Suffering With Cancer.

Julius Engelkemeler residing down near Nehawka was in the city last Saturday, returning home from a visit to Hooper, Neb., where his father Fred Engelkemeler has been for the past few weeks receiving treatment for a cancer. The gentleman from whom he is taking treatment is a farmer residing some ten miles in the country from Hooper, and has been very successful in treating cancers of this nature with medicine only. Julius tells us that his father is getting along nicely and expects a permanent cure, which the many friends will be pleased to learn. The old gentleman resides in this city.

The Journal is printing the sale bills for the sale of the farm implement, the cattle and horses, the grain and other farm products of W. W. Coates, which he intends to sell at public sale at his farm west of the city on Monday, February 21. Makes a Short Visit.

Tommy More for many years a resident of Rock Bluffs precinct but now a prosperous farmer from near Walthill, is making a business visit in this city and vicinity, having come in last evening. Tommy is looking fine and hearty and seems to find the climate agreeable to him in north-east Nebraska. He states that he does not believe there is a better piece of country in the United States than that part lying up around Walthill. He raised fine crops last year and states that he does not know of anything which won't grow on the land up there. While he liked Cass county and lived here for so many years, he maintains that he has found a better land in Thurston county and will not admit the possibility of being mistaken. He will remain in this vicinity until next Tuesday likely. He still retains the delusion that the Republicans are all right which shows on politics or the land in Thurston is pretty poor.

If not let us suggest that the next sack you buy call for "Forest Rose," made by the Wahoo Mills. "Forest Rose" is a top notcher, and can be found at all leading dealers, and is fully guaranteed by the mills. This popular brand of flour has been on the market in Plattsmouth for some time, but the mill experienced a severe fire some time ago, since when this brand has been short in the city.
