Gus Johnson who was asphyxiated last Friday night at the Aetna Hotel in Omaha was held yesterday afternoon at Weeping Water, the services being conducted at the home of his parents. There was a large attendance of sorrowing friends to pay their tribute of respect to the departed. Johnson was a man twenty-nine years of age and a single man. He is survived by his parents and three brothers, Oscar Elmer and Walford, all living at Weeping Water.

No School Rest of Week.

From Tuesday's Daily—
The public schools of this city will close this afternoon for the balance of the week in order to give the teachers in the various departments an opportunity to attend the State Teachers' Association, which meets in Lincoln tomorrow. The law compels all teachers to attend the meetings of the association, and this is the simple reason why all departments will be closed. Every teacher in the city including the superintendent and principal, will attend.

F. E. TOMS IN THE TOILS.

Preacher Arrested For Bigamy at Larned, Kansas.

We have no idea that the name of Rev. F. E. Toms, who at one time was a pastor in charge of the M. E. church at this place has been forgotten—he is well known; it will be remembered that he resigned from this charge to go to Graf and enter the mercantile business, and after a very short career was closed out by his creditors, but not until he had dissipated his father-in-law's fortune.

From Graf he went some place out west and in a short time turned up as a Baptist preacher, and for a year or two he was in evangelistic work in different parts of the country.

The next we hear of him he is at Larned and under arrest for the charge enumerated above. It seems that he left his first wife, and he claims he procured a divorce in Colorado, and that he later married a widow many years older than himself, but with money. The next we hear from the Rev. (?) gentleman he will probably be doing evangelistic work in the Kansas penitentiary. There is one good thing about this item of news—it will surprise no one—they expected it. He was a very "foxy" gentleman and was engaged to no less than a dozen girls before he came to this place.—Nehawka Register.

Advertised Letters.

The following letters were remaining in the Plattsmouth postoffice, uncalled for on November 2nd, 1908: Miss Bals, Mrs. Grace Hodges, Miss Anna Night, Miss Mamie Speck, Mesley J. Hill, Mat Horn, P. J. Ohlinger, John Richardson. If not called for in a reasonable length of time the same will be sent to the Dead Letter Office at Washington.
