

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Friday Evening's Daily Journal

Former County Treasurer Wheeler spent yesterday in the city driving up from his home south of the city.

John Hatt, Jr., is looking after business matters in Omaha this afternoon going up on the mail train.

H. G. Meisinger and wife were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day.

C. Bengen, the prominent farmer of the precinct, was in the city yesterday afternoon looking after business matters.

James Loughbridge came up this morning from Murray to attend to some matters in connection with the Hansen funeral.

George Ballance was a passenger for Omaha this morning on the early train, going up to have a tooth pulled he facetiously claimed.

Perry Utterback, the popular restaurant man of South Omaha is spending the day in the city, having come down from that city this morning.

Jas. W. Holmes and wife came in last evening for a brief visit with C. A. Rawls and wife, returning to their home at Murray, this morning.

Thomas Hansen, whose daughter, Miss Mary E. Hansen, was called by the death angel, came in this morning to attend to the details of the funeral.

John Lohnes, one of the most prominent and highly esteemed farmers from near Louisville, is spending the day in the city, coming in this morning.

Adam Fornoff, one of the popular farmers and leading men of Cedar Creek neighborhood, came in this morning for a day in the city and to attend Good Friday services.

Mrs. Ed. Weaver and son Glen were passengers this noon for Ashland where they will visit with Mrs. Weaver's relatives for several days.

Mrs. Wm. Gilmour accompanied Mrs. Wm. Taylor to the metropolis this noon on the mail for a visit with Mrs. Grace Thomas at the hospital.

Mrs. John Toman and children were passengers this noon on the fast mail for South Omaha where they will make a visit with her parents.

Henry Vlekens of Alvo, came in last evening and was a guest at the Perkins over night, attending to business matters in the city this morning.

Mrs. T. J. Isner, daughter and baby were passengers this noon on the mail train for Table Rock where they will make a visit with relatives for several days.

J. W. Grassman, who has been under the weather for some time, has so far recovered that he is once more able to attend to his work at the Burlington shops. This is good news for his friends who trust that he will now be able to keep up and not suffer a setback.

S. C. Wheeler of the mechanical department of the Burlington, was in the city this morning looking after company business and was a passenger for Omaha on the noon train.

Ralph Riegs the comedian will play here on Monday, April 12. For his new comedy with music this season he is carrying all the scenery, furniture and properties and a larger company than any previous season. Rose Stillman is the principal comedienne and in the company are some very funny comedians. His performance of "Boots," a wild eyed athletic, crazy dancing cockney English bell hop is execrably funny and he has some new topical songs and eccentric dances that are very clever.

James Darrough is spending the day in Omaha going to that city on the early train this morning.

Miss Mary Semerad is spending the day in Omaha having been a passenger for that city on the morning train.

Keep in mind the first dance after Lent will be that at T. J. Sokol hall on West Pearl street on Saturday, April 17.

Misses Anna and Cella Palecek are visiting with friends in Omaha today being passengers on the early train for that city.

Mrs. A. L. Anderson is spending the afternoon in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the mail train at noon.

Frank Johnson and wife were passengers for Omaha this noon on the mail train going up to visit with his cousin.

O. A. Kitzel of Alvo, came in last evening for a night's stay and to attend to business in the city this morning.

Mrs. Thos. Julyan was a passenger on the mail train for Omaha where she will spend the day with friends.

Miss Elizabeth Shen is spending the afternoon with friends in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the mail train at noon.

Arthur Sullivan came in from his home south of the city this morning and was a passenger for Omaha on the mail train at noon.

Mrs. Wm. Wetenkamp is spending the day in Omaha having been a passenger for that city this morning on the early train.

Mrs. Emily Dickson was a passenger this morning on the early train for Omaha where she will spend several days with friends.

Once more we offer as our Friday special 25 pounds best granulated sugar for $1.19 with $2.00 of other purchase. E. G. Dovey & Son.

Frank Komkrist and wife and Miss Katie Komkrist are spending the day in Omaha being passengers on the early morning train for that city.

A. B. and George Krager came in this morning from their homes in the country and were passengers on the early train for Omaha where they will spend the day.

Amie Alford of Omaha who has been making a visit for several days with Will Simons, living just south of the city, returned to his home this morning on the early train.

Mrs. Wm. McCauley departed this morning on the early train for Concordia, Kas., where she will make a visit with Miss Doris Patterson her grand daughter, for several days.

Freddie Speck came in this morning from the country and was a passenger for Omaha on the early train going up to spend the day with his brother who is attending commercial college at that point.

C. D. Peacock and wife are spending the afternoon with friends in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the mail train at noon.

