

OPENING DAY OF THE BIG CARNIVAL

Agricultural and Live Stock Day Brings Big Crowd of Farmers to the City

The opening day of the great Merchants' Carnival has been a pronounced success despite adverse weather conditions. For the first time in six weeks the weather has been full of water and today saw lowering skies with a damp, disagreeable raw wind blowing out of the east. Despite this most of the concessions were open promptly on time and did a good business. The city has been handsomely decorated, many of the business houses being a mass of bunting and presenting a gala appearance. The Anheuser-Busch building, C. E. Wescott's Sons, John Schiappacasse, the Elk's, Bank of Cass County, Plattsmouth National Bank, First National Bank, Emil Wurl, Asemissen & Klingler, Dovey's, City Hotel, L. B. Egenberger, Ed. Donat, Hatt & Son, The Journal, H. M. Soennichsen and William Holly had the fronts of their buildings especially nicely decorated. The Elk's had an especially attractive front. The work was generally done by a traveling firm of decorators and is artistic and neat.

Today was Live Stock and Agricultural day and the exhibit at Smith's barn, corner Sixth and Vine streets, is more than creditable. They have as fine animals on exhibition there as at any place in the country. The live stock exhibits are not as large as hoped for, but of a high grade, far superior to what anyone believed to be in the country. The following exhibitors are on the ground: Luke L. Wiles, with six head of Red Polled, including two cows, two yearling heifers, one bull calf and the bull Closson, registered No. 13280. George Kaf-fenberger also has six head of Herefords, including two bulls, Gentry and Dick, and two cows with two heifer calves. C. Bengen has three Herefords, including his prize-winning bull Ajax, also one cow and calf. Thomas E. Parmele exhibits a Jersey cow. Henry Hirz exhibits a fine Galloway heifer of the Straub Bros.' prize-winning herd. Elbert Wiles has a Shorthorn bull and heifer, both fine stock. John Tritsch has a roan Durham heifer which is rather novel in appearance and a fine animal. There are others being entered as this is written and the above list is not all the exhibitors.

The hogs are not large in number, but of very high grade stock, and make a splendid exhibition. Ed. Tritsch has two Durocs, Cash L. Wiles has three Durocs, George Kaf-fenberger has a fine Berkshire and Thomas Fry also has some Berkshires entered.

In horses the display is excellent and this is the star feature of the show next to the magnificent bulls which are on exhibition. Cass county farmers have a great lot of horses if the exhibition is any criterion at all to judge by. Percheron bred horses are entered by Albert Wiles, H. F. Gansemer, John Wehrlein, Henry Hirz, Frank Blatzer, Louis Melsinger, Harry Todd. In the Hambletonian class is an entry by Ralph Wiles. Coach horses are entered by C. D. Peacock, Thos. Wiles, Julius Pitz, Claude Mayabb. Mules are entered by H. F. Gansemer and Louis Baumgart. Belgians are entered by George Snyder, Peter Mumm, George H. Melsinger, Louis Melsinger and Harry Manspeaker. Shetlands are entered by William Gilmour, Thomas E. Parmele and F. G. Egenberger. George Hild has a driving team entered, and the list is far from closed. Owing to the large number of entries and lack of space they cannot be reviewed in detail, but it will pay you to see them all.

The exhibit of fruits and grain is flattering and far above the average for such exhibits. It is held in the empty store room east of the court house, and the exhibits make a very commendable showing. The room was well filled by noon with the exhibits, with many more on the road.

Tomorrow will be Pioneers' day, and it promises to be one of the great days of the affair. There will be a vast attendance if the weather is at all decent, and the program as printed elsewhere in the paper will be given in full. There is no hitch in the several attractions outlined and a great celebration is sure to be had. The following special program is for the afternoon, including the speech of Governor A. C. Shallenberger.

Sixtieth Anniversary.

The sixtieth anniversary of Mrs. John Peter Kell was duly celebrated several days since at her pleasant home near Cullom. Mrs. Kell was made to know how much she is loved by her children and her many friends, both in that neighborhood and at other places, for some forty of them altogether gathered and spent the day with her, and made her enjoy it to the utmost. They brought with them many handsome and costly presents which they showered upon her, and in every way made the occasion one which she will always remember.

