LABOR PARADE IS SPLENDID SUCCESS

Floates of the Burlington Shops Works of Beauty and Skill

The big Burlington parade, which had to be postponed from Labor day until today. The weather was splendid and the day was exceptionally good. The streets were crowded with people, and the parade was a sight to behold. The floats were large and colorful, and the shops were advertised with bright colors and signs. The parade was a great success and many people came to watch.

The parade featured floats from the Burlington shops, including the Burlington Furniture Company, the Burlington Hardware Company, and the Burlington Hardware Company. The floats were decorated with flowers and other objects, and they were pulled by horses and other animals. The parade started at the corner of Main and Market streets, and it proceeded to the downtown area. The floats were arranged in a line, and they were accompanied by bands and other music. The parade was a great success, and it was enjoyed by all.

The parade also featured floats from other businesses in the area, including the National Trust and Savings Bank, the Burlington National Bank, and the Burlington Savings Bank. These floats were decorated with flowers and other objects, and they were pulled by horses and other animals. The parade was a great success, and it was enjoyed by all.

The parade ended at the intersection of Main and Market streets, and it was followed by a street festival. The streets were lined with people, and they enjoyed food, music, and other activities. The parade was a great success, and it was enjoyed by all.