HIDDEN DANGER

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Plattsmouth Citizen Can Afford to Ignore

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys secrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, illsmelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Plattsmouth proof:

John Mackey, Third street, corner Dyke street, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "Two and one-half years ago my back became very lame and I had frequent headaches. The kidney secretions contained a sediment and a frequent desire to void them caused me much annoyance. I had been unable to find a remedy that would bring me any permanent relief and I was at a loss to know what to do. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended in the local papers, I procured a box from Gering & Co.'s drug store. This remedy brought me immediate relief and at the present time, my back does not bother me in the least. I am very grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for what they have done for me."

GEORGE E. SAYLES

Short Biographical Sketch.

In the death of Geo. E. Sayles, pioneer grain dealer and merchant of Cedar Creek, Cass County loses another of its oldest citizens.

The patient had been a sufferer for several years with an incurable and fatal disease, but showed remarkable fortitude and tenacity, having continued to attend to business to the last, his death occurring Monday, February 15, at 8 o'clock a. m.

Geo. E. Sayles was born at Dover, New Hampshire, April 21, 1849, and was in his 60th year at the time of his demise.

With his parents he moved to Kewanee, Ill., where his father, John Sayles, died in 1855.

His mother having taken up a homestead, the family settled on a farm near Cedar Creek, in 1858, at which place he resided until his death.

He was married to Miss Frances A. Cooley in 1869, and his estimable wife and five children survive him.

The children are Mrs. Susie A. Fudge of Covington, Va., Mrs. Ida H. Seybert and Geo. R. Sayles, of Plattsmouth, Miss Eva A. and Ruth N. Sayles of Cedar Creek, Neb., also one brother, John Sayles of Greenwood, Neb., and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Mealey of Eau Claire, Wis., and Mrs. Abigail Davidson of Oakland, Cal.

He was a member of the Christian church, joining at the age of 18 and was baptized by Rev. Henry, service at that time being held in the old Glendale school house.

He was a man of excellent business principles, and invariably managed his affairs with simple justice to all concerned.

His integrity above reproach; always considerate of his friends; he was a kind and indulgent husband and father, and he will be greatly missed in his family and business circles.

The funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. J. H. Salisbury, assisted by the Presbyterian quartette of Plattsmouth, and the A. O. U. W., M. W. A., and D. of H. lodges of Cedar Creek, the remains being interred in the Glendale cemetery.

The pall bearers were: John A., Charles C., and Ferdinand J. Hennings, George P. Melsinger, John H., Albert and Peter J. Keil. Henry Inhelder attended to the formation of the procession.

The deepest sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family in this saddest hour of their lives.
