Prompt Payment.
Theo. L. Amick, from near Murray, was in the city today, and paid this office a pleasant call, at which time he takes the opportunity to thank the Woodmen Accident Association, of Lincoln, for their prompt payment of his claim against them for disability caused from the accident he met with a few weeks ago. He heartily endorses this company upon their prompt method of doing business, and recommends them to all brothers desiring the best accident insurance known.

If you haven't the time to exercise regularly, Doan's Regulets will prevent constipation. They induce a mild, healthy, easy action of the bowels without gripping. Ask your druggist for them. 25c.

A Happy Meeting.

On the last night of the old year, the H. H. Bible class of the Christian church of Murray, met at the Thomason home for their monthly meeting and the semi-annual election of class officers. The following named persons were chosen:

President, Ruth Thomason.
Vice President, Rex Young.
Secretary, Leola Vallery.
Treasurer, Lucile Rice.

After the business session the merry company spent the time in various amusing games till eleven-thirty, when refreshments were served to which all did ample justice, and from the way the boys slipped into the kitchen and ate pickles, one might think it wouldn't be well to have a pickle social. Or it might have been because it was the last of leap year and they realized they were left out. After refreshments a time was given to music, and as the clock neared the hour of twelve Leola Vallery and Ella Thompson sang, "The Old Year Dies Tonight," after which all joined in singing gospel songs, and was then lead in earnest prayer, thanking our Heavenly Father for his watchful care and rich blessings during the year just closed and asking his care and guidance through the coming year.

Twenty-one members of the class were present and five visitors. Several members failed to come and if they think they did not miss anything let them ask those who came.

At a late hour they bade each other good night and went their way. Those present were: Clara Young, Mary Moore, Willa Moore, Villa Gopen, Lucile Rice, Grace Graves, Leola Vallery, Pearl Lewis of Coleridge, Bessie Brendel, Louisa Shepardon, Tressa Stokes, Guy Stokes, Glenn Vallery, Roy Cole of Mynard, William Seybold, Roy Burton, Lee Kniss, Arnold Holmes, Harry Creamer, Thomas Nix, Thomas Tilson, Omer Yardley, Harry Baxter, Roy Spangler, Lewis Rice, Rex Young.

James H. Baker.

James H. Baker, father of Mrs. Ed Burt, died at the home of his daughter the morning of December 24th. Mr. Baker has been visiting with Mrs. Burt's family for some time this winter and was taken ill there. His home was near Durham, Oklahoma.

The deceased was born in Chillicothe, Ohio, November 19th, 1839. He came to Iowa in 1857 and from Iowa went to Nebraska in 1862. He and his family went to Texas in the year 1875, but after five years returned to Nebraska, where he lived until 1909. Since then they have lived in Oklahoma. From 1882 till 1887 he was master mechanic in the C. & N. W. R. R. shops at Norfolk, Nebraska.

Mr. Baker was married to Cuzza Oldham of Cass County, Nebraska, in 1876. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. lodge. In his younger days in Ohio he united with the Methodist Episcopal church.

His wife, two sisters and four children survive him. The sisters are Mariah Baker and Mrs. Allen Fauble of Davis City, Nebraska. The two sons are Henry and John Durham, Oklahoma; the two daughters, Mrs. Julius of Page, Neb., and Mrs. Ed Burt, of Adair, Iowa.

Those who know him say well of him, he was a good citizen and a good man. His career shows him to have been a lover of the frontier, one of that great army of Americans who have helped to conquer the wilderness, the forerunners of the great empires now established on those prairies of the great west. The funeral was conducted from the house of Ed Burt north of Adair the 25th of December, by the pastor of the Methodist church of Adair.—Adair, Iowa Item.

Does This Interest You?
If so, please call and settle your account with me, for I ave to do the same with those I owe on the first of the new year. Now please do this and we will feel much happier with the advent of the New Year. Wishing you all health and prosperity in 1909, I am

Yours respectfully,
John H. Cook.

The Mappy New Year.
You will enjoy it much better if you will call and pay what you owe me, and I know I will feel very grateful to all, as I need money.

