

DAILY PERSONAL NEWS

Short Items of Interest From Saturday Evening's Daily Journal

Miss Lettie Smith is spending today in Omaha, having gone to that city this morning on the early train.

Charles Carragher of Union, is in the city today visiting with friends and looking after some business matters.

J. Livingston Richey came down from his studies at the state university to spend the Christmas holiday at home.

Miss Genevieve Howard departed this morning for her home at Sac City, Ia., where she will spend the Christmas vacation.

Mrs. John Goehenour was among those spending the day in Omaha, going there this morning on the early train.

Elmer Parks, one of Liberty precinct's best citizens, is spending today in the city looking after some business matters.

Mike Lutz departed this morning for De Sota, Neb., where he will look after some business matters and visit with friends.

Miss Mabel Davis went to Weeping Water last evening where she will spend the holidays with her parents and friends.

Mrs. Frank Brinkman and daughter Miss Hilda, are spending today in Omaha, going there this morning on the early train.

Miss A. G. Johnston departed this morning for her home in Bloomington, Neb., where she will spend the Christmas vacation.

Mark Furlong of Rock Bluffs, is in the city today attending to business matters, driving up from his home this morning.

William Sitzman and little daughter are visiting today in Omaha, having gone to that city this morning on the early train.

Miss Mae Morgan was a passenger for Omaha this morning where she will spend the day with her father, W. L. Street at the hospital.

Miss Martha Goehry was a passenger for Louisville last evening where she will spend the Christmas vacation with her parents.

A. G. Long of Murray, is one of the good citizens of that part of the county spending today in the city, having come up this morning.

Mrs. D. Hawksworth and Miss Nettie Hawksworth are among those visiting today in Omaha, going to that city this morning on the early train.

Mrs. Harry DeLong of Lincoln, who has been visiting with Mrs. Ray Hoffman in this city for several days, departed this morning for her home.

J. W. Hamilton of Macon, Mo., is in the city making a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Richey for a brief time. Mr. Hamilton is a cousin of Mrs. Richey.

Nick Schafer from Cedar Creek, came down this morning on the Schuyler train to attend to business in the city, returning to his home this afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Bell and little son and daughter, departed this morning for Burlington, where they will spend the holiday season with Mrs. Bell's mother and other relatives.

Mrs. Mark White from near Rock Bluffs, spent yesterday in Omaha, where she was visiting with friends and looking after some business matter, returning to her home last evening.

Jos. Tubbs, the well known and successful farmer and stock raiser, spent yesterday in South Omaha attending a stock sale. Mr. Tubbs did not purchase any cattle as he did not find what he was looking for. He is greatly interested in stock raising and believes that there is a grand start being made in that line in this county.

H. J. Melsinger and daughter Miss Nettie, came down from their home at Cedar Creek this morning to look after business in the city and to visit with friends for the day. Mr. Melsinger is one of Eight Mile Grove's best men and is quite justly popular in this city where he is so well known. They will return to their home this afternoon on the Schuyler train.

Charles Janda yesterday sustained a badly bruised foot while at his work in the Burlington shops. The accident happened by an angle slipping and falling, catching him on the heel and badly mashing it. The injury was not considered so serious last evening but this morning he found that he could hardly get around on that foot and he will have to spend several days on the relief.

John Brady and wife are corn show visitors today, going to Omaha this morning.

Mrs. J. W. Black is a visitor today in Omaha, going to that city on the morning train.

Mrs. Loula Dose is visiting today in Omaha, going there on the morning Burlington train.

Miss Esther Larson came up from Union last evening for a visit over Sunday with her parents.

John Kropp and wife are visiting today in Omaha attending the corn show and the Christmas sights.

Will Newland and sister Miss Blaine, are visiting today in Omaha, going to that city on the early train.

Mrs. T. F. Johnson is among those spending today in Omaha, having gone there on the early morning train.

Miss Ella Sattler is taking in the sights of the big city this morning, being a passenger for that city this morning.

Mrs. Anton Svoboda and children are visiting today in Omaha, going to that city this morning on the early train.

Mrs. W. H. Wehrlein departed this morning for Omaha where she will make a visit with her aunt for several days.

J. W. Tulene and wife are among those attending the corn show today and seeing the Christmas sights in Omaha.

Miss Nettie McKinney is visiting today in Omaha, being a passenger for that city this morning on the early train.

Mrs. Frank Sivey is one of those spending today in Omaha, having gone to that city this morning on the early train.

