

WINS HEART OF KANSAS CITY

Miss Alice Dovey in "Old Dutch" Makes Great Hit.

Miss Alice Dovey had no more trouble in winning the hearts of the good people of Kansas City than she has had in captivating those of New York and Chicago. As a positive proof of this the Kansas City papers have several articles which reflect the sentiment which this delightful little prima donna stirred up in that city. The Kansas City Star says as follows:

"It has long been known in the theatrical world that Lew Fields is the Christopher Columbus in the discovery of talent. Therefore it is not so surprising as it might seem to record the fact that he brought a tiny mite of humanity from semi-obscure life and made her a Broadway satellite. Her name is Alice Dovey. Were you to ask the average backwoods farmer to describe her he probably would say: "Well, by gum, she ain't no bigger nor a pint o' cider." And she isn't.

"Alice Dovey is the smallest, daintiest and altogether diminutive prima donna that ever thrilled a Vivitor Herbert roundelay. It is hardly courteous to give dimensions outside of a dressmaking establishment, but Alice Dovey, though grown to that full estate of womanhood known as 22 years, stands only four feet eleven inches in her silk stockings. She weighs less than the smallest coxswain who ever steered a Yale or Harvard crew to victory at New London. And yet from this frail frame, adorned by a beautiful face, and grace of movement, there comes supranote notes of such strength and volume that one looks instinctively toward the wings of the theater to see if one is not being hoodwinked. Miss Dovey is a native of Delaware, where the peaches come from. She has a sister who resembles her closely and who is the wife of Frederick Truesdell, the comic opera tenor. Alice made good, as the theatrical expression goes, in "The Land of Nod" and later in "A Stubborn Cinderella," but it remained for Christopher Columbus Fields to give her a real Broadway hearing. And this she got in "Old Dutch."

Victor Herbert has given her two delightful songs and Edgar Smith a part which enables her to display her ability as a comedienne. As the daughter of Ludwig Stross, and (Lew Fields), compelled to work out her father's unpaid board bill in a Tyrolean hotel, Miss Dovey denoted a fact that has been manifest at all times—that it is not peaches alone that come from Delaware.

And in this connection it might be well to remind the youthful male public that sonnets, beginning "Alice, Where Art Thou?" will not be received by the stage doormen or the hotel clerks.

"Every seat in the Shubert theater was occupied at last night's performance of "Old Dutch," but Alice Dovey, the tiny prima donna who is Lew Fields's main support, sang only to two members of that big audience. They were sitting in the fourth row, on the right aisle, and they had come all the way from Plattsmouth, Neb., to hear Alice sing.

Their names? Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dovey, father and mother of the girl who was singing.

Something must have told the audience that two such interesting folks as the parents of the singer were there, for there was encore after encore to Miss Dovey's songs, giving spirited applause that seemed to set the house rocking.

Mr. and Mrs. Dovey had never seen "Old Dutch" and therefore they never had seen Alice in her best part. They were elated, of course, and after the curtain was rung down on the last act Mrs. Dovey, followed by Mr. Dovey, went back to Alice's dressing room and kissed her an even dozen times. Then Mrs. Dovey expressed her joy as women frequently do—she cried.

"Alice was just born for the stage," Mrs. Dovey said. "She played 'acting' as soon as she could walk and talk, and so did her sister, Ethel. They played 'Romeo and Juliet' when they were children and I knew they would make names for themselves. They couldn't help it."

Removes to Iowa.

S. D. Gibson today changed his place of living, departing this morning for Missouri Valley, Ia., where he has taken a place with the Northwestern railroad company. His family will follow him in a few days. Mr. Gibson states that he has found it very inconvenient to work in one place and live in another so he has decided to move. His many friends in the city will regret to have him and his estimable family depart but they congratulate the people of Missouri Valley on securing some good citizens in them and wish them every bit of good fortune and prosperity.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MEETING

Friedrich and Switzer Sign Quinton's Report, While Jordan Dissents.

