

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Monday's Daily Journal

Miss Maude Burley spent Sunday in the city with her parents, returning to Omaha this morning on the early train.

Ed. Polin was an over Sunday visitor in the city yesterday, returning to his duties at South Omaha this morning on the early train.

E. E. Hilton and wife were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day looking after business matters.

Jack Patterson spent Sunday with his parents T. M. Patterson and wife, returning to Omaha this morning on No. 19.

Mrs. George M. Porter of Lincoln spent Sunday in the city with friends, returning to her home this morning on the early train.

Mrs. R. Thompson returned to her home at Lincoln after having spent Sunday in the city with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rothman.

Mrs. Lettie Bird departed this morning on the early train for Liberty, Neb. where she will make a visit with her cousin, Mrs. Goldie Barnard.

John Boetal and family came down Saturday evening from Omaha to spend Sunday in the city with relatives and friends, returning Sunday evening.

J. Ed. Johnson and family returned to their home at Lincoln this morning after spending Sunday in the city with J. W. Johnson and family.

Ed. Schulhof came over Sunday evening from his duties at Glenwood institute to spend Sunday with his folks in the city, returning to his duties this morning on the early train.

Peter Nelson and family, well known in this city where he formerly lived, came down Saturday evening to spend Sunday with M. Bajock and family, returning to his home last evening.

Herman Martens of Omaha spent Saturday night and Sunday in this city with his folks. Herman is now employed in a large independent machine plant in the metropolis and is working nights.

Ralph White, the popular manager of the Nebraska City exchange of the Nebraska Telephone Company, spent Sunday in the city visiting relatives and friends, returning to the Otce metropolis this morning.

Mrs. F. C. Ledwith spent Sunday in this city with her husband, the Burlington conductor, and this morning was a passenger for Lincoln on the early train. Mr. and Mrs. Ledwith expect shortly to move to this city and make it their future home.

Fred Murphy and wife this morning came in from Cuba where Mr. Murphy has been stationed in the war department for several years. They look well and hearty and seem to have withstood the climate of the Queen of the Antilles remarkably well. They were tired and worn out by their long trip but were very glad to once more set foot on American soil.

Last Saturday a marriage license was issued to J. B. Weimer aged 22 and Miss Bessie M. Perry, aged 19. This couple are two popular young people of Greenwood. The groom is a son of Peter Weimer and wife and is a promising young man. The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perry of Greenwood. Both the young people have many friends who wish them the best of fortune in their journey through life.

Miss Fern McBride of South Omaha spent Easter in the city, the guest of Mrs. C. S. Johnson.

Dr. T. P. Livingston was a passenger this noon for Omaha where he has business to attend to.

Walter L. Speck returned to his work at Omaha on the mail train after spending Sunday in the city.

Herman Pankonin came down this morning from Louisville for a day's business with the local business men.

Miss Leona Brady came up Saturday evening from Murray to spend Easter with her parents in this city.

Herman R. Neitzek of Murdock, returned to his home in that city after returning to business matters in this city.

Sam Shumaker is attending to business matters in Council Bluffs, Ia., being a passenger on the mail train for that city.

Mrs. P. E. Ruffner returned home this morning after a visit of several weeks with her son Wm. Ruffner and wife at St. Louis.

J. J. Speck returned to Omaha this noon on the fast mail train after spending Sunday with his father and mother near Murray.

Mrs. A. F. Seybert came in this morning from her home near Colom and is doing some trading with the merchants of the city.

County Clerk Rosencrans is attending to business matters in Omaha this afternoon being a passenger on the mail train for that city.

Theo. Starkjohann was a passenger this noon on the mail train for Custer county where he has some business interests to attend to.

Miss Della Huntley of LaPlatte was in the city this morning looking after some shopping, returning to her home at noon on the fast mail.

Will Robertson returned to his studies at the state university in Lincoln today, having spent the Easter holiday with his parents in this city.

Frank McCarthy of Omaha came down Saturday evening to spend Sunday in the city with his mother and brother, returning to his home last evening.

Miss Leray and Thos. Glenn Jr., spent Sunday in the city visiting relatives and friends, returning to their homes in Omaha this morning on the early train.

Miss Alma Speck and Mrs. Ewing her sister, came in this morning from Hopkins, Mo., where Mrs. Ewing resides, for a visit with their mother and brothers.

