

Nebraska's 1908 Champion

Cockerel in class B. P. R. at Trans-Mississippi and Nebraska State 1908; also Glenwood, Ia., December 1908. A combination of utility and fancy. Raised, owned and exhibited by Dr. J. H. Hall, Plattsmouth, Nebraska.

I have a few Young Cockerels left, and as the season is getting well advanced and to reduce stock will offer birds fit to improve most of flocks at half price, or $1.00 to $1.50 per bird for a short time only.

ELMWOOD.

(Leader-Echo.)

Get some of that wide embroidery flouring at Penterman Bros.

Mrs. Turk Aulden returned Tuesday evening from a visit at Fairbury and M. B. Williams and family.

Andy Christensen left Tuesday for McCook, Neb., where he will work on the road, holding down the same job that he had last season.

Mrs. Meyers and little daughter of Weeping Water visited at the home of the former's brother, Mr. Olsen Tuesday.

Messrs. Ralph and Harry Green were at Lincoln Monday where they made a selection of an elegant new soda fountain.

Dell Tyson came in Wednesday morning from the western part of the state, having been called back on account of sickness.

Mrs. Bert Bennett has recently undergone a critical operation in one of the Lincoln hospitals. The operation was successful and the last word received was that she is getting along nicely.

A little son of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Tyson is suffering severely from loss of blood resulting from having a tooth extracted. The little boy is at the M. H. Tyson home where he and the other children with their mother are waiting while Mr. Tyson is getting their new home near Max, Neb., in readiness for occupancy.

E. T. Comer, M. H. Tyson and Willie Langhorst returned Tuesday from a few days duck hunt at Edgar, Neb., bring home all they could carry. The ducks were distributed among the friends of the hunters and it is needless to say they found a welcome place in each household. Meat is awful high; this kind some times too high to distinguish.

UNION.

(Ledger.)

Attorney D. O. Wwyer was down from Plattsmouth on Monday attending to business in Judge Newell's court.

William Clineburg of Tecumseh, came Tuesday evening to spend a few days visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary Allison northeast of this village.

Mrs. Hattie Barnum arrived last Sunday from California where she spent several weeks, being called to her home on account of the death of Mrs. Eliza Barnum.

Wesley Chilcott and daughter Derma, arrived Tuesday evening from Frontier county to make a visit with relatives and numerous friends in this vicinity, where Wesley spent his boyhood days.

Willie, a 14 year old son of John Hostetter and wife residing northeast of this village, disappeared on Monday and his parents are anxious to learn of his whereabouts. He started to school Monday and up till noon yesterday he had not been seen nor heard from.

Mrs. Harry Graves, wife of the Ledger editor, was taken to Omaha last Sunday evening and on Monday morning operated upon at the St. Joseph hospital by Dr. Allison. The operation was very successful and the patient is getting along remarkably well and it is thought that she will be able to return home in about ten days.

The sale of the personal property of the Robert Kendall estate was held Wednesday, and bidding was quite lively and prices good. The total amount of this sale was $10,486, and one feature of it was the fact that most of the purchasers paid spot cash, less than $1,000 being given in notes. The size of this sale made it necessary to "double head" on auctioneers and clerks. Auctioneer Wilkinson being assisted by L. J. Hall, and Clerk Pierson was assisted by C. L. Graves. The hungry people were furnished lunch by G. P. Barton.

Edwin Crites in Town.

Edwin D. Crites Esq., county attorney of Dawes county, Nebraska, came in from Chadron, Nebraska, yesterday, and was an over night visitor with his cousin County Attorney W. C. Ramsey. Both young gentlemen left this morning for Omaha where our Billy argues today before Judge Troup, the motion for a new trial in the Louisville bridge case. Mr. Crites is a son of Judge and Mrs. A. W. Crites of Chadron, who formerly lived in Plattsmouth where their son Edwin was born. Both Edwin and Billy were elected at the same election. They are about the same age and so far, both have made enviable records as prosecuting attorneys of their respective counties.

