A. J. Hansell was looking after some business matters in Plattsmouth Wednesday, and found time to pay the Journal office a brief call, and while here renewing his subscription.

B. Dannher and mother were in Plattsmouth Tuesday shopping. This is the first time Mrs. Dannher has been in the county seat for almost a year. She has been a great sufferer from rheumatism for some time and her improvement is very slow.

Albert Young, the champion bronco buster of this locality, was slightly injured while performing one of his stunts with an unbroken animal Sunday. The animal ran against the hitching post striking Albert's knee cap, causing quite a painful injury. At the same time and from the same animal Silas Dunbauer was thrown to the ground, just before Albert was injured, and received numerous bruises about the body.

We are informed that the play given at the Kenosha school house last Saturday evening was well attended and all were well pleased with the entertainment. The teacher Miss Mary Trotter deserves much credit for the manner in which the affair was carried to a successful close.

D. A. Young, one of the Journal's staunch friends from this locality, comes forward this week and orders a copy of the paper sent to his daughter, Mrs. Seely Lawton, at Norfolk, Neb. The Journal is mighty proud to possess such friends as D. A. Young, they believe in lending loyal support to a good local paper. Many thanks, Mr. Young.

Esther Ray is on the sick list this week.

W. S. Smith was in Omaha Wednesday.

John Murray was a Murray visitor Wednesday.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Porter has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

Henry Sands, residing east of town, has been suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism for the past few days.

Our excellent friend, I. S. White has been on the sick list for the past few days, but at this time is on the road to mend.

Harmon Beck was a Plattsmouth visitor Thursday afternoon, making a short visit with the Journal office, renewing his paper.

Dr. J. F. Brendel was called to the home of J. Enberry, five miles of Louisville, in consultation with Dr. Wortman, where there are five cases of diptheria.

Talk about your butter shipments, did you see that big one sent out by Holmes & Smith Wednesday evening? About one dozen barrels, and it was not a good day for butter either.

L. G. Todd and J. T. Reynolds, two of Cass county's prosperous farmers from near Union, passed through Murray Wednesday with a car of hogs going to the South Omaha market.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jahrig, who are visiting in Plattsmouth, came down to Murray Wednesday morning for a couple of days visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lillie. Mrs. Lillie and Mrs. Jahrig are sisters.

Take dinner with the ladies of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, March 9th, and get something good. This does not mean that you are not accustomed to something good, but we know the ladies will have a treat in store for you.

Mrs. Chris Miller has been quite sick for the past week.

Col. Seybolt was a county seat visitor Monday evening.

George Ray was a business caller at the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. Alva Long has been on the sick list for the past few days.

P. B. Smith was looking after some business matters in the county seat Tuesday.

Mrs. A. L. Baker and Mrs. Maude Smith were Plattsmouth visitors Monday afternoon.

John Cook, the boss harness man of Murray, has been very much busy for the past few weeks, oiling harness with his patent oiler, the one that does the job up good. John has sure got the business in this line, and when work comes in to him once it always returns when oil is needed again. He has oiled a great many sets this spring but is after the balance.

Arthur Anderson who has been in the hospital at Omaha for the past five months, receiving treatment for blood poisoning, has returned to Murray, and is at present making his home at the home of Henry Sands, and while he is improving slowly he is a long way from a well man. The young man is thirteen years of age, and is the son of A. J. Anderson, residing near Union. The young man has had a severe seige and the friends hope he may recover soon.

A Pleasant Time.

Mrs. A. L. Baker entertained a number of her lady friends at her home Tuesday afternoon, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Maude Smith, who is visiting here from Eldora, Ia. The occasion was given as a progressive high five party and was indeed most enjoyable in every particular. The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and American Peauy roses, the score cards being of white with green ribbons attached and the ice cream served later in the evening contained therein the leaf of the beautiful green Shamrock, everything tending to make the occasion a typical St. Patrick's day celebration. The flowing punch bowl was very much in evidence during the entire afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served at the usual hour, and at the departing hour all pronounced Mrs. Baker as a royal entertainer. The king prize of the high five, a bouquet of sweet peas, was won by Mrs. W. C. Brown.

Following were those present: Mesdames O. A. Davis, S. O. Pitman, W. C. Brown, G. H. Gilmore, Harmon Beck, Will Sporer, Misses Maud Beck, Carrie Allison, Margery Walker, Gertrude Long, Pauline and Fay Oldham.

