

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Friday's Evening Journal

Miss Tullie Vallery was a passenger this morning for Omaha, where she will spend the day visiting with friends.

O. P. Monroe is looking after business matters today in Omaha, going to that city this morning on the early train.

Dr. A. P. Barnes is spending today in Omaha, having been a passenger for that city on the early train this morning.

H. L. Kruger is among those who have business matters in Omaha to attend to, being a passenger on the morning train for Omaha.

Henry Hirz, the well known farmer of the precinct, ran out of oil this morning and had to make a special trip to the city for a supply.

Misses Edna and Mayola Propst of Myard came in this morning from their home and were passengers for Omaha, where they will spend the day.

Mrs. H. A. Bailey and little daughter came in from Alvo last evening to spend Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Fred Kunzman, returning home last evening.

Mrs. G. B. Brinklow, daughter and two sons, who have been visiting with Grandpa Winn and wife, departed this morning for San Antonio, Texas, where they make their home now.

Mrs. Mary E. Brooks and daughter, Miss Lulu of Newmarket, Ia., who were called to this city by the untimely death of Mrs. J. M. Woodson, mother of Mrs. Brooks, returned to their homes this morning.

Mrs. Henry Snyder and baby, from Fairfield, Ia., are in the city making a visit of several days with Mrs. Dora Moore and other relatives. Mr. J. G. Oldham of Beaver City, Neb., also came in yesterday morning for a visit with Mrs. Moore and relatives.

Henry Hirz will be one of the exhibitors at the stock show, bringing in several head of fine Galloway stock, all registered and also a registered stallion with some of his get. These were all purchased by Mr. Hirz from Straub Bros. of Avoca, which is sufficient recommendation for them.

A fine young son was left late Saturday at the home of B. W. Livingston and wife by the stork. Bent was in the city yesterday wearing the honors with becoming dignity receiving the congratulations and good wishes of his many friends. Both Mrs. Livingston and the son are doing nicely.

The News-Herald hereafter will appear under a new management, Mr. P. A. Barrows, a Lincoln newspaper man, taking charge this morning. Mr. Barrows comes highly recommended as an able editor and good business man and doubtless will do the best any one could wish what he has to work on.

Val Gobelman, who has been spending several days in South Dakota looking over land, has returned to the city. He found some very nice land in the vicinity of Miller, S. D., and purchased a half section, regarding it as an excellent investment. Conditions generally in that section are very good, and he thinks prospects for a good crop are assured.

C. A. Vallery, who has been acting as a buyer for the Kansas City Live Stock Commission company at St. Joseph, Mo., for several years past, has been spending several days visiting with relatives in the city, this morning departing for the west to be gone for about ten days. Charley has been doing very well during his stay in the Missouri city, and is one of the prominent buyers on the South St. Joe market.

A. O. Moore and sister are spending today in Omaha, going to that city this morning on the early train.

Charles L. Martin and wife are visiting today in Omaha, having gone to that city this morning on the early train.

Sheriff Carl Quinton was a passenger this morning for Lincoln, taking the unfortunate Ed. Zimmerman to the asylum.

H. G. VanHorn is looking after business matters today in Omaha, having gone to that city this morning on the early train.

C. D. St. John of Nehawka is attending to business matters today in the city, having come up from his home this morning.

Mrs. J. M. Ashburn of Lamont, Ia., who has been making a visit in the city with relatives, returned to her home this morning.

Mrs. H. E. Weidman is among those spending the day in Omaha, having gone up to make a visit with Mrs. Hasse at the hospital.

Mrs. R. Stringer is among those spending today in Omaha, having been a passenger for that city this morning on the early train.

Commissioner Friedrich is spending today in Omaha attending to business matters. Martin reports that he is running well so far as he knows.

Mrs. Eugene Tinsman of Creston, Ia., who has been visiting in the city with G. W. McCracken and family, departed for her home this morning on the early train.

Miss Clara Reuland of Chicago, Ill., who has been visiting with relatives in the city with her little cousin, Josephine Reuland, departed this morning for Lincoln, where they will spend the day.

Mrs. J. Royal and daughter, Miss Esther, who have been spending a few days in the city the guests of Ben Hyde and family, returned home this morning. A younger Miss Royal remains to spend several days of the carnival with Mr. Hyde's family. Miles Standish, who has been spending several days with relatives and friends at Norton, Kas., has returned home. He reports that crops around Norton are badly burned and in bad shape, and that corn will not commence to make a full crop there. The extreme dry weather has unfavorably affected crops of all kinds and, while they are short here, they are not nearly so bad as down there.

