

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Monday's Evening Journal

B. A. McElwain came in this morning from the north having spent Sunday in Omaha.

L. W. Lorenz is spending the day in Omaha going to that city on the early morning train.

Attorney Maxwell of Omaha spent Sunday in this city and vicinity visiting with relatives.

Silas Long and wife were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day.

B. F. Eichelberger was in the city yesterday holding Holiness meetings, returning to Tabor, Ia., this morning.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson was a passenger this morning for Lincoln where she will make a visit with her sons for several days.

Former County Attorney Rawls, now located at Granada, Col., returned to the city this morning for a visit with his family.

Mrs. W. H. Russell and sister of Ashland, spent Sunday in the city the guests of Mrs. Harmon, returning to their home this morning.

W. H. Lair and wife of Havelock spent Sunday in the city, the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Freese, returning home this morning.

Gus Olson, of the Olson Photograph Company, departed this morning for Valley, Neb., where he will take some views for the good people of that community.

Miss Catherine and Edith Dovey and Mr. Walter Spottford, of San Francisco, were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day with friends.

W. J. Lorenz, now located at Odell, Neb., came in Saturday night for a visit with his brothers, going to Omaha this morning. Mr. Lorenz is erecting a new brick building at Odell and his mission to Omaha today is to invest in materials for its completion.

Miss Mattie Rand of Alcester, S. D., a sister of H. E. Rand of this city, and Mr. Earl Holt of Worthing, Wyo., a nephew of Mr. Rand, who have been visiting him in this city, departed this morning for Holdrege, Neb., where they will make a visit before returning home.

Mrs. John Maurer departed this noon on No. 23 for Omaha from which city she will go to Central City, N. M., where her husband and son have a claim. She expects to remain for some time making them a visit.

Master William Kyle of the Masonic home departed this noon for Omaha from which point he will likely go west with a prominent officer of the Masons who is looking after his education and caring for him.

County Attorney Ramsey returned home from San Antonio, Tex., Saturday night only to find it necessary to go at once to Lincoln where he was called by professional business. He went up yesterday morning expecting to return today.

Miss Blanche Waters of Grand Island, Neb., is visiting in the city, the guest of her brother, R. O. Waters. Miss Waters is a teacher of music both instrumental and vocal and a young lady of much ability. The Journal understands that she mediates opening classes of both kinds in the city and living here.

Robt. W. Sherwood is in Omaha today purchasing the tiling, trimmings and the like for the new store front which is being put in the building. When it is completed the Sherwood building will be one of the handsomest and best in the city. Mr. Sherwood necessarily finds it inconvenient to have the store torn up and littered with rubbish from the work, but has the satisfaction of knowing that when it is over they will have a store to be proud of.

Fred Kovar of Schuyler, one of the young men who are trying to make the trip from Schuyler to Nen Orleans in a houseboat with gasoline power, was a passenger for Omaha this morning, going up to obtain some repairs for the machinery of the boat. It was necessary to wait here until the repairs could be obtained which has delayed them all this week.

Prof. Ed. Schulhof spent Sunday in the city with his folks, returning to Glenwood this morning. Mr. Schulhof states that Glenwood intends to have a monster celebration of the Fourth next Saturday and that the new Glenwood park and lake will be formerly thrown open to the public. It is anticipated a number of people will drive from this city to that place for their celebration which will be a large and enjoyable one.

Miss Leona Brady was among those who were passengers this morning for Omaha.

Gus Swanson is spending the day in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the early train.

Col. Askwith of the Masonic home business today, being a passenger for that point on the morning train.

Hans Tams departed this morning for the O'Neill line where he will attend to carpenter work for the Burlington.

Matthew Gering is looking after professional business in Omaha today, going to that city on the early train this morning.

B. W. Hatt and wife of Rising City, Neb., are in the city making a visit with Mr. Hatt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Hatt.

France Ballance visited over Sunday in the city with his parents, returning to Glenwood, Ia., this morning on the early train.

A. Searle is among those having business in Omaha to look after day, being a passenger for that point on the morning train.

Messrs Percy Williams and Frost Walker of Omaha were over Sunday guests of Earl Travis, returning to their homes last evening.

J. H. Oltroegge departed this morning for Ashland and other points west, after spending Sunday in the city with his family.

A. C. Tulent and wife are spending the afternoon in Omaha going to that city on the afternoon train.

Mrs. C. A. Marshall is spending the afternoon in Omaha being a passenger on No. 23 for that city.