The county commissioners held an interesting session today, taking up a number of important items and making several important appointments and changes in different matters. They received a report from James R. Hunter who checked up the books of Sheriff Quinton which shows that the sheriff has a small balance due the county in his hands. The significant item of the report is the amount paid over to the county since the first of this year. For the benefit of the public the report is printed in full as follows:

"James R. Hunter this day filed report of fees earned by sheriff's office from April 6, 1907, to January 1, 1910, as follows:

Other important business included a motion by Commissioner Switzer that the deputy sheriff's office be placed on a salary of $450.00 per year to be paid from the general fund of Cass county. The intention of this motion, as stated in the minutes, is that no further fees will be paid by the county of Cass to the deputy sheriff. This motion was adopted unanimously.

The commissioners also renewed the contract with J. H. Tams to be superintendent of the poor farm for another year. Dr. E. L. Jones was appointed county physician for district 5, and James H. Donnelly was appointed clerk in the county assessor's office.

Changes Residence.

The Journal's good friend John Doty, his wife and daughter, Miss Nellie, were visitors in the city this morning for a few hours, having driven up from their home near Nehawka to be passengers on the morning Burlington train for Omaha, where they will spend the day. They joined Mrs. Della Whitehead in this city. Mrs. Whitehead accompanied them to Omaha from which point she departed for Dixon county, where she will reside in the future. Mr. Doty loaded the household goods for Mrs. Whitehead yesterday at Murray and the same went forward from that point. These good people will be much missed from their neighborhood, where they have lived so long a time and where they stood so high in the estimation of their neighbors. They will make excellent additions to the good people of Dixon county. Mr. Doty drove up from Nehawka this morning, having left his home at four o'clock and arrived here at a few moments past seven.

After Fine Horses.

A party of horsemen from the precinct came in this morning and departed for Corning, Ia., where they will look at some fine animals with a view of investing. The party was composed of Messrs. Henry, John and Philip Hinz and W. L. Propst. If they find an animal which will suit them it is their intention to purchase one and bring him to this section for breeding purposes. It is said that the region about Corning has many very fine animals in it and that seldom has there been a mistake made in buying from that section.

Wedded Today.

A quiet little home wedding took place this noon at one o'clock when County Judge Beeson united in marriage Mr. James Ptacek, aged 24, and Miss Elizabeth Kunsman, aged 18, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kunsman. There were only a few immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties present. After the ceremony the couple sat down to a wedding dinner which had been prepared for the happy couple. Later the young folks departed for a week's tour to Havelock and Omaha where they will be the guests of friends, after which they will return to this city and make their future home here.

The young folks are well known in this city, the bride being the handsome and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kunsman, a young lady of refinement and one who has many personal charms. She has a wide circle of good friends in this city and the vicinity.

The groom is a popular young man who has grown up in this city. He is prominent in Bohemian circles, being an officer in several Bohemian organizations and a prominent member of the M. W. A. Band. He is a cigarmaker by trade and one of the best in the city. He has a large number of good friends and acquaintances. The many mutual friends of the young folks wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Saved a Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cough," he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 178 pounds." For Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Hoarseness, Croup, Whooping Cough and lung trouble its supreme. 50c., $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co.

Funeral This Afternoon.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Lovica Truman were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Herman Fields in the southern part of the city, there being quite a number of friends of the deceased gathered to pay their respects to the departed. The services were conducted by Rev. W. L. Austin who delivered a funeral sermon full of kindly references to the christian spirit which had actuated the deceased during her lifetime and the wonderful fortitude with which she had stood the sufferings of her disease.

The remains were laid at rest in Oak Hill cemetery, loving hands of old friends performing the last sad rites. There were quite a number of carriages in the cortege which accompanied the body to the tomb.

How Good News Spreads.

"I am 70 years old and travel most of the time," writes B. F. Tolson, of Elizabethtown, Ky. "Everywhere I go I recommend Electric Bitters, because I owe my excellent health and vitality to them. They effect a cure every time." They never fail to tone the stomach, regulate the liver, invigorate the nerves and purify the blood. They work wonders for weak, run-down men and women, restoring strength, vigor and health that's a daily joy. Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction is positively guaranteed by F. G. Fricke & Co.

