Murray State Bank

W. G. BOEDEKER, Cashier.

A nice line of fire works at Holmes & Smith's.

Mrs. E. A. Burton, of Surprise, Neb., is visiting relatives and friends in Murray and vicinity this week.

Albert Young, J. W. Holmes, Will Brown, and Glen Boedeker auto-mobiled to the county seat Saturday evening in Glenn's flyer.

Charles Boedeker shipped a carload of fat cattle to the South Omaha market Wednesday. Mr. Boedeker accompanied them.

The Fourth of July committee are all busy. J. W. Holmes, the chairman reports of having disposed of six, and has letters from others who want privileges.

Mrs. Roy Dill was reported very ill Wednesday, and Dr. J. F. Brendel was summoned hastily to her bedside. After receiving treatment she became easier, and at the present writing is much improved.

The Fourth of July committee got busy Tuesday and Wednesday and built a new bridge across the little stream east of the railroad and leading to the celebration grounds. Ora Davis, J. W. Holmes, Will Hamilton, Will Brown and F. M. Young, sr., are the ones "to whom all credit is due."

From present indications Murray will have an awful crowd at their celebration on the 3rd of July. People from the south, east, west and north of town for miles express their intention of celebrating in Murray this year. And the committees are arranging to care for all that come.

We maneuvered around the depot a short time while in Murray Wednesday, and we noticed our good friend, Scott, the gentlemanly agent engaged in arranging his fishing paraphernalia for the next outing of the boys. It is a good thing they have such a clever fellow as "Scotty" in Murray, because he is depended upon to get everything in readiness, while Billy Brown, Jimmie Loughridge and John Cook hustle for the worms. Mr. Scott is a popular agent for the M. P. at Murray, sure.

Miss Pauline Oldham and Mrs. Addie Stoker were Plattsmouth visitors Wednesday, where they spent the day.

Those who were present at the Christian church Sunday evening highly commend the excellent discourse of Rev. Beam, the regular pastor.

Mont Robb, who is conducting one of the elevators at Mynard, visited his friends in Murray over Saturday night, taking the Sunday morning train to Wyoming to spend the day with his family.

Fred Englekemeir, of Plattsmouth, got off the train here yesterday morning and was taken to his farm, west of town, for a few days' visit, and to see how matters were progressing at the old home.

Mrs. A. L. Baker and daughter Opal went to Omaha Wednesday morning to consult a specialist in reference to a growth on the left side of Miss Opal's face, near the ear. We sincerely hope that nothing serious will result.

Col. Seybolt shipped a carload of hogs to the Nebraska City market yesterday. He went down in his auto to look after them and was accompanied by Lee Oldham. The friends of Mr. Oldham say that this is Lee's first ride in an auto and they were fearful of the result, but the Colonel being an engineer of fame brought him home in safety.

J. A. Walker received a letter from Dr. Gilmore and wife, in which they state they are enjoying a pleasant time. Doc says Oklahoma is simply grand and thinks there is a bright future for that country. He thinks they will be at home about Sunday or Monday, although he would be delighted to spend a much longer period in the new state.

Prof. Lamp, of Omaha occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening, and all who heard him were more than well pleased. He is a fine talker and a polished gentleman. He is the father of Rev. Willard Lamp, the pastor of the church, who accompanied his father home, where he remained until Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Marvin Fleming returned home from Omaha yesterday, where she has been in St. Joseph hospital for some time. She feels greatly improved.

The stork left a 9 pound boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lewis Tuesday night. Mother and child doing well and Ed. feels just as happy as a big sunflower.

Mrs. Albert Silvers was operated upon Tuesday at St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha, and late reports state that she is getting along as well as can be expected.

Charley Spangler's auto did not give as good satisfaction as he desired, and he took it to Omaha Saturday to exchange it for another but it has not arrived yet. It is one of the "Auburn" make.