Mrs. Dr. Elster is spending the afternoon with relatives in Omaha going to that city on No. 23 this afternoon.

A. J. Lepinsky, sales agent for the Va Blatz Brewing Company, is in the city today looking after business matters.

Misses Julia and Gretchen Donnelly were passengers on No. 23 for Omaha where they will spend the afternoon with friends.

Carl Kunsman is buying fatter cattle and hogs and steers and things in Omaha this afternoon going to that city on No. 23.

H. S. Austin and wife were passengers this afternoon on the Burlington train for Omaha where they will spend the afternoon.

Mrs. Peter Turn departed this afternoon for Omaha where she will take up her residence, going there to consult a specialist for her eyes.

Miss Anna Taylor and little daughter of LaPlatte made a brief trip to the city this afternoon to do some shopping returning on No. 23.

John Martin, telephone lineman extraordinary, is looking after some unfinished business in Omaha this afternoon, going to that city on No. 23.

Saturday afternoon Judge Beeson united in marriage at his office John Snouffer, aged 21 of Atlantic, Ia., and Miss Anna Swanson, aged 20, of Avoca, Iowa.

Miss Lillian Bookmeyer spent Sunday in the city with her folks returning to her music classes in Omaha this morning on the early Burlington train.

Reports from the bedside of Frank Svoboda are to the effect that the patient rested very easy all day yesterday, and his many friends will be glad to learn of the improvement.

Phillip H. Meisinger, one of the popular and well known Meisinger brothers and one of Cass county's best citizens is spending today in the city looking after business matters, driving in this morning.

Fred Hess was down from Havelock Sunday to spend the day with his mother and family. Fred was at one time on the Journal force and always hankers to see the Journal force and of course gave us a call.

Messrs. W. C. Ramsey, H. A. Schneider, Hans Kemp and J. H. Tams who have been to Gardendale, Texas, as a committee from the land holders of the Bermuda colony in this vicinity, returned home last Saturday night. J. E. McDaniel who also was a member of the committee, stopped off to visit at his former home at Salina, Kas., before returning to this city.

Herman Smith danced such a jig as he never danced before yesterday when he was apprized of the fact that he was the daddy of a bouncing baby boy. The two younger sisters of Mrs. Smith went down to Nehawka yesterday to see their little nephew, and report the mother and baby doing well and Herman still dancing around like a crazy man when they left.

NOTICE OF ELECTION.

Before the Board of County Commissioners of Saunders County, Nebraska.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ORGANIZATION OF ASHLAND DRAINAGE DISTRICT.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Pursuant to an order of the Board of County Commissioners of Saunders County, Nebraska, made and entered on July 7, 1909, and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the statute of the State of Nebraska hereinafter described, I, A. N. Eimelund, County Clerk of Saunders County, Nebraska, do hereby give notice that on May 21, 1909, Abel B. Fuller, clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, C. D. Kettle, Chas. Miller, A. J. Hays, J. H. Granger and R. Dean did in the office of the County Clerk of Saunders County, Nebraska, their petition in writing and also their consent and assent, all in manner and form as by law required, and which said bond and the surety thereon was on said date by me approved, the object and prayer of said petition being for the organization of Ashland Drainage District, and said petition being filed under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of Nebraska, approved March 27, 1907, entitled:

"An act to provide for drainage districts to drain wet land and land which is overflowed; and any land which will be improved by drainage to build dikes and levees, to construct, straighten, widen, deepen, or alter any ditch, drain, stream or watercourse; to riprap or otherwise protect the bank of any stream or ditch; to construct, extend, enlarge, improve or maintain any drainage system; to construct, enlarge, extend, improve or maintain any system of control, for surface water or running water; and the rights, obligations and powers of such corporations, including the power of eminent domain, the creation of debts, issuing of negotiable bonds, and the levying of special assessments and taxes thereon, and the easements therein as may be benefited by such public work, and defining the duties and powers of public officials, and the amendments thereto."

That the boundaries of said proposed Ashland Drainage District, and said Board of County Commissioners by said order entered on June 7, 1909, are as follows: To-wit:

All sections referred to below are in Township No. 12 North, Range No. Nine East of the Sixth P. M., sections one to twelve inclusive are in Saunders County, Nebraska. All other sections referred to are in Cass County, Nebraska.

