MURRAY, NEBRASKA

FOR SALE—A few tons of timothy hay. H. L. Oldham.

Miss Grace Boardman has been numbered with the sick this week.

Mrs. R. R. Nickels, who has been quite sick for the past week, is much better at this time.

Steve Copenhaven has two children, Bessie and Bonnie, who are threatened with pneumonia at this writing.

Miss Elizabeth Oliver, daughter of William Oliver, has been quite ill the past week, but is better at this writing.

John Hoback, living southeast of town, whose little son has been quite sick for the past week, is getting along nicely.

Miss Zetta Brown spent Sunday with friends in Murray and vicinity. Miss Zetta has hosts of friends in this section of Cass county. She is a fine little lady.

Our new line of dress and work gloves just arrived. Thirty-five different kinds, from 50 cents to $5.00 per pair. We handle the very best $1.00 glove on the market.
Holmes & Smith.

W. A. Brown is having his elegant home renovated throughout—repaired and decorated on the inside and repainted on the outside. You won't know the residence when the painters get through with their work. Nebraska City painters are doing the work.

George Oldham spent several days down on his farm near here this week. He sold nearly $1,000 worth of corn to the Farmers' Elevator company, and was engaged in delivering it. He returned to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening, having completed the job.

J. W. Holmes and wife's return is looked for now daily. They have been over considerable territory since they went away and besides visiting various points of interest in Colorado, they spent several days in Kansas. Jim will have lots to tell his friends when he gets back.

The many friends of Uncle William Wiley will be pleased to learn that there has been quite an improvement in the condition of that aged gentleman during the past few days. It is to be hoped he will continue to improve and soon be able to get around and receive the congratulations of his friends.

"Scotty," the clever M.P. Agent, shook his fist at the Journal reporter when he stepped from the train Wednesday morning, and expected our coming to be the signal for a late train that evening. But you ought to have seen his eyes glisten when he told us the train was only thirty minutes late. "Your luck has changed Col," he said, "and you come to Murray as often as you want to."

The school board met recently and selected Miss Maude Rusterholtz as principal; Miss Mary A. Trotted, of Nehawka, for the primary department, Prof. Curley, who has been principal the past year, will take up the work of teaching elsewhere. Miss Rusterholtz has had charge of the primary department for some time, and has proved a very efficient instructor, and her promotion is a deserving one.

Don Rhoden has reshingled his barn.

Mrs. Branson Kline, who has been ill the past week, is improving.

House cleaning and repapering and repainting is the order of the day in Murray.

Harry Baxter who has been suffering from an attack of appendicitis is improving.

Dr. B. F. Brendel went to Avoca Sunday in consultation with his son, Dr. Will Brendel.

J. E. Seybolt was a passenger to Omaha Tuesday morning, returning on the 11 o'clock train.

Albert Young and his brother, Nelson, attended the play at the Parmele Friday evening last.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Brendel and Colonel Seybolt were up to Plattsmouth a few hours Wednesday morning.

Dave Young and wife and their son, Rex and wife, attended the play at the Parmele theater Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Troop and son Arthur were down from Plattsmouth Sunday. They came down in their auto to look after some matters on their farm.

Mrs. Henry Long (two miles west of town, entertained the Larkin's club Wednesday afternoon. A number of outside friends were invited. An elegant luncheon was enjoyed by all.

Jim Hatchett came rolling into Murray Saturday evening with a fine Buick car, and feels as proud as a 16-year-old girl with her first beau. Jim will soon have the working of the machine down fine.

Mr. J. W. Edmunds went to Omaha Wednesday morning to meet a niece, Mrs. Nettie Male of Kalamazoo, Mich., who is enroute to visit a son in Wyoming, and will spend a few days with her uncle and aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Klaurance entertained several of their friends at dinner Sunday. Those who had the pleasure of partaking of the elegant repast were Mr. and Mrs. John Farris and children, Mrs. Adda Stokes and daughter, Trassa and son Guy, and Miss Pauline Oldham.

There have been several improvements started in Murray the past week. Mac Churchill is erecting a nice little four room cottage, 20x24, just east of his place of business. It will prove quite a comfortable home for Mr. and Mrs. Churchill, and will be finished in a short time.

