

FORMER RESIDENT OF PLATTSMOUTH DIES SUDDENLY IN DENVER

Anselmo B. Smith, Closely Identified With the Early History of Nebraska and Cass County Dies.

Died—Smith, Anselmo B., at his home in Denver, Colorado, on Wednesday, February 2, 1910, aged 76 years, 11 months and 2 days. Plattsmouth people were very much shocked this morning to learn of the sudden and unexpected death of Anselmo B. S. Smith, a Nebraska pioneer and for many years closely identified with this city and its vicinity. The news was received here in the form of a message from his son Elmer L. Smith of Denver, to his nephew A. Baxter Smith briefly stating the fact of his sudden demise and that the body would be brought from Denver for interment in this city. The body will leave Denver on Friday and arrive here on Saturday morning, or that evening.

The deceased was one of the best known men in this vicinity and a man with a very large acquaintance and a host of warm personal friends. So far as they knew he had been in the possession of good health and it is but a few weeks since when he was in the city looking after personal matters. He apparently was strong and vigorous at that time despite the weight of years which has rested upon his shoulders. In conversation with old friends he had expressed himself as feeling quite well and enjoying life despite the severe winter. To them the news of his sudden passing came as a doubly severe shock and one which is hard to realize. In his lifetime deceased was a most popular man. He was kindly and most genial. One of his great characteristics was a large-heartedness which could not but warm everyone to him. Throughout his nature there ran a vein of humor which made him a most pleasant companion and one whose optimistic nature cheered all with whom he met. There are many stories told of this inimitable character of early Nebraska life. He had lived in the state when there were hardships to be endured yet their presence was only an additional inducement for the development of a vein of natural humor which saw the bright side of the hardest problem.

Mr. Smith was a successful man as things are judged in this world. His thrift inherited largely from his Yankee ancestors, had resulted in the accumulation of much property which his business judgment and acumen enabled him to reap the advantage of many golden opportunities. Yet withal, few men have lived among a people so long and had so many business dealings with them and still retained the high standing for commercial integrity and uprightness which he had. In all his dealings he stood as a monument to the most unswerving honesty and as a tower of manhood and worth.

His death comes as a calamity for it removes from the world's active business life, one who can ill be spared. The many who have known him for the long reach of years since he came to this section unite in the deepest sympathy for those whom he has left to mourn.

Anselmo B. Smith was of New England parentage, having been born at Eden, Vt., in the sight of the Green mountains, on February 28, 1833. His early education was received at a private school, he having been prepared for the profession of civil engineer at the private school of Rev. Edwin Wheelock, and when he was sixteen years of age or in the year 1849, he entered upon the practice of his profession in his home town. For three years he practiced his profession there and in 1852, he removed to Macoupin county, Ill., where he took the position of deputy county surveyor. He did not remain long in Illinois and after a short space of years, he returned to Vermont, where he followed his profession until the year 1856 when he emigrated to Nebraska, settling near this city.

The early years of Plattsmouth and Cass county are closely intermingled with the life of Mr. Smith, he having commenced the practice of his profession here in July, 1856, and continuing in it until about the year 1871, when he removed to Denver. Later he returned to this city and for several years he again lived upon his home now in South Park.

Deceased was united in marriage on April 8, 1862, in this city to Miss Sylvia E. Mullin who survives him. Of this union four children were born—Elmer L., Warren M., Lois Clara, and Myrtle B., all of whom survive him.

In the fall of 1869, Mr. Smith entered the service of the Burlington railroad as a member of its engineering corps and for many years he followed this line of work, being identified in a great measure with the townsites which now dot that system throughout the west. His many abilities in his profession were quickly recognized by the men in charge of the Burlington system and appreciated and as a special mark of their appreciation a town—Anselmo—was named in his honor. One of the largest pieces of work which fell to his lot was the planting of the city of Lincoln, which he did in the year 1867, the work being done for the new State of Nebraska. It was a superb piece of work and stands as an enduring monument to his skill. In his work with the company Mr. Smith had occasion to cover the lines of the road running through Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska. It was during the progress of his work that Mr. Smith ran across many opportunities to pick up valuable tracts of land, much of which he still owns and which has advanced enormously in value since he accumulated it.