Paul Morgan who has been spending his Easter vacation in the city with relatives, departed this noon for Omaha and Lincoln to resume school duties this week.

Miss Munsick of Omaha who has been stopping in the city for several days, made a brief visit to her home on Saturday expecting to return to this city last evening.

Thos. L. Murphy of the Porter-Ryerson-Hoobler Company of Omaha spent Sunday in the city with his folks, departing on the early train for his duties on the road.

C. R. Graves accompanied by Mrs. Johnson and the two Misses Johnson were passengers this morning for Lincoln, after visiting in the city with friends over Sunday.

Frank H. Smith, of the Journal forces, spent Saturday night and Sunday visiting with his mother, Mrs. Claud Everett near Union, returning to the city last evening.

J. H. Altroegge departed this going north on the morning train.

Dr. C. A. Marshall and wife were north bound passengers this noon on the mail train for Omaha.

Miss Leopold of LaPlatte returned home this noon after a brief visit in the city with Mrs. C. A. Marshall.

Mrs. W. C. Tippens was a passenger this noon on the mail train for Omaha where she will spend the afternoon.

Mrs. Breedlove of Hamburg, Ia., came in this morning on the mail train for a visit with her daughters in this city.

A. F. Alford and wife returned to their home at Bellevue this noon on the mail train after spending Saturday in this city with Will Simons and family.

Sim Standeven of Omaha, came down Saturday evening and spent that evening and Sunday with Raymond Travis, returning to his home on the evening M. P. train last evening.

Miss Lucille Randall returned to Fremont this noon on the fast mail the mail train after spending Easter with her parents, Rev. A. A. Randall and wife.

Miss Violet Dodge visited over Sunday in the city with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dodge, returning to her position in Omaha this noon on the mail train.

Mrs. J. W. Gamble and daughter Miss Vesta and son Cedric Eaton, were passengers this noon on the mail train for Omaha where they will spend the afternoon.

W. M. Collins and wife of Blair who have been visiting in the city with Mrs. Collins, Mr. Collins' grandmother, returned to their home this noon on the mail train.

E. C. Chadwick and wife of Platte, S. D., who have been visiting in the city with Sam Parker and wife, Mrs. Chadwick's parents, returned to their home this noon on the mail train.

Miss Freda Wohlfarth and brother Herman were passengers this noon on the mail train for Omaha from which point the young man will go to Scribner for a visit with relatives.

Con. Will and Jimmy Kennedy returned to their work this noon at Havelock after having been here for the funeral of their beloved mother, the late Mrs. Jas. Kennedy.

Oscar Larson returned to his studies at Bellevue College this noon on the mail train, after spending several days in the city struggling with pneumonia. He has finally recovered and was able to once more take up his studies.

Jas. M. Johns departed on the east bound morning train for Red Oak, Ia., where he has business matters to look after, expecting to go from there to Northern Iowa before returning to this city.

Mrs. L. W. Barger departed this noon on the mail train for Lincoln and Hebron, Neb. where she will make a visit with relatives before returning to her home at Davenport, Ia. Mrs. Barger has been visiting in the city with her father J. C. Petersen and family for several weeks.

J. George Young, vice president of the National Investment Company of Omaha, Neb., was in the city this morning looking after business matters. It is possible he may soon close a deal for some Plattsmouth business property having such a trade on foot with prominent business men. He returned to Omaha on the fast mail at noon.

Col. M. A. Bates departed this morning on the M. P. train for Murray, Union, Nebawka, Weeping Water, Avoca, Elmwood, Wabash, and Eagle in the interest of the thirtieth anniversary number of the Journal which is soon to be issued. It is the intention to make this number the finest anniversary number ever issued in Cass County and to give every town in the county a complete write-up and Col Bates is the man who can do the job and do it to perfection.

Mr. Richey Doing Well.

The condition of J. G. Richey is reported today as being satisfactory and it is believed and hoped that he will continue to improve rapidly from now on and that his recovery is but a question of days. He is resting well and enjoys good sleep while his appetite is quite normal. His many friends will be more than pleased at his progress toward recovery.

Card of Thanks.

On behalf of myself and family, I desire to return my sincere thanks for the many kindnesses shown us during the last illness and death of our beloved wife and mother, and to express our appreciation of these acts.

James Kennedy,
Con. Kennedy,
Will Kennedy,
James Kennedy, Jr.

