REPORT OF J. R. HUNTER

Gives Report of Examination of Books of Sheriff Quinton.

According to promise the Journal today presents to the public the report of James R. Hunter the accountant employed by Commissioner Friedrich to check the books of Sheriff Quinton. This report was filed this morning. It is approved by none of the commissioners and no official action has been taken on it. It is to be noticed that it absolutely presents no facts, but is what the Journal said it was last evening, amere summary of what Mr. Hunter finds. It does not purport to give any figures on the amount of fees earned by the sheriff and all it claims to do is to show the fees which he collected including the jailer's fees and the amounts he has paid into the county treasury. It is also worthy of notice that of this sum $1,302.68 has been paid into the treasury since the first of this year or since the Journal called public attention to the matter of the sheriff's office. Further comment on this report will depend upon matters to be determined later. The report is as follows:

Plattsmouth, Neb., Feb. 14, '10.
To the Honorable
The Board of Commissioners,
Cass county, Neb.

Gentlemen:
I have examined the records of the various county officers from April 6, 1907 to January 1, 1910, and find that the sheriff of Cass county collected amount as below:

To fees collected	$1069.94
To jailer's fees, (1909)	547.50
	$1617.44
Cr.
Feb. 20, 1908, by cash	$203.80
Nov. 27, 1908, by cash	103.95
Feb. 1, 1909, by cash	43.45
Jan. 4, 1910, by cash	755.18
Feb. 12, 1910, by cash, (jailer fees)	547.50
	$1653.88

To balance due sheriff $36.44

I, James R. Hunter hereby swear that the above is a correct account according to my best knowledge and belief.

James R. Hunter, Accountant.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of February, 1910.
D. C. Morgan,
County Clerk.

Miss Effie Benedict was a passenger this morning for Lincoln where she will spend the day.

UNION.

Mrs. James Taylor is reported on the sick list, being under the care of Dr. Hoops.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Moore were visitors in Union Monday, going up to Plattsmouth in the afternoon. They will depart soon for their home at Walthill, Neb.

Henry Pollard of Nehawka, spent several hours in this city Monday on his way to South Omaha with a carload of stock for the market.

Mrs. Henry Ross was a visitor in Murray Monday, going up on the afternoon train.

W. R. Cross of this place was a passenger Monday for Plattsmouth. Mr. Cross is one of those who were recently chosen to serve on the jury at the coming term of district court.

August Ossenkop and wife of near Julesville visited over Sunday in Union with the family of F. C. Bates.

Hon. W. B. Banning of this place was a passenger for Lincoln Monday, going up to attend the Democratic banquet held in that city.

Hon. William Wheeler passed through here Monday on his way to Lincoln where he went to attend the Democratic banquet.

Jesse Pell from east of Union, was looking after business matters here on Monday, and while here took the opportunity of renewing his subscription to the Journal for another year. Mr. Pell is an upright and progressive citizen whom we esteem it an honor to have subscribe for the best paper on earth.

L. G. Todd, another of Cass county's flourishing and enterprising gentlemen, renewed for the Journal while it's representative was here Monday.

President Helps Orphans.

Hundreds of orphans have been helped by the President of the Industrial and Orphan's Home at Macon, Ga., who writes: "We have used Electric Bitters in this institution for nine years. It has proved a most excellent medicine for Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles. We regard it as one of the best family medicines on earth." It invigorates all vital organs, purifies the blood, aids digestion, creates appetite. To strengthen and build up pale, thin, weak children or rundown people it has no equal. Best for female complaints. Only 50c. at F. G. Fricke & Co.

George Lindsey and wife are visiting today in Omaha, having gone to that city to spend the day.

THE HORSE AND MULE BUSINESS

Two Cass County Men Making It Pay and are Doing Fine Business

Richard Chriswiser, a son of Bennett Chriswiser, who has been living for several years past in Furnas county, is in the city making his father a brief visit and this afternoon departs for his old home to secure a carload of horses and mules which he will bring back to this county to sell.

Mr. Chriswiser is engaged in the horse and mule business in company with Z. W. Shrader, the well known horseman and farmer of Mt. Pleasant precinct and the gentlemen have been doing quite a large amount of business in their line. Mr. Shrader also lived in Furnas county at one time and together with Mr. Chriswiser they had picked up many good horses and mules at a low price which they have now been selling at good advance. Mr. Shrader is also in the city today. It is but a few weeks since the gentlemen brought in a carload of the animals and they had no trouble in disposing of them, hence Mr. Chriswiser's trip to the west after others. As both gentlemen are among the best and most reliable in the country, their stock is readily taken by the public for what they represent it to be and no mistake is made. Mr. Chriswiser is now engaged in moving from Furnas county to Otoe county where he will engage in farming and raising cattle and horses. He is an excellent citizen and Otoe county will profit by his arrival. Both he and Mr. Shrader drove over from the home of the latter last evening to Murray where they were passengers on the M. P. to this city, remaining here over night.

Nick Halmes, the well known and popular farmer from west of the city, is spending today in the city making a visit with his many good friends here. Mr. Halmes is now enjoying very good health and has been taking life easy this winter, finding that it has paid him to do so. He feels much better than in the early fall and is ready to jump into spring work at anytime now. His estimable wife also accompanied him to the city.

WEEPING WATER.

(Republican.)

John Donlan, son-in-law of J. D. Rough, comes down from Havelock to farm on the Rough place this year, and Mr. Rough will move out and make his home with them.

Judge P. S. Barnes on Thursday, February 3, 1910, pronounced the words that united in marriage Mr. Thomas Kane of Sioux City, Ia., to Miss Jennie Williamson of Weeping Water.

Farmers are waking up to the fact that advertising their sales in the paper does them more good than twice the expense expended in racing the country over pasting up bills. It is all right to paste up sale bills, but the man who can read it in his home by the fireside enjoys it better than perusing it on a telephone pole.

C. A. Robbins leaves this week for Kirwin, Kansas, where he will take charge of his father's farm and seek a living from the soil. They ship their goods and will have everything convenient on their arrival. Before putting in a crop he says he will have a lot of corn to gather. Mr. Robbins will not dispose of his home here as he expects to return to Weeping Water to live.

Louis Stander has made a deal for 400 acres of land in Merrick county at $70 per acre. This land is about one mile of Archer, Neb.

L. W. Ingwersen and family returned this week to Venango, after visiting here a few weeks. Before leaving Mr. Ingwersen traded a half section of Chase county land valued at $20 per acre, on 116 acres owned by Dr. Fred Andrus, one and one half miles northwest of town. The latter was valued at $85 per acre. Fred Lau rents the farm at present.

Cass County People Wed.

The State Journal this morning contains the announcement of the marriage at Lincoln by County Judge Cosgrave of Aaron E. Palling, aged 21, of Greenwood and Miss Dell V. Newkirk, aged 19, of Alvo. Both young people are very well known in the western part of the county and come of excellent families. They are very popular among the younger people and have a great many friends who will unite in wishing them a long and happy married life.

William DelesDernier, the Elmwood attorney, came in last evening and registered at the Riley hotel, having business in the city today to attend to in district court.
