

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Monday's Evening Journal

Miss Mary Propst was a passenger this morning for Omaha where she will spend the day with friends.

Mrs. Joe Droege is spending the day in Omaha being a passenger for that point this morning on the early train.

Ed. Schulhof came over Saturday afternoon from his duties at Glenwood, returning this morning after visiting with his folks.

C. O. Richards spent Sunday in the city visiting with friends, returning to his duties with the Union Pacific at Omaha this morning.

France Ballance came over last Saturday afternoon from Glenwood to spend Sunday with his folks, returning to his work this morning.

Phillip Andres and wife of Council Bluffs came in Saturday evening to spend Sunday with E. A. Wurl and wife, returning home this morning.

James Niday came up this morning from Union to appear as a witness in the Thacker will contest spending the day in the city and paying the Journal a very pleasant call.

Former Mayor Henry R. Gering came down Saturday night to spend Sunday with his folks, returning to Omaha last evening.

Mrs. Jas. M. Jiroushek and son are spending the day with friends in Omaha being passengers for that city on the morning train.

Ed. Polln returned to his work at South Omaha this morning after spending the end of the week with his family in this city.

Mrs. J. M. Leek came down Saturday night from Ralston to attend lodge meeting, returning to that point on the morning train.

Will White, Jay McCaffrey, Leo Byrnes, Oscar Irwin and Ray Travis of Omaha were in the city Saturday evening attending the dance at Coates Hall.

Charles L. Graves, the urbane and gentlemanly editor of the Union Ledger, is spending the day in the city, having come up on matters connected with the Thacker will contest. Mr. Graves paid the Journal a pleasant call and is very welcome.

Matt McQuinn, one of the best citizens in Liberty precinct, is in the city today looking after matters in connection with the Thacker case. Mr. McQuinn is one of the best people of the southeast end of the county and he never neglects to call on the Journal when he is in town. His visits are always appreciated by the force on the paper.

L. D. Hatt departed this morning for Ralston where he will figure with the stove foundry at that point for some castings for the new machine which the Olson Photograph Company is putting on the market.

Carl Neuman came down Saturday night to spend Sunday with his folks in this city returning to Omaha Sunday afternoon on the two o'clock train. Carl is now employed in a contract shop in that city and is doing quite well.

Miss Patton of Omaha spent Sunday in the city with Miss Florence Dovey.

Mrs. John Roetter went to Omaha this morning to visit her daughter, who is very sick.

Miss Epenetter of Omaha was in the city Sunday making a visit with Miss Catherine Dovey.

M. B. Hank came down several days since to make a visit with friends for a few days.

Carl Kunsman is spending the afternoon in South Omaha, going to that city on the noon train.

Miss Minnie McKay is spending the afternoon in Omaha, going to that city on the mail train at noon.

H. H. Kuhney is spending the afternoon in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the mail train.

The weather is very delightful at the present writing, but how long it will favor us, no one can tell.

Miss Minnie Will was a passenger this morning on the early train for Omaha where she will spend the day with friends.

Mrs. Jacob Heinrich and daughter Katie were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day with friends.

Miss Lucille Randall who has been visiting with her folks in the city for several days, departed this morning for Fremont.

A. J. Trillity was a passenger this morning for Ralston where he will look the field over with a view of making investments.

David L. Amick, the prominent stock buyer is spending the day in Lincoln, being a passenger for that city on the morning train.

Canon Burgess of the Episcopal church was a passenger this morning for Lincoln where he will make a visit with M. C. Dimone, a sick friend. He expects to return this evening.

Frank Gobelman returned this morning from the hospital where he has been confined so long as the result of an operation. It is pleasing to say that Mr. Gobelman has quite recovered and is now able to be about again. The operation which was performed was a bad one and he will be under the necessity of using crutches for some time but eventually he will recover and be himself once more.

Mrs. Elsa Wood formerly Miss Elsa Streitwieser, who has been visiting in this city with her parents Herman Streitwieser and wife departed this morning for her home at Centerville, Ia. Mrs. Wood was only recently married in Omaha to John Wood who had gone into business at Centerville, to which place Mrs. Wood departed. She was accompanied by her sister, Hattie Close who will make her future home at that place. Her husband is employed at that point and she goes over to join him. This leaves Herman and his wife without the girls and they are quite lonesome.

Peter Smith came in today from his home near Murray and is attending to business matters. Mr. Smith is of the opinion that the peach crop this year will be rather short, the recent frost having killed most of the buds. He will return home tonight.