The insane commissioners held a hearing upon the case of Mrs. Emma Handrock, a woman living near Eagle who was taken in charge by the sheriff of Lancaster county near the town of Walton Wednesday. After hearing the evidence the commissioners decided the unfortunate woman to be insane and ordered her sent to the asylum at Lincoln. She was taken to the asylum this noon on the fast mail by Sheriff Quinton and Mrs. M. E. Manspeaker, the law requiring the services of a female attendant when a female patient is taken to the asylum.

Henry Hirz, the prominent farmer of the precinct is in the city today looking after business.

J. E. McDaniel is attending to business in Omaha this afternoon going to that city on the mail train at noon.

V. D. Conn of Greenwood precinct, is in the city today attending to business matters coming down from his home this morning.

Adam Kaffenberger, one of the best and most thrifty farmers of Cass county, is in the city today looking after business.

Henry Thierolf from near Cedar Creek came in this morning and after spending the morning in the city he departed for Omaha on the mail train at noon.

George P. Meisinger, Jr., came in this morning from his home west of the city and was a passenger for Omaha on the fast mail at noon having business in that city to attend to.

Secretary of the School Board D. C. Morgan and Supt. J. W. Gamble of the public schools are spending the day with the Louisville schools being passengers for that city this morning.

Jacob Lohnes came down this morning from Louisville where he now resides. Mr. Lohnes was formerly a popular member of the Plattsmouth police force and is a fine gentleman.

L. B. Brown, the prominent citizen and mayor of Kenosha, was in the city yesterday afternoon attending to business matters. Lig was elected on Tuesday last to his usual term as mayor of Kenosha by an increased majority.

Mrs. Wm. Taylor came in this morning from her home near Rock Bluffs, and was a passenger for Omaha on the mail train going up to make a visit with her daughter Mrs. Grace Thomas at the hospital. Mrs. Thomas is reported as getting along as well as could reasonably be expected and progressing very favorably toward recovery. It is to be hoped of her many friends and acquaintances that she will soon be able to be out and entirely over her illness.

W. Ernest Wells, editor of the Red Oak Express and formerly of this city, is the proud possessor of a new girl the little Miss arriving on April 2. The young woman weighs eight pounds to start with which all helps a lot. Mrs. Wells and the baby are reported as getting along fine while the proud father is doing just as well as he possibly can. We would not be surprised to see the next issue of the Express printed in red ink in honor of the occasion.

Col. M. A. Bates, a native of London, where he learned the printing trade on the Madison County Democrat, was recently elected representative to the Nebraska legislature on the democratic ticket in a district which two years ago gave a republican majority of eight hundred. Col. Bates is now editor of the Plattsmouth, Nebraska Daily and Semi-Weekly Journal. He has established more than a score of papers most of them in Indiana and Illinois.—Buckeye Informer.

YOUR LAST CHANCE

To Get in on the Ground Floor of the "New Chicago" Investment.

DON'T DELAY! ACT NOW!

You must excuse us if we are enthusiastic about New Chicago investment, but we feel we are justified. We have investigated about every land proposition there is offered the public on the American continent.

We have gone to Cuba, to the tropics of Mexico and to various parts of the United States and made personal investigations.

We have gone to Cuba, to the contradiction that the New Chicago investment in Anderson county, Texas, offers equal and in many respects superior advantages with less investment to any other investment in the world.

Giant Construction Co., of Chicago, Ill., guarantees "New Chicago Investment" good.

The car will remain in Plattsmouth until Monday evening, April 12th only.

J. D. Phillips, Manager of Car.

Good Friday.

Today is good Friday, a day observed throughout the Christian world in commemoration of the crucifixion of Christ. For the occasion both the Episcopal and Roman Catholic churches have special services in this city. The observance of Good Friday is spreading throughout the world and many churches of denominations other than Episcopal and Catholic now hold Good Friday services. In some places it is customary to observe the day by the suspension of business in the stores especially between the hours of 12 and 3 o'clock, the hours when Christ hung upon the cross.

Emil Walters, the contractor, is spending the afternoon in Omaha, looking after business affairs.

S. G. Hackenberg is among the farmers from the precinct coming in this morning to attend to business matters.

D. O. Dwyer who has been attending to professional matters in Lincoln, returned to the city this morning.

Jas. M. Johns was a passenger this noon on the mail train for Omaha where he has business matters to attend to.

John A. Hennings, the prominent farmer from near Cedar Creek, was in the city today attending to business matters.

Oscar Zaar of South Bend was in the city today, coming down to attend to some important business matters.

W. A. Kirby on R. F. D. No. 2 is a new addition to the Journal's list, calling at the office today and leaving $1.50 to pay for same one year.

M. J. Sweeney, the Omaha monument man, who has been looking after business matters in the city for several days, was a passenger for his home this morning.

County Attorney Ramsey who has been busy with professional matters at Monmouth, Ill., returned home this morning on No. 19.

Charles Morning came in this morning from the country and is spending the afternoon in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the noon train.