U. B. Revival.

Rev. W. F. McNulty of Ohio will conduct the revival meeting which will begin at Liberty U. B. church two and a half miles south of this city next Sunday. Rev. McNulty is a converted actor, one of the most successful revivalists. He is of the Sam Jones type, yet entirely original. He touches every case and always means "you." You are invited to attend because the meeting is for you.

Fever sores and old chronic sores should not be healed entirely, but should be kept in healthy condition. This can be done by applying Chamberlain's Salve. This salve has no superior for this purpose. It is also most excellent for chapped hands, sore nipples, burns and diseases of the skin. For sale by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Banning Has Bills.

Senator Banning of this county yesterday introduced his maiden bills in the senate. They are as follows:

S. F. 53. To increase the standard of coal oil from 112 degrees to 120 degrees.

S. F. 54. Relating to the compensation of county commissioners.

Makes Pleasant Call.

F. W. Kloppeing of Coleridge, Neb., came in this morning from the home of Ham Norris, and paid the Journal a pleasant call, paying up his subscription and ordering the old reliable sent to his address for another year. Mr. Kloppeing left for his present home about one year ago and he reports that he is more than pleased with his one year's experience near Coleridge. He came down to assist Mr. Norris to move as they will be located in the same neighborhood in the future. His call was a very pleasant one.

Charles Leach an old time Plattsmouth boy who has been in business in McCook, Neb., for many years, came in this morning for a visit in the city with friends. Charley and the Journal representative had the pleasure of meeting for the first time in nineteen years, all of which shows that we are getting old. He returned to McCook on the mail at noon.

John Albert, the prominent farmer on Cedar Creek, is in the city today looking after business matters.

LEFT ON HER DOORSTEP FOR THIS MOTHER

Mrs. A. G. Tuson, of Livermore, Cal., writes: "I picked up from my doorstep one day a little book in which I soon became very much interested. My little girl of five years of age had been troubled for a long time with loss of appetite, extreme nervousness and undue fatigue. She was all run-down and in a very delicate condition. This little book was very comprehensively written, and told of the new method of extracting the medicinal elements of the cod's liver from the oil, eliminating the obnoxious oil which is so hard for children to take. Just the thing," said I, "for my little daughter," and I immediately went for a bottle of Vinol. It helped her wonderfully. She has gained rapidly in flesh and strength, and she does not take cold half so easily. I am extremely grateful for the good it has done her, and I hope other mothers who have weak, delicate or ailing children will be benefited by my experience and just give Vinol a trial."

GERING & CO., Druggists,

J. Heiner of Bellevue, was in the city today consulting with a physician returning on the mail train at noon. Mr. Heiner has been quite poorly for some time and has not yet recovered so as to be himself again.

Announcement is made of the transfer of Webster Josslyn, storekeeper at this city for the Burlington, from the storehouse here to the storehouse at Sheridan, Wyo. He will be succeeded at this point by H. N. Regnier who comes to this store from Hannibal, Mo.

It is a matter of regret to the people of this city to learn of the change as they had grown quite well acquainted with Mr. Josslyn and his estimable family and had learned to greatly admire them. Mr. Josslyn was especially popular with his employees and his management of the storehouse during his incumbency at this point was of the highest order.

Mrs. Josslyn during her residence in this city had formed many very pleasant social ties which all regret to have broken. Their departure from this city to their new field is an occasion of much regret and they are accompanied by the very best wishes of the entire community. The change is understood to have been entirely satisfactory to Mr. Josslyn as he has relatives in Wyoming whom he desires to be near. Previous to coming to the local storehouse he had been general storekeeper and purchasing agent for the Burlington at Omaha.

H. N. Regnier who takes Mr. Josslyn's position in this city, comes with the highest recommendations and will, without doubt, make a fitting successor to him. He is a man of much push and energy and under his management the storehouse will doubtless be a very active place.

L. C. Sharp was a business visitor this afternoon in Omaha being a passenger on the mail train for that city.

Mrs. Wm. Schmidtman was a passenger this noon on the mail train for Omaha where she will spend the afternoon.

Dr. Decker is in the city writing up the early history of this city and county and securing cuts of the Burlington shops, some of the buildings in this city and some prominent farm houses, which will appear in the Omaha Daily Bee some Sunday. Mr. Decker has been writing up the other counties in this state for the same paper.
