Miss O'Connor was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. O'Connor while visiting here and will be well remembered by a number of our people who extend their sympathy.

Asks for Divorce.

In district court several days since a petition was filed by Charles E. Cherry asking for a decree of divorce against his wife Elizabeth Cherry. The petition sets forth that the couple were married in Plattsmouth on Oct. 17, 1893, and the plaintiff alleges that he has ever since conducted himself toward the defendant as a faithful husband and had provided her with the necessary means of support. That on May 5, 1909, the defendant was guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff by striking and beating him and ill treating him and using vile and indecent language toward him and calling him vile names. That on May 15 of the same year she repeated the offense and in addition charged him with dishonesty and kindred offenses. The issue of the marriage is one son, Albert, aged 15 years. The plaintiff wants a decree of absolute divorce. Matthew Gering is his counsel.

More Evidence in Murder Case

Thacker. By Mr. Gering. Not positive whether it was John or Lon Thacker who ran for overcoat.

L. G. Larson called. Carpenter. Knew defendant. Was at Darrough farm with Mr. Olson. Had made measurements of tank, crib and etc. Shown a paper which was withdrawn. Measured from southeast corner of the crib to the north of the tank. Water-tank 26 feet. From there to tank 22 1-2 feet. The fall was 2 feet 8 inches. At the time the photograph was made it was 8 feet from the crib to the head of the horses. Other measurements were made which were testified to by witness. Witness was shown photograph of the premises and testified to looking through the cracks of the crib. He saw men standing in the positions shown by the photographs. He looked through the fifteenth crack from the floor north of the door, and the fourteenth crack on the south. Distances were 6 foot 7 inches on the south from the ground. These were directed to be placed by Ira Clark, he thought.

Mr. Gering cross-examined. Larson is 5 feet 9 inches high. Stood in corn crib 2 or 3 feet north of the door. Witness was looking across to see two men the other side of the wagon. Two men were in the wagon. Mr. Gering went into what the witness saw through the crack as to a person stooping over. He testified that if a man stooped over a foot or two feet he could not see them. The testimony of the witness which was to show what he could see of the body of Thacker was ruled out by Judge Travis.

The Guild Entertainment.

The entertainment given by the ladies of St. Mary's Guild for the benefit of the fund to rebuild the parish house and rectory, last night at Coates hall was a great success in every way. There was a large attendance and considerable money was realized in aid of the project.

Those attending were treated to a five program which rivaled any hitherto presented in the city. Owing to a lack of space it is impossible to give the entertainment full notice today but it will be reviewed later in a more thorough manner. The several numbers were all excellently given, Miss Lura Kuhlman of Nebraska City favoring the assemblage with an especially fine solo which was appreciated. Miss Kuhlman is one of the finest singers heard here for sometime and her rendition of her number was very finished. Miss Lucille Bates made her first appearance for sometime, treated the audience to a solo of exquisite sweetness and renewing the high appreciation of her many friends. Miss Bates sang very charmingly. Prof. Austin as usual was one of the star features of a program of stars and comment upon his work with superfluous. Miss Edith and Master George Dovey also furnished a pleasing feature of the program which won a place with the audience. Charles Acord also established himself as a popular favorite and drew merited appreciation. The duet of Meadames Donnelly and Britt was splendid and excellently given. The remaining musical numbers including the quartette were all excellent. The pantomime "Mary Jane's Love Story" was a novel and entertaining and the drill was fine. Further notice will be given later of this delightful evening.

Narrow Escape.

The Missouri Pacific this morning had a narrow escape from a disastrous wreck near their depot. The north bound passenger train was on time and came into the city at a good rate of speed. Approaching the overhead crossing over Elm street, the rear trucks of the baggage and express car flew the track and ran over the ties across the viaduct and along the fill on the north side. The train was brought to a stop without any further damage than derailing the one car and tearing up the track to some extent. The train was delayed for several hours and the train for the south was delayed via Weeping Water. The passengers were hardly aware of the derailment until all the excitement was over. Many of the passengers realizing that they would be delayed for sometime came over to the Burlington and were passengers on that road for Omaha.

W. H. Hell, the proprietor of the Pleasant View Stock farm near Cedar Creek is in the city today attending to business matters. While here he called upon the Journal and it is quite needless to say his visit was appreciated. Mr. Hell has made himself a wide reputation as a breeder of Red Polled cattle.

Frank Albin, who has been here attending the Clarence murder trial, departed this morning for his home at Wausa, Neb., this morning. Mr. Albin formerly resided at Union, and is a reader of the Journal, calling to renew his subscription ere departing for his home. Like all who remove elsewhere from Cass county, he can't keep house without the homewens.

Announcement comes from Washington of the appointment of Miss M. E. Kaufman as postmaster at Cedar Creek vice A. O. Ault, resigned. This is a highly commendable appointment. Miss Kaufman being a bright, intelligent and businesslike young woman and one of the leading merchants of the town. She will make an excellent postmistress and one of whom there will be no complaint. The people of Cedar Creek are to be congratulated upon her appointment.

B. B. Danlifer of Murray, was one of the passengers this morning on the M. P. train which jumped the track near the depot, intending to go of Omaha. After discovering that the train could not get through for an indefinite length of time, he went down to the Burlington station to complete his trip. Mr. Danlifer has business matter to attend to in Omaha and in addition will visit with relatives.

A Frightened Horse.

A horse belonging to Louis Leiner this morning took fright at an automobile driven by Col. Jenkins of Murray and ran away demolishing the buggy to which he was hitched. The horse was uninjured. The animal ran from the front of Gorder's implement store where he was hitched to the corner of Fifth and Vine streets where it landed the buggy across the tongue of a wagon standing there. A wheel was torn from the buggy at Main and Third streets and the rest of the rig was demolished in the collision with the wagon at Fifth and Vine.

According to Mr. Leiner the auto was being driven at an excessive speed and no effort was made by the driver to slow down his machine when he saw the animal plunging and trying to break away. This practice should be stopped and more caution exercised in driving these machines through the streets. Mr. Leiner suffered a loss in having to walk home and secure another rig before he could attend to the business which had brought him to the city. An example should be made of drivers who have such small consideration for their neighbors property and the police should enforce the law against them.
