

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest, From Monday Evening's Daily Journal

Valley White of Omaha was a visitor for Christmas and the holidays in the city with relatives.

Lyman Peck of Omaha spent Sunday in the city, the guest of County Attorney-elect W. C. Ramsey.

Henry Donat was an early morning passenger for Omaha going up to spend the day.

Paul Morgan departed this morning on the early train for Lincoln to resume his studies at the State University.

Mrs. Ida Campbell was a visitor today in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the early train this morning.

W. C. Irwin is attending to business matters in Omaha today being a passenger for that city on the early train this morning.

Judge J. L. Root and wife were Lincoln passengers this morning after spending Christmas and Sunday in the city with relatives.

Mrs. Wm. Plager was a passenger this morning on the early train for Omaha where she will spend the day visiting with relatives and friends.

Fred W. Lehuff came down Sunday morning from Omaha for a visit with his mother and sister during the day.

V. Zacker of M. Fanger's big store, spent Sunday in Omaha with relatives, returning to this city this morning.

O. P. Monroe was a visitor in the metropolis this morning going up on the early train to look after some business matters.

Will T. Adams was a business visitor today at South Omaha going up on the early train to that city to visit the cattle market.

John Hockstrasser was a passenger this morning on the early train for Omaha where he had business matters to look after.

N. Hardy of the Masonic home, is spending the day in Omaha, being a passenger for that city on the early train this morning.

Matthew Gering was a passenger on the early train this morning for Lincoln where he has professional business to attend to.

France Ballance after spending Christmas and several other days in the city, returned this morning to his duties at Glenwood.

Miss Stanfield Jones was a passenger this morning on the early train for Omaha where she will spend the day visiting with friends.

B. F. Eickelberger and father-in-law S. B. Haldeman of Romana, Kas., were passengers this morning for Tabor, Ia., after spending Sunday in this city.

R. E. Mayfield and Ralph Lorenzen were passengers this morning on the early train for Omaha where they will spend the day looking after some business affairs and seeing the sights of the city.

Mrs. Plotz of Lexington, Neb., who has been spending Christmas and Sunday in this city with her folks, returned to her home this morning. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by Misses Anna and Clara Wohlfarth who will spend the day in that city.

Guests with the family of F. G. Fricke for Christmas included Miss Irene Jaynes and Messrs. Lynn Lloyd and Robt. Switzer all of Omaha. Miss Jaynes and Mr. Lloyd returned to their homes Saturday while Mr. Switzer remained for a Sunday visit.

Livingston Richey came up from Union Saturday evening to participate in a basket ball game which was to have been played between a Lincoln team and the Turners but which was cancelled. He returned to Union this morning to visit several days longer with his mother who is attending her mother Mrs. Grimes.

One of the numerous family reunions and Christmas celebrations which was unavoidably crowded out of the Saturday issue of the Journal was that at the home of Ed Brantner northwest of the city. Mr. and Mrs. Brantner entertained County Judge Beeson and family and W. J. Brantner with a sumptuous Christmas feast and a general fine time for the day.

George Wheeler, wife and children came in Thursday to spend Christmas with his brother Frank Wheeler and family, the two Mrs. Wheelers going to Omaha yesterday where Mrs. Geo. Wheeler remained to visit with relatives being joined there today by her husband, from which point they will return to their home at Norfolk. Mrs. Frank Wheeler returned to this city last evening.

Grosvenor Dovey returned last evening from Omaha where he spent Sunday visiting friends.

Mrs. A. L. Tidd was an Omaha passenger this morning going up on the early train to spend the day.

B. A. McElwain is spending the afternoon in Omaha having been a passenger for that city on the fast mail at noon.

Mrs. M. Howland was a passenger this noon on the mail train for Omaha where she had some business matters to look after.

Charles Gratche, wife and family were passengers this noon on the mail train for Omaha where they will visit with friends.

Mrs. P. F. Coos and daughter Hulda were passengers this noon on the mail train for Omaha where they will spend the day visiting friends.

Mrs. A. C. Godwin of Omaha who spent several days in the city visiting with relatives and friends returned to her home this noon on the mail train.

Mrs. Katie Smith of Omaha was in the city today making a visit to the office of the grand recorder of the Degree of Honor, returning to her home on the mail train.

Herman Holshuh came in this noon on the mail train for a visit of several days at Thurman, Ia., with Charles A. Miller. Herman was also a visitor to Rich, Ia., wherever that is.

Mrs. K. N. Nelson and two children of Lincoln who have been spending Christmas in the city the guests of her father Fred Ohm and family returned to their home this noon on the mail train.

