LOUISVILLE.

(Courier.)

Mrs. T. E. Parmele was in Louisville Thursday.

Mrs. P. C. Stander entertained about fifty young people at her home Friday evening.

Hugh Murphy has a gang of men at work blasting out a road for the laying of a side track at his new quarry.

Marshal Charley Hogan was called to Omaha Wednesday to the bedside of his mother. C. M. Seybert is wearing the star in his absence.

Little Eva Williams celebrated her eighth birthday anniversary Tuesday evening at her home, with eighteen of her school mates in attendance. Lunch was served and a pleasant time enjoyed by all.

"There will be something doing in Louisville when Murphy gets his big quarry in operation," remarked a friend at our elbow. There is always something doing in Louisville, but the opening of this big institution is sure to help to keep things moving.

Charley Urwin sold his dray business on the first of the month to Floyd Tennant. Ever since Charley has been big enough to handle a cracker box or whistle a tune he has run a dray in Louisville, and he has been preceded by his father.

We understand that Mr. Urwin will move on a farm in the spring. The Courier and every man, woman and child in Louisville will wish him success.

Was There When Soldiers Returned.

Among the Hillsdale items in the Glenwood Tribune we take the following:

"Mrs. Val Burkel and son Robbie of Plattsmouth visited from Saturday till Monday with Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Anthony. Mrs. Burkel will be remembered by some of the old residents, as she was formerly Miss Nan Sampson, daughter of E. B. Sampson. She says she was at Glenwood the day the soldiers were given a reception when they came home from the army, which was September 9, 1865, but she was not old enough to take part in the program, as she was born on that day."

CATHOLIC SOKOLS AT SOUTH OMAHA

The Bohemian Catholic Sokols of Plattsmouth Entertained by Friends

A large number of the members of the Bohemian Catholic Sokols were visitors in South Omaha Sunday and were the guests of the Catholic Sokols of that city. The occasion was made one for reviewing the work of the National Catholic Sokol tournament recently held in Chicago. Dinner was given the visitors by their South Omaha friends who made them thoroughly enjoy their visit. After dinner a parade of the two lodges was had, headed by a fine band, and ending at the hall, where there was speech-making and music. Rev. Hundalek delivered an address which was particularly well received and greeted with much applause. A number of quartettes and national anthems were sung which the audience all joined in and which were grand in their melody. Afterwards the fine hall of the society was thrown open to the boys and girls and dancing and a general good time was had. Nearly all the visitors remained until the last train, returning to their homes in this city in the night more than pleased with the royal time shown them by their South Omaha friends and brothers.

Among those attendin from this city were J. M. Jirousek and family, Charles Gradevil and family, Jos. Nevothy and family, Frank Janda and wife, Frank Slavicek and family, Messrs. Jos. Libershal, Anton H. Koubek, Frank Ashenbrenner, Jas. Burnanek, Tom Gradevil, Matt Jirousek.

Funeral of Mrs. Kennedy.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Kennedy took place this morning from the Burlington station, the remains arriving from her late home in Omaha on the 9:45 train and being immediately taken from the train to the Catholic cemetery in West Oak Hill, where they were laid to rest beside those of her husband and three children. There was a very large attendance of friends from this city and vicinity, all those who had known her in past years when she resided here uniting in an expression of sympathy with the sorrowing family. At the grave services were conducted by Rev. Father Shine of St. John's church of which for many years, deceased was a most constant attendant. The services were of the impressive nature of that faith.

There was a very large funeral held in Omaha previous to bringing the remains to this city. There were many very handsome floral offerings and a great many of them were left at the church owing to the impossibility of transporting them to this city.

All of the children of the deceased were present at the services in this city except Mrs. Joseph McCaffrey of Omaha, who was too seriously ill to permit her attendance and Mrs. Leo Shroder of Perham, Minn., whose small child was so ill she could not attend. Those of the children attending were John Kennedy of Topeka, Kas., Felix Kennedy of Sheridan, Wyo., Edward Kennedy of Marquette, Mich., Mrs. John McCann of South Omaha, Miss Anna Kennedy of Omaha and Miss Blanche Kennedy of Omaha. In addition the out-of-town friends attending the funeral were John Brennan and sister, Mrs. James Green and daughter and son, Mrs. Lyman, daughter and son, Thomas Flynn, Mr. Hoffman, the funeral director, Ed. Dee, Drs. McAvoy and Dwyer, Michael Roach and F. A. Murphy of Omaha and James Grace and children of South Omaha.

The out-of-town guests were the guests of Mrs. Thomas Walling and Mrs. A. Baxter Smith during their stay in the city, returning to their homes on the afternoon Burlington train.

The pall bearers who assisted at the last sad rites to this most lovable and estimable lady were Thomas Flynn, Ed. Dee, Patrick Grace, Dr. McAvoy, Dr. Dwyer, Michael Roach, F. A. Murphy of Omaha and Thomas Walling of this city.

Changes Hands.

An important transfer of property took place today when the Perkins Hotel property was sold by Charles F. Guthman to John Cory. The consideration is announced as $7,000. Mr. Cory assumes control of the property on the 15th, of the month. Mr. Guthman retiring from all connection with the hotel. The change is more in name than in anything else as Mr. Cory has had a hand in the management of the hotel for several years, being one of the firm of Guthman & Cory. He has proven in that time to be an excellent hotel man and one who understands thoroughly the needs of the public. Under his management the hotel will undoubtedly keep the high rank which it has had in the past and will be a hostelry which will merit the patronage of the public. Mr. Guthman who retires from the management of the house is a gentleman with many friends in the traveling public and during his connection with the business he has demonstrated his capacity to handle hotels. It is not given out as to just the line of business he will take up in the future.