P. E. Ruffner and wife and Mrs. Dr. Dodge of Omaha, came up to this city last evening from Nehawka where they have been making a visit with E. A. Kirkpatrick and family for several weeks. They had a very delightful time while in that enterprising little city and were loath to return to their home here. Mrs. Dodge this morning returned to her home at Omaha after spending the night in this city with her parents.

If All Plattsmouth

Men do not wear stylish clothes this Easter it won't be our fault.

We have provided them. They are here fresh from the hands of the most skilled tailors in America. In all our business career we have never seen such beautiful suits as those we are now showing. Handsome gray effects in stripes, plaids and mixtures. Elegant browns, blues, tans and olive shades in soft finish and hard finish goods.

The $60.00 tailor couldn't possibly make you a better suit in point of tailoring and graceful lines than one of our Exclusive pattern Quality clothes from $20 to $35. They are simply fine. We are enthusiastic about them. You couldn't help but be when you try them on. The picking is good now. Come in this week.

C. E.

WESCOTT'S
SONS

The Home of Satisfaction

Copyright 1910
The House of Kuppenheimer
Chicago

After Children.

The Journal some time ago noted the fact that Prof. O. P. Stewart, principal of the schools at Sterling, Neb., had created some sensation on a Rock Island train which was passing through Murdock, by attempting to kidnap his three children from his wife's sister at that place. The Stewarts were separated and the mother had the custody of the children. Now Stewart is once more after the children, having commenced an action of habeas corpus before the district court at Tecumseh, against Jacob Goehry, Sr., his father-in-law and Mrs. Elsie Stewart, his wife, to obtain possession of the children. The children are Fay, aged 7 years, Virginia, aged 5 years and John T., aged 3 years. The writ was made returnable into district court at Pawnee city this morning. In accordance with its provisions the sheriff of Pawnee county served it upon the defendants and the matter will probably be bitterly fought out.

Barred Out.

The County of Cass has come to the rescue of County Judge Beeson and his handsome and popular assistants and today John Weyrich is engaged in erecting a barrier to keep out the male admirers of the young ladies. This fence will extend from the judge's desk to the door jamb of the entrance to the private office where the young ladies work and it is to form an obstacle to the admiring swains who are prone to congregate therein and cause the ladies to desist from their work and hold sweet converse. The day of the "sweet nothing doing" can be considered as past now and the laid has been clamped on. Lawyers and reporters are the only ones who can run the blockade hereafter for they are a race of superior persons anyway and entitled to all the rights, privileges and emoluments appertaining to the higher walks of life.

Glad to Meet Him.

J. M. Gates of Fort Crook, Neb., is in the city today looking after some business matters. Mr. Gates is a representative in the legislature from Sarpy county, having been a great friend and companion of Representative M. A. Bates of this city, the Journal editor. The two gentlemen held an interesting meeting this morning and exchanged many delightful reminiscences of their term in the legislature. Mr. Gates was the author of the bill to re-establish saloons at Fort Crook, which Governor Shaubergner vetoed, and he still believes the measure to have been a proper one. He is a man who does not drink himself yet he states that the open saloon at Fort Crook is far preferable to the "blind pig," which has been operating there and which is inseparable from a soldiers post. Mr. Gates returned to his home this afternoon on the M. P. train.

Important.

We advertise to send our 5 ton steel frame Pitless Scale on approval. Misunderstanding a letter from a person in Plattsmouth who only wanted a price we will soon have a scale at Plattsmouth which will be sold at a reduction to save storage or reshipping. The first reasonable offer will be taken. Address:

Jones of Binghamton,
K St. Binghamton, N. Y.

Bert Pollock was a passenger this morning for the north where he will attend to business.

WEEPING WATER.

(Republican.)

Frank Pankonin marketed four hogs this week that averaged 240 pounds, raised last June and sold at ten cent per pound for $96.

