Notice of Hearing.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF CASS COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

In the matter of the Guardianship of Maggie Larsen, Incompetent.

To Louis Larsen, and all persons interested or concerned.

You are hereby notified, that the undersigned, D. O. Dwyer, has been appointed special commissioner to investigate and report the status and condition of the estate of Maggie Larsen, Incompetent, for whom you have been acting as guardian.

You are further notified that said undersigned has filed his report in said court, and petitioned therein for your removal as such guardian. Also that there be stricken from your report of February 2, 1904, and dissolved the lien of $200.00, which was asked to be allowed for your services, for the reason that your services had been of no value to the estate of said incompetent.

It is further charged in said petition that rents from the property of said Maggie Larsen, Incompetent, have accumulated since your last report in excess of the sum of $1,200.00, which have been in no way accounted for. That said petition suggests the appointment of guardian for said incompetent.

Upon presentation of said petition and report to said court, an order was entered setting the same for hearing on the 12th day of December, 1908, at the hour of ten o'clock, a. m., of said day, at the county court room in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, at which time you shall present a complete report of your acts and doings as guardian of said estate, and also at said time you may appear and contest the petition and report filed as aforesaid, and show cause, if any you have, why said item of $200 should not be dissolved and stricken from your last report of date aforesaid.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1908.

11-19-08. D. O. DWYER, Petitioner.

Witty to the Last.

Isaac O'Harna, once penalen commissioner in Boston, appointed by President Franklin Pierce, was known for his terse and cutting sayings. It was told of him that he promised to subscribe for the erection of a Baptist church on condition that they should "baptize 'em in hot water." It is of Mr. O'Harna the story is told that when on his deathbed, or when he thought he was dying, and the doctor had pronounced his feet warm and said that no one had ever died with warm feet, the old gentleman inquired in a whisper whether the doctor had forgotten the case of John Rogers.