Commencing at the center point of the intersection of Third and Dey streets in the City of Ashland, Nebraska, thence north three blocks along the center line of Dey street to the center of the intersection of Dey and Sixth streets in said city; thence east one block along the center line of Sixth street to the center of the intersection of Sixth and Eighth streets in said city; thence south two blocks along the center line of Silver street to the center of the intersection of Silver and Ninth streets in said city; thence east and west center line of section 2 and section 3 to the southeast corner of said section 3; thence north one-half mile to the north line of said section 3; thence west along the north line of said section 3 and section 4 to the northwest corner of section 4; thence south to the center of the west line of said section 4; thence west to the center of section 5; thence south to the center of the south line of said section 5; thence east along the south line of said section 5 to the northeast corner of the west half of the northeast quarter of section 8; thence east along the south line of said section 8 to the northeast corner of the west half of the northeast quarter of section 17; thence west to the center of the west boundary line of section 20; thence east along the east and west center line of said section 20 and section 21 to the center of the east boundary line of said section 21; thence north along the east boundary line of said section 21 and section 16 to the northeast corner of section 16; thence east along the north line of sections 15 and 14 to the center of the north boundary line of section 14; thence north to the northwest corner of the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 11; thence east to the northeast corner of the southeast quarter of section 11; thence north to the northeast corner of section 11; thence west along the north line of said section 11 to a point where the same intersects the southeast boundary line of the right of way of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company; thence along the southeast boundary line of the right of way and depot grounds of the said Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company in a northeasterly direction to a point where the southeast boundary line intersects the center line of Main street in said city of Ashland, Nebraska; thence east along the center line of Main street and across said depot grounds to the intersection of Third and Main streets in said city; thence north along the center line of Third street one block to the point of beginning; the largest portion of the land included within said boundaries being located in Saunders County, Nebraska.

All land owners within the boundaries of said Ashland Drainage District and all others concerned are hereby notified that an election will be held on Friday, July 2, 1909, between the hours of ten o'clock a. m. and six o'clock p. m. at the office of the County Clerk of Saunders County, Nebraska, in said County Court House at Wahoo, in said County, Nebraska, and a board of seven directors shall be elected, said board to take office on the date of the formation of said district.

In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and attached my official seal as County Clerk of Saunders County, Nebraska, at my office in the County Court House at Wahoo in said County, Nebraska, this 19th day of July, 1909.

A. N. Eimelund,
County Clerk of Saunders County, Nebraska.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF REGINA WOLF, DECEASED.

On the petition of J. V. Hearing, executor of the estate of Regina Wolf, deceased, praying for license to sell.

Beginning at a point Forty-one (41) rods north of the center of Section Thirteen (13) in Township Twelve (12) North, Range Thirteen (13) East, running thence North Eighty (80) rods; thence North Eleven (11) rods; thence East Eighty (80) rods; thence South Eleven (11) rods; thence South of beginning, being the south line of Lot Thirteen (13) and Fifty-three (53) in said section, Township and Range, as now shown on the plats of irregular tracts of said County.

The undivided one-half (1-2) of Block Thirteen (13) in Duke's addition to the City of Plattsmouth, in said County, Nebraska, except the right of way of the Omaha Southern Railway, over and across said Block Thirteen (13) in said County, Nebraska.

The undivided one-half (1-2) of the following tract of land to-wit: Beginning at a point Thirty (30) rods north of the center of Section North (12) Township Twelve (12) North, Range Thirteen (13) East, thence running west Eighty (80) rods; thence North Eleven (11) rods; thence North of beginning, being the south line of Lot Thirteen (13) and Fifty-three (53) in said Township and Range, as shown by the irregular tracts in said County, except the right of way of the Omaha Southern Railway across the same.

Or sufficient amount thereof to bring the sum of $350.00 for the payment of debts allowed against said estate of the cost of administration and in addition thereto the costs of this proceedings there not being any personal property to pay the said debts and expenses.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at Chambers at my office in the City of Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on the 24th day of July, 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day to show cause why a license should not be granted to said administrator to sell the above real estate of said deceased or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay said debts and expenses.

Dated this 17th day of June, 1909.
Harvy D. Travis,
Judge of the District Court.
D. O. Dwyer,
Attorney.

Havelock.
From the Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry DeLong of Plattsmouth are visiting at the home of George DeLong and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Schlatter of Plattsmouth, parents of Mrs. Joseph Tighe, arrived in town Wednesday and will visit a week at the Tighe residence.

The Citizens State bank, which opened a couple of weeks since in the new Biddlecom block on Jackson street, has been doing a satisfactory business, considering the short time it has been in business.

Mrs. W. F. Ackerman met with a painful accident one day this week. She was washing a pantry shelf and ran a large splinter under her finger nail. Being unable to remove the splinter herself she called a doctor and it was necessary to remove part of the nail before the splinter could be reached.

