Disappointment.

For various reasons, the main one of which is a rush of work in the Journal office, we are once more without our usual budget of Murray news. We thought we had arranged for the matter but we are very sorry to say for some reason we were disappointed. We trust our readers will pardon and bear with us until our rush of job work is over.

Sufficient Consideration.

The supreme court holds in the case of Sadie Idella Griffin vs. Bennett Chrisweiser of Cass county that the settlement of bastardy proceedings is a sufficient consideration for a promissory note, and it is no defense to such note that the mother and guardian of the complainant made an unlawful agreement not to prosecute the putative father for statutory rape unless such complainant knowingly participated in such unlawful agreement. The girl complainant was but fifteen years old. The elder Chrisweiser for his son Roy gave the girl's mother $400 and a promissory note for $1,100. He refused to pay the note and the mother sued to recover. The suit was dismissed. The cause is reversed and remanded by the supreme court.

The above case was tried in this district court before Judge Paul Jensen, the attorneys in the case being Matthew Gering for the plaintiff and Byron Clark and W. C. Ramsey for the defendant Chrisweiser. Under the ruling of the supreme court, the case will be returned to this court for trial and will doubtless be for trial at the May term.

Suddenly Taken Sick.

Yesterday afternoon David I. Amick, the well known and popular stock buyer of this city and Murray was seized with a sudden illness which necessitated his being hurried to the hospital at Omaha. Mr. Amick was engaged in driving some cattle into the stock pen at Murray when he suddenly fell to the ground in great pain. There were no preliminary symptoms of ill health and the sudden attack greatly alarmed the men who were assisting him. He was hurriedly taken to the physician's office where Dr. Gilmore found him in great pain and suffering intensely. Dr. Gilmore diagnosed the case as that of an attack of acute appendicitis and made arrangements at once to have the patient conveyed to the hospital. The M. P. train was almost due and Mr. Amick was immediately taken to the depot and, accompanied by the physician and several friends hurried to Omaha. Doubtless an operation will have to be performed and it is the hope of the many friends of this well known citizen that no serious results will follow.

Goes to Europe.

Rev. F. W. Brink, and wife, the esteemed and able pastor of the United Brethren church south of the city, departed this noon on the mail train for Omaha from which point they will journey to New York and thence to Germany. They expect to spend several months in the Fatherland where they will visit old friends and neighbors in Hanover and other sections of the empire. They were delighted to get started upon their trip and in common with all their many friends, the Journal hopes they will have an enjoyable visit.

WOODMEN GIVE TENT

Cass Camp Donates $250 For Tent at Woodman Sanitarium

The Modern Woodmen at their meeting last night donated the sum of $250.00 for the erection of a cottage tent at the Modern Woodmen Sanitarium, located at Colorado Springs, Colorado.

This sanitarium is located on 1,900 acres of land near Colorado Springs, but is owned and controlled by the Modern Woodmen of America, the biggest fraternal society of its kind in the world. The plan of the sanitarium is to admit free of charge any member afflicted with tuberculosis. This cottage will be owned by Cass Camp No. 332, and any of its local members sent there afflicted as above set forth will have a prior right to its use and occupancy. Besides cottages furnished by the local camps, the head camp is erecting many such tents.

By its benevolent and humane action last night Cass Camp is the first camp in the state of Nebraska to build its own cottage. A draft for the above amount will be sent to the head camp at Rock Island, Ill., today, and within ten days the cottage will be finished and ready for occupancy.

This camp now has two of its members waiting to be admitted to this sanitarium and to battle with the great white plague on this battle ground.

Modern Woodmen of America have not only all the known weapons of warfare but their tents are pitched upon a beautiful scene in the health giving climate of Sunny Colorado. Cass Camp No. 332 certainly should be commended for its magnificent offering to suffering humanity. Long live the Modern Woodmen.

The Late Chas. Glee.

DIED—Glee. Chas. at the home of his daughter Mrs. Albert Hunger, near Rock Bluffs, Neb., of heart trouble and paralysis, aged 79 years and 20 days, on Sunday, April 11th, 1909. Funeral was held at the family residence, Rev. Langhorst officiating. Interment made at the Young cemetery.