Reduction Extended.

The reduction price on oiling harness will hold good at John Cook's harness shop for the balance of this month. Business has been good in this line, but all patrons are urged to come in as early as possible and avoid the rush that is sure to come later on. Bear a mind that this means a saving to you, and the work can be finished when you want it.

Little Folks' Surprise.

The school mates of Victor Sands gathered at his home a few days ago to assist their young friend in celebrating his seventh birthday. Victor is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sands, who spared no pains to give the young people a genuine good time. There were 28 in all, and they gathered at the Sands' home in the early afternoon, and remained until supper time. Following were those present: Esther Ray, Vera Moore, Francis Moore, Margaret Moore, Ida Richter, Nettie Richter, May Smith, Elizabeth Hall, Vera Erwin, Carrie Darrough, Adeline Darrough, Ethel Ferris, Violet Kell, Henrietta Creamer, Isaac Hall Gussie Good, Raymond Creamer, Geo. Smith, Joyce Smith, Clare Ferris, Otto Rhodley, Perry Nickles, Alvadore Nickles, Elmer Darrough, Tommy Hostettler, Clarence Kell, Victor Sands, Velma Sands, Bessie Sands.

Two Good Citizens.

E. J. Mougey and John Doughty, two of the best friends the Journal has in the south part of the county, were here Tuesday evening returning from Omaha, where they had been with stock. Both gentlemen made this office a brief call, renewing their subscription to the Weekly. They are the readers that never forget the printer, once a year at least, with Indiana relatives.

A Birthday Party.

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. William Baird was the scene of much merriment and frolic yesterday afternoon when six little playmates of their little son Robert gathered there to assist him in celebrating his fifth birthday anniversary. Miss Bernese Newell and Mrs. Rev. Moore assisted Mrs. Baird in entertaining the little people. The principle amusement was derived from the various childish games and pranks which were entered into with much interest and enthusiasm. At a welcome hour they were invited to the dining room and were seated at a prettily decorated table, the color scheme being pink. A delicious two course birthday luncheon was then served.

Master Robert was the recipient of pretty gifts which will assist him in remembering this happy event. As souvenirs each one received a top. After wishing the little host many more birthdays the little guests departed for their homes.

The little people who enjoyed this occasion were Newell Roberts, Raymond Bookmeyer, Donald Dickson, Edgar Newton, Newton Becker, Carl Wurl.

Still Coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Miller arrived on the morning train from West Brook, near Portland, Maine, to make Plattsmouth their future home. When they departed from their former home last Tuesday morning, the snow was three feet deep and covered the ground until they arrived in Buffalo, N. Y., but they did not see any more of "the beautiful" during the rest of the journey.

Mr. Miller is a brother of William H. Miller, a well known carpenter residing near the Missouri Pacific depot. Mr. Miller paid $75 to have his household goods shipped to this city, and will expect them to arrive soon. The Journal is always glad to welcome to this city all such desirable people as Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Grandma Fairfield.

Mrs. George Fairfield, aged 81 years, arrived in this city this morning from Omaha and will make her home at the residence of Col. H. C. McMaken for a time. Mrs. Fairfield and her husband arrived in Plattsmouth 52 years ago from Ft. Wayne, Indiana. Her husband located the Burlington road across the Missouri river at this point and through this city the same year, 1856.

Home Again.

The many friends of W. L. Street will be delighted to learn that he has recovered sufficiently to be able to return to his home in this city Thursday evening.

Mr. Street submitted to a surgical operation by Dr. Davis in Immanuel hospital in Omaha thirteen weeks ago and has since been receiving treatment in the hospital there.

For Sale.

A Starved Stomach.

Many are the causes, when the stomach either refuses to take any food or to digest it. It may be from overwork, both physical and mental, grave diseases, weakness, excitement, worry or excesses. The patient quickly loses strength and energy and becomes tired and careless. In such cases we can conscientiously recommend Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine, because it gives satisfaction. It greatly stimulates the exhausted and starved stomach to normal activity, makes it to accept any food and to do its share in the digestion and assimilation of it. It strengthens the intestines to make them able to finish the digestive process and to make new blood, which carries nourishment to every part of the body. At any time when the stomach will refuse to work, as it should, use Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 616-622, So. Ashland Ave, Chicago, Ill.
