

Give Fine Concert

People who were down town last evening were treated to a fine exhibition of good music by the Woodmen band which played a number of airs on the street prior to the meeting of Cass Camp, of which they are all members. The constant and steady improvement of this band is a subject of comment by everyone and much praise is justly bestowed upon them. The good music which they produce—and it is far better than many bands made up of old and practiced musicians—is the direct result of their untiring work, constant practice and the mastery direction which they have received at the hands of Frank Janda, jr., their director. Through a mistake Mr. Cyril Janda, also a finished conductor and director of the City band, was given credit for the direction of the Woodmen band when it should have read Frank Janda, jr., a young man who bids fair to make himself a name in this particular line. All of the retinal ability of the musicians, he has been successful in producing a band of which not alone the Woodmen but the city as a whole is proud.

The selections which they played last night covered a wide range of music, from grave to gay, from waltz to marches and the repertoire includes every kind of music which is written. All of it is played in masterly style and new music requires but a few readings by this band to be given as it is written.

The meeting of the M. W. A. last night was one of the best held by that order for a long time. There was an attendance of close to one hundred members and considerable business was transacted. Perhaps, the most important work done was the appropriation of $225 for uniforms for the band. The members of the organization realized that the band was a splendid advertisement for the lodge but it was also a great amusement for Plattsmouth and they voted this sum with a cheerful will. The band includes twenty pieces and the lodge purchased every man a good uniform costing a fraction over $11 each when taken as a whole. The suits have been ordered and will be rushed at once so that the boys can turn out spick and span in their bright new clothes.

To say the members of the band are pleased with the action of Cass Camp is to draw it mild but they are not the only ones in the city proud to have a real uniformed and up-to-date band. The official name of the band is the M. W. A. of Cass Camp No. 322 which is inscribed upon the brass drum.

After the meeting last night refreshments were served and a general social time had before the members departed for their homes.

The Diamond Ring Contest.

Below appears the first week's count in the great diamond ring contest recently inaugurated by Nemetz & Co., manufacturers of Fairy ice cream and confections. This contest has just started but it is going to be a little the hottest one ever given in this city and already the names of the contestants amount to a long row. None of them are too far to be caught easily and it is expected that there will be a big bunch of contestants together when the fight is over. The popular young ladies of the city all have their devoted admirers and when they all get wrought up over the prizes there will be a lot of excitement. There are two prizes, the first a handsome diamond ring valued at $75 and the second a handsome silver tea set valued at $25. The contest runs three months and every 5 cent purchase means one vote for some fair lady. Below is the end of the first week's count:

The many friends of Col. H. C. McMaken will be shocked to learn that he is seriously ill at his home with pneumonia. He has been feeling bad for the past ten days but had managed to keep going until the last few days when the disease got the better of him and he is now confined to his bed. It is to be hoped that he soon recovers and is able to be out and looking after his several different lines of business.

In District Court.

He makes an auspicious start on married life by declaring his intention of becoming a good American and at the same time taking unto himself a helping mate.

A case on appeal from Justice Barnes of Weeping Water has been filed in District Clerk Robertson's office. The title of the case is George Peters vs. Chris Schomaker and it comes originally from Avoca. Peters sued Schomaker before Justice Teft at Avoca for some $158 for various debts he claimed due him and Schomaker took change of venue to Justice Barnes at Weeping Water alleging he could not get justice before Justice Teft. He also filed a counterclaim to Peters' claim. The hearing which favored Peters is appealed from.

Much Improved.

Deputy County Treasurer Fox is in receipt of a letter from his mother, Mrs. Schildknecht, at Los Angeles, Cal., conveying the cheerful information that she is considerably better after her long illness and is getting along nicer than for sometime past. She believes that she could start for home at once but her physician advises that she had best wait three or four weeks. This news is very encouraging to her many friends in this city who hope to see her improvement continue and that she will soon be able to join them here. Her letter also states that aged Grandma Brantner is not so well as in the past, having accidentally received a nervous shock which is causing her trouble. It is hoped the aged lady will speedily recover and that the illness is but passing in its effects.

She passed here at quite a lively speed, and but few people had a chance to see it. The City of Peoria will do excursion work at Omaha during the balance of the summer.

Barnum & Bailey Show.

The Barnum & Bailey greatest show on earth is to visit Omaha on Tuesday, July 13th, 1909. Never since the beginning of time has an amusement enterprise been organized as this one. All America, almost beyond belief. All America, together with every foreign country, has been scoured from end to end by agents of this big show in search of novelties and the result is a performance brim full of sensational acts new to the circus of the world. In the big Barnum & Bailey show are nearly 400 arena stars, most of whom are seen now for the first time. A new sensation will be seen in "Jupiter, the balloon horse." This remarkable animal with its fearless rider ascends to the dome of the circus tent in a balloon and descend to the ground in a shower of fireworks. Nearly 1,000 animal wonders are to be found in the big 168 cage menagerie. Eight herds of elephants, including one herd that actually plays upon musical instruments in time and tune. A group of giant giraffes, monster trained hippopotamus, only living bi-horned rhinoceros and hundreds of other strange beasts. Barnum & Bailey's big, new, free, street parade is the most gorgeous professional display ever attempted in the history of circus business. Its tremendous size and wonderful length can only be believed in the actual seeing. It is natural to expect this big circus to lead all others in quality and quantity of its street spectacle as well as in other departments of the big show, yet never in its splendid history of nearly half a century has it displayed such extravagance as is shown this year.

Any lady reader of this paper will receive, on request, a clever "No-Drip" coffee strainer coupon privilege, from Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. It is silver plated, very pretty, and positively prevents all dripping of tea or coffee. The doctor sends it, with his new free book on "Health Coffee" simply to introduce this clever substitute for real coffee. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is gaining its great popularity because of: first, its exquisite taste and flavor; second, its absolute healthfulness; third, its economy—1½ lb 25c; fourth, its convenience. No tedious 20 to 30 minutes boiling. "Made in a Minute" says Dr. Shoop. Try it at your grocer's for a pleasant surprise. F. S. White, South Side Cor. Main and Sixth Streets, Plattsmouth, Neb.

Mrs. Henry Doye and daughter, Miss Julia, of Lincoln, are in the city, the guests of Miss Teresa Hempel, coming in yesterday morning. Should her condition continue favorable she will be able to be moved to her home within a short time.

Mrs. F. W. Caldwell was a passenger this morning for Glenwood, Ia., where she will spend the day with friends.

In sickness, if a certain hidden nerve goes wrong, then the organ that that nerve controls will also surely fail. It may be a stomach nerve, or it may have given strength and support to the heart or kidneys. It was Dr. Shoop that first pointed to this vital truth. Dr. Shoop's restorative was not made to dose the stomach or to temporarily stimulate the heart or kidneys. That old fashioned method is all wrong. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to those falling inside nerves. The remarkable success of this prescription demonstrates the wisdom of treating the actual cause of the failing organs. And it is indeed easy to prove. A simple five or ten days' test will surely tell. Try it at once, and see! Sold by all dealers.