Last Saturday Mrs. V. F. Hoffman, Past worthy matron and Mrs. R. J. Jones of the Martha Washington chapter, O. E. S., by special invitation from Electa chapter of Lincoln, visited the Masonic home at Plattsmouth. The visiting party, aside from Mesdames Hoffman and Jones, consisted of ten from Lincoln, two from Wahoo and one from Council Bluffs. The party was met at the depot in Plattsmouth by Assist Grand Conductress Gamble and the worthy matron of the Plattsmouth lodge with automobiles and taken to the home, where they inspected the building and grounds, took dinner and were shown a good time generally. The home, they say, is an enchanting spot, with mammoth trees, velvety lawn and courteous attendants.

DOUBT DISAPPEARS

No One in Plattsmouth Who Has a Bad Back Can Ignore This Double Proof.

Does your back ever ache? Have you suspected your kidneys? Backache is kidney ache. With it comes dizzy spells, Sleepless nights, Distressing urinary disorders. Cure the kidneys to cure it all. Doan's Kidney Pills will bring quick relief. Bring thorough, lasting cures. You have read Plattsmouth proof. Read now the Plattsmouth sequel. Renewed testimony; tested by time.

Herman Herod, corner First and Rock streets, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "My back was very lame and painful and unfitted me for work. If I stooped sharp pains added to my suffering and I was also annoyed by the irregular passages of the kidney secretions. I had headaches and was in a miserable condition when my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a box from Gering & Co.'s drug store and I was so pleased with the great benefit they brought that I publicly endorsed them. Although almost three years have since passed, I still recommend the remedy highly and advise its use to other kidney sufferers."

In County Court.

Miss Rosa Cogdill was this morning appointed guardian of Emma, Milla, Effa Cogdill, minor heirs of Robt. Cogdill, deceased, by County Judge Beeson. Her petition asking the appointment was filed by Remsey & Ramsey, she being the mother of the minors. They are heirs to realty in Sheridan County, Kas. valued at $6,500.

In the matter of the Estate of John A. Clements, deceased, Mrs. Edith Clements, widow of deceased, was today appointed administratrix by the County Court.

Returns From Trip.

J. H. Waterman returned yesterday from a ten days trip through the east. Mrs. Waterman and daughter remained in Albany, N. Y., where they will visit with relatives. They visited Atlantic City, Philadelphia, New York City, and master car builders' convention as one of a committee from the railroad storekeepers' association. Mrs. Waterman will visit in the east for some weeks before returning to Lincoln.—State Journal.

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Tuesday Evening's Daily Journal

Mrs. W. M. Hinton is spending the day in Omaha, being a passenger for that city this morning.

J. H. Haldeman was a passenger this morning for Omaha where he has business to look after during the day.

Mrs. A. W. Dawson pas a passenger this morning for Lincoln where she will make a visit of a few days with friends.

Mrs. W. D. Wheeler and daughter Miss Lillian were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day.

Mrs. Jos Maresek was a passenger this morning for Omaha where she will visit today with her sister Mrs. John Skoumal.

Mrs. F. L. Granger of Lincoln who has been spending several days in the city, returned to her home this morning on the early train.

W. J. Lorenz of Odell, Neb., who has been visiting with his brothers in the city for several days, departed this morning for his home.

James W. Newell, auditor of accounts for the Burlington at Omaha, is making a business trip to Chicago, going there Sunday evening.

Arch L. Coleman is making a visit in the city with his parents having come in yesterday morning from Chicago, Ill., where he is now located.

Ed. Lutz and Dick Osborn departed this afternoon on the Schuyler for Cedar Creek where they will spend several days and enjoy a fishing trip.

Mrs. Hans Seivers and daughter Miss Anna and Miss Sophia are spending the day in Omaha going to that city on the morning Burlington train.

The postoffice department recognized Monday, July 5, as the proper date to celebrate this year. The Burlington shop employes also recognize that day, and accordingly will shut down Monday.

M. H. Tartsch and wife of Oklahoma City, Okla., after spending yesterday in the city with their parents departed this morning for Sioux City, Ia., where they will make a visit with Mr. Tartsch's sister for several days.

Jacob Tritsch, wife and wife's mother departed this morning for Pierce, Neb., where they will make an extended visit with relatives. They were passengers on the M. P. road as far as Omaha where they made connections for the north.