In politics Mr. Smith was an uncompromising Republican and he was elected to the office of county surveyor of this county in the year 1857, and for six years he held that position, declining further office as his work with the railroad prevented his giving it the attention it deserved.

The funeral of this well known citizen will be held in this city on Saturday morning, Feb. 5, 1910, further particulars to appear tomorrow. The remains will be shipped from Denver to this city, arriving here Saturday morning. Interment will be made at Oak Hill cemetery west of the city.

If you would have a safe yet certain Cough Remedy in the home, try Dr. Shoop's—at least once. It is thoroughly unlike any other Cough preparation. Its taste will be entirely new to you—unless it is already your favorite Cough Remedy. No opium, chloroform, or any other stupefying ingredients are used. The tender leaves of a harmless, lung-healing mountainous shrub, give to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy its wonderful curative properties. It is truly a most certain and trustworthy prescription. Sold by all dealers.

This morning's papers record the death of Mrs. Sarah Tidd formerly of this city, at Fremont on Tuesday afternoon last. Mrs. Tidd was the wife of Elijah Tidd and at the time of her death had been living with her daughter Mrs. E. Petersen. She lived for a number of years in this city where she had a number of friends who will hear of her death with great regret. Her illness was brief covering but a few days.

DEATH OF A CIVIL WAR VETERAN

Warren L. Gordon Died at His Home in Weeping Water Tuesday, February 1st.

Died—Gordon, Warren L., at his home in Weeping Water, Nebraska, on Tuesday, February 1, 1910, aged 73 years, 6 months. Funeral on Thursday, February 3, 1910, at Weeping Water, Rev. G. H. Moulton officiating.

Warren L. Gordon, a civil war veteran and a well known citizen of Weeping Water and Cass county, died at his home in Weeping Water yesterday at the ripe age of 73 years and 6 months, he having been born in Sutton, Canada, on August 1, 1836. Deceased moved from Canada to Iowa when he was eighteen years of age, living there three years when he removed to this state where he has resided ever since. He entered the union army in 1861, as a member of the Fifth Iowa cavalry and served with distinction throughout that contest, being a participant in several of the hardest battles of the war. He was honorably discharged from the army and returned to Nebraska. On March 27, 1870, he was united in marriage in this city to Miss Helen M. Kawaston who survives him. He is also survived by five children, they being Mrs. H. P. Smith and Mrs. Otto F. Lau and Miss Leonora Gordon of Weeping Water and Gilbert M. Gordon of Lincoln and Frank L. Gordon of Weeping Water. The funeral will take place from his home at Weeping Water Thursday afternoon, Feb. 3, 1910, the services being in charge of Rev. G. H. Moulton, an old soldier comrade of deceased.

Deceased was quite well known among the early settlers of Cass county and was a gentleman of the highest character and worth. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the sorrowing widow and children in their grief.

In sickness, if a certain hidden nerve goes wrong, then the organ that this nerve controls will also surely fail. It may be a Stomach nerve, or it may have given strength and support to the Heart or Kidneys. It was Dr. Shoop that first pointed to this vital truth. Dr. Shoop's Restorative was not made to dose the Stomach or Kidneys. That old-fashion method is all wrong. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to these falling inside nerves. The remarkable success of this prescription demonstrates the wisdom of treating the actual cause of these falling organs. And it is indeed easy to prove. A simple five or ten days test will surely tell. Try it once, and see! Sold by all dealers.

Saved From Awful Peril.

"I never felt so near my grace," writes Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, Ohio. R. R. No. 3. "as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 115 pounds in spite of many remedies and the best doctors. And that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 160 pounds and can work hard. It also cured my four children of croup." Infallible for Coughs and Colds, its most certain remedy for LaGrippe, Asthma, desperate lung trouble and all bronchial affections, 50c and $1.00. A trial bottle free. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co.

In Hospital for Treatment.