The handsome home of the Kells has seldom held such a jovial and happy party, and there was absolutely nothing lacking to make it a memorable occasion. There was a world of good things to eat and the guests all made themselves at home and fell to and devoured the splendid cooking which was in evidence on every hand. Uncle John P. himself was almost as much of a lion for the occasion as his charming wife, and the guests paid him their respects just as well. Altogether the day was a great one and when it was over the guests departed for their homes with the deepest regret, sorry that they were compelled to leave such a hospitable home. They united in wishing Mrs. Kell the return of many more anniversaries.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Kell who were present included Philip Kell and family of Murray, Phillip Tritsch and family, A. F. Seybert and family, William Kell and family, Louis Kell and family, Henry Kell and family, August Kell, Miss Olga Kell, Charley Kell, a fine and happy family.

The visitors included August Bach, Sr., and wife; August Bach, Jr., and wife; Albert Timis, all of Plattsmouth; Elsie Inhelder and Lulu Stoehr of Cedar Creek and Violet Baker of Benson.

Improving Koehnke Property.

Agent W. L. Pickett of the Burlington has recently purchased the Chris Koehnke property on Vine street, and is making some very extensive improvements on the same, with the intention of making it a fine residence property. He is having the lot graded up and filled in and elevated so as to perfectly drain itself. In addition the house is being remodeled and changed about in every way and made into a new and modern structure. The improvements cannot help but vastly increase the value of the property, and are most commendable. It has a splendid location, being near to the new public building and will command a fancy price when completed.

THE HOME OF SATISFACTION.

A Brilliant Wedding.

The handsome home of M. Fanger last evening was the scene of a happy wedding when Rabbi Cohn of Omaha united Miss Laura Schall and Mr. Phillip Orkin, both of Omaha. The wedding was conducted according to the ceremony of the Reformed Jewish faith, and was a brilliant affair.

For the occasion the beautiful residence had been handsomely decorated by festoons of white asters and wistaria, the large bay window in the drawing room where the ceremony was performed having an improvised altar erected, which was handsome in a wealth of foliage the beautiful wistaria forming the chief ornament and lending a resplendent air to the room. Here the bridal party met and the sacred vows were spoken. The bride was accompanied by Miss Rosa Schall of Omaha, her sister, as bridesmaid, with Miss Rosella Klein, also of Omaha, and a niece of the bride, as ring bearer and Miss Marie Fanger and Tina Zucker of this city and Millie Pine and Caroline Orkin of Omaha as ribbon bearers, forming the bridal procession. The groom was accompanied by J. L. Orkin, his brother, as groomsman. The bride entered the room and was supported to the altar by her brother-in-law, Max Klein of Omaha, who gave her away. She was remarkably handsome in a beautiful white mesaline gown, which was trimmed with old lace, a family heirloom and something which had been handed down from generation to generation in the family.

Immediately following the ceremony which took place in the drawing room and was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends, the assembled wedding party sat down to a veritable wedding feast which consisted of a magnificent five-course luncheon. The tables were handsomely and expensively decorated with a profusion of cut flowers and the dining room was resplendent in bloom of every description. One especial feature of the wedding and the following luncheon was the music which was furnished by an Italian orchestra of Omaha. Their elegant music fitted in splendidly with the other happy events of the day. Later the rooms of the mansion were cleared and the remainder of the evening was taken up in dancing. At midnight the happy couple departed on the Missouri Pacific for Kansas City, where they will spend the honeymoon, later returning to Omaha, where they will be at home at 545 South Twenty-sixth street.

Both Mr. Orkin and his bride are well known in Omaha Jewish society, being prominent people there. Miss Schall is the charming daughter of Mrs. Dora Schall of 1614 North Twenty-fourth street, and is well and favorably known in this city. She is a young woman of most delightful and pleasing personality and many attainments. Mr. Orkin is a member of the firm of Orkin Bros., prominent merchants of Omaha, and is a gentleman of great business ability and rare acumen. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life. The invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. Altschuler of South Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Max Klein of South Omaha, Mrs. T. Orkin, Mr. and Mrs. Max Orkin, Miss Fannie Orkin, all of South Omaha; J. L. Orkin, Julius Orkin, Gustav Orkin, Orkin, Mendel Orkin, all of Plattsmouth; Izelle Nathan, of Plattsmouth; Levin

Mr. and Mrs. J. Katelman, Morris Katelman, I. Pearlman, Jr., P. Nathan, Miss Green, Miss Glickman, Miss Hirsch, Miss Tillie Fanger, Miss L. Fanger, Mrs. Morris Katelman, Miss Rosa Schall, Miss Lynne Peterson, all of Omaha, and Mrs. Claus, daughter Bertha, Miss Edna Peterson, Miss Hermie Spies, Mr. and Mrs. Waintroub of Plattsmouth.

