Grand Ball.

At Murray, Neb., Saturday evening, May 1, given by G. E. Burger at Jenkins' Hall. Music by L. F. Jacobs orchestra of Omaha. Make it a point to attend this dance, as every effort will be made to give you a good time.

Ora Whitehead yesterday suffered the misfortune to very seriously cut his foot while engaged in splitting wood at the Whitehead home near Murray. The young man had the bad luck to have the ax slip and it struck him on the toe and foot, cutting off a portion of the toe and causing the blood to spurt from the injury in a stream as large as a lead pencil. His mother hastily tied up the injury and hurriedly summoned Dr. Brendel who arrived post haste and proceeded to stop the flow of blood and dress the injury. The young man will be unable to get about on the injured member for some little time.

The progressive pitch club last evening held their last meeting for this season with Misses Fiede Berger at her home near Nehawka. As is always the case with the meetings of this club, the evening was spent most delightfully, the guests finding Miss Berger a superb entertainer. The entire evening was taken up in cards, music and a generally fine social time. Later the charming hostess entertained her guests with a two course luncheon which all united in saying was one of the best and finest arranged they had ever had the good fortune to sit down to. The luncheon alone is generally considered as well near as fine a one as it would be possible for any one to enjoy and Miss Berger certainly leaves a pleasant spot in the hearts of her many friends by her magnificent entertainment. As this is the last meeting of the club until next winter it will serve to furnish them with most pleasant recollections of a delightful winter's amusement.

Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Ost, Whitehead, Brown, Tigner, Misses Jessis Drost, Etta Nickles, Fiede Berger, Marguerite Berger, Messrs. Jack Chalfant, John Hobschedt, George Nickles, Lee Nickles, Nelson Berger.

The Boss Pitch Player.

Mr. Allen Wilson, manager of the Jones Grain Co., was in Murray and Mynard last Monday and Tuesday looking after their business interests at those points. Mr. Wilson is well known in this locality and has hosts of friends who are always glad to see him. While here he spent a few hours at the home of his old time friend, J. A. Walker, immediately south of town. When this meeting came to pass it called for a hotly contested game of pitch which resulted in our old friend Mr. Walker getting badly "skinned" as it were. Now, we have great sympathy for this excellent old gentleman, and feel sorry for his misfortune, but we have played with him ourselves, and we are glad to know that we have a friend in our neighboring city that is entirely too much for him.

A Swell Head.

You have no doubt heard this expression very often, when it was placed in an entirely different term from what we are going to apply it. This time we mean it, and believe we are justified in using it here. We refer to the large elk head that so gracefully and prominently adorns the wall of the Murray State Bank. The animal was killed some time ago by Elmer Boedeker, a cousin of cashier Boedeker, in Wyoming. It was killed last August during a visit Elmer was making in that locality, and placed in the hands of the taxidermist at Lander for mounting, and arrived in Murray a short time ago. It is one of the handsomest specimens we have ever seen, and it is highly prized by Mr. Boedeker.

Almost Finished.

John Kinser, the boss Plattsmouth plasterer, returned to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening, after several days and having finished the work on the new residence of Sam Pitman, one of the finest homes in Murray. John Kinser has done a great deal of work in this locality, and in every instance it has been the most satisfactory. He understands the work and it is always done right. W. W. Hamilton was the contractor on the job, and it might be added too that the carpenter work is about as fine as modern methods of building can make it. Mr. Hamilton is a thorough mechanic in his line and under his supervision and workmanship all contracts are finished to the entire satisfaction of his patrons. It is expected that Mr. and Mrs. Pitman will get into their new home in a few weeks.

Mrs. C. A. Rawls is attending to business matters in Omaha this afternoon, being a passenger for that city on the themal train at noon.

Schools Close.

Prof. Ericson's room of the Murray Schools, the Pleasant Hill and the Chriswiser districts, close their terms of winter school last week, and a genuine good time in the shape of combined picnic was held at the beautiful grove of C. A. Davis last Friday.

Both rooms of the Murray schools joined the picnic, although Mrs. Brendel's room does not close until this week, owing to a week vacation they had some time ago. The occasion was a most pleasant one to all, about 100 were in attendance and a various line of amusements were indulged in. A game of base ball was pulled off between Murray and Pleasant Hill, in which the former came out victorious. The young people had a most enjoyable time, and they will all remember the closing school days of 1909.

We take this method of extending our sincere thanks for the kindnesses extended us during the recent sad and sudden death of dear daughter. The many friends who assisted us at this time shall ever hold a warm spot in our sad hearts.

Without a Stomach.

It was proved by several operations, that it is possible for a person to live, for some time, even if the stomach was taken out. But what a life such a person leads. He can only have a slight idea of it when taken sick and unable to eat without pain or other discomfort. A person with a sick stomach is practically in the same position as a person without any stomach. This shows how important it is to take care of any irregularities of indigestion. As soon as a change in the appetite or in the stomach is noticed Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine should be used. It stimulates the digestive organs to work, refreshes the whole system, makes pure, rich blood and thus gives nourishment to every particle of our body. Use it when ever you need a good stomach. At drug stores. Jos Triner, 616-622 South Ashland avenue, Chicago, Ill.
