Pleasantly Entertained.

The home of Mrs. Mark White was the scene of a happy time last Wednesday when the Aid society of the Christian church of Murray, and the society of Kenosha met there, to spend the day.

There was no special work on hands and so they just "visited," as one could imagine forty ladies together would.

When dinner was called the table that met their gaze was enough for the sighs caused. Mrs. White had prepared a dinner fit for a king and to which they all surely did justice.

All left thanking Mrs. White for the good time and good dinner and hoping for a chance to go again sometime. A few of the men were Nicholas there to enjoy the dinner.

Judge M. IF SICK--WHY PAY Unless Health First Returns.

Here is what should and can be done! Now you would not willingly pay for food that was worthless—would you?

Then why pay for medicine until that medicine first proves to you its actual worth? Positively knowing what Dr. Shoop's Restorative can do for the sick, I say to all "don't pay unless health first returns." And I back my restorative with a signed and sealed 30 day "No help, No pay" contract.

I positively pledge to the sick everywhere that "Dr. Shoop's Restorative is absolutely free if it fails." Let others do the same or else pass their prescriptions by.

If you need more strength, more vitality, more vigor or more vim, use my Restorative a few days and note the immediate improvement.

When the Stomach, Heart, or Kidneys go wrong, then test Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I do not do the Stomach nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys, for that is wrong. Years ago I cast away that mistaken idea in medicine. The books below will best tell you how I am succeeding.

These books also tell of a tiny hidden "in-sole nerve," no larger than a silken thread. They tell how that nerve, until it fails, actually gives to the Heart its power, its tone, its never-ending action or impulse.

These books will open up new and helpful ideas to those who are not well. They tell how the Stomach, and Kidneys each have their "inside" or power nerves. They tell how the Restorative was especially made to reach and revitalize these weak or falling inside nerves. All of these facts tell why I am able to say, "It is free if it fails."

This is why I say "take no chance on a medicine whose maker dare not back it just as I do by this remarkable offer."

So write me today for the order.

I have appointed honest and responsible druggists in nearly every community to issue my medicines to the sick.

But write me first for the order.

All druggists sell Dr. Shoop's Restorative, but all are not authorized to give the 30 day test. So drop me a line please—and thus save disappointment and delays. Tell me also which book you need.

A postal will do.

Besides, you are free to consult me as you would your home physician. My advice and the book below are yours—and without cost.

Perhaps a word or two from me will clear up some serious ailment. I have helped thousands upon thousands by my private prescription or personal advice plan. My best effort is surely worth your simple request. So write now while you have it fresh in mind, for tomorrow never comes. Dr. Shoop, Box 12, Racine, Wis.

VERY WORTHY PROMOTION

W. L. Cooper, Former Store House Manager for the Burlington, Here, Goes Up Higher.

From a Bloomington, Ill., paper the following item is clipped respecting W. L. Cooper formerly connected with the Burlington store department in this city. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cooper are well known in this city and have a great many friends, who extend their congratulations to them upon the prompt advancement which he has received with the Alton. That Mr. Cooper was a very able man, was generally conceded here by all and they were not surprised at the recognition which he has received. The extract follows:

"When it was decided some few months past to create a distinct stores department, Mr. W. L. Cooper, formerly storekeeper of the C. B. & Q. at Plattsmouth, Neb., was selected to accept the task of reorganization, he assuming said position in February, and so effective has been his efforts and results accomplished so satisfactory, in recognition of which circulars announcing his appointment, effective November 15th, to the position of district storekeeper, have been issued, giving Mr. Cooper entire charge of Alton properties, Chicago to Kansas City and St. Louis and all branch lines. Mr. Cooper, while a comparative new man in Alton circles, is by no means a stranger to men of official railway standing, having been storekeeper for some of the largest systems in the United States and general supply agent for the C. B. & Q. railroad, his many friends locally and otherwise will be pleased to note his appointment. Mr. Cooper and his family reside at 114 East Beecher street."

Tickling, tight Coughs, can be cured and quickly loosened with a prescription Druggists are dispensing everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. The tender leaves of a harmless, lung healing mountainous shrub, gives the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. Those leaves have the power to calm the most distressing Cough and to soothe and heal the most sensitive bronchial membrane. Mothers should, for safety's sake alone, always demand Dr. Shoop's. It can with perfect freedom be given to even the youngest babes. Test it yourself and see! Sold by all dealers.