U. A. Hanna and wife of Grove City, Pa., and Mrs. C. E. Banker of Youngstown, O., who have been spending several days in the city the guests of John Rutherford and wife, departed this morning for Omaha, where they will visit with Charles Rutherford and family. Later they will go to Kansas for a visit with other relatives, the ladies returning to this city for a further visit, while Mr. Hanna returns to his home, where he has large business interests awaiting him.

The B. P. O. E. will maintain open house during the carnival, their rooms being thrown open to the public during the five days of the affair. On the second of September the rooms will be taken by the ladies of the reception committee as a rest room and reception room for visitors. The Elks acted upon the matter of holding open house through the trustees, Messrs. J. H. Thrasher and Emmons Richey and Exalted Ruler Dr. F. L. Cummins and Chairman of the House Committee Dr. J. S. Livingston, these gentlemen holding a meeting and tendering the use of the rooms on the third floor of the Coates block to the public. Visitors, and especially brother Elks, are invited to avail themselves of the accommodations of the lodge.

UNION.

(Ledger.)

A. E. Stites, our energetic druggist, returned Monday from several days' visit in Iowa, and reports that he had a very pleasant trip.

Mrs. Charles Frans and son Thurman arrived Tuesday morning from Canyon City, Texas, and are visiting with relatives and friends in and near Union.

R. E. Davis and wife are spending their vacation on the Pacific coast and taking in the exposition at Seattle. They will also visit relatives on the return trip.

Miss Eleanor Carpenter returned Sunday from several days' visit in Omaha. Miss Carpenter leaves in a few days for Alliance, where she has accepted a position in the city schools.

Rufus Taylor came from Atchison last Sunday to take a needed rest and visit his parents, W. A. Taylor, and other relatives and friends. Rufus now holds a good position in the Missouri Pacific dispatcher's office, and this is his first visit home in sixteen months.

George Mark, one of the prosperous farmers from near Nehawka, was in town Monday, and while here informed the Ledger editor that he should be addressed as Grandpa Mark, a fine new daughter having been born to Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Partridge Sunday evening.

While attending the teachers' institute at Elmwood last week Miss Jennie Mark was taken suddenly ill with appendicitis, and Saturday evening also became much worse and had to be taken to Dr. Munger's hospital. She returned with her mother Tuesday evening to her home, where she is improving slowly.

NEHAWKA.

(Register.)

Miss Ellen Pollock of Plattsmouth visited with Isadore Sheldon a few days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton St. John south of town are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy, who arrived Saturday, August 20.

Mrs. George Spohn and son Vilas came in last Thursday for a visit with relatives here. They returned to their home at Superior on Wednesday.

Frank Schillemier made this office a pleasant call on Monday and informed us that he had sold two car load of hogs to L. J. Hall for $2460. Lute shipped them to the South Omaha market and came within 5c of topping the market on one load.

Robert Alford, J. J. Pollard, Chas. Adams and Albert Hall were a party of outing seekers to leave for the state, where one has to be showed, on Monday morning via the wagon route. They expect to fish and hunt and will be gone about a week.

Elba and Jess Dodson are enjoying a visit from their brother, P. C. Dodson and family, who arrived here Wednesday morning from Huntington, West Virginia. They expect to visit here for some time and then go to visit his brother Jeff near Springfield.

In another column will be seen the advertisement of K. D. Clark announcing that he has been forced to vacate the building he now occupies, and that he will leave Nehawka. Mr. Steffens, the owner of the building will, we understand, occupy the building himself.

LOUISVILLE.

(Courier.)

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stohlman, ein knob, Thursday, August 26, 1909.

J. R. Williams is here from Renfrow, Okla., visiting a few days with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Farrell's little boy was scalded quite badly one day this week by the upsetting of a glass of hot jelly on his arm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gorder of Plattsmouth were in town a short time Sunday on their way home from Springfield, where they had gone to attend the picnic.

C. M. Seybert and wife returned Thursday from Benkleman, where they went to look at land interests. While there Mr. Seybert was offered double the amount he had paid for his quarter but refused it.

F. S. Echols of Bluehill, Va., was here the forepart of the week visiting friends. From here he went to the western part of the state to look at land interests. Mr. Echols was formerly a Louisville merchant but has been in Virginia for some years.

C. G. Mayfield has returned from a short visit to Knife River, Minn., with his son. He reports everything in a prosperous condition in the Lord settlement and says the Louisville people up there are all doing well.

Mrs. Frank Stander was taken to an Omaha hospital Wednesday for treatment. Dr. Worthman accompanied her, going in the doctor's automobile. Mrs. Stander has been poorly for several months and it is hoped that she will soon recover her health.

ELMWOOD.

(Leader-Echo.)

John Willecockson has accepted the principalship of the Alvo schools for the coming term.

