

TWO BOLD BAD COLORED MEN STEAL VESTS AND PANTS AND MAKE ESCAPE

Deputy Sheriff Manspeaker and Glen Rawls Start in Pursuit and Recover Goods—One Man Captured Later

An exciting chase after thieves livened up what would have otherwise been a dull day last afternoon when Glen Rawls, the active young man who represents C. E. Wescott's Sons in company with Deputy Sheriff Manspeaker made hot pursuit up the tracks in the Burlington yards after two negroes who had sought to steal four vest and four pants from Wescott's. The excitement all took place this afternoon when two negroes came into Wescott's store and one of them engaged Mr. Rawls in conversation while the other sought to steal the clothing. Mr. Rawls was suspicious and kept an eye on the man at the front of the store while talking with the other man and thought he detected the former in the act of secreting the clothes. Not being sure, however, he hesitated about going after him and making him disgorge and did not make a move in that direction until after the man with whom he had been talking left.

Mr. Rawls then investigated and found that some pants and vests had disappeared during the visit of the men. Concluding at once that the thing to do was to get busy and run them down while there was yet time, Mr. Rawls started down the street to the Burlington station toward which the men had gone. Meeting Deputy Sheriff Manspeaker on the way down Main street, he rectified the facts to him and asked him to help him locate the thieves. Mr. Manspeaker joined him and together they reached the station only to see the negroes going north through the yards, one of them with a suit case in his hand. They made immediate pursuit, although the men had a long start.

As soon as the men discovered them in pursuit they started up a faster pace and were quite unmindful of Manspeaker's commands to halt. The pursuit continued with the men making faster time until they reached the hollow just this side of the pump house. This hollow leads into the woods north of the city and in back of Swallow Hill. Realizing that if the men were permitted to ever get into the hollow that escape was possible, Sheriff Manspeaker drew his gun and began firing at them. The men turned sharply into the hollow and began running. The sheriff realizing that a hunt on foot for them was almost without hope of success turned back to get a team and notify Sheriff Quinton.

Mr. Rawls continued the search on foot and when he reached the mouth of the hollow, he was surprised and gratified to find that the men had thrown away the suit case and an overcoat in their flight. He opened the case and found in it four vests and four pair of pants. Having recovered the property he retraced his steps to the city and returned the goods in good condition to her store. After this he hurried to his home to change his clothes which had become much wet up in the chase.

Deputy Sheriff Manspeaker after his return to the city immediately notified Sheriff Quinton who hurried to the Burlington station, where he took No. 23 to Oreadpolis, where he hopes to head of the fugitives while Deputy Manspeaker took a team and buggy and began scouring the country for the culprits. He intends to go to Oreadpolis where he will meet the sheriff and together they expect to bring their men back.

Wescott's Sons are much gratified at the recovery of the goods and hope to be able to prosecute the thieves. The two men had been in the store during the forenoon and Mr. E. H. Wescott had waited upon them but had suspected something wrong and quickly quit them. They came in again while he was at dinner and interested Mr. Rawls but with no better ultimate success. The result of the pursuit is waited with much interest as the officers are determined to get them if such a thing is possible.

One of the men who stole the clothes was captured this afternoon by Russ Todd, living west of Oreadpolis. Mr. Todd ordered the man to march ahead of him to town, and covering him with a shotgun, brought him to the city. Chief of Police Amick went out to the Missouri Pacific tracks to meet them and help bring the man in.

COMING HERE TO BUY CLOTHING

Colonel John Franklin Swezey Comes From Omaha to Buy Overcoat.

There is a possibility that Plattsmouth may not be a better place to buy things in than Omaha—just a possibility. Yet, when a man comes down from that city to buy clothes, it ought to appear to the good people of this city that they were making a mistake when they go there for real goods. Such a case came to the surface this morning when Col. John Franklin Swezey, poet laureate of the plains, advertising agent par excellence and general all around newspaper man, now connected with the Omaha Daily News, arrived in the city this morning to buy a new winter overcoat. Col. John Franklin, who was largely responsible for the excellent edition which the Journal got out during the summer commemorating the thirtieth anniversary of the paper's existence, assures the Journal that in his visit to this city last spring he found he could not do so well in Omaha as he could in this city in buying clothes. He wanted an overcoat and he went to C. E. Wescott's Sons for it. He got a perfect fit and not only that but he found he could buy good goods cheaper in Plattsmouth than in Omaha. Isn't that going some? The coat which Col. Swezey bought was of the famous Hirsch-Wickwire make, a standard of the country over and held by Omaha houses at much more than Wescott's Sons are holding it at. E. H. Wescott when asked about the matter said it was true and that Col. Swezey was at least the fourth man who had come from Omaha to buy goods of this firm. It is a sterling recommendation for Plattsmouth merchants. What can be done with one firm can be done with another and in the clothing business there are three exclusive clothing houses who can compete with Omaha on decent goods—they are Wescott's, Falter & Thierolf and Wm. Holly. Others handle clothing and are good men and sell reasonable but these three are the exclusive clothiers and they can meet any competition. They draw trade from Omaha.

