Bridge Company Meet.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Platte River Bridge company was held Monday afternoon. About 100 shares were represented either in person or by proxy. The reports showed the company to be in good condition. A 10 per cent interest dividend was declared. W. F. Dier was re-elected as a director of the company. All the other officers hold over for another year. The bridge fills a long felt want and is becoming the popular route from Omaha to Lincoln and the southwest.

Buys Home in Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Thomas Sullivan has purchased the residence property formerly owned by George Porter, traveling agent of the Omaha Bee. Mr. Porter came to his city last Friday and closed the deal. This property is very desirable, Mr. Porter having put it in excellent shape, with concrete walks and retaining walls. Plattsmouth citizens will be glad to welcome Mrs. Sullivan to the city, and she is locating in a splendid neighborhood.

Advertised Letter List.

The following letters remain in the Plattsmouth postoffice up to the present date (October 4, 1909) uncalled for. If not called for within a reasonable length of time they will be forwarded to the dead letter office at Washington. Please say "advertised" when called for: Mrs. Ella Marsh, Miss Bessie Maystick, Miss Eva Porter, L. H. Brown, W. M. Ferguson, Joe Goodron, C. J. McIlwain, A. C. McGilway, Lee Oslon, W. H. Roan, F. C. Surface, P. W. Wilson.
