Sam Pitman and wife are as happy as two larks in the spring time. They are now occupying their new home, recently completed to their notion.

The many friends of Mrs. Mark White in this vicinity are pleased to learn of the improved condition of that lady. All reports indicate her speedy recovery.

The district Sunday school convention which was to have taken place on Wednesday of this week in Murray, has been postponed to some date in August.

Children's Day was very fittingly observed at both churches last Sunday. In the morning at the Christian church and in the evening at the Presbyterian church. Large audiences attended both places and the program was admirably rendered.

Mr. Robert F. Gilder, of Omaha, was a guest of Dr. Gilmore over Wednesday, coming down from the metropolis Tuesday night. Mr. Gilder is an archeologist of national reputation and has discovered some very interesting relics of a prehistoric people living along the Missouri river bluffs, near Rock Bluffs. Mr. Gilder is a very pleasing gentleman, and we were pleased to meet him.

Remember the band social Saturday night, June 19.

Mrs. Alf Nickles was in Nebraska City Monday doing some shopping.

Chas. Carroll and wife spent a couple of days in Plattsmouth last week, visiting friends.

Jim Holmes was in Omaha last Monday, but it is said he just went to take Ralph to see the circus.

Mrs. Will Oliver and daughter, Mrs. Chas. Countryman attended the graduating exercises at Peru last Tuesday.

Will Hamilton and force have been engaged the past few days in doing some work at the Walker place, west of town.

Prof. Crandell was over from Nehawka Tuesday night, instructing the band and reports the band getting along very nicely.

Don't fail to attend the ice cream social for the benefit of the band, one week from Saturday night. A good time is guaranteed to all who come.

The farmers of the vicinity are discouraged on account of the washout of hundreds of acres of corn. Evidently this community has received more than its share of moisture this spring.

Mrs. Edmunds entertained a few relatives at dinner Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Lucy Root, of Weeping Water, and Mrs. Nellie Fraught, of Plainview, Neb., who are visiting friends in Murray and vicinity.

The Kensington met with Mrs. Arthur Baker Wednesday afternoon. Besides spending a few hours most enjoyably, a two course luncheon was spread which was pronounced by all the best number of the program.

We noticed at the depot Wednesday morning in a vessel about two hundred small minnows sailing around in the water. Now this means that Agent Scott, John Cook, and Jimmie Loughridge intend doing some fishing ere the lapse of many days. The boys always return with something better than the usual "fisherman's luck."

Levi Slagle was a Plattsmouth visitor Monday.

Miles Standish was a county seat visitor Monday.

Mrs. A. L. Baker was in Plattsmouth last Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Rhoden was a Plattsmouth visitor Monday.

Mrs. J. A. Walker and daughter Miss Marjorie were in Plattsmouth Thursday of this week.

P. B. Smith and J. L. Smith were looking after some business matters in the county seat last Monday.

Nick Klausens and G. M. Minford are still buying all the marketable cattle and hogs in this vicinity, and shipping consignments to South Omaha every day or two.

Mrs. Lucy Root, of Weeping Water, and her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Fraught, and son Vance, of Plainview, Neb., are here visiting relatives, the guests of H. E. Long and wife and William Sporer and wife.

James Brown's many friends will be pleased to learn that he has improved very much in the past week, and from present indications he will be able to return from Omaha in a few days, where he has been in the hospital for several weeks.

Mrs. M. G. Churchill and little daughter were in Plattsmouth last Friday, going up on the early passenger train, being in the small wreck that occurred near the county seat. Fortunately no one was injured, but the news reached Murray that a serious wreck had taken place, and M. G. was not long in getting to Plattsmouth when he heard the news, and he was a pretty happy man when he learned the news was false, and neither his wife or baby were injured in the least.

The Boys Walked Home.

Roy and Sherman Cole came to town Tuesday evening to attend band practice. They left their team and buggy hitched in front of the postoffice. About 10 o'clock the ice cream sign of Postmaster Baker moved in such a manner as to scare the horses, and they broke loose and started in the direction of home, where the boys supposed they had gone. The boys "lit out" and walked home. But it seems the team had no idea of going home and, instead, turned into one of the backlots and remained all night. The next morning after daybreak, they perhaps concluded they would go home to feed, and they were seen emerging from the lot in a homeward direction. No injury whatever was done.

Stock Wanted.

I have 250 acres of pasture and will take a limited number of cattle and horses for the season.
Frank Vallery, Murray.

The Journal in Error.

While in Murray Wednesday, and in conversation with M. G. Churchill, who was in Plattsmouth with Col. Jenkins Saturday, and was in the auto at the time the Leiner horse ran away he said the Journal greatly erred in its report of the affair. Mr. Churchill says the auto had stopped and the horse did not attempt to run until the hitch strap by which it was tied to a ring in the walk got wound around its leg, which also helped to frighten the animal. It did not jump as though frightened, but walked several steps and could have been caught by some men on the sidewalk before it began to run. Of course this is the other side of the story, and we are sorry that any misstatement was made in giving what the Journal thought a correct account of the incident.

Band Social.

Murray has a band composed of twenty of the young men of this vicinity. The boys are doing their level best to come to the front as a musical organization. They have employed an instructor and this is a big expense. In order to help them out in this undertaking they will give an ice cream social on Saturday night, June 19, and expect all who are interested in the welfare of the band to patronize them on this occasion. If the weather will permit the social will be held on a lawn, and if not it will take place in the hall. Remember the date boys, and don't forget to bring your best girls. Older men, of course, can bring their wives and children. All are guaranteed a nice, social time, with plenty of ice cream and cake, interspersed with plenty of music.

Going Some.

A week ago last Sunday Charley Mitchell, wife and three children came over from Shenandoah, Ia., to visit his uncle, H. C. Long. They came over in an auto, leaving home at 7 o'clock in the morning. After spending three hours very pleasantly with Mr. Long and family, they departed for Shenandoah, where they arrived at 6 o'clock in the evening. Shenandoah is about 65 miles from Murray, and we consider that is was going some, considering the roads were nearly impassable, and that it took quite a little time to ferry across the river at Plattsmouth.

To Head of Horses for Sale.

The undersigned has 20 head of good young horses to dispose of at private sale, in any number desired. They are large-boned, in good shape, and none of the brando order. They can be found at my place, six miles southeast of Murray. Come and see them for yourselves. Prices reasonable.

Another Happy Couple.

Two prominent and popular young people of this county were united in marriage last Saturday afternoon at the County Court house, when Judge Beeson joined Cecil L. Thomas, aged 21, and Miss Minnie Stohman, aged 21, in holy matrimony. The wedding took place in the court room, with only a few spectators present and it was quite an informal affair. Mr. Thomas, the groom is well and favorably known throughout this section where he has lived for many years. He is now a resident of Long Beach, Cal., where his father, Walter L. Thomas, is part owner of a large garage and where he is employed as superintendent. The young man is one of the best and most popular young men this section has produced and a young man of marked ability in many lines. For a long time he was a mail carrier on one of the rural routes out of this city and his many former patrons will be delighted to learn that he came back to old Cass for a bride. He is a grandson of former Senator S. L. Thomas, and comes from one of the leading families of the county.

The bride is a daughter of the late Aug. Stohman, and a young lady of rare attainments in all ways. She is a handsome and gifted young woman and one who enjoys the acquaintance of a wide circle of good friends. The many acquaintances and friends join with The Journal in wishing this young couple under the sunniest skies and the happiest winds on their voyage upon the matrimonial seas. They will make their home at Long Beach, Cal.