P. H. Mack and wife departed this noon for Bellevue where Mr. Mack acts as extra agent and operator for the Burlington for several weeks. Mr. Mack has been acting as operator at this point for the past month during the absence of Agent Pickett.

Charles N. Sullivan and wife came in last Saturday night from their home at St. Joseph, Mo., for a visit with the parents of the former. Mr. Sullivan is looking fine and seems to have profited by the Missouri climate as he is quite fat and hearty. "Sub" is the same old boy and his many friends in this city are glad to see him and happy to know that things have been so well with him.

It is a real pleasure to go over Cass and note how anxious the people are to subscribe for the Journal.

Chas. S. Duke is looking after business in Omaha this afternoon being a passenger for that city on the mail train.

Thos. Sherwood who spent Sunday in the city with relatives, returned to Omaha this noon on the mail train.

Oscar Larson was a passenger this noon on the mail train for Bellevue where he will resume his school studies.

H. E. Rand is looking after business matters in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the mail train at noon.

Fred Waugh of Lincoln, spent Saturday night and Sunday in the city, the guest of Mr. J. Livingston Richey.

Mrs. L. A. Shaw departed this noon on the mail train for Friend, Neb., where she will visit with her parents for a few days.

Mrs. George Wall, of LaPlatte, came over this morning to do some shopping, returning to her home on the mail train at noon.

C. Benzen, the prominent citizen from the Mynard neighborhood, came in this morning to attend to business matters in the city.

Sam. Long, the prominent South Bend contractor, was in the city this morning being a passenger on the mail train at noon for Omaha.

S. H. Shumaker, the well known pump man, is looking after business in Omaha this afternoon, going to that city on the mail train at noon.

Al. Leslie, the popular Nebraska City traveling man, came in this noon on the mail train for a visit with his many customers in this city.

Mrs. Joe Fitzgerald was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon being taken there by some business matters of Mr. Fitzgerald which needed attention.

A. L. Anderson departed this morning on the early train for Malvern where he hopes to make an impression on the merchants of that city with his goods.

Sam Waugh, Jr. who came down from Lincoln on Saturday in connection with stock taking at the Burlington storehouse, returned to that city yesterday afternoon.

Herman (Skeets) Martens came down Saturday evening from Omaha where he is employed to spend Sunday with his folks, returning on the mail train at noon.

J. S. Miller, wife and family who have been spending several days with Charles Miller and family, were passengers this noon for Omaha where they will make their home.

Claude Everett, the prominent Liberty precinct farmer, came up this morning to give in some testimony in the Thacker will case, returning to his home northeast of Union this evening.

Peter Smith came in today from his home near Murray and is attending to business matters. Mr. Smith is of the opinion that the peach crop this year will be rather short, the recent frost having killed most of the buds. He will return home tonight.

P. H. Mack and wife departed this noon for Bellevue where Mr. Mack acts as extra agent and operator for the Burlington for several weeks. Mr. Mack has been acting as operator at this point for the past month during the absence of Agent Pickett.

Charles N. Sullivan and wife came in last Saturday night from their home at St. Joseph, Mo., for a visit with the parents of the former. Mr. Sullivan is looking fine and seems to have profited by the Missouri climate as he is quite fat and hearty. "Sub" is the same old boy and his many friends in this city are glad to see him and happy to know that things have been so well with him.

From the Ledger.

The report reaches us (via the elated Grandpa Standish) that Bert Hansell and wife of near Murray are the parents of a fine daughter born April 22, and that Bert thinks he is the biggest man on earth.

A marriage license was issued in Omaha a few days ago to Peter Herstopoulou and Ashla Paraskevopoulou. We'd like to hear Rev. Lake or Judge Foster "rattle" with that pair of names in performing the marriage ceremony.

Steve Taylor's son Aida, who was in an Omaha hospital several weeks where an operation was performed, has been getting along very nicely and they brought him home last Saturday. He continues improving and in due time his health will no doubt be completely restored.

W. F. Tracy and wife who have been enjoying themselves visiting in several states since leaving here, arrived on Tuesday to spend a few days with numerous friends. Mr. Tracy informs us that he has not yet decided upon a location and is in no hurry to do so.

Mrs. Edwin Shoemaker and the children arrived from Omaha yesterday, and Mr. Shoemaker will be here soon with their shipment of household goods. They have been in Omaha several years, where Mr. Shoemaker was connected with one of the banks, but they concluded that farm life would suit them and they will assist in the management of the farms southwest of here.