C. Bengen, the well known grain man, accompanied by his daughter Maggie, came in this morning and were passengers on the mail train for Omaha where they will spend the afternoon.

Ed. Polin was a passenger this morning for South Omaha on the early Burlington train, having taken a position in the latter city several days since and severed his connection with the Omaha place where he had been working.

Mrs. James Kinkaid and son Wilbur of Council Bluffs, Ia., who have been in the city for several days spending the Christmas season with Mrs. Kinkaid and family departed on the mail train at noon for their home.

Mrs. E. J. Frey and three children of Red Oak, Ia., came in Thursday to spend the holidays with Mrs. L. B. Egenberger and family. Mrs. Frey will return to Red Oak in a short time, while the children will put in the vacation here.

Conrad Guthman of Rock Springs, Wyo., came in to spend Christmas with his sister, Mrs. Gus Olson, and while here he called and renewed his mother's subscription to the Daily Journal. He reports his mother enjoying her usual health, except from an injury she received from a fall some time since.

Col. Harry Adair expects to have every business man of Plattsmouth call on him at his restaurant between Main and Vine streets on Fourth street. He is here for the purpose of boosting the city. Business men do not fail to attend to this. Harry is a gentleman and will not harm you.

C. Herbert and wife were passengers for Omaha this noon on the mail train where Mrs. Herbert goes for treatment at St. Joseph hospital. Mrs. Herbert has been a patient at this hospital for some time past but had recovered sufficiently to come to her home for Christmas and was returning today to resume treatment.

S. G. Stone and wife were passengers for Omaha on the mail train where Mr. Stone has been undergoing treatment at a hospital for several weeks past and from which he was excused to permit his return to his home for Christmas. He has been progressing in excellent shape at the hospital and there is every reason to believe that he will soon be himself again, that is the hope of his friends at least.

Wm. Drucker from near Hastings, Neb., has been visiting in the city over the Christmas holidays, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Plager this morning departed on the early train for Omaha where he will spend the day visiting with friends and seeing the city. This is Mr. Drucker's first visit to the city and he was much delighted with it and the surrounding country. He expects to return to Hastings in a few days.

George Wheeler, wife and children came in Thursday to spend Christmas with his brother Frank Wheeler and family, the two Mrs. Wheelers going to Omaha yesterday where Mrs. Geo. Wheeler remained to visit with relatives being joined there today by her husband, from which point they will return to their home at Norfolk. Mrs. Frank Wheeler returned to this city last evening.

J. W. Sanders of Omaha was in the city today on business returning to his home on the noon train.

A. D. Akard who spent his Christmas at Percival, Ia., with relatives returned to the city this noon on the fast mail.

Miss Louise Guthrie of Lincoln, Neb., is in the city making a visit with W. L. Pickett and family for several days.

Louis Janda and wife of Havelock were in the city as Christmas visitors returning to their home yesterday afternoon.

Dent Hites was a passenger on the mail train at noon for Omaha where he had some important business matters to attend to.

H. A. Wilson and wife who spent Christmas at Tabor, Ia., with relatives returned home this noon on the mail train.

Rev. J. H. Salsbury was a passenger this noon on the mail train for Omaha where he had some important business matters to attend to during the afternoon.

Misses Eva and Edna Kroehler of Havelock, Neb., are in the city making an extended visit with their grandmother Mrs. Geo. Weidman.

Frank Oliver of Havelock was in the city over Christmas making a holiday visit with his parents, Will Oliver and wife, returning to his duties this noon on the mail train.

Frank Chaloupka of Trinidad, Col., was in the city for Christmas, coming in to visit with his folks and returning to his work this noon on the mail train.

Robt. D. Hayes, general foreman of the Burlington shops, who spent Christmas at Peoria, Ill., with his sister, Mrs. Ottoo Wurtl, returned to his duties in this city this morning.

Mrs. Margaret Hallam, of Lincoln, who spent several days in the city as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Kate Oliver, returned to her home yesterday afternoon on the Burlington.

Kern Fogarty and wife and family were among the Christmas visitors in the city, Mr. Fogarty returning to his home yesterday afternoon and the family returning this afternoon.

Geo. Falter is now in St. Louis, Mo., being called there on business matters in connection with the new store of Falter & Thierolf. It is more than probable he will visit Louisville and other Kentucky points before returning to the city.

Edwin Schomaker and Charles Poper, of the vicinity of Nehawka, were in the city today on business, and Mr. Schomaker found time to call at this office and renew for the Journal. He is one of the energetic young farmers of Cass county.