Capt. Isaac Wiles is spending the day in Omaha visiting with his son Frank and looking after business matters.

Elmwood

The two children of Dan Hay were under the doctor's care this week.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins, on Tuesday, April 6th a daughter.

Mrs. Sam Murray has been quite sick and under the doctor's care the past few days.

Little Lawrence Bickert fell against the stove Tuesday afternoon, severely cutting his head.

Arthur Ward came out from Plattsmouth Tuesday for a brief visit with his parents, going to Avoca Wednesday.

Miss Alice Jeary returned to her home at Greenwood Sunday, after a weeks visit at the home of her brother, E. J. Jeary.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoemaker, of Lincoln, came down Monday morning to attend the funeral of Grandpa Stark, he being an old acquaintance.

W. H. Andrew left Wednesday with his car of household goods for St. Joe, Mo., where they will make their future home, Mrs. Andrew going about three weeks ago.

Wm. DelesDernier and J. C. Dreamer returned Tuesday from Falls City where they went to participate in the final proceedings in the settlement of the Schmeizel estate.

S. F. Bailey, of Phillipsburg, Kansas who came to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Amanda Bailey, returned home Tuesday. He was accompanied as far as Lincoln by R. D. and Rex.

Union.

From the Ledger.

Vernon T. Arn is now sole proprietor of the meat market, having full control without the "Co." attached.

G. P. Barton recently purchased the Engell property south of the M. E. parsonage, and he and his family moved there a few days ago.

Will H. Mark departed Tuesday for the western part of Oklahoma, where business matters required his attention for a few days. He solemnly declared he wouldn't stay a minute longer than necessary.

Senator W. B. Banning finished his legislative duties in Lincoln last week and is attending to more profitable business at home just as though nothing had happened. He belongs to the "Don't Worry" club.

John Arn and his daughter Mrs. Nora Harris has made arrangements to locate in Nehawka, where they will be employed in looking after the household affairs and other duties connected with the large Pollard fruit farm.

Amos McNamee, carrier on mail route No. 2, is the owner of a fine new motorcycle which he received from the factory Tuesday. It is a Marsh-Metz 4 horse power racer, and Amos is training it to stand hitched and carry double, intending to get it thoroughly train for use on his mail route.

Steve Taylor went to Omaha last Friday evening, where Mrs. Taylor and their son Alva have been staying the past two weeks, the boy being treated in a hospital. Last Saturday the surgeons performed an operation upon the boy and he is reported as being out of danger and getting along very nicely.

Harry Allen, otherwise known as "Sandy Buff," resigned his position as section foreman here and left on Tuesday for Arlington, Col., where he will visit his parents and little daughter. Later he will be on the road again, probably in Kansas. Buff made many friends in this village, all of whom wish him well.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

In County Court.
In the matter of the estate of John B. Meisinger, deceased.
Notice is hereby given that the creditors of said estate will meet the executors of said estate, before me, County Judge of Cass County, Nebraska, at the County Court room in Plattsmouth, in said County, on the 29th day of March, 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m., each day for the purpose of presenting their claims for examination, adjustment and allowance.
Six months are allowed for the creditors of said deceased to present their claims, and one year for the executor to settle said estate, from the 29th day of March, 1909.
Witness my hand and seal of said County Court, at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this 1st day of March, 1909.
(Seal.)

Allen J. Boeson,
County Judge

D. O. Dwyer,
Attorney for estate.

Notice of Petition to Quit Title.

Charles Haffke, Atty.
212 S. 14th St. Omaha.
In the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska.
Carl Wilhelm Haffke, Plaintiff, vs. Jeremiah Koelliker, Administrator of the estate of John P. Kinney, deceased, and the unknown legatees heirs and devisees of the said John P. Kinney, deceased. Defendants.
The above named defendants and each of them will take notice that on the 24th day of February, 1909, the above named plaintiff filed his petition in the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska against them and each of them, the object and prayer of which is to quiet title in said plaintiff as against said defendants, to the following described real estate, to-wit: Lot twenty-three (23) in the North East quarter (N. E. qr.) of Section Nineteen (19) Township Twelve (12), Range Fourteen (14), East of the Sixth Principal Meridian in the City of Plattsmouth, in the County of Cass, and State of Nebraska, and to further enjoin said defendants and each of them from having or claiming any right, title or interest therein and for cost of suit, you and each of you are required to answer said petition on or before May 24th, 1909, or the prayer of said petition will be taken as true and judgment rendered accordingly against you and each of you.
Carl Wilhelm Haffke,
Dated April 6, 1909.
Charles Haffke,
Atty. for Plaintiff

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Thousands of millions of cans of Royal Baking Powder have been used in making bread, biscuit and cake in this country, and every housekeeper using it has rested in perfect confidence that her food would be light, sweet, and perfectly wholesome. Royal is a safeguard against the cheap alum powders which are the greatest menacers to health of the present day.