In Old Egypt.

The people of old Egypt believed that the majority of diseases is due to improper food and that it is necessary to abstain from food for three days every month to give the body a chance to recover. Nowadays we do not need such treatment. If we notice that something is wrong with our digestion, Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine should be used at once. It will quickly strengthen the exhausted organs and bring them to their normal activity. They will then be able to accept and digest more food and to increase bodily strength. The digestion will become complete and new blood will soon fill all veins. This remedy should be tried in every family. It contains no deleterious ingredients. At drug stores. Jos. Triner, 1333-1339 So. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Five Dollars Reward.

The above amount will be paid to the finder of a coat lost west of this city some two or three weeks ago. It contained the Ten Commandments covered with leather and with straps attached. This was a gift from the owner's grandfather, and will be of no use to anyone else. You can leave same at this office or M. Fanger's store and get your reward.

A clergyman writes: "Preventics, those little Candy Cold Cure Tablets, are working wonders in my parish." Preventics surely will check a cold, or the Grippe, in a very few hours. And Preventics are so safe and harmless. No Quinine, nothing harsh nor sickening. Fine for feverish, restless children. Box of 48 at 25c. Sold by all dealers.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heart-burn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver, indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at these will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of native American medicinal forest plants. "THE RINGMASTER" AT THE BURWOOD

One of the Finest Plays That Ever Came to Omaha.

To those who like "The Lion and the Mouse," "The Ringmaster" will doubtless appeal, though the only real note of similarity between the two is the uprightness of youth and the greed of the kings of finance have for unlimited control.

John LeBaron, Jr., living a contented life of idleness, finds that he is in love with Elenor Hillary, daughter of the much feared "Ringmaster." She returns his affection, promising to marry him on the condition that he will go out in the financial world and carve a niche in the wall of workers for himself, as her father and his father have done. Upon this he agrees, and opens an office near the stock exchange. His policy, as he has accepted it, makes it necessary for him to become the chief financial enemy of Hillary. In the war for control which follows, Elenor's father is exhibited as a rather unscrupulous financier, but Elenor mistakes these questionable business traits as belonging to LeBaron until Hillary confesses that it is he and not LeBaron who is guilty. Naturally she reproaches her lover for being in direct opposition to her father, though she forgives him in the end, not so readily, however, as she did her father. This is the main theme of human interest derived from a financial battle to gain control of certain smelting interests, in which the ringmaster tries to buy a railroad of which the porter, and Rebecca Love, a very frivolous and effervescent young woman. These young people unknown to themselves, discover certain facts by intercepting a wireless message and ciphering it out, which starts LeBaron in his turbulent career as a power on the exchange. This play of high finance which deals more with the technique of buying and selling stocks than the real things of general interest to humanity, was written by Olive Porter. Miss Porter, it is said, spent considerable time in the office of a Wall street financier in the capacity of stenographer, her story is written with the knowledge of a subject only gained by close association, which evidently was spent in careful observation. Miss Porter having made the dialogue between the male characters exceedingly strong, greater part is known by LeBaron. In gaining this, he expects to raise rates in shipping supplies to a certain plant, thereby forcing it in order to meet competition to those who come into the combination. Here is where LeBaron displays his quixotic honesty and refuses to become a party to a scheme so unpatriotic and inhuman. Supplementary to this main plot, are several minor plots, one being the love affair between Peter Stuyvesant Gobb, a young re-

A small piece of characterization, which is so artistically and carefully done, that it stands out more conspicuously than any other in the cast, is that of Harry D. Crosby, an ex-Senator Paul Graven, for perfection of the smallest detail, Mr. Crosby has been most studious, and he is especially deserving of praise in making a minor part so life-like.

"The Ringmaster," as played by Frederic Montague, is forceful and strong. He rises to the situation with apparent ease and power. As the young financier, John LeBaron, Jr., H. S. Northrup is at his best. The character gives him an opportunity to give way to the full power of expression and voice. Another praise-worthy piece of acting is done by F. A. Yelvington, as the old railroad president. The other members of the cast serve to balance the whole quite well. Alice Weeks, as Elenor Hillary, is thoroughly capable and handles the role very well indeed. Miss Anna Lee, a young woman, played the part of Rebecca Love in a spirited manner. Clara Coleman created many laughs in the role she impersonated.