R. C. Dill of Wellington, Col., who has been visiting in the city with A. Dill and family for several weeks past departed this noon on the mail train for Tekamah and Lyons, Neb., after which he will return to his home.

Constipation causes headache, nausea, dizziness, languor, heart palpitation. Drastic physics gripe, sickness, weaken the bowels and don't cure. Doan's Regulents act gently and cure constipation. 25 cents. Ask your druggist.

Rev. Father Bor formerly of this parish but now located at Wahoo came in this morning for the purpose of preaching the sermon and conducting the burial services of the late James Skoumal, returning to his home this afternoon on the Schuyler train.

Mrs. A. L. Cox of Nebraska City has been spending the Christmas holidays with Mrs. J. A. Kiser of Myriad. The two ladies came in this morning from Mrs. Kiser's home and were passengers on the early train for Omaha where they will spend the day visiting and doing some shopping.

Miss Josephine Johnson and Mr. Ellis Graham, of Lincoln, who had been spending several days in the city as the guests of J. W. Johnson and family, returned yesterday afternoon to their home. They were accompanied as far as Omaha by Misses Helen Chapman and Ruth Johnson and Messrs. Milford Bates of Lexington, Neb., and Ernest Wurl.

Boy Injured.
Mrs. Bertha Petersen of this city this morning received a postal card from Mrs. Chris Christensen of Lead, S. D., conveying the sad information that Henry Christensen, her son, suffered a bad fall on the 24th inst., and had been removed to the hospital on Christmas day. Mrs. Christensen, who was formerly Mamie Petersen, and who is well known in this city where she has many friends has their entire sympathy. The postal follows:
Lead, S. D., Dec. 26, 1908.
Dear Mrs. Petersen and Family:
I am sorry to tell you that Henry was taken to the hospital Xmas day and expects to undergo an operation as a result of a fall of twelve feet which happened on the 24th. We do not think it will be serious, we hope not. Chris' uncle has been very sick at Shelby, Ia.

Mrs. C. Christensen.

Judge Travis today fixed the terms of court for this district for the ensuing year, 1909. The terms for Cass County are as follows: Jan. 18, July 25th; May 17, July 17th, and November 8, July 15th. For Otoe County the terms are March 1, July 8th, June 14, July 14th and Sept. 20th, July 27th. This seems to be about as good an arrangement of the terms for all concerned as is possible and will not result in any delay to either jurymen, attorneys or litigants.

The jury for the coming term of court has been drawn, the following being the names of those lucky or unlucky enough to be called upon to serve their country this term: Armstrong, Hugh, Baldwin, C. C., Becker, H. E., Born, Geo., Gopen, Lloyd, Gullion, Jas., Gustin, Frank, Hamilton, W. C., Hayes, Wilbur, Hoback, Lewis, Horning, Ben, Hudson, O. C., Jameson, Frank, Kirkpatrick, Lee, McMaken, Guy, Newlon, Clark, Panska, Aug., Pollard, Henry, Schulhof, John, Thomas, W. L., Ward, J. O., Wetzel, John, Wolph, B., Zoz, Frank.

Miscellaneous Shower.
Miss Freda Herold last Saturday gave a miscellaneous shower at her home on Wintersteen Hill in honor of Miss Marie Terrace Hennings whose marriage to Mr. Samuel J. Pitman, of Murray, is announced for tomorrow night, December 29th. For the occasion the house had been very handsomely decorated with Holly and Christmas bells, it being throughout a veritable bower of beauty. A very delicious and dainty three course luncheon was served, the table being also superbly decorated. The presents were very numerous and handsome as well as useful.

Those attending were Mesdames O. A. Davis, A. G. Perry and Wm. Sporer of Murray, Schafer of Cedar Creek, Misses Christina Schafer, of Nehawka, Mattie Irish of Myriad, Rosa Schafer of Nehawka, Lucy Irish of Myriad, Messrs. J. H. Merrian of Lincoln, Nick Friedrich of Cedar Creek, Henry Irish of Myriad, Dick and Samuel J. Pitman of Murray and B. A. McElwain of this city.

A Series of Evangelistic Services.
Yesterday in Omaha Rev. J. H. Salsbury completed the final arrangements for a series of evangelistic services in the Presbyterian church this spring under the leadership of the well known cornetist evangelist, Rev. Chester Birch of Winona Ind. For a number of years Mr. Birch was a leader of the United States Depot Cavalry Band of St. Louis and is considered one of the best cornetists in this country for leadership in sacred songs. He is a splendid singer himself and likewise a strong sane preacher and evangelistic worker. The exact date will be known in a couple of weeks and announcement will then be made. All Christian people of the city are urged to plan to enjoy these meetings, to work in them and share their blessings. Attend the services of the week of prayer and make a beginning of preparation for effective work at that time.

