BANK GUARANTY DECISION FLAYED

Governor Shallenberger of Nebraska Issues Statement.

WOULD BAR POLITICS ON BENCH

Declares More Care is Needed in Selecting Judges for Lower Courts and Makes Plea for State Tribunal.

Says Decision Was Not Wholly a Surprise—Would Have Welcomed Appeal Direct to the Supreme Court.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 19.—Full of bitterness at the federal court for having declared invalid the Nebraska bank deposit guaranty law, Governor Ashton C. Shallenberger, in a statement, calls the attention of the public to what he says is need for more care in the selection of judges for the lower courts. He also points out that congress must amend the laws so that enactments resulting from the legislation of a state shall not be carried at once from the control of the state courts and lodged in the federal courts.

Governor Shallenberger says the highest court of the land has the confidence of the people, while often inferior courts are presided over by men who have been rewarded for political activity. He charges that in the present instance the lower court has usurped the prerogative of the supreme court and has passed on a case similar to the one now before the supreme court, which, had the lower court waited, would have settled once for all the points in dispute.

Not Surprised at Decision.
"The decision is not wholly a surprise," says the governor. "It is exactly what those who, for partisan or selfish reasons, are opposed to any effective guaranty of deposits law desired. It goes to the heart of the question and denies the right of the state to require banks which exist by virtue of their charters to pay a certain tax to create a guaranty fund, or to prescribe a form and manner under which banking business shall be conducted."

"One result of the nullification of the legislation by the courts will be to intensify the desire and determination that our state supreme court shall not be longer constituted wholly of members of one political party. It might be noted in passing that a distinguished Democrat of this state, who was made a federal judge by a reversed Republican president, was not called into judgment upon this case. It is idle to mince matters in the face of the situation. The people have got to pay more attention to the character and quality of their judges."

"The power of the courts is supreme under the present construction and interpretation of representative government in this country. It matters little if people control the legislative and executive branches if other interests dominate the courts."

"It, therefore, stands the people well in hand to look carefully to the character and ability of the judges in whose selection they are yet allowed a voice."

Use and Ornament.
Mr. Newrich, the multimillionaire, was furnishing the library of his magnificent mansion. "Let me see," he mused. "You've got the order for that $5,000 edition de luxe of Dickens bound in levant?"

"Yes, sir," replied the bookseller. "And the $10,000 set of Shakespeare?"

"Yes, sir."

"And the standard authors bound in calf—Thackeray, Scott, Washington Irving, Cooper and all them there other fellows?"

"Yes, sir; I have a memorandum of the entire list."

"Well, then, that's off my mind," said Mr. Newrich of Pittsburg, with a sigh of relief. "Now, what I want is something to read. Say, have you got a complete set of 'Old Sleuth'?"—New York Times.

Grain Growers Interested.
Hastings, Neb., Oct. 19.—President Nelson of the grain growers' department of the American Society of Equity, who recently issued a call for a national conference of grain growers in Indianapolis on Nov. 15, said that letters he has received from many points in the western states indicate that the attendance will be large. The proposition to enlist farmers and co-operative elevators in a concerted movement has attracted much attention in the local unions, and definite proposals to bring the institutions together are expected to be advanced at the national conference.

Faker Works Webster City.
Webster City, Ia., Oct. 19.—A goodly number of Webster City merchants have just awakened to the fact that they have been victimized. They bought advertising space of a stranger at from $10 to $15 per space in a booklet. Most of them paid in advance. The stranger is now gone and the German Lutheran church, under whose auspices the stranger claimed to be getting out the book and whose good standing he used in soliciting the ads, has repudiated any connection with the scheme. And the booklet, of course, has not yet materialized.

Falling Hair
Ayer's Hair Vigor promptly destroys the germs that cause falling hair. It nourishes the hair-bulbs, restores them to health. The hair stops falling out, grows more rapidly.

Dandruff
Ayer's Hair Vigor just as promptly destroys the germs that cause dandruff. It removes every trace of dandruff itself, and keeps the scalp clean and in a healthy condition.