Mrs. W. G. Boedeker, Don C. Rhoden, W. C. Brown and Miss Margie Walker entertained the ladies of the Presbyterian Missionary society at the home of the first named Wednesday afternoon. These ladies simply managed the affair, and the members and their husbands who attended had to pay for what they eat.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Gilmore were Weeping Water visitors Tuesday.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Missionary society hold a market at Pitman & Davis' store every other Saturday. Last Saturday they netted $5.00 on sales while other members of the society made six dollars selling ice cream. They are endeavoring to build a kitchen addition to the church, and will succeed, is the Journal's prediction.

Mrs. John Chalfant and her daughter, Mrs. Couch of Wyoming, and Miss Shoemaker were guests at the Walker home Wednesday.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore went to Plattsmouth Wednesday morning in his auto, where he took the train for Omaha and Council Bluffs on business, returning the same evening.

Mrs. T. Jameson of Weeping Water, and Miss Josie Pitman of Union, visited with Mrs. J. F. Brendel Friday. Mrs. Jameson who is the mother of Mrs. Brendel, did not return home until Saturday, while Mrs. Pitman returned home Friday evening.

Not Much on the Fish.

Ed Ness went to the Missouri river last Sunday, with the brag on his lips that he was an old hand at the business of fishing, and that his neighbors could depend upon being supplied with one good square meal at least. After a tour up and down the river for some time looking for a good place to try his luck, he finally got a bite and asked his companions to remain quiet until he made a haul, for he knew he had a big one on his hook. The boys did as requested and when he pulled his line, lo, and behold, one little old mud-turtle came forth, much to the disgust of Ed. He caught no fish and he returned home to receive the jeers of his friends, and it is doubtful if he ever goes fishing again.

A Fine Auto.

As stated in last week's Journal, Dr. B. F. Brendel went to Omaha last Wednesday and returned in the evening with a new up-to-date Hupp car, one of the best made. It is a little daisy and just what the Drs. Brendel need in their practice. It is handsomely finished and is a very easy running machine. It is an easy matter now for the Drs. to make three calls which they could not otherwise do in three times the time. We congratulate the Drs. Brendels upon their business acquisition, also, upon getting one of the swiftest and most durable cars manufactured.

Thrown From Horse.

Harvey Gregg, while riding down the street last Monday, something about the saddle became unloosened and the animal became unmanageable, and landed Mr. Gregg on the hard road, where he hit on his face. Harvey's face now resembles the make-up of a clown, being plastered over with bandages. He was considerably shaken up, but is awful glad and feels very fortunate that his injuries are no worse.

A Correction.

A few weeks since the Journal had an account of a party given at the home of Miss Etta Nickles. And in that article, we mentioned that Jas. Brown won a prize at playing pitch, when it should have been "travel" instead of pitch. Prizes were offered for both pitch and travel and Mr. Brown won the prize given in a series of games to the victor in the travel contest. We are sorry we got it wrong but mistakes will occur in the best regulated families.

Dance at Murray.

Remember that on Saturday, May 14th, the Murray Dancing club will give their next social dance at Jenkins hall in Murray. The music will be furnished by the Jacob's orchestra of Omaha. A good time is assured and you are invited to attend.

ROCK THROWN AT BURLINGTON NO. 15

Breaks Window in Car and Passengers Struck by Glass

From Tuesday's Daily.

Passengers on the smoking car of train No. 15 of the Burlington, this morning were thrown into something near a panic while running past the Fitzgerald-Schlater place north of the city, by a young lad throwing a rock through one of the windows of the car. The first intimation most of the occupants of the car had of the occurrence was when the rock struck one of the glass windows, shattering it into a mass of small particles which flew over several occupants of the car and came near causing serious injury to several of them.

The rock struck the window of a seat occupied by County Surveyor Fred Patterson of this city and after shattering the window struck him upon the left elbow inflicting a severe bruise. In addition Mr. Patterson was covered with particles of the flying glass, the pieces being no larger in most instances than a pin-head. Fortunately none of the flying particles struck him in an eye or other delicate part and aside from the bruise, his injuries were not severe.

