Gas Cars Cement Constructison Throughout. Dimensen 96 By 136.
PIONEER IMPLEMENT CO.,
COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA.

The growth of the automobile industry is well marked by the illustration above and shows the new Automobile Warehouse of the Pioneer Implement Company at Council Bluffs, the Western distributing agency of the famous JACKSON car.

This construction is of cement. Its walls and tremendous floor is really one solid cement block. Its dimensions are 96x136. Its interior is beautifully lighted by double rows of windows the entire length of the second roof.

The remarkable sale of JACKSON cars is undoubtedly based on their powerful engine equipments, giving JACKSONS a hill climbing capacity not possessed by other automobiles.

WALTER THOMAS, of Plattsmouth will have charge of the JACKSON'S interests in Cass County and will show a handsome specimen of these excellent cars at any time or will accompany you to Council Bluffs during the corn show, where you can see the most complete line of automobiles in the west.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

Nehawka.
 Wm. R. Davis sold 80 acres of his farm to Edwin Schomaker for the consideration of $8,000.
 Misses Ross and Gilmont will eat turkey and spend the holiday season in Missouri and Mynard respectively. Both have put in an order for father to kill the biggest turkey on the farm.
 Gus Ruders and Louis Edlers, two prosperous young farmers from near Avoca, were visiting Nick Opp Saturday, and while here paid this office a pleasant call and also joined the Register family.
 From Norman DelesDernier we learn that his sister, Mrs. Ella Elliot, of Ferndale, Wash., is afflicted with paralysis her right side being afflicted. Her friends here will be pained to hear of her affliction and hope she will soon recover.
 Wm. Newman came in from Farnam, Neb., Tuesday morning to eat Christmas dinner with Uncle Billy Chapman and the rest of the relatives. William is looking well and doing well and his many friends are glad to see him but it proved to be a sad visit.
 Joseph Malcom informs us that he has made arrangements to take charge of a mill near Talmage. It is a water power plant thoroughly up-to-date, and Joseph says it is a splendid layout, with house and everything necessary. Joe can make the flour if they will give him the necessary machinery, and we anticipate they will do a good business.
 Henry DeClus and family went to Nebraska City last Friday and Henry had no sooner hit the platform than a runner for a hotel pushed him off the platform, with the remark that farmers had no business getting in their way. It is needless to say that Henry "showed him where to get off," and the next time he will not be so fresh.
Louisville.
 Ralph Ellis has secured the position as helper at the Missouri Pacific depot. He says he is glad to get back to Louisville.
 C. M. Seybert has purchased the Charles Bryan property just north of the M. E. church and expects to move to town by the 1st of February.
 The stripping gang at the Murphy quarry was compelled to abandon work with excavator Monday on account of the frost. They were arranging to install a steam shovel and the work will be resumed in a few days.
 That Louisville is continually on the increase in all lines is evidenced in no better way than the changing of the local postoffice from fourth to third class. This in itself is good news to Postmaster Deisey, as it makes this a salaried office, paying $1,000 per year besides an allowance for rent, fuel and lights.
 Last Saturday while everything was working fine and the workmen were trying to make a record in driving piling for the new Platte river wagon bridge the engine blew up, but fortunately no one was injured. Another and larger engine was secured Tuesday and work has been resumed with but little loss of time.

 On Wednesday, December 23, 1908, at 12:30 o'clock, Mr. Nicholas Schaffer and Miss Eunice Barker entered into marriage at the home of the bride's parents, five miles southeast of Louisville, Rev. George M. Jones performing the ceremony. The groom is a well known and prosperous young farmer of this part of Cass county, and the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Barker, old and highly respected citizens of Cass county. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding repast was served to the large number of relatives and friends present.

ACCIDENT IS FATAL

Boy Looks Down Barrel of Loaded Revolver and Is Shot
 From Wednesday's Daily.
 A distressing accident took place Monday afternoon near Manley by which Johnny Pritchard, the eleven-year-old son of John Pritchard, section foreman of the Missouri Pacific Railway, at Weeping Water, lost his life. Pritchard with two boy companions, was out hunting, the party being armed with shot guns and Pritchard carrying in addition a 32-calibre revolver. While going through a field two miles south of Manley, young Pritchard took out his revolver and tried to fire it off. It didn't work well and he undertook to see what the matter was with it, looking down the barrel. While he was gazing into it the gun was discharged and the bullet entered Pritchard's right eye killing him instantly. Pritchard's companions immediately gave the alarm, and the body was hurriedly taken to his parents in Weeping Water. The shock of the death was a severe one upon Manley, young Pritchard took out is reported as prostrated. Mrs. J. M. Hall of this city, an old neighbor of the family, departed for Weeping Water this morning to attend the funeral.

WEDDING AT ALVO

Mr. Orville D. Quillhorst and Miss Florence Alfa Rouse Join Hearts and Hands in Marriage.
 Last Tuesday evening at the Methodist church at Alvo, occurred a very pretty wedding when Elder J. Y. Heckler of the Dunker church, united in marriage Orville D. Quillhorst and Miss Florence Alfa Rouse. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends as the contracting parties as well as their families are well known and very popular in that vicinity.
 Immediately following the ceremony a reception was tendered the happy couple at the home of the bride's parents, there being many friends and neighbors calling to pay their respects to this young couple who start in life under so auspicious circumstances. There were many very handsome and costly presents tendered to start the young folks on their way. One delightful feature of the evening was a dainty three-course luncheon which followed the reception.
 The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rouse, old and highly respected citizens of the county, a young woman of refinement and accomplishments. She is a graduate of the Elmwood high schools and the Wesleyan College at Lincoln and for several years taught school in the county with signal success being considered an educator of marked ability. She enjoys the acquaintance of a large circle of friends who all join in congratulating her.
 The groom is well known and popular in the vicinity of Elmwood and Alvo, and bears a most excellent reputation as a man of sterling worth and much ability. He is a young farmer with all the energetic characteristics which go to make the successful man. Like his charming wife, he possesses a world of friends who join in congratulations.
 The young couple will make their residence upon the farm of the groom near Alvo where they will soon be at home to their friends.