Does not Color the Hair

We wish you to positively and distinctly understand that Ayer's Hair Vigor does not affect the color of the hair, even to the slightest degree. Persons with the whitest and most delicate blond hair may use it freely without having the hair made a shade darker.

NON-PARTISAN JUDICIARY.

Perhaps the non-partisan judiciary is not a good thing. Perhaps it is bad in principle and practice. But it cannot be any worse than the present Republican supreme judiciary in Nebraska. It is a matter of general knowledge that Judge Barnes went before the Nebraska state Republican central committee and asked the members of that body what should be done with the non-partisan judiciary law enacted by the late legislature. And when that body told him to kill it, that is exactly what he did. Talk about equality before the law, justice being blind, etc. There is too much politics in our courts and there is entirely too much power invested in any one political party when it controls the entire machinery of our courts. The same thing happened when a friendly federal judge was imported to kill the bank guaranty law. There is too much politics in the move and too little justice. The Times believes that a judiciary where the members may be of several political beliefs would be a good thing and would work in the interests of impartial and fair decisions. Vote for Judges Sullivan, Good and Dean and then we will have three Democrats and four Republicans on the bench. That will do away in a large measure with the present political decisions.—Papillon Times.

THE CURE AT THE POLLS.

The Tribune is a Republican newspaper published at Columbus, in this state. In this week's issue it expresses freely its opinion concerning the reactionary stand taken by President Taft, Senator Burkett and the Omaha Bee, and declares boldly that it will not allow itself to be led, even by the president himself, into the camp of Aldrich and Cannon.

The World-Herald believes that its outspoken Columbus contemporary speaks not only for itself but for thousands of Nebraskans who have been life-long members of the Republican party. Their patriotism is greater than their partisanship. Much as they love their party, proud as they are of its history, they will not consent to follow it when it becomes the confessed tool of plutocracy.

We print today what the Columbus Tribune has to say on this great question, and commend it to the attention of our readers.

At the same time we would remind the Tribune and those Republicans who feel as the Tribune does, that the best way to keep their party in the path of rectitude and honor is to rebuke it when it departs therefrom. If they vote as cheerfully and as numerously for Aldrich and Cannon bossism and for Aldrich and Cannon candidates, and for an Aldrich and Cannon platform, as for a free party and progressive candidates on an honest and progressive platform, what inducement is there for their party to stand for the people.

Every Republican vote cast this fall for Democratic candidates is a vote for a progressive Republican party. Every progressive Republican vote cast for standpat candidates is a vote for a reactionary Republican party.—Omaha World-Herald.

NON-PARTISAN JUDGES.

As disclosed in the sketches of their careers published in the World-Herald Sunday, Judges Sullivan, Good and Dean, candidates for supreme judge on a non-partisan platform, have records that justify their present stand as friends of a non-partisan judiciary.

When the supreme court commission was created, Judge Sullivan, with Judge Holcomb, constituted a majority of the court. Judge Norval was the lone Republican member.

Judge Sullivan joined Judge Holcomb, however, in inviting Judge Norval to name four Republican members of the commission, they naming five Democrats and Populists. This was practical evidence of devotion to the principle Judge Sullivan is now espousing. Judge Sullivan has had non-partisan recognition of his faithfulness and ability, moreover, in being chosen by Attorney General Thompson to prosecute the case to establish the validity of the anti-pass law, and in his appointment by the supreme court as referee in the express rate cases. In all of these proceedings his services were of immense and lasting benefit to the people of Nebraska.

Judge Good was one of the pioneers of the movement to take the courts out of politics. He presided over a Democratic convention which nominated Judge Sedgwick, a Republican, for district judge, and later supported Judge Sedgwick against a fusion candidate for the same office. He has been three times himself elected district judge in a heavily Republican district, showing that he has been trusted as a judge and honored as a man, rather than elected as a partisan. He was one of the first, if not the first, public men of distinction to refuse to ride on railroad passes in Nebraska.

Mrs. John Crabill was a visitor in Omaha this forenoon.