Miss Grace Mougey, who was taken to a hospital in Lincoln last week to be treated for appendicitis, is reported to be getting along very nicely. The surgeons performed the operation Saturday morning, and the patient's condition thereafter was satisfactory in every respect. Her recovery is assured but it will be necessary for her to remain in the hospital for some time.

Louisville.

From the Courier.

Mrs. George Waldron and family left Tuesday for Knife River, Minn., where they will make their future home.

John Ossenkop returned from Lincoln yesterday, where he had been to visit with Henry Lehmann who is very sick, as the effect of a large tumor.

The stone is being placed on the ground for the new building to be erected where the old Gold Dust saloon building stood, and work will be commenced at once.

The editor of the Eagle Beacon has returned to resume his duties. Not long since he left town between two days, as mysteriously as did the late Col. Scaggs of the Beaver Crossing Times. The way of the average country editor is indeed hard.

Frank Dunlop, the man who it is said fleeced several Louisville people out of their hard earned cash, and was chief promoter of the famous oil well at this place a few years ago, is now confined in a Colorado penitentiary, being placed there on the charge of forgery.

Last week's Courier stated that the applications of the Misses Mills and Carlson, for positions in the Louisville schools, were rejected. This was a mistake on our part, as they had not made applications for the school, and we gladly make the correction in justice to these ladies.

Ed. Taylor met with a painful accident at the Calhoun Construction company's works Thursday. He was riding on a load of dirt which was being conveyed to the dump and when he jumped off the hind wheel of the wagon ran over his left foot, smashing it quite badly and breaking the third and fourth metatarsals.

Elmwood.

Leader-Echo.

Floyd Woolcott and Miss Ella Bryan drove over to Ashland Sunday.

A handsome baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Backemeyer, of near Louisville yesterday.

Bernice Mendenhall is rapidly recovering from her recent attack of pneumonia. The nurse, Miss Edith Perry, returned to Elmwood Tuesday.

Frank and Joe Stokes, who have been very low with pneumonia, are now much improved. The nurse, Miss Esther Anderson, has returned to Omaha.

County Attorney Howard Saxton, of Pender, Thurston county, this state, came in Sunday morning for a visit with his parents and to accompany his wife and baby on their way home, the family leaving Elmwood Monday.

J. C. Hayes arrived Tuesday from Pasadena, Cal. We met him at the depot and carried his suit case up town. He says Mrs. Hayes doesn't thrive as well as he in the Pacific coast state.

Messrs R. W. Green and L. A. Tyson have their respective places very nicely decorated for the soda season. Too much can not be said of the cleanly appearance of both places. See advertisements elsewhere in this paper.

John Baird went to Omaha Tuesday morning where we understand he has undergone a surgical operation. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Grant. A nice bouquet was ordered sent to him by his Elmwood friends, and we hear he is doing nicely at this writing.

Auto Party From Avoca.

An automobile party consisting of H. G. Wellenslek, cashier of the Bank of Avoca, Gus Bus, one of the prominent business men of the city, and Gus, and Ben Mohr, two of the best young men of the city, invaded the Journal office this afternoon and made themselves at home. It is needless to say that they were received with open arms and were made to know that they were in the house of their friends. These gentlemen can always depend on the latch string of the Journal being on the outside for them. They came over in Mr. Wellenslek's fine auto and made fast time. They expect to return this evening.

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

ROYAL Baking Powder

Absolutely PURE

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Tuesday Evening's Daily Journal

Clarence Tefft, the Weeping Water attorney, is looking after business matters in the city today.

Mrs. Geo. Sayles came down this morning from Cedar Creek to visit with her son George for the day.

Steve Orton, the well known druggist of Weeping Water, is in the city today attending to business matters.

Herman Pankonin came in this morning from Louisville to look after some business matters in the city.

Mrs. D. Ames of Mynard who is employed at Glenwood was a passenger for that city on the early morning train.

Miss Kaufman of Cedar Creek is spending the day in the city, having come down on the Schuyler this morning.

Wm. Stohman came down this morning from his home near Manly to look after some business matters, returning this afternoon on the Schuyler train.

Jacob Schneider came down this morning from Cedar Creek to look after some business matters and to spend the day with his brother, the register of deeds.

Word reaches the city that Andrew Jackson McNatt, police judge of Kenosha, has purchased a new red pump. It is said Judge McNatt is a mighty proud man over that pump.

