The crowd on deck got so excited over "The Star Spangled Benner" and "Dixie" and "There'll Be . Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight," that they cheered and the crowd on the dock, who had come down to say how do you do to personal friends, joined in the shouts of the suffragettes. A squad of deputy surveyors and in- British Ship Has Encounter With spectors escorted Lady Cook down the gang plank and a roar of enthusiasm barst forth. The executive committee of the National Progressive union escorted Lady Cook to a taxicab and started immediately for headquarters.

The rooms of the union and the entrance to the house had been elaborstely decorated with messages of welcome in red immortels.

After ten minutes of work on the part of the cameras, a reception was held. Then Lady Cook told a little about her plans for the coming campaign. "I have more faith in President Taft than I had in his predecess. or," she said. "He doesn't think that he is the only important thing in the country, and he has a bright mind. I think he will listen to reason and that he realizes that the time has come when the women of America must be reckoned with. I will not bent about the bush any longer but go to Washington and have it out with him. I shall probably take a house there in December, and shall start a campaign similar to the one that my sister and I carried on in the 70s. I am going to devote my life and my fortune to helping women to win aim. I intend to spend $1 on the election of congress."

Serious Condition. Annapolis, Md., Oct. 19 .--- It was stated at the naval academy that the condition of Earl D. Wilson of Covington, Ky., the midshipman who was injured in the football game on Saturday. President Will Have Four Days was serious. There has been no sign of a alminution of the paralysis which has affected his limbs and upper body since Saturday and unless this takes place today the apprehension will be of the gravest character. Wilson was examined by the X-ray and no fracture of the spinal column was found, but

It is urged that the government dispatch cutters or other armed' vessels to the Bahama island in quest of strange barks plying in that part of the Atlantic. According to the captain's report, they were bound from Liverpool to Galveston and encountered the strange schooner about dusk on the evening of Oct. 6, about sixteen miles northeast of Cayfort shoal light, to the east of Florida. The schooner was flying the distress signal, the Greek flag at half mast, and when the British ship came alongside four men on the deck attempted to board the vessel. Captain Phelan demanded to know what they wanted. The captain of the schooner said they wanted to leave their Wildcat Hunt, Tarpon Fishing and Jackrabbit Chasing a Few of the Diversions in Which He is Expected to Indulge During His Short Respite. Falls City Babe Gets First Presidential Kiss of the Trip.

Gregory, Tex., Oct. 19 .- A wildcat hunt, a day's tarpon fishing, motor boating, jackrabbit chasing and golf are a few of the diversions in which President Taft is expected to indulge in in the course of his four days' rest at his brother's big ranch here.

The president arrived here at 9:30 last night and will devote the next four days to having a good time. There have been stops on the trip, such as three days at the Yosemite valley and the day at the Grand canyon, which have been intended as breathing spells for the president on his 13,000-mile IN THE BAHAMAS. jaunt, but at these places Mr. Taft was accompanied by politicians and local committeemen, who insisted on talking. At the Charles P. Taft ranch the president will be among those who appreclate his need of rest and recreation. No local committeeman will be allowed within the president's reach, unless possibly on the last day, when the president may consent to deliver

The Taft ranch fronts on three bayous of the gulf. It is devoted largely to cattle raising. The president's brother has provided a big, strong horse for his guest and the president will do considerable riding. that's the whole philosophy of clothes buying as viewed from our standpoint. We are not concerned so much about cheap clothes-there are plenty of them-but we are concerned about good clothes, they're not so numerous. We're in the market all the time for good clothes. It doesn't matter how far we have to go for them, just so they are good. That's the point with us. That's what makes our Quality Line the safest line for you to buy. Our "censorship" of everything that goes into it, is your protection. We have never found a man yet who complained he had paid too much for our Quality Clothes. We have seen plenty of men who have bought cheap clothes who thought they paid a big price for what they got. The best is the cheapest after all, because nothing is cheap that tails to give you satisfaction. Our Quality Line $20 to $35. Others not so good $5 to $18.

GOOD OVERCOATS the same good quality $20 to $35; others not so good, but good as others show $8 to $18.

tion. The captain of the schooner, the name of which could not be made out, then said he was short of food for ten men and Captain Phelan offered to send food without having any of the passengers or crew come aboard. About this time another head appeared above the cabin of the schooner, and three men from the strange craft, whose name the leader said was the Lion Face, attempted to climb to the anchor chains of the steamship. The crew was summoned and Captain Phelan and officers, armed with guns, threatened to shoot the first man that came close. When the three men that attempted to board the ship put back to the schooner, the commander of the Lion Face swore fiercely at his own crew for their failure, and at the British vessel. The schooner ran to cover among the small islands. It is said several other ships have recently reported strange ships approaching in the Bahamas.