Mrs. F. R. Whittaker and little daughters, are spending today in Omaha, having gone to that city on the morning train.

James Kennedy and daughters Nora and Martha, are Omaha visitors today, having gone to that city on the morning train.

Mrs. Joe Holly and daughter Besse are among those spending the day in Omaha, having gone there on the morning train.

Frank Buttery and family are spending the day in Omaha on a combined trip of business and pleasure, going to the city on the morning train.

Mrs. Alex Bisanz is among those spending today in Omaha, having been a passenger for the city on the morning train.

Miss Angie McCarroll was a passenger to Union this morning where she will spend the Christmas vacation with her parents.

Ray Smith, who is teaching near Weeping Water, arrived in this city last evening for a visit over Sunday with his parents.

Mrs. Robt. Ward and son Everett, and Mrs. W. L. Austin are visitors today in Omaha, going there on the morning Burlington train.

Mrs. Fred C. Morgan and Miss Edith Atwood are visitors today in Omaha, having gone there on the early train this morning.

Mrs. F. E. Warren and children are among those spending today in Omaha, having gone to that city on the morning Burlington train.

B. C. Hyde, wife and daughter Miss Etta, are seeing the sights on the metropolis today, going there on the morning Burlington train.

Mrs. Jos. Hadraba and daughters Helen and Blanche, are spending today in Omaha visiting with friends and seeing the sights of the city.

Jesse Wurga, Jr., is among those taking in the sights of the city today, having been a passenger for Omaha this morning on the early train.

Mrs. Henry Mauzy and daughter Miss Marian, departed this morning for Wahoo, Neb., where they will visit over Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Todd.

D. W. Foster and daughter Mrs. Stanton, came up last evening from Union and were passengers on the Burlington this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day at the corn show.

E. M. Smith, the well known breeder of Poland China hogs, near Union, was in the city this morning and gave the Journal a business call. Mr. Smith has some very fine stock for sale, and those who buy of him for breeding purpose, always are assured the best in the land.

Frank Sitzman is a visitor for the day in Omaha, going there this morning to look after some business matters.

Prof. B. L. Harrison of the public schools, is spending his vacation at home, departing this morning for Dunbar.

Mrs. Henry A. Schneider is among those visiting today in Omaha, having gone there this morning on the early train.

Clarence A. Welch, traveling carpenter for the Burlington, is looking after business for the company this morning in Omaha.

August Steppat, wife and baby were passengers this morning for Omaha where they will spend the day and take in the corn show.

F. C. Libershal is among those transacting business in Lincoln today, having gone to the capital city this morning on the early train.

Miss Grace Biddison of Des Moines, Ia., who has been in the city for several days compiling a mail order list of names for a firm in her home city, departed this morning for home, having completed her work here.

In county court today Judge Beeson held the hearing on claims against the I. N. Applegate estate and also on claims against the estate of Miles R. Smith, both from the vicinity of Union. The interested parties were present.

Teachers' examinations are being conducted today at the office of County Superintendent Mary Foster there being several young ladies present and taking the examination. Those from this city are Misses Anna Libershal and Claire Bookmeyer.

J. W. Ruffner, a brother of P. E. Ruffner, came in last evening for a brief visit with him. Mr. Ruffner is now traveling on the road for the Pacific Coast Condensed Milk company and took advantage of being in this locality to call upon his brother.

Col. Jacob W. Vallery, the man with the seven sights, who has been visiting with his friend Mark White, near Rock Bluffs, returned to the city last evening for a brief stay. The Col. is fat and hearty and states he was royally entertained while at Mark's place.

William Mark of Union, was in the city today looking after matters in county court. Mr. Mark contemplates moving in the spring to Corpus Christi, Texas, where he has recently been and the location and climate of which has proven most pleasant to him.