More Help Needed.
Fire Chief Koubek calls the attention of the Journal to the necessity of the honorary members of the fire department adding the active members in the care of Nelson Jones, an honorary member of the department. The chief says that help is badly needed to take care of the sick man and that the list of active members is being rapidly exhausted. There has been only one honorary member volunteered his aid so far and he does not consider this right as they are as much bound to care for a fellow member as the others. The Red Men have been helping out to some extent in caring for Mr. Jones whose condition is very bad, but even with them, more help is needed and the chief strongly urges the honorary members to come forward and assist. There is help enough for several days yet but within a very short time the list will be exhausted and then more will be needed. Mr. Jones really shows no signs of improvement and there is virtually no hope for his recovery. He is delirious at times and it is difficult to restrain him from doing harm, either to his attendants or himself.

John Goes Forth Rejoicing.
Before Judge Archer this morning John Zitka was arraigned and allowed to go his way rejoicing. John is the man whom his wife accused of tearing her loose from sundry shekels and coin of the realm which she claimed belonged to her by right of accretion. It appeared this morning that Mrs. Z. discovered said coin reposing where she had placed it and that John had been more sinned against than sinning. Incidentally the charge against John of caving in his wife in several places seems to have been unsubstantiated by the evidence and he was allowed to go hence without day. He spent several days in the battle recuperating from the excesses of John Barleycorn before he was allowed to travel forth.

Ed. Donat is spending the day with his wife at the hospital in Omaha, being a passenger for that city this morning on the early train.

RED MEN INVITED TO BIG SMOKER

Onondage Tribe of Fort Crook Wants Local Tribe There

Keeper of Records Walters of Missouri Tribe No. 69, I. O. R. M., has received an invitation from Onondage Tribe, No. 72, I. O. R. M., of Fort Crook to pay them a visit and have an enjoyable time. The invitation is extended to all the members of Missouri Tribe and it means those attending will have the time of their lives. There will be a large attendance without a doubt from this city. The invitation in full is as follows:

Mr. Emil Walters, K. of R. Missouri Tribe No. 69, I. O. R. M., Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

Dear Chief and Brother:
Yourself and members of 69 are cordially invited to attend a smoker to be given by Onondage Tribe No. 72, at Lowry's Hall, Fort Crook, Nebraska, on the 14th. Sleep of Hunting Moon, G. S. D. 418.

There will be a few athletic stunts pulled off in connection with the smoker, also dancing and singing by some of our best artists.

We expect several of the Great Chiefs to the smoker and would like to see as many from No. 69, as can conveniently attend.

All red men are invited to this blowout, the more the merrier.

If any of the brothers signify their intention of coming, I would be very much obliged if you could give me an idea of how many to expect, so we can make arrangements accordingly.

You can come up on the evening train over the M. P. R. R. and catch a train back from here on the same road at 11:45 p. m.

Hoping to see some of the brothers here for the smoker, I am yours in F. F. & C.

JOHN C. J. SULLIVAN.

From the above it can be seen the Onondages are going to have some big doings and the members of Missouri Tribe will doubtless all qualify for the occasion. It will likely be a red letter night for the Onondage tribe and Fort Crook.

Park Christwiler from near Nehawka, was a county seat visitor yesterday.

One Million Dollars for a Good Stomach

This Offer Should be a Warning to Every Man and Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals have had much to say relatives to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became insupportable. His misfortune should serve as a warning to others. Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices. There is one element missing—Pepsin. The absence of this destroys the function of the gastric fluid. They lose their power to digest food.

We are now able to supply the pepsin in a form almost identical to that naturally created by the system when in normal health, so that it restores to the gastric juices their digestive power, and thus makes the stomach strong and well.

We want every one troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia to come to our store and obtain a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. They contain Bismuth-Subnitrate and Pepsin prepared by a process which develops their greatest power to overcome digestive disturbance.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are very pleasant to take. They soothe the irritable, weak stomach, strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, relieve nausea and indigestion, promote nutrition and bring about a feeling of comfort.

If you give Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets a reasonable trial we will return your money if you are not satisfied with the result. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Plattsmouth only at our store,—The Rexall Store. The F. G. Fricke & Co. drug store.

A Large Gang.

The Missouri Pacific railway is seeming to do work in good earnest now. There are nine cars of Greeks stationed in the yards in this city, the men being employed in relaying steel on that road. The gang will be here for several weeks at least as they are to make this city their headquarters during the process of relaying the steel from this city to Gilmore Junction. The work will take quite a while and when it is completed the road will have heavy steel stretched over the line from Kansas City to Omaha. The gang will spend quite a good bit of money here during their stay as they have to buy food to live on and this all helps the merchants some.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

J. P. Kuhney at Nehawka.

The Journal has learned with much pleasure that J. P. Kuhney, a brother of Harry of this city, and who was formerly a resident of Plattsmouth, has returned to Nebraska from Oklahoma where he moved some months ago. John has located at Nehawka and has opened up a fine barber shop in that place. The Journal bespeaks for him the best patronage in the town as John is an expert in his line. From past personal experience, the Journal can personally guarantee the people of Nehawka excellent treatment at his hands. As a barber he is without a superior in the state of Nebraska and as a man he is the right kind for a good community to have. John found that Nebraska was a pretty good place to live after all and while he has nothing to say against Oklahoma, he has much to say for Nebraska and he thinks Nehawka is about right, too. On that point we agree, Nehawka is a good town and it has a good recruit in John P. Kuhney.