Former Congressman E. M. Pollard is in the city today looking after business matters. In a conversation with ye editor he states he is out of politics. Just the same it will pay the other congressional candidates to watch Pollard.

Thomas Jefferson O'Day, editor in chief of the Nehawka Register, is in the city today, ostensibly to raid the county judge for publication fees, due, but also watching out for new lines of business. T. J. is now assisted on the Register by Victor Sturm who provides meaty editorials for the people.

Mrs. John Wurdeman and baby of Lehigh, Neb., who have been visiting with her parents R. R. Nickles and family near Murray, returned to their home this morning, Miss Etta Nickles accompanied them as far as Omaha where she will spend the day.

Ed McMaken and family of Sheridan, Wyo., came in yesterday for a visit with his father Col. H. C. McMaken and other relatives for a few days. Ed. is well satisfied with matters at Sheridan and thinks it about the best town in the west. He will remain for several days to visit with his folks and meet old friends.

Louis Miller came down last evening from Pilger, Neb., to attend to taking his father-in-law, Thos. Bryan, back with him this morning. Mr. Bryan is a sufferer from heart trouble and is in a very bad shape and Mr. Miller is taking him to Pilger in order that he may receive proper medical attention. Jack Denson and several of the aged gentleman's neighbors had been looking after him.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

George W. Berge, the prominent attorney and democratic politician of Lincoln, who is interested in legal matters in court here, was in the city this morning for a few hours, departing for Lincoln on the excursion train.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

Otto Herold and family are spending the afternoon in Omaha going to that city on No. 23.

Miss Nellie Clifton of South Bend was in the city today, returning to her home this afternoon.

F. G. Eugeberger and family are spending the afternoon in Omaha going to that city on No. 23.

Murray has a splendid program for the celebration next Saturday. Don't fail to be there to enjoy it.

C. E. Hartford is spending the afternoon with friends in Omaha going up on the late afternoon Burlington train.

Miss Violet Dodge is among those spending the afternoon in Omaha being a passenger for that city on the afternoon train.

P. C. Petersen and Miss Myrtle Petersen are spending the afternoon in Omaha going to that city on the afternoon train.

Former Sheriff W. D. Wheeler came in yesterday afternoon to look after business matters.

Wm. Rex Young of Murray spent last evening in the city, coming up on the evening M. P. train.

H. C. Vanhorn is in Omaha today laying in a supply of new phonograph records for his trade.

S. H. Atwood came in yesterday from an extended visit in the east and was looking after business matters.

William Gilmour, the well known farmer south of the city, was attending to business matters in the city yesterday.

D. M. Johnson, a prominent citizen of Weeping Water, spent last night in the city, looking after business matters.

Prof. J. Asch of Murray is in the city today attending to business matters, coming up last evening on the M. P.

Mark Furlong was among those from Rock Bluffs who were in the city yesterday looking after business matters.

Cari Hiidebrand of Omaha is in the city making a visit with Mrs. A. J. Beeson and family. Mr. Hiidebrand is a relative of Mrs. Beeson.

Warren Wiley and wife came in this morning from their home in the country and were passengers for Omaha on the early train this morning.

Sol Adamson and wife came in yesterday morning for a short trip to Chicago, Ill., having gone there on Friday evening and spending Saturday and Sunday in the windy city.

Deputy County Clerk Morgan is spending the day in Lincoln for the shop boys, being a passenger for that city on the excursion train.

Harold Anderson of Chicago, Ill., and Eluvia Anderson of Sheldon, Ia., brother and sister of A. L. Anderson of this city, are in the city making him a visit, expecting to remain several days.

Louisville people are preparing to entertain a big crowd at their celebration next Saturday. They always have a good time at Louisville. The people are made of the material to have it that way or not at all.

George W. Berge, the prominent attorney and democratic politician of Lincoln, who is interested in legal matters in court here, was in the city this morning for a few hours, departing for Lincoln on the excursion train.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

After Thirty-Two Years.

Mrs. Amanda Brown and son Roy of Taylorville, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning for an extended visit of several months with her niece, Mrs. John Cory and her brother, L. B. Brown of Kenosha. It has been thirty-two years since Mrs. Brown had met either her brother or her niece and she was more than pleased to see them once more. Mr. Brown came up this morning from Kenosha and a jolly reunion was had between the long separated brother and sister.

Alcohol to Children

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely. Children do not need stimulating." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Then ask him about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla as a tonic for the young. Follow his advice. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

The first great rule of health—"Daily movement of the bowels." Ask your doctor if this is not so. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. Sold for nearly sixty years.