A big gang of Greeks were busy Sunday unloading coal in the two large Missouri Pacific sheds. Hundreds of tons were stored away.

The Texas land entertainers at the Hans Johnson hall interested a number of our citizens and some may conclude to invest.

Mrs. Charles Tighe and son Frank of Bancroft, came in last week and she was out attending her brother John Bourke, leaving for their home Monday.

H. D. Reed transacted a deal last week in which Charles B. Bankhurst of Beaver Crossing bought Wm. Holden's farm of 140 acres, paying $135 per acre.

John Bourke was taken very sick last week with hemorrhage of the bowels, and for a time his condition was very critical. It was thought an operation would be necessary but the chances for him to survive the shock was so small that it was concluded best to wait for a change. A nurse was secured and at present he is improving.

We failed to mention last week the marriage of Roy Fitzpatrick and Miss Pearl Allen. The ceremony took place in Lincoln and the groom has a position there. These children had to have the consent of their parents in order to secure a license but the Republican extends congratulations and hopes they will be a long time happy.

Applies to all Towns.

The best way to build up a town is to stand by every man in the place who does right. Whenever a man is doing well do not tear him down. All residents should be partners, not opponents. In all livelihoods the more business your rival does the more you will do. Every business man who treats his customers honestly, courteously and fairly will get his share, and the more business that can be secured by united efforts the better it will be for all. When a town ceases to grow it begins to die, and the more the people try to kill each other's business in their own town the more readily will utter ruin come to all. Stand together for the advancement of every citizen. If a man shows ability to prosper don't pull him back through jealousy or weight him down through cold indifference.—Narka (Kas.) News.

New Wagon.

Ed. Egenberger, agent for the Krug celebrated Luxus beer, has just received a fine, new wagon from that company for his city delivery. It is a dandy and just suited for the purpose for which it is intended. The wagon is a handsomely finished one in the standard Luxus colors and, in addition, it is a well made wagon and a great improvement over the old one. Frederick B. Egenberger who drives the new outfit is well pleased with it and cuts quite a swath when coming up Main street with his fiery, untamed steeds hitched to it.

Fence Posts For Sale.

I have about 500 Bur Oak fence post, split, which I will sell at reasonable prices. Walter Sans, Plattsmouth, Neb.
3-14-1m-w Route 1.

Short Locals

From Friday's Daily.

Henry Born and family are among those in the city today, coming in for the services of Good Friday.

John Kaffenberger is among those in the city today, driving in from his home west of the city with his family for the Good Friday services.

Fred Kehne, one of the enterprising farmers from west of the city is in the city today looking after business matters and visiting with his friends.

Geo. P. Meisinger, the well known and popular citizen of Cedar Creek came down this morning on the Schuyler train and is spending the day in the city with relatives.

Mr. Puls, Sr., came in this morning from his home near Murray to look after some business matters and to visit friends.

Adam Fornoff of Cedar Creek is among those spending the day in the city with friends, coming down from his home this morning on the schuyler train.

George and Phillip Thierolf of Cedar Creek are among the good people from the country spending today in the city looking after business matters, coming in this morning.

W. A. Cleghorn, executor of the estate of Frederick Brunko, deceased, was in the city today and filed a petition for final settlement of his affairs as executor and his discharge from the office.

John A., and Ferdinand J. Hennings, two of the good citizens of the neighborhood of Cedar Creek, are in the city today looking after some business matters, driving in this to spend the day this morning.

Miss Angie McCarroll was a passenger to Union this morning where she will spend Sunday with her parents. She was accompanied by Mrs. L. G. Larson, who will spend a few days with her daughters, Mrs. R. E. Foster and Miss Esther Larson.

Mrs. Wm. Wetenkamp and little son Willie, were passengers for Omaha today to consult a specialist in regard to the eyes of the young man. They have been troubling him considerable and it was thought best to see what could be done for them now before it is too late.

From Saturday's Daily.

George Kaffenberger and family were in the city yesterday afternoon doing some trading.