ROYAL IS THE ONLY BAKING POWDER MADE FROM ROYAL GRAPE CREAM OF TARTAR

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Tuesday's Evening Journal

Ed. Egenberger is attending to business in the metropolis today going up on the early morning train.

S. Goodman is attending to business matters today in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the early train this morning.

Misses Minnie Born and Mary Krager were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day visiting friends.

F. A. Murphy was a passenger this morning for Omaha where he goes to exchange greetings with his old friends in the army department.

Register of Deeds Schneider is attending to business matters in Omaha today being a passenger this morning for that city on the early train.

County Attorney Ramsey is looking after professional matters today in Greenwood, being a passenger for that city on the early morning train.

Wm. Oliver came in this morning from his home in the country and was a passenger on the morning train for Omaha where he will look after some business matters.

Miss Dora Kaffenberger of Plattsmouth, was in the city over Sunday the guest of Mrs. W. H. Penn and left this morning for Peru where she is attending school.—Nebraska City News.

Mrs. Luther Moore accompanied by Mrs. Z. Moore and son of Deming, N. M., were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day. Mrs. Z. Moore and son have been the guests of Rev. Moore and wife for several days.

Mrs. L. Rusterholtz and daughter Beckner from near Murray, mfwad Mrs. Beckner from near Murray, came up this morning on the M. P. and were passengers for Omaha over the Burlington on the early morning train where they will spend the day.

Mrs. John Lutz and Mrs. John Sattler were passengers this morning on the early train for Omaha where they friends.

Walter Cummings who has been spending several days in the city, returned to his labors this morning at Omaha.

Mrs. Peter Rochka is spending the day in Omaha with friends being a passenger for that city on the early morning train.

T. M. Patterson had business matters in Lincoln to look after being a passenger for that city on the early morning train.

Mrs. Emily Morrison and daughter Miss Edna, were passengers this morning on the early train for Omaha where they will spend the day.

Miss Maud Fitch of Bartlett, Ia., who has been visiting with her cousin Miss Grindle in this city for several days, departed for her home this morning.

Ernest Richter came in this morning and was a companion with Will Oliver on his trip to Omaha the two gentlemen being interested in business matters there.

Mrs. Gus Roman and daughter Helen and son Francis, were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will visit with Mrs. Ed. Cockran who has been ill for some time.

Joseph Stark of Chicago, Ill who has been visiting in the city with Frank Konkrist, returned to his home this morning being accompanied by Miss Katie Konkrist.

F. B. Holmes, a Burlington engineer residing in Lincoln who has been in Colorado since last September for the benefit of his health has so far recovered that he sends word he will be back within a month to assume his duties again, or as he puts it, "to rattle with the bear."—State Journal.

BIG REDUCTION ON PLUMBING GOODS

AIR PRESSURE WATER SYSTEMS!

Within the last sixty days we have made some extraordinary low purchases on Plumbing Goods, and have the largest line of Bath Tubs, Closets, Lavatories and Sinks ever shown in Plattsmouth at remarkable reduction in price:

Bath Tubs, white enameled	... $15.00 and Up
Lavatories	... 6.75 and Up
One-Piece, white enameled Sink and back	... 9.75 and Up
Low-Down Closets	... 14.50 and Up
18x30 flat rim Sinks, white enameled	... 3.00 and Up

We can also make Kewanee Air Pressure Water Systems at a big reduction over former prices. Remember you can see what you get when purchasing from us, as we have six styles of tubs, six styles of lavatories and three styles of closets in stock and on display.

JOHN BAUER,

Plattsmouth, : : : Nebraska.

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

No alum, no lime phosphates

As every housekeeper can understand, burnt alum and sulphuric acid—the ingredients of all alum and alum-phosphate powders—must carry to the food acids injurious to health.

Read the label. Avoid the alum powders