A Good Citizen.
The sale of the Withrow property, in the north part of the city brings to Plattsmouth some excellent people in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rainey, who have already taken possession of the property. In the sale they also get possession of the household effects just as they were in the house. We understand that Mr. Rainey will remain most of the time on the farm, near Union, while Mrs. Rainey will have full management of the place here. It is a fine piece of property and will be greatly improved by the present owner. The Journal welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Rainey to Plattsmouth.

Here to Attend the Funeral.
Among those from out the city coming in to attend the funeral of the late James Skoumal, jr., were J. F. Swoboda, Lawrence, Neb.; Mrs. Geo. Koehnke of Creighton, Neb.; and Walter Haines of the United States army at Fort Omaha, Neb. Mr. Swoboda is a half-brother of Mrs. Skoumal, Mrs. Koehnke is a cousin of Mrs. Skoumal and Mr. Haines is also a cousin of Mrs. Skoumal. They will remain in the city several days Mr. Haines leaving for home today. Mr. Swoboda on Wednesday and Mrs. Koehnke in about two weeks.

Accident at Shops.
Just as the Journal goes to press it is learned that Henry Nippart, an employe in the car department of the shops, received a severe injury by being struck upon the head with a brake strap. The full extent of his injuries have not been ascertained as the injured man arrived at the Burlington surgeon's office at 3:15 the accident taking place just a few minutes after three o'clock. Further particulars of the accident will be given tomorrow.

Pocket books—Gering & Co.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Triner of NEW YORK In Use For Over Thirty Years CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Annual Meeting.
The annual meeting of the Farmers Mutual Fire and Live Stock Insurance Company of Cass County, Neb., will be held at the Hill school house (district No. 88) on Saturday January 9th, 1909, at 1:30 p. m. for the purpose of electing officers for the coming year and transact such other business as may come before the meeting.
J. P. Falter, Secretary.
Jacob Tritsch, President.

Holiday Dinner.
We all like to celebrate a holiday with a bountiful dinner. Preparations are made long before the day arrives, so everything is ready for the feast. But, how about your stomach? If this organ of yours is not in perfect shape, there is no use of making any preparations for your dinner. If your stomach refuses to accept so much food as when you are in full health, use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine and you will be prepared for a good meal. It has given you a healthy appetite and will strengthen your whole body. It will give you full satisfaction in all diseases of the digestive tract, and, containing no injurious ingredients, will be easily born on every stomach. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 6161622 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Improved Service.
Commencing with train No. 103 due at Plattsmouth 5:02 p. m., Jan. 1st, and with train No. 104 due here 9:48 a. m. January 2nd, up-to-date broiler buffet service will be inaugurated between Omaha and Kansas City, daily, on trains named. Hugh Norton, Agent Mo. Pac.

NOTICE.
The State of Nebraska, in Justice Court before M. Archer, Justice of the Peace for the City of Plattsmouth, County of Cass, vs. Charles H. Wilkins, Plaintiff, vs. Frank C. Benfer, Defendant.
Frank C. Benfer will take notice that on the 20th day of November, 1908, M. Archer, a Justice of the Peace for the City of Plattsmouth, County of Cass, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of Sixty-eight and 00/100 ($68.70) Dollars in an action pending before him, where in Charles H. Wilkins is plaintiff and Frank C. Benfer is defendant; that personal property of said defendant, has been attached under said order. Said cause was continued to the 6th day of January, 1909, at 9 o'clock a. m. Charles H. Wilkins, Plaintiff.
Plattsmouth, Nebraska, November 30, 1908.

NOTICE.
The State of Nebraska, in Justice Court before M. Archer, Justice of the Peace for the City of Plattsmouth, County of Cass, vs. Ed Egenberger, Plaintiff, vs. Frank C. Benfer, Defendant.
Frank C. Benfer will take notice that on the 21st day of November, 1908, M. Archer, a Justice of the Peace for the City of Plattsmouth, County of Cass, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of One Hundred Seventy-eight and 00/100 ($178.00) Dollars in an action pending before him, where in Ed Egenberger is plaintiff and Frank C. Benfer is defendant; that personal property of said defendant has been attached under said order. Said cause was continued to the 6th day of January 1909, at 9 o'clock a. m. Ed Egenberger, Plaintiff.
Plattsmouth, Nebraska, November 30, 1908.