The deceased was released from his suffering early Easter morning after an illness of but a few days' duration.

Elects Officers.

The annual meeting of St. Luke's Guild held yesterday afternoon at the home of the Misses Gering was a pleasant and entertaining affair. In addition to the regular routine business which was transacted, the annual election of officers was held with the following results:

President, Mrs. Eva Reese.

Vice-President, Mrs. Margaret Donelan.

Secretary, Mrs. C. W. Baylor.

Treasurer, Mrs. Carl Fricke.

Directress, Mrs. H. S. Austin.

Assistant Directress, Mrs. J. E. McDaniel.

The meeting was one of the best the Guild has had in years and the members are enthusiastic over the outlook for the immediate future.

The progress of the fund for the rebuilding of the rectory is reported as very favorable.

Redmen's Dance.

The Improved Order of Redmen will hold another of their entertaining dances on Friday evening April 23 at Coates Hall. As these dances have been given from time to time and have been so successful, it is hardly necessary to recommend them to the public. Everyone attends them and there has never been one to find fault with them in any way. Itner's Redmen orchestra of Omaha will furnish the music as it always does and this is enough to insure fine dancing. The admission is fixed at 50c with ladies free. Spectators are charged 25c. Remember the date is April 23rd.

Blizzard Thirty-Six Years Ago.

Thirty-six years ago today there raged one of the most disastrous blizzards that ever swept over these then wide prairies. The great storm that the early pioneer delights to talk about began in the middle of the afternoon of a bright, summer like Sunday afternoon, April 13, 1873, and raged for three days in greatest fury reaching a climax on the 15th. Men who were compelled to go only a few yards from the house for fuel or water were forced to tie a rope about their bodies in order to find their way back, so fierce was the wind and snow that it was impossible to see a few feet.—Kearney Democrat.

Called Beyond.

After a brief existence of but four days, death last Monday claimed an infant girl of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Batmann, living on the farm of John Gorder near the city. The little one came into the world on Thursday, April 8, but had hardly more than entered into this land when it was called back to its Maker. The funeral occurred on Tuesday, April 23rd, the little one being laid to rest in Oak Hill. Rev. A. A. Randall pronounced the services over it. In their sorrow and distress at the loss of this little angel, the parents have the profound sympathy of all.

Give Matinee Tuesday.

Commencing next Sunday the attraction at the Boyd's in Omaha will be "A Stubborn Cinderella," the musical production which having so successful a season in New York City and which was the leading attraction of Chicago for more than a year. The company presenting the opera at Omaha is a very capable one, almost as good as that which New York is so crazy over. The leading woman's part is taken by Miss Ethel Dovey who is starred in the play and it is quite unnecessary to add any words of praise for Miss Dovey. She is so well known to our people that all that is needed is to announce her appearance.

Miss Dovey has been winning golden opinions in her characterization of the part she has taken and it will well repay anyone to see this charming young woman. Her sister, Miss Alice Dovey as is well known, is doing famous in the same play in New York. A special matinee will be given on Tuesday afternoon, April 20 and Plattsmouth should and will send its quota of admirers to attend.

A Dry Town Too.

One of our citizens wanted an Easter lily last Saturday, and seeing several in Orton's drug store, he entered and offered $1.00 for the potted plant. This offer was refused. The citizen then raised his bid to $1.00 and one cigar. This was also refused. "All right," said the citizen, "I will give you $1.00, one cigar and one bottle of Budweiser." The deal was closed, and in ten minutes the plant delivered. Now, the owner of the plant wonders where the bottle of Budweiser came from.—Weeping Water Republican.

Putting in Culvert.

The work of putting in the cement culvert under the tracks near the water works is still under way, the concrete gang not having been able to complete the work. Master Carpenter Hedengren is giving this work his attention and this morning was busy looking after the details of the work besides arranging for the construction of the new freight depot. This culvert will be large enough to carry off all the drainage which comes down from the hills north of the city and will be quite an improvement.