The place where a man goes for his clothes is the place for you to go for his Christmas present. This is unquestionably the trading place of the majority of the men in Plattsmouth. You will be perfectly safe and sure to please him if you buy it here. No matter whether you want to get him an overcoat or a collar button, you will be sure its good if you buy it here. If it's anything requiring a size we can assist you if you give us his weight and height. We make a business of fitting people every day. Why not buy him:

A new suit of clothes.....	$5.00 to $35.00	A silk crocheted tie in Xmas boxes.....	50c and 75c
A good smoking jacket.....	5.00 to 5.50	A new Bengaline tie, 25 different shades.....	50c
A comfortable lounging robe with slippers to match.....	7.50	A new silk embroidered tie, some swell shades.....	50c
A nice leather grip or suit case.....	3.50 to 15.00	One or more of our double 4-in-hands, all shades.....	22c
A leather handkerchief case or leather collar pouch.....	1.00 to 3.00	A fine new shirt, Manhattan, Cluett, Monarch or Smith.....	50c to $3.00
A laundry list book, leather bound—new idea.....	1.25	A good pair Perrine imported kid gloves $1.50 and $2
A box of plain or initial linen handkerchiefs.....	1.00 to 1.50	A good warm pair fur lined or wool lined gloves.....	$1 to $3
A box of Holeproof socks, assorted colors.....	1.50	A fine silk muffler, either Derby, Oxford or Full dress.....	50c to $

Many have made their selections and had them laid aside. This is a good way to do. You will enjoy your shopping this week. Next week comes the rush.

C. E. Wescott's Sons

THE HOME OF SATISFACTION

Misses Jessie and Blanche Robertson came down last evening from Omaha where the former had been making a visit with the latter for a day. Miss Blanche will remain in the city over Sunday with her folks, returning to her school in South Omaha that evening.

The condition of Mr. W. L. Street is reported today as not improved and his friends are much worried over the outcome. It is to be hoped that a turn for the better may take place soon and that he will become better. His family is with him in the hospital at Omaha.

A. J. Engelkemeier was a passenger for Omaha today where he will hospital. Mr. Engelkemeier reports that she is getting along nicely and that there is no doubt now of her early recovery, something which is quite reassuring to her many friends in this locality.

A. Baxter Smith chaperoned a party of young ladies to Omaha today to see the Christmas sights and have an enjoyable day. He tried to beg off when he reached the depot but the young ladies were determined and made him go along and take care of them. The party consisted of Misses Zura Smith, Zetta Gilliland and Florence Rummel.

Frank Stander and brother August Stander and their wives from near Louisville, came down this morning to look after business matters and visit with friends. The Messrs. Stander are among the best citizens of their section and are well known and worthy farmers and business men. They will return to their homes on the Schuyler train this afternoon.

A. W. Atwood is a visitor with his daughter in Omaha today, having gone to that city this morning.

Miss Pearl Nichols, one of the teachers in the public schools, is spending her vacation at her home at Kearney, Neb., having departed for that city this morning.

CHRISTMAS MONEY

Spent at this shoe store is money not foolishly squandered, for there is nothing so suitable for Christmas Gifts as

Christmas Slippers and Footwear

For they're practical, useful and always appreciated.

Men's Slippers

In Opera or Everett Styles, in Black, Chocolate, Ox-Blood and Wine Color

65c, 85c, $1.10, $1.75 and $1.50

Men's Felt Slippers..... 65c to $1.50
Men's Romeo Slippers, side rubber..... $1.75
Ladies' felt lap Slippers, 3 colors..... $1.10
Infant's red felt Romeos..... 50c

Should Slippers not appeal to you let us suggest a pair of Dr. Reed Cushion Insole Shoes for Men and Women. Acknowledged the easiest shoe on earth, and recommended by all the doctors.

Ladies' Felt, Fur Trim Romeos

Are one of our most appreciative gifts of the celebrated Daniel Green make.

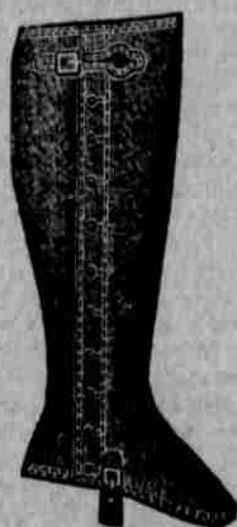

Green, Wine, Black and Brown Colors

$1.10, $1.25, $1.50.

Ladies' Felt Slippers..... 50c to $1.50
Children's and Misses' Red Romeos.... 85c and 95c
Comfy Slippers..... $1.00

Like Walking on Feathers

Indian Moccasins the kind that wears and holds their shape..... $2.00 to $2.50
Something New. See 'Em.

Infants Leggings.....	50c
Misses ".....	75c
Ladies ".....	75c
" ".....	$1.00
" Gaiters.....	50c
Boys' Leggings.....	60c
Men's ".....	75c

Infants Bootees, Soft Soles and Moccasins in nearly all color of the Rainbow 25c to 50c.

Sherwood & Son