E. J. Wilson of Wabash was a visitor last night in the city, having been registered at the Hotel Riley. Jacob R. Vallery came in this morning from his home near Murray to attend to business matters.

William Fritsch and Ignaz Swenk of Cedar Creek spent yesterday afternoon in the city, driving in from their home for the afternoon.

M. G. McQuinn, one of Union's best and most representative citizens came up last evening from his home to look after some business matters.

Uncle Ben Beckman came up this morning from his home near Murray and is looking after business matters in the city.

Uncle Peter Kell drove in this morning from his home near Cullom to transact some business and to meet with his many friends here.

C. Bengen, the well known stock man and farmer from Mynard, is in the city today, having come in to look after business matters.

Nick Halmes, the aged and popular citizen from west of the city, is spending today in the city, driving in with his estimable better half this morning.

Adam Kaffenberger, one of the solid and substantial citizens of the county, spent yesterday in the city, having come in to look after business.

A. F. Wellman of Waco, Neb., was among those from out in the state having business in the city last evening, being registered at the Hotel Riley.

G. W. Beveridge, one of the good citizens from the Mynard neighborhood, came up yesterday to spend the day in the city on business matters.

Jaas. W. Holmes, the Murray merchant, was a visitor last night in the city attending to business matters, coming up from his home on the evening M. P. train.

Mrs. I. N. Applegate of Union passed through the city this morning en route from her home to Villisca, Ia., where she will make a visit with relatives for several days.

Mrs. Dunbar and little son of Avoca, Neb., who have been making a visit at Burlington, Ia., with relatives, came in this morning for a visit here with Sheriff Quinton and family, the lady being a sister of the sheriff.

John Stones and wife came in yesterday afternoon for a visit in the city and were callers at the Journal office where they renewed their subscription to the paper for another year.

G. P. Horn, the well known citizen from near Louisville is in the city today visiting with friends and looking after some business matters. Mr. Horn is accompanied by his son Henry, both driving in from their home.

Frank Marler is in the city this afternoon from his home at Mynard attending to business.

H. R. Neitzel and family of Murdock came down yesterday and will spend Easter in this city, the guests of Mrs. Neitzel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Guthman.

Herman F. Gansemer, one of the well known young farmers of this section, was in the city today on business and while here he paid the Journal a very pleasant and much appreciated call.

Charles Warner and family came in yesterday from their home in the precinct to do some trading, returning in their large automobile in the evening. Mr. Warner states that he took advantage of Good Friday and planted eighteen bushels of potatoes during the morning which indicates he will raise some potato crop.

Mrs. N. Bintner is spending today in Omaha with her husband at the hospital. Mr. Bintner who has been a sufferer from enlargement of the heart, has been feeling quite well for several days but yesterday he took worse. This is not regarded as a serious setback and is attributed to the weather which has been unusually warm for this time of the year.

Uncle Ben Marler who very recently celebrated his 90th birthday, is in the city today coming in from his home at Mynard. Uncle Ben corroborates Grandpa Bailey regarding Halley's comet as given in another place and states that while his recollection of the wonder is rather faint, he believes that in 1835 the comet was in the northern heavens. He remembers very distinctly the stir which it made among the people.

J. Q. Lansing, a prominent stock raiser and farmer from near South Bend is spending today in the city looking after business matters. Mr. Lansing was much concerned over the death of the late Mrs. Finton and states that the people of that section of the country were very much exercised over the conditions surrounding her taking off. He returned to his home this afternoon on the Schuyler train.

Mayor L. B. Brown of Kenosha, together with his nephew, George Haygood of Onawa, Ia., came up this morning, the latter gentleman departing this afternoon for his home after having spent several days visiting with his uncle. Mr. Brown is still able to report peace and quietude prevailing in his balliwick and everything lovely. He paid the Journal his usual pleasant call and was warmly received. He was greatly pleased with his nephew's visit and regretted exceedingly that he had to return to his home.