Mrs. Harold of Pekin, Ill., came in this morning for a visit with her mother and her sister Mrs. John P. Sattler. Mrs. Harold has been visiting several weeks in Omaha with relatives and came down here on her way home for a visit with her folks.

Peter Campbell, chief of police of Kenosha, was in the city today attending to business. Mr. Campbell is a three time winner in Kenosha, having recently been elected for his third term as chief of police. Pete is a terror to evil doers.

Fred Holka and wife and daughter, came down this morning from South Bend to attend to business matters. They paid the Journal a very pleasant call and they are cordially invited to return. Mr. Holka is one of the best citizens of South Bend precinct and a good friend of the Journal.

J. H. Meisinger came down this morning from his home at Cedar Creek to attend to some business matters. Mr. Meisinger is one of Cass County's best people and he is well liked by the citizens of Plattsmouth who hope he can always find it convenient to the county seat and let the people here meet him.

Con Miller who has been visiting several days in the city with Henry Steinhauer and family departed this morning for his home at Ord, Neb. Mr. Miller has been making an extended trip to points in Missouri, Iowa and South Dakota and stopped off here to visit with his relatives.

Vilas P. Sheldon came up this afternoon from his home at Nehawka in his big Oldsmobile bringing with him a fine crowd of Nehawka men. The party consisted of Henry Heebner, J. A. Hansen and E. G. Young and they had a very pleasant trip. Mr. Sheldon is the Cass County agent for the Oldsmobile and he certainly has a fine machine. The machine is not alone a fine looking one but it is the goods. Mr. Sheldon has picked out a machine which is warranted to do everything an automobile can do and those wanting to buy a machine will do well to talk with him.

Mrs. August Anderson was a passenger on the early train this morning for Council Bluffs where she will spend the day with friends.

L. B. Brown, mayor of Kenosha, and general factorum of that particular end of the universe, was in the city today attending to business matters.

George Thacker who has been in the city for several days, attending to business in connection with the Thacker will contest, returned to his home at Homer, Neb., on the mail train.

Geo. A. B. Hicks came in today from his home in Eight Mile Grove precinct to look after some business matters, returning this afternoon to his home.

B. P. Rice and wife departed this noon on the mail train for Thermopolis, Wyo., where they now live, after a visit of several days in the city with relatives.

Dr. E. W. Cook and Dr. E. D. Cummins were passengers this noon on the mail train for Omaha where they will attend the meeting of the state medical society this afternoon.

Adam Fornoff, one of the best men in Cass County, came down this morning from Eight Mile Grove precinct to attend to business matters, returning to Cedar Creek on the Schuyler train this afternoon.

Wm. Stohman came down this morning from his home near Manly and looked after business in the city. He is one of Cass County's good men and a good citizen and furthermore he is some democrat and is proud of it.

Henry Snoko, Jr., came in last evening from Eagle, turning in his books as assessor of Tipton precinct. Mr. Snoko is the first to finish his work and County Assessor Soenichsen was glad to have him appear. He is one of the best precinct assessors the county boasts of.

George Midkiff, one of the best farmers from the new country around Homer, returned to that point today after spending several days in the city in attendance on the Thacker contest. Mr. Midkiff paid the Journal a pleasant visit and was one of the best visitors the paper had had in some time. It is to be hoped he comes again and often.

Mrs. J. F. Cook and daughter Gladys of Beaver City, who have been visiting in the city with the Gerdors and Belns families, returned to her home this noon on the mail train. Mrs. Cook had a very enjoyable time and her departure was heartily regretted by her many friends in this section.

George Everett and wife came up from his farm east of Union today to look after some business matters and incidentally to act as a witness in the Thacker will case. Mr. Everett is one of the best citizens of Cass County and he is always a welcome visitor at the Journal office. He came in this afternoon and was a guest for some time.

Rev. J. H. Salsbury was a passenger this noon on the mail train for Omaha where he will attend a meeting of the trustees of the Omaha University. The university contemplates the erection of several buildings and other investments of considerable moment and Rev. Salsbury is quite sanguine they can make it one of the greatest educational institutions in the west in a short time.

A pure, wholesome, reliable Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder

The cream of tartar used in Dr. Price's Baking Powder is in the exact form and composition in which it occurs in the luscious, healthful grape.

Improves the flavor and adds to the healthfulness of the food

No Alum

No lime Phosphate

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder