

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Friday's Evening Journal

Mrs. S. H. Atwood was a passenger on the early train this morning for the north.

Mrs. Thomas E. Parmele is spending the day in Omaha, being a passenger for that city on the early train.

Mrs. T. Frank Johnson and sister, Mrs. Williams and daughter of St. Louis, Mo., who are her guests.

Mrs. John Busche and son Clarence were passengers this morning for Omaha, where they will spend the day.

Mrs. W. W. Coates is among those who are spending the day in Omaha, going there on the early morning train.

Colonel Henry C. McMaken was a passenger this morning on the early train for Omaha, where he will look after business matters.

Mrs. J. H. Goodrough and baby, from the Iowa side, came over this morning and were passengers for Omaha, where they will spend the day.

Robert Propst is in Council Bluffs, Ia., today looking after some machinery repair parts, finding it quicker and handier to go and get them himself than to depend upon the mails.

Mesdames George and Don Rhoden, from near Murray, came into the city this morning in time to take the Burlington train for Omaha, where they will spend the day. They drove up from their home.

Ray Campbell, from near Rock Bluffs, came in this morning and was a passenger on the early Burlington train for Wausa, Neb., where he will make an extended visit with his cousins, located near there.

W. H. Stenner of Omaha, who has been visiting with his brother in this city for several days, called here by the latter's severe illness, was a passenger for the metropolis this morning. He expects to return this evening.

Colonel M. A. Bates departed yesterday afternoon for a trip through the county on business for this great and progressive Journal. He will be gone the remainder of the week and in his absence Charles Grimes will fill the editorial columns with gems of thought and other effusions.

Mrs. J. L. Thompson's many friends will be glad to hear that she has so far recovered as to be able to do away with her crutches and to get about the house in fairly good shape. She had quite a good deal of trouble with her knee, but has happily conquered it.

August Pautsch and wife, two of the best people and well liked citizens from near Wabash, and Mrs. Ernest Pautsch and daughter, Miss Lydia of Louisville, also two of Cass county's most esteemed ladies, were all in the city today, coming down from their respective homes this morning. While here Mr. Pautsch called at the Journal office and once more renewed his subscription, something much appreciated here.

Henry Hell, Jr., and Freddie Hell, his brother, were in the city this morning looking after business matters, and while here they called upon the Journal and paid for the subscription of George Young of Pleasantdale, Neb. The Messrs. Hell are two of the best and finest young men in Cass county, and they are always welcome visitors at the Journal whether they come on strictly business matters or to make a social call.

August Gorder, the machinery man, made a trip to Omaha this morning, taking with him Peter Campbell and William Splitt, two of the prominent citizens of Rock Bluffs precinct. The gentlemen contemplate investing in a gasoline engine for various kinds of work, such as sawing wood, running feed mills and the like, and Mr. Gorder is taking them up to show them the workings of the engines, of which he is agent. Messrs. Campbell and Splitt drove to the city this morning in time to take the train.

John A. Murray, an old-time Plattsmouth boy, now located at Clarkson, Neb., dropped into the city today to make a short visit, returning to Clarkson this evening on the M. P. train. John states that he has been making big money since he located at Clarkson, being kept busy contracting for buildings, and he was compelled to return quickly on that account. He expects to start soon for Twin Falls, Idaho, where he has been promised a great deal of work. He ordered the Journal to follow him to Clarkson and later to Twin Falls.

John Hiesel was a passenger this afternoon for Omaha, going up to the hospital again.

Mrs. Gertrude Morgan and her mother, Mrs. Swift, are visiting today with friends at Mynard.

John Boetel of Omaha is visiting with relatives and friends in the city, coming down this afternoon.

Canon Burgess is spending the afternoon in Omaha, going there on train No. 23 to visit with J. V. Egenberger.

Arthur Sullivan, the well known farmer from south of the city, is in the city today transacting business with our merchants.

Misses Bertha and Anna Noworthy of Dixon, Ill., are visiting in the city, the guests of Mrs. Sarah E. Kerr and daughters.

Mrs. A. L. Jackson of Omaha, who was down making a visit with her father, H. J. Streight, departed this morning for her home.

Frank Marler, Mynard's well known citizen, is in the city this afternoon doing some trading and looking after business matters.

Fritz Fricke is spending the afternoon in Omaha looking after business matters, being a passenger for that city on the afternoon train.

S. Furlong, the well known Rock Bluffs citizen, is spending the afternoon in the city, coming up from his home to look after some business matters.

Miss Isabel Wiles is spending today in Omaha, being a passenger for that city on the morning train.

Julius Pepperberg, the Lincoln cigar manufacturer, is in the city, coming in last evening to look after business interests.

C. H. Vallery, the well known farmer of the precinct, is looking after business matters in Omaha today, going to that city on the morning train.

Miss Pearl Mumm and Mrs. G. H. Mumm of Spokane, Wash., are spending today in Omaha, having been passengers for that city on the morning train.

W. K. Shepherdson and wife are spending today in Omaha, having driven in from their home this morning in time to take the early train for that city.

Mesdames Phillip and John Trietsch are spending today in Omaha, driving in from their homes in the country to take the morning train for the metropolis.

Silas Breckenridge and Rex Wilson were passengers this morning for Omaha, where they go to do some painting upon the residence of Anthony J. Trillity in that city.

W. C. Hayden, state sales agent of the Gund Brewing company, is in the city today looking over the improvements which the company has been making on their building here.

Frank Brukman and wife, Mrs. J. H. Becker, Mrs. C. Weinheimer and her daughter, Mrs. Link of Pekin, Ill., composed a party which departed today for Elmwood, where they will spend several days visiting with relatives and friends.

Oliver Edmunds came over this morning from Glenwood and was a welcome visitor at the Journal sanatorium. Oliver is one of the Journal's friends and a well liked and popular gentleman. May he make us many calls.

George Horn of Cedar Creek is among the good citizens of that section in the city today on business. George is pleased to say that the Woodman Accident association, of which he is agent, is doing a fine business in this section and has thoroughly established itself as a strong, reliable organization.

The management of the Parmele picture show are well pleased at the reception accorded their pictures by the people of Plattsmouth and vicinity. Almost every night their excellent programs have been greeted with good crowds and that they have pleased them is certain, as they came again and again. For tonight they are putting on a fine lot of films, covering every kind of subject, some laughable in the extreme, some pathetic and warranted to make the strongest minded feel their eyes grow moist, others will be educational and instructive; in fact, any class of pictures you want to see will be there. In addition there will be other attractions, for the management is determined not to be outdone by any picture and vaudeville show in the state, in the quantity and high class of their programs. It pays to visit their theater, which is one of the best and one of the finest in the state.

Mynard. Mrs. J. C. Cummins and Mrs. Z. Kennedy of Plattsmouth were entertained Thursday of this week by Mrs. W. T. Richardson.

Miss Eva Porter is spending a few days this week at Auburn, Neb.

Miss Anna and Leona Snyder and master Andrew Snyder visited Thursday with Miss Villa Gopen of Murray, Neb.

Nolen Manners of Alvo, Neb., was calling on his many friends in Mynard Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meisinger, sr., spent Sunday with their son and family, George Meisinger, jr.

Miss Vilas and son Arthur, who have been visiting at W. B. Porter's, returned to their home at Albank, N. Y., Friday.

Miss Elsa Stokes and guest, Miss Olive Long of Murdock, were spending Sunday in Murray.

Mrs. William Wetenkamp and son Willie spent Sunday at D. P. Lair's.

Jim Gruber of Union is boarding in Mynard this week.

A. A. Wetenkamp was a business visitor in Omaha Tuesday, going to Plattsmouth to take the early morning train.

Mrs. Will Stokes and son Roy visited Sunday with Mrs. Long at Murray.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson of Plattsmouth was spending Thursday at W. F. Gillispie's.

LEGAL NOTICE.
IN THE DISTRICT COURT WITHIN AND FOR CASS COUNTY, NEBRASKA.
This cause came on for hearing upon the petition of John Albert Bauer, administrator, with will annexed of the estate of John H. Bauer, deceased, praying for license to sell the following described real estate belonging to said estate, and situated in Cass county, State of Nebraska, to-wit:

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.
This cause came on for hearing upon the petition of John Albert Bauer, administrator, with will annexed of the estate of John H. Bauer, deceased, praying for license to sell the following described real estate belonging to said estate, and situated in Cass county, State of Nebraska, to-wit:

The northwest quarter and the southwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section thirty (30), in quarter of section thirty (30), in township eleven (11) of range eleven (11), east of the 6th P. M., for the purpose of paying all debts allowed against said estate for which upon proper notice may be allowed against said estate, and the cost of administration, there not being sufficient personal property belonging to said estate to pay said debts and expenses.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, That all persons interested in said estate appear before me at the office of the Clerk of the District Court at Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, on the 31st day of September, 1909, at the hour of ten o'clock a. m. to show cause why license should not be granted said administrator as prayed in said petition.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That a copy of this notice be published for four successive weeks prior to the time fixed for said hearing in the Plattsmouth Journal, a weekly newspaper published at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, and of general circulation in said county.

Dated this 17th day of July, 1909.
HARVEY D. TRAVIS,
Judge District Court.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of an order of sale, issued by James Robertson, Clerk of the District Court, within and for the County of Cass, State of Nebraska, and to me directed, I will on the 28th day of August, A. D. 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m., of said day, at the south door of the Court House in said county and state, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described real estate, to-wit: Lots five (5) and six (6), block four (4), in Mungler's First addition to the Village of Alvo, in the County of Cass, State of Nebraska, the same having been ordered a foreclosure sale under decree of foreclosure, by said court, to satisfy a decree and judgment in the sum of $795.45 and costs recovered by Melvin P. Stone, executrix of the last will and testament of Isaac Stone, deceased, against Belle Bennett, Roy Bennett, Willard L. Clites (or Clite), Eva Evalene Clites (or Clite), a minor, and Willard L. Clites (or Clite), her natural guardian, Elmer Bennett and Maude Bennett, his wife, Arzilia Foreman (nee Bennett), and George P. Foreman, Jr., her husband; Earle Bennett, a minor, and Belle Bennett, his natural guardian, defendants.

Dated at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, July 19, 1909.
C. D. QUINTON,
Sheriff.
Ramsey & Ramsey, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the District Court of Cass County, Nebraska.
IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF REGINA WOLF, DECEASED:
The cause comes on for hearing upon the petition of J. V. Egenberger, administrator of the estate of Regina Wolf, deceased, praying for license to sell.

Beginning at a point Forty-one (41) rods North of the center of Section Thirteen (13) in Township Twelve (12) North, Range Thirteen (13) East, running thence West Eighty (80) rods; thence North Eleven (11) rods; thence East Eighty (80) rods; thence south Eleven (11) rods to the place of beginning, being the North Half of Lots Thirteen (13) and Fifty-three (53) in said section, Township and Range, as now shown on the plats of irregular tracts of said County.

The undivided one-half (1-2) of Lots Ten (10) and Eleven (11) in Block Thirteen (13) in Duke's addition to the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, except the right of way of the Omaha Southern Railway over and across the same.
The undivided one-half (1-2) of the following tract of land to-wit: Beginning at a point Thirty (30) rods North of the center of Section Thirteen (13) Township Twelve (12) North, Range Thirteen (13) East; thence running west Eighty (80) rods, thence north Eleven (11) rods; thence East Eighty (80) rods; thence South Eleven (11) rods to the place of beginning, being the south half of Lots Thirteen (13) and Fifty-three (53) in said Section, Township and Range, as shown by the irregular tracts in said County, except the right of way of the Omaha Southern Railway across the same.

Or sufficient amount thereof to bring the sum of $350.00 for the payment of debts allowed against said estate of the cost of administration and in addition thereto the costs of any proceedings there not being any personal property to pay the said debts and expenses.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me at Chambers at my office in the Court House in the City of Plattsmouth, Nebraska, on the 24th day of July, 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m., of said day to show cause why a license should not be granted to said administrator to sell the above real estate of said deceased or any amount thereof as may be necessary to pay said debts and expenses.
Dated this 7th day of July, 1909.
Harvey D. Travis,
Judge of the District Court.
D. O. Dwyer,
Attorney.

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Saturday Evening's Daily Journal

W. S. Norris of Nehawka was a visitor in the city yesterday attending to business matters.

A. Ibsen, roadmaster of the Burlington, spent last evening in the city looking after county business.

Miss Cora M. Walker is spending today in Omaha on business matters, going up on the morning train.

Will A. Sharpe is looking after business matters today in Omaha, going to that city on the early train.

Ben Brooks departed this morning on No. 6 for Shenandoah, Ia., where he has obtained employment and where he expects to make his residence for some time to come.