W. H. Berger and family returned Tuesday to their home at Farnam, Neb., accompanied by his sister, Miss Anna Berger.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Williams of Waverly, Kas., came Sunday in answer to a telegram bearing the sad intelligence of the death of their niece, Frances Williams.

Alonso Jackman and family visited Tuesday at the G. L. Berger home. The two families were near neighbors when G. L. lived in the vicinity of Louisville.

Fire from burning refuse destroyed the house, barn and other buildings on the farm occupied by Loren Rickley, one and one-half miles east of Murdock, Saturday noon. A valuable team of mules is numbered with the total loss.

Miss Edith Robertson and Miss Bethel Ballard, University Place, returned to their home Friday after a visit at the home of the former's brother, Orville Robertson. Miss Robertson will teach the Pleasant Hill school the coming year.

Andy MacNamara of Murdock spent the last five weeks near Fairmont and he reports the crops in a worse condition than here. They have not had rain since July 8. Pastures are burned down and corn is fired pretty bad.

H. W. Huckriede, wife and daughter, Irma, of Bryant, Ind., and August Huckriede, wife and daughter, Hilda, of New Bremen, O., came last week for a visit at the L. W. Roettger home. The Mesdames Huckriede are sisters of Mr. Roettger. This is their first visit to the west.

Picnic Supper.

Last evening a number of our young people, with well-filled baskets, repaired to the B. & M. bridge to enjoy a picnic supper and genial breezes which wafted across the waters of the Big Muddy. Those who had the pleasure of accompanying the merry party were Myrtle Hall, Paula Goss, Lulu Welch, Muri Barthold, Hazel Tvey, Grace Dalton, Mildred Cook, Farris York, Margaret Rischel, Ralph Mullis, Jess Brady, George Hall, Hugh Cecil, George Morrison and Jennings Seivers.

Judge Beeson yesterday issued a marriage license to Herman Heinrich Wilhelm Meyer, aged 21, of Ruskin, Neb., and Louisa Wilhelm Christine Kraft, aged 22, of Louisville. He also issued a license today to Phillip Orkin and Miss Laura Schall of Omaha, who will be united in marriage this evening at the home of M. Fanger in this city, Rabbi Cohn of Omaha performing the ceremony.

Announcement is made that the Louisville Courier has again changed management, Lee J. Mayfield once more taking charge of the paper. Lee's many friends will be delighted to welcome him back to the newspaper field once more and know that the Courier will continue to be the bright, newsy paper of old.

An error in the printed program of events for Saturday, September 4 and Monday, September 6 was made several days ago. The corrected program appears tonight in this paper. Manley will be one of the attractions for Saturday at the ball game instead of Monday as printed, while Havelock plays on Monday instead of Saturday.

Three good registered Shorthorn yearling bulls for sale. Also good fresh milk cows. Mark White.

NOTICE OF SALE.

In the matter of the estate of Regina Wolf, deceased. Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of an order of Hon. Harvey D. Travis, Judge of the district court of Cass county, Nebraska, made and entered on the 24 day of July, 1909, hereinafter described there, will be sold at the south door of the court house in the City of Plattsmouth on the 29th day of September, 1909, at 1 o'clock p. m., at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real estate, to-wit:

Beginning at a point forty-one (41) rods north of the center of section thirteen (13), in township twelve (12) north, range thirteen (13) east, thence running west eighty (80) rods; thence north eleven (11) rods; thence east eighty (80) rods; thence south eleven (11) rods to the place of beginning, being the north half of lots thirteen (13) and fifty-three (53) in said section, township and range, as now shown on the plats of irregular tracts of said county.

The undivided one-half (1-2) of lots ten (10) and eleven (11) in block thirteen (13), in Duke's addition to the City of Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, except the right-of-way of the Omaha Southern railway over and across said lots.

The undivided one-half (1-2) of the following tract of land to-wit: Beginning at a point thirty (30) rods north of the center of section thirteen (13), township twelve (12) north, range thirteen (13) east; thence running west eighty (80) rods; thence north eleven (11) rods; thence east eighty (80) rods; thence south eleven (11) rods to the place of beginning, being the south half of lots thirteen (13) and fifty-three (53), in said section, township and range, as shown by the irregular tracts in said county except the right-of-way of the Omaha Southern railway across the same.

Said sale will remain open one hour. Dated this 24 day of August, 1909. (Seal.) EDWARD EGENBERGER, Administrator De Bonis Non. D. O. DWYER, Attorney.

Is Everybody Happy?

A touch of lubricant for the hinges of the home's door of hope is our service. You can buy as you need and always get best prices and goods of quality. We can supply your wants with satisfaction to yourself. Prescriptions filled with accuracy and best materials.

The Right Way

GERING & CO.

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Wednesday Evening's Daily Journal

Mr. and Mrs. Austin change program every night after tomorrow night at the Parmele.

