The old fashioned way of dosing a weak stomach, or stimulating the Heart or Kidneys is all wrong. Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. This is why his prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed entirely to the cause of these ailments—the weak inside or controlling nerves. It isn't so difficult, says Dr. Shoop, to strengthen a weak stomach, Heart or Kidneys, if one goes at it correctly. Each inside organ has its controlling or inside nerve. When these nerves fail, then those organs must surely fail. These vital truths are leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Test it a few days, and see! Improvement will promptly and surely follow. Sold by all dealers.

THE HARSHMAN-ROYAL CASE AGAIN

Judge Archer Decides the First Case Under the Law of 1907

The Journal in yesterday's issue contained a statement to the effect that in the case of Harshman vs. Royal the defendant Royal, had won the case before Judge Archer. As has since been learned, this statement was rather misleading and an explanation may assist in clearing it up. The case was one for forcible entry and detainer against Royal in which Justice Archer decided some time ago in favor of Harshman. Royal appealed the case to the district court which action, prior to a law passed in 1907, would enable Royal to remain in possession of the disputed land pending a trial in district court. But in 1907, the state legislature passed a law under which Harshman could give a bond to Royal conditioned for the payment of all costs and damages, in case Royal should eventually win out and have Royal put out of possession.

The hearing to which the Journal had reference was a motion to have Judge Archer fix the amount of this bond under the law of 1907, for Harshman to furnish. All the court did was to fix this bond and on its approval to issue a writ against Royal. The result is that Royal will have to surrender possession of the property, notwithstanding his appeal to the district court.

This is said to be the first case under the law of 1907, in Cass county. Under the former law a tenant could, if defeated, carry the case to the district court and if unsuccessful, could go to the supreme court and in this way tie up the case possibly two or three years, during all this time keeping the possession and depriving the landlord of the right to give possession to any other tenant, even though he might have opportunity to rent or sell the property to some one else. It was for the protection of the landlord's right that the law of 1907 was passed. Judge Archer will have the distinction of being the first judicial officer to grant relief to the landlord under this law.

Baseball Saturday.

The base ball season will be started wide open in this city on Saturday afternoon next, when the Plattsmouth High School team will cross bats with the aggregation from the Ashland High School. This spirited and blood-curdling contest will be held at 3:30 sharp at the ball park and it is desired that the public be duly impressed with the necessity of giving the boys a good attendance to encourage them in this, their initial contest. The Ashland bunch are "there and over," as the poet hath so well said, and the local team will undoubtedly acquire a few feathers for the proverbial head-gear by defeating them.

The game will be started promptly on time and an admission will be charged of twenty-five cents for people and fifteen cents for school children. The line-up of the local team will be as follows:

- Wayne Propst—Catcher.
- Francis Whalen—Pitch.
- Wayne Dickson—1st base.
- E. Kanka—2nd base.
- John Falter—3rd base.
- Ralph Larson—ss.
- Matthew Herold—lf.
- Durwood Lynn—cf.
- Leland Briggs—rf.

"The Wizard."

"The Wizard" will be at the Parmele theater for one night, April 8, presented by the William Grew players. This play enjoyed one of the best week's business of the entire season at the Burwood in Omaha last year and the announcement of its appearance here should be a most acceptable item of news to all lovers of good plays. It is a thrilling story, yet is full of humor and clean-cut comedy.

Mr. Grew will be supported by his entire company, which is excellently fitted for the interpretation of this play, the characters being especially well cast, and it is confidently expected that the production will give satisfaction even greater than that of the previous presentations of the Grew company. The stage setting is wonderful—the early sunset in the Sarah desert rivalling anything yet placed upon the modern stage.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulets, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulets bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.