J. G. Richey and wife departed this afternoon for Omaha where Mrs. Richey will enter a hospital for treatment. She is suffering from neurasthenia, a disease of the nerves akin to nervous prostrations and one which requires the utmost period of rest and quiet. It is probable that she will have to remain at the hospital for several weeks at the end of which time it is believed a cure will be effected. Her many friends in this city trust that this will be the case and that her recovery may be speedy.

A STARTLING STATEMENT.

New York Medical Authorities Claim Dyspepsia to be a Pre-Disposing Cause of Consumption.

The post mortem statistics of the big New York hospitals show that some cases of consumption are due, at least indirectly, to unchecked dyspepsia, especially when the victim was predisposed to tuberculosis.

Dyspepsia wears out the body and brain. The weakened, irritable stomach being unable to digest food, the body does not receive the required nourishment, and the victim becomes thin, weak and haggard. As a result, the body becomes a fertile field in which the germs of disease may lodge and flourish.

Therefore, the person who permits dyspepsia to progress unhindered is guilty of contributing toward the development of one of the most insidious and fatal diseases known to mankind.

Dyspepsia may be completely eradicated if properly treated. We sell a remedy that we positively guarantee will completely relieve indigestion or dyspepsia, or the medicine used during the trial will cost the user nothing.

This remedy has been named Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Certainly no offer could be more fair, and our offer should be proof positive that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a dependable remedy.

Inasmuch as the medicine will cost you nothing if it does not benefit you, we urge you who are suffering with indigestion or dyspepsia to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. A 25 cent box contains enough medicine for fifteen days' treatment. For chronic cases we have two larger sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Plattsmouth only at our store.—The Rexall Store, F. G. Fricke & Co., Union block.

Sudden Death at Union.

On last Tuesday night at about 11:30 o'clock Aubrey Davis, a young man of Union, died very suddenly at the home of his mother Mrs. Clara Davis in that town. The young man had been ill for sometime but had apparently progressed very well on the way toward recovery, being able to be up and about the house and his sudden demise came as a great shock to his mother and his many friends. He was in the early dawn of manhood having just reached the age of twenty-one. He was a native of Cass county and well known throughout the vicinity of Union. The most sincere and heartfelt sympathy of all is extended to the sorrowing mother to whom his death was a very great shock. His funeral takes place from the home at Union on this afternoon, interment being made in the cemetery at that place.

A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even the length of time it takes to go for a doctor often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always cures. Sold by all dealers.

Mrs. John McNurlin departed this afternoon for Stanton where she will make a visit with her daughter who resides at that place. Mr. McNurlin accompanied her as far as Omaha where he will spend several days visiting with friends.

Continues to Boom.

Cass county real estate continues to enjoy a boom, two deals being put through today. The first is the sale of an eighty acre tract just west of the town of Murdock which Hartwig Gottspend sold to Henry Timm for the consideration of $6,200 or a little under $80 per acre. This land lies in one of the richest parts of Cass county and the price at which it sold is considered remarkably cheap. It lies between Murdock and Greenwood and is in the richest and most fertile part of the county.

The other deal is the sale of the farm of William Volk near Louisville to Thos. E. Parmele. This is one of the finest farms in the county and brought the princely price of $150 per acre or a total of $24,000 for the quarter section. Those who are acquainted with the property agree that it is cheap at that price and regard the deal as a bargain for Mr. Parmele. The improvements on the property are very good while it is of the best quality of soil.

If troubled with indigestion, constipation, no appetite or feel bilious, give Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets a trial and you will be pleased with the result. These tablets invigorate the stomach and liver and strengthen the digestion. Sold by all dealers.

Wants a Divorce.

A petition has been filed in the district court by Mrs. Kate Seymour praying for a divorce from her husband Hugh H. Seymour and asking that she be restored to her maiden name Kate M. Butler. In her petition she tells of being married to the defendant at Plattsmouth on his representation that he was one of the leading attorneys of this city, that he had considerable property and could provide here with a nice home. After she came here she purchased a home for $800 and in time her husband induced her to put a mortgage on it and used the money, but failed to provide her with any clothing or household goods. He also secured her gold watch and kept it. Her petition tells a tale of woe—Nabaska City News.

Phil. H. Melsinger, one of the well known Melsinger brothers, is spending today in the city attending to business matters.