A Neat Window.

Kroehler Bros., the hardware men in the Coates block, have a novelty in the shape of a complete automobile made out of articles they keep in stock. It is complete in every respect, and is attracting considerable attention. The originator of this curiosity is certainly a genius of the first water.

Leon Huckins of the Lincoln Herald was in the city today interviewing patrons of the Herald, and while here gave the Journal a call. Leon is a pretty bright young man, and the Journal people are always glad to meet him. He returned home on the afternoon train.

Inhuman.

If you see a driver beating his exhausted horse in order to make him do more work you certainly protest, calling the man inhuman. What will you do with a man trying to force his own exhausted stomach to work by pouring poisonous spirits into it? In all cases of exhaustion of the stomach by overwork always try Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. It will heal the inflamed lining of the stomach; will stimulate the glands to a more profuse secretion and will strengthen the muscles of that organ. Use this natural remedy in all cases of sickness when accompanied by loss of appetite and bodily strength. Use it whenever you need a gentle stimulant and a natural tonic. At drug stores, Jos. Triner, 616-622 South Ashland avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Dancing School to Open.

Miss Clara Ferree, a graduate of the Pittsburg, Pa., and Rochester, N. Y., dancing academies, will open a dancing school in this city on next Monday (Labor day) evening, September 6, at Coates' hall. The opening will be in the form of a dance at which Miss Ferree will state to her patrons her methods of handling the school. She is an experienced instructor in dancing, having been an assistant in the eastern schools for some time in addition to later on running a school of her own in Council Bluffs last winter. Miss Ferree also is highly recommended by Prof. Chambers of Omaha, where she attended his academy for some time. Miss Ferree, with her mother, is located in this city and is buying a home here. She hopes to secure a sufficiently large class to enable her to pay out on the property and appreciates good patronage. She expects to conduct a dancing class in Omaha the coming winter. One of her cardinal rules is the enforcement of the school rules and the strict observance of the proprieties. In another place a formal announcement appears of her venture and at the dance on Monday evening her terms will be given the public. That Miss Ferree will make a thorough success of her school cannot be doubted, and that she will gain a large class is assured. In addition to the adult's class, Miss Ferree expects to have a children's class of unusual merit. In fact, she contemplates making the children's class one of the main features of her class. Her first dance on next Monday night should be a great success.

Moon Will Eclipse Mars.

Lovers of celestial phenomena will be interested in knowing that the planet Mars will be eclipsed this evening by the moon. The eclipse occurs only at very rare intervals, and is seldom visible in the United States. Mars is now at its nearest point to the earth and its brilliant ruddy orb is one of the magnificent spectacles of the September evening skies. The moon will rise at 8:18 in this latitude with Mars in eclipse, the eclipse continuing for eighteen minutes, Mars appearing from the lower limb of the moon at 8:18. The celestial display will be readily visible to the naked eye, but can be seen to a much greater advantage with a telescope or a good pair of opera glasses. Father Riggs, astronomer at Creighton university, will take observations from the university observatory through the large telescope and to him the Bee is indebted for the interesting information of the forthcoming eclipse.—Omaha Bee.

Served as coffee, the new coffee substitute known to grocers everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, will trick even a coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it, either. Pure healthful toasted grains, malt, nuts, etc., have been so cleverly blended as to give a wonderfully satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute," too. No tedious 20 to 30 minutes boiling. F. S. White.

Not a Drop of Alcohol

What is a "tonic"? A medicine that increases the strength or tone of the whole system. What is an "alterative"? A medicine that alters or changes unhealthy action to healthy action. Name the best "tonic and alterative"? Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only Sarsaparilla entirely free from alcohol. Ask your own doctor all about it. Never take a medicine doctors cannot endorse. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Without daily action of the bowels poisonous products must be absorbed. Then you have impure blood, biliousness, headache. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills for constipation.