Mrs. Thomas Ruby and baby came in this morning from her home at Oberlin, Kas., to make a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bengen of Mynard, for several days.

An automobile party for Weeping Water this morning consisted of Messrs. Byron Clark, W. H. Newell, James Robertson and J. H. Becker. Ed. Barker piloted the party overland to that city, where they will put the finishing touches to the g. o. p. slate.

Mrs. S. Kinkaid was a passenger this morning for Omaha, where she will spend the day with friends. Mrs. Kinkaid states that her son James, well known in this city, has changed his place of employment, and is now employed as an linotype operator on a Sioux City paper, quitting his place on the Council Bluffs paper on which he was employed.

John Busche is among those traveling to Weeping Water today to keep an eye on Sheriff Quinton.

Alex Graves and son, from near Murray, are attending to business in the city today, driving up from their home this morning.

William R. Murray, the good citizen of Mynard, is among those having business in the city to attend to, coming in this morning.

Charles Cook, the popular and jovial farmer from south of the city, is among those looking after business in the city today.

Adam Kaffenberger and wife, two of the best people of this section, are spending today in the city, driving in this morning from their farm.

John and Peter Campbell and wife are attending the sale of the Queen property at the court house today, driving up from their homes in Rock Bluffs precinct.

John P. Kell, one of the best known and most popular citizens of the county, is in the city today looking after business matters at the court house, driving in from his farm near Cullom.

Philip H. Meisinger, one of the well known family and one of Eight Mile Grove precinct's best farmers, is looking after business matters in the city. Jacob Meisinger, another well known member of this grand family, is among those coming in from his fine farm in Eight Mile Grove precinct to look after business matters today.

August Nolting, the well known and popular farmer, is in the city today transacting business with our merchants and visiting friends.

E. E. Hilton is in Weeping Water today, hoping to corral ye festive voter at ye primary, also acting as a delegate to the county convention.

Conrad F. Vallery, one of the live ones of the precinct, is in the city this afternoon looking after business matters and meeting old friends.

Lee Oldham, the popular citizen and strong Democrat of Murray, is in the city today attending to business matters and meeting his many friends.

T. W. Vallery, the well known farmer and lightning rod man of Murray, is in the city today looking after business matters, driving up this morning from his home.

Conrad H. Vallery, candidate for road overseer in his district and a good Democrat, is in the city this afternoon shaking hands with old friends and looking after business matters.

J. M. Meisinger, the veteran of the Meisinger family and a fine citizen of Eight Mile Grove precinct, is looking after business matters in the city this afternoon, driving in from the farm.

A. L. Tidd, owner of the rest of the Republican party, outside of ex-Congressman Pollard, is in Weeping Water today telling the convention what to do and how he did it in Plattsmouth.

Mrs. J. W. Johnson, who has been spending several days with her mother, Mrs. Hinton, and her sisters, Mrs. William Gillespie and Joseph Adams at Mynard, returned to her home this morning.

Jay E. Worley, foreman of the New Century Printing company of Lincoln, and a popular gentleman, is in the city, coming down to join his wife and family over Sunday, all visiting with V. V. Leonard and family.

YOU can't buy old clothes here, we sell them before they get to that stage. That's our chief reason for making such ridiculously low prices at our clearance sale to open next Saturday morning, July 24th, at 8 a. m.

Every sale article will be marked with a green tag, giving the original and the sale price. All men's suits, including Hart, Schaffner & Marx line.

All suits selling from $22.50 to $30.00 $17.50

All suits selling from $18.00 to $22.50 $14.50

All suits selling from $13.50 to $16.50 $10.50

All suits selling from $10.00 to $13.50 $7.50

In the Boy's Suit Department we're going to do something that will be of interest to economical parents. All suits made by Ederheimer, Stein & Co., absolutely guaranteed, as far as wearing qualities are concerned.

All boy's suits from $6.50 to $8.50 5.75

All boy's suits from $4.50 to $6.50 $3.75

All boy's suits from $3.50 to $4.50 $2.75

We have one line of Soft Collar Shirts made of a silky material, worth $1.25, sale price 75c—six shades, all sizes.

Bona-fide Cash Sale! Falter & Thieroff Watch Our Windows! VALUE GIVING CLOTHIERS

Make hay while the sun shines; it won't shine long at our "value giving" sale. Come Saturday morning, July 24th, 8 a. m.