Dr. W. K. Loughridge, of Milford, Neb., arrived Tuesday night to visit his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Loughridge and his brother, Jimmie, and family. Mr. Loughridge is still feeling very poorly, and while able to be up and around, he is unable to sleep only in a chair. Dr. Loughridge returned home the same evening via Omaha.

J. A. Davis, father of Ora Davis, of the firm of Davis & Pitman, received a letter from his father, who has been sojourning in Colorado for the past three months for his health, stating that he would be at home about the Fourth of July. Mr. Davis has been troubled with the asthma for some time, but thinks the climate in the mountains has benefited him somewhat.

Miscellaneous Shower.

At the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boedeker in Murray, Tuesday, a miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Ora Hutcherson, who was married to William R. Carey of Sarpy county, at the home of her parents Wednesday evening. There were twenty-two guests present, and the bride was the recipient of many beautiful as well as useful presents. Besides the social time enjoyed a three course luncheon was spread, which was much appreciated by all present. The usual mock wedding was one of the novelties of the occasion, in which the bride (in reality) Miss Hutcherson, was the bride and Miss Pearl Carey acted the part of groom. The minister performing the ceremony was Miss Eva Porter, the flower girl being Winnie Hutcherson. All performed their parts remarkably well for girls. Those who were present to enjoy this pleasant event were: Mesdames Joseph and Walter Sands, Misses Bulah Sans, Annabel and Mary Moore, Eva Porter of Mynard, Agnes Kennedy, Ida Boedeker, Pearl Carey Winnie, Ora and Flora Hutchinson, Mesdames Jno. Hendrick, J. W. Holmes, W. P. and Wm. Hutchinson, J. V. Sans and W. G. Boedeker, the hostess.

For Sale.

5,000 acres of good farming, hay and grazing land in Keith county, Nebraska, all prairie. On account of the proximity of the two Platte rivers plenty of rainfall is assured. Handy to get to, being six to twelve miles from a good town on the U. P. R. R. Price $10.00 to $15.00 per acre. Terms is desired. Address to owner. John M. Livingston, Nebraska City, Nebraska.

A Big Success.

One of the largest crowds that has been in Murray on any one occasion for years, attended the lawn social given by the band boys on Saturday evening last. Strawberries, ice cream and young ladies and reigned supreme, and all mingled as one body in social enjoyment until a late hour. All went home declaring to the great credit of the band boys, that it was one of the grandest social events that ever occurred in the town. There was plenty of ice cream, plenty of ripe strawberries, and lots of pretty young ladies present to add charm to the event. It is said the boys outdone themselves in rendering music, and it is a wonder how the band is improving daily. The receipts of the evening amounted to $32.00, and the boys are greatly pleased with their success.

Married Last Evening.

A very beautiful wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boedeker in Murray, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Ora, was united in marriage to Mr. William Carey, of Sarpy county. The ceremony was witnessed by the near friends of the contracting parties, and "all went merry as a wedding bell." An elegant feast of the many good things was enjoyed. We are unable to give the full particulars of the pleasant affair until next week. All we have learned is that the young people will make their future home at Meadow, Sarpy county. The Journal extends congratulations.

Fourth of July Dance.

The undersigners have arranged for a dance to be held at Jenkins' Hall, on Saturday, July 3. The dance will commence as early as the lovers of "tipping the light fantastic toe" may desire, and will continue as late as the crowd may demand. Jacobs' Orchestra of Omaha, will furnish the best of music, and everybody is invited to participate in the general good time expected.

Get out of the Way.

A sensible man will always try to get out of the way seeing a danger approaching. Only one danger will often be overlooked, the danger of sickness. It comes toward us giving us various signals, like sudden loss of appetite, and of strength. There is time to prevent it to do us American Elixir of Bitter Wine and the great danger of a sickness will pass by. This remedy, composed of pure, matured wine and selected herbs, is a great tonic. It will assist greatly in the digestion of food, will make new blood and will bring strength to body and mind.

It will sharpen the appetite and quickly relieve indigestion. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 616-622 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.