W. H. Seybert, of Collom, was in the city today on business, and while here called and renewed his allegiance to the Semi-Weekly Journal for another year.

Mark Furlong of near Rock Bluffs was in the city today to see his brother James depart for his home in Denver, Col., after a visit with his parents and friends near this city.

Ge, aint I glad it's coming back again" is a current expression on the streets nowadays. Enthusiastic theater goers are giving vent to their pleasant anticipations of the return of the "Yankee Doodle Boy" next Friday night.

For Sale or Rent.

Forty acres three miles east of Murray, and six miles south of Plattsmouth. Four room house, wind mill and good out buildings. For particulars,

John Campbell, Union, Neb.

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Saturday Evening's Daily Journal

Thos. B. Bates is spending the day in Omaha and Lincoln going up on the early train this morning.

Miss Julia Janda was a passenger for Omaha this morning going up to spend Sunday with friends.

Miss Lucille Bates is spending the day in Omaha having been a passenger for that city on the morning train.

Dallas Gibson and wife are spending the day in Omaha being a passenger on the early train for that city.

Mrs. W. B. Livingston and daughter Margaret, were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day.

Frank Sitzman of Cedar Creek, who has been stopping in the city with relatives and friends departed this morning for his home.

Ernest Chadwick of South Dakota is expected in the city this morning for a visit with his father-in-law, Sam Parker, for several days.

Get your supper at Coates Hall on Thursday evening, April 15, from 5 to 8 o'clock. Given by the ladies of St. John's Church. Admission 25c.

Misses Clara and Agnes Janda are visiting with friends in Omaha over Sunday, being passengers for that city this morning on the early train.

Mrs. Bennett Chrisweiser and Mrs. Charles Chrisweiser and daughter, Lucy, were passengers for Omaha this morning where they will spend the day.

Mrs. Pendarvis of Friers, Neb., who has been visiting in the city with her daughter Mrs. L. B. Schultz, returned to her home this morning.

Jos. Cook and children were passengers this noon on the mail train on a happy mission. They go there to bring back Mrs. Cook who has been in the hospital for some time. She has completely recovered and is now able to be returned to her home. This news is very pleasant for the many friends of this estimable lady who hope that she may never again have to pass through the ordeal which has just finished.

Wm. Mansfield of Weeping Water was in the city last night, being a guest at the Hotel Perkins.

Miss Lillian Bookmeyer came down this morning from Omaha to spend Sunday with her folks.

Val. Burkel is looking after business matters in Omaha this morning going up on the early train.

Miss Minnie Will was a passenger for Omaha this morning, where she will spend the day with friends.

Carl Holmberg was among those traveling to Lincoln this morning going up to visit with relatives over Sunday.

Miss Nellie Burianke is among those spending the day in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the morning train.

Miss Lillian Fitch came down on the morning train to visit her pupils in this city, returning to Omaha on the noon train.

Walter Brittain and family who have been visiting with relatives at Burlington, Ia., returned to their home in this city this morning.

Mrs. John Rottler and daughter are visiting with her daughter in South Omaha today being passengers for that city on the early morning train.

S. Humphrey of Nehawks, transferred here this morning from the M. P. train to the Burlington for the east having business at Chariton, Ia., to attend to.

Wm. Risner and family came in this morning for the purpose of making their future residence here, Mr. Fisher having taken a place with the Burlington forces at this point.

Justice Lillie is having some work done upon his residence in the north part of the city. He is having it thoroughly overhauled and painted throughout and greatly improving its looks. M. S. Briggs is doing the work, having taken the contract and finishing the job in reasonable time. He expects to complete his work today. Such improvements are needed in every part of the city and Mr. Lillie sets his fellow men a good example in carrying the improvements out.

You may like some of the new ideas in the cut of the pockets in some of the new models in suits which have made for us this Spring, but on the other hand you may prefer the simpler and more conventional forms.

Hart, Schaffner & Marx

The strength of our proposition on these goods is in the all-wool quality of fabrics, the perfection of style and tailoring, and the fact that correct fit is always assured.

We're in the business of satisfying our customers in clothes.

H.S. & M. Suits $18 to $30

Others ... $7.50 to $16.50

Copyright 1906 by Hart, Schaffner & Marx

Our buyer returned from Chicago yesterday, where he purchased a large bill of Hart, Schaffner & Marx clothes for immediate delivery—part of them arrived this morning—mostly grays and greens. Come in and have one pressed up and hung away for Easter.

Falter & Thierolf

VALUE GIVING CLOTHIERS

The Home of Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes
Manhattan Shirts

Stetson Hats

Millinery Spring Opening

Thursday, Friday and Saturday will have on display a beautiful line of pattern Hats, the most popular shapes and designs. Please call and see

Miss Myers