L. F. Sallee took advantage of the cool day and is attending to business matters in Omaha today.

County Clerk Rosenerans this morning was a passenger for Omaha, where he will spend the day.

Ed. McGinnis of South Bend spent last evening and today in the city attending to business matters.

Mrs. Eliza Pratt and children were passengers for Omaha this morning, where they will spend the day.

H. F. Kropp of Nehawka is looking after business in the city, having come in yesterday for that purpose.

Miss Cora Ingram of Louisville spent yesterday in the city, being a registered guest at the Perkins house.

James Woodard of Elmwood is in the city looking after business matters, having come in yesterday afternoon.

J. W. Magney, a prominent citizen of Nehawka, is among those having business matters in the city to attend to.

A. B. Smith of Denver, Colo., came in this morning from the east to look after some business matters in the city.

J. S. Rough of Nehawka is looking after business in the city, having come up yesterday from his home for that purpose.

J. P. Falter made a flying trip to Omaha this morning to secure additional attractions for the carnival, returning at noon.

W. J. Lorenz, who has been visiting his brothers in this city for several days, departed this morning for his home at Odell.

T. F. Jameson of Weeping Water is in the city looking after business matters, having come in on the M. P. train last evening.

D. W. Foster of Union is in the city, coming in to visit his daughter, Miss Mary Foster, and to attend Pioneers' day at the carnival.

Miss Violet Walker, who has been the guest of Judge Travis and family for several days, departed for her home in Omaha this morning.

Al Leisle, the popular traveling man, was in the city yesterday making his regular visit to the local patrons of his firm, departing for Omaha on the morning train.

Mrs. J. M. Jirousek, daughter, Miss Nettie, and son Johnny are spending the day in Omaha. Mrs. Jirousek and son expect to return this evening, while Miss Jirousek will visit friends until Friday.

Uncle George Shrader, for the first time in three months, visited Plattsmouth today. He is one of the substantial farmers of Cass county, and we are pleased to note he is holding his own pretty well as to health. He says on account of the scarcity of help he made a pretty fair hand in the harvest field.

Something funny at the Parmele tonight. Be sure and be there.

Henry Melsing and wife came in this morning from their home in the country and were passengers for Omaha, where they will spend the day visiting with friends.

Mrs. M. Segrave and her daughter, Mrs. H. Shultz, were in Omaha visiting this week, and the latter returned to her home in Cherokee, Ia., with her two children.

J. D. McAnley of Nebraska City, special agent for South Dakota lands, was in the city this morning, and went from here to Cedar Creek, where he has two or three purchasers on the string. While here he made the Journal a pleasant call.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Parriott of Peru came up last evening and are guests of his sister, Mrs. W. H. Rainey, Ed. went to Murray this morning to look after some A. O. U. work in that town, and will return on the early morning train tomorrow.

George Harshman, the Avoca veteran Democrat and royal good citizen, in company with his son-in-law, Mr. St. John, from near Avoca, is taking in the sights of the carnival and meeting old friends. George is one of Cass county's best citizens and has a host of friends here who welcome his visit.

Word from the bedside of A. B. Shultz are to the effect that the old gentleman is still in a very serious condition and but little hopes for his ultimate recovery are entertained. Those who know Mr. Shultz personally will regret to learn of his condition. Being a hard worker all his life, quiet, unassuming in his everyday life, he has no enemies, but a host of friends.

The Herald extends congratulations to its esteemed Plattsmouth friend, Thomas Walling. Mrs. Walling recently endured a critical operation in an Omaha hospital, and has sufficiently recovered to be able to return home. A good wife is a valuable asset and this is why friend Thomas is receiving our special congratulations at the fortunate outcome.—Lincoln Herald.

Ed. S. Tutt, Democratic candidate for sheriff, this morning had the misfortune to have the nail torn off one of his fingers within a few minutes after going to his work at the Burlington shops. The injury, while not dangerous, is a very painful one and occasions him a great deal of suffering. He had the injury dressed by a surgeon at once, and will be off duty for the remainder of the week, anyway, and possibly longer.

The heirs of the estate of the late John L. Rohrdanz came in this morning from Manley, Elmwood and vicinity for the purpose of being present at the attestation of the will. They formed quite a large healthy looking family, numbering some nine or ten persons. They are among the best people of Cass county and are good friends of the Journal. The will was admitted to probate and John H. Rohrdanz was made executor. J. E. Douglas is attorney for the estate.

PERKINS HOTEL

GUTHMAN & CORY, Proprietors

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

RATES $1.00 PER DAY

We Solicit the Farmers' Trade

and Guarantee Satisfaction.

WHEN IN THE CITY GIVE US A CALL

The Perkins Hotel