To Do Preliminary Work.

George L. Camper of the engineering force of the Consolidated Engineering company of Omaha was in the city yesterday looking over the field in regard to the paving in the proposed district No. 3. Mr. Camper was the gentleman recently chosen by Mayor Satterlee and the committee on streets, alleys and bridges, to do the preliminary work for the proposed paving and is an engineer of high standing and of much experience in municipal work. He returned to Omaha last evening and expects to submit an estimate within a few days for the consideration of the council and the streets committee.

Appreciate the Compliment.

Mrs. J. M. Mickelwait of Glenwood, Ia., was in the city last Saturday and while here called at this office and added her name to the list of readers of this paper. Mrs. Mickelwait is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Nelson, living south of the city, and a most estimable lady. The Journal is well pleased to be able to send the paper to her in Iowa and appreciates the compliment paid it as the best medium of home news.

J. W. Anthony who has been in an Omaha hospital for some time past has now gotten well enough to be able to come home and it will be but a short time when he will be able to be out and about. His many good friends will be glad to note his return and trust he will continue to improve.

UNION. (Ledger.)

G. S. Upton returned Tuesday afternoon from a several days business trip in the western part of the state. J. M. Stone, who has been on an extended trip through Oklahoma, arrived home last Friday afternoon.

Miss Rosa Hoops, of Staplehurst, Nebr., arrived last Friday evening to make a visit with her brother, Dr. M. Hoops and wife.

Mrs. W. H. Watson, of Riverdale, Nebr., who has been visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. Mrs. Andrew Pittman, returned home last Monday.

Ed Leach went to Omaha last Friday evening and accompanied his wife home from the hospital, where she had been taking treatment.

Mr. Susan Shields who has been visiting at the home of Dr. Barritt for some time past, departed Monday evening for her home in Winona, Minnesota.

F. R. Galbraith and wife, of Dunbar, came over last Saturday and visited at the home of W. H. Banning, south of town. Mr. Galbraith is editor of the Dunbar Review and is a very welcome visitor at this office, and we found him to be a first class gentleman.

E. M. Smith, the Poland-China box man, was a welcome caller at this office Monday, and informed us that he was well pleased with the outcome of his sale last week.

J. M. Stewart and wife, of Ainsworth, Iowa, arrived last week and have been visiting with their daughter Mrs. A. E. Stites. Mr. Stewart departed for home Tuesday, but Mrs. Stewart will remain for a more extended visit.

New Delivery Auto.

John Hatt, Jr., today is having some time with his new International delivery wagon. This wagon which he received a few days since is an auto delivery and the first of the kind to be seen on our streets. It is a sign of real enterprise on the part of the Messrs. Hatt and they will find that it pays. The wagon will do the work of two teams and wagons and will be particularly useful to Mr. Hatt in delivering goods in the country. It cost him $750 and he considers that it is cheap at the price. He has tried out the wagon on several of the steeper hills of the city and it has given the utmost satisfaction. The agency for this wagon in this city is held by August Gorder and there is every likelihood that he will do a good business in this particular line in the future.

Again Suffering.

Peter Madsen who was injured some time ago and who was unable to be about for quite a while, is again suffering from his injury, the foot which was hurt again giving him trouble and he finds that he can hardly get about now. He is rather discouraged over the matter and states that the doctor who attends him tells him he probably will never have the full use of the member. This is very bad news should it prove true and it is to be hoped it is erroneous.

Well Deserved Compliment.

One of the happiest features of the Grew stock company, which appears at the Bardsley theater every Thursday evening, is the pleasant personality of the individual members of the company off the stage as well as on. Mr. Grew himself, by his curtain talks and in other ways, has polarized himself with all and the growing attendance at the weekly attractions is evidence of their increasing popularity as a whole.—Red Oak (Iowa) Express.

Mrs. H. S. Austin is spending today in Omaha looking up some music for the Episcopal choir, the Easter music which Prof. Austin recently proving unsatisfactory. It is hoped to secure some better music by a personal visit from Mrs. Austin at the music houses in Omaha.