Just behind Patterson, Albert Funk also of this city, occupied a seat and some of the flying glass struck him in the face, one small particle striking him in the corner of the left eye. It did not, however, strike him in such a manner as to injure the sight.

A travelling passenger agent for the Burlington occupied a seat across the aisle from Mr. Patterson and he, too, got a shower of the glass, the back of neck and his face getting a number of the fine particles. While wiping the glass off his face he discovered that several small cuts had been made but none of which were serious.

H. C. VanHorn, also a resident of this city, was another man to get a share of the glass which was so generously distributed about but as in the other cases, no damage was done.

Doctor George H. Gilmore of Murray, was among the passengers on the car and, as soon as he learned the cause of the noise, he hurried back to give any assistance he might be able to render to the victims of rock. He removed the piece of glass from the eye of Mr. Funk at once and his timely air undoubtedly will help that young man to escape any serious results. The doctor also made an examination of Mr. Patterson's arm and found that he had sustained merely a severe bruise and that he had fortunately not had any bones broken. In the case of Mr. VanHorn and the Burlington agent, the doctor gave them some aid—all which the nature of their injuries required. It was fortunate for the victims that the doctor happened to be present at the time as his aid materially assisted in preventing and bad effects from the cuts.

Mr. Funk, one of the injured men, states that he saw the boy who threw the rock just before he threw it. He says he was standing upon a high hill which the railroad skirts, and took deliberate aim at the train. He states that the boy is a youngster about fourteen years of age who lives with Thomas Kildow on the Fitzgerald place north of the city. Funk claims to be acquainted with the boy and is sure that he was the one who threw the stone.

Immediately after the stone had struck the glass and as soon as the excitement had toned down, a search was made by several occupants of the car and the stone which had done the damage was found. It is a rough, white stone about the size of a man's fist. The railroad authorities took possession of it and it is presumed that they intend to prosecute the boy if he can be apprehended. The fact of the trouble was reported by the trainmen to the Omaha offices of the company and it is supposed steps will be taken at once to see that a stop is put to the practice.

The facts in the matter were brought down to this city by William Holly, the clothier, who was one of the passengers on the train but who was in another part of the car when the occurrence took place. He says the excitement for a moment was intense as no one had any idea what the trouble was. The rock when it hit the window made a very loud report.

This is the first trouble of the kind had in this vicinity for a long time and the practice will be put a summary end to if the railroad authorities locate the offender.

Murray Visitors in City.

Dr. George H. Gilmore and I. S. White, two of Murray's representative citizens, came up this morning from that enterprising little city in the doctor's machine, and were passengers for Omaha where they will spend the day. While waiting at the depot this morning, Mr. White entertained the doctor and the Journal man with some delightful reminiscences of early days in this locality, he being a pioneer of the county. Among other things when he mentioned was the occasion when F. S. White, the well known Plattsmouth citizen, was engaged in loading freight at the wharf and backed his team into the Missouri river. He says that the team came up shouting "Hurrah for the Union" according to the veracious Mr. White. This all happened during the war times and the country was considerably wilder than at present. The gentlemen expect to return to the city this evening and take the automobile route home.

Orr to Retire.

Atchison, Kas., May 3.—It is understood here that J. W. Orr soon will retire voluntarily as an assistant general attorney for the Missouri Pacific. He recently was offered the position of general attorney in Nebraska for the same company, but refused, saying he did not care to leave Atchison, and that he wanted to devote his future years to travel and his private law practice. He has been a Missouri Pacific attorney for twenty-four years and is a member of the law firm of Waggener, Orr & Challiss.

Mr. Orr is quite well known in this city and has many friends here who will learn of his determination with the deepest regret.

A touch of rheumatism, or a twinge of neuralgia, whatever the trouble is, Chamberlain's Liniment drives away the pain at once and cures the complaint quickly. First application gives relief. Sold by all dealers.

HARNESS SHOP

I have opened the harness shop in the old Jenkin's store building at the lower end of Main Street, and am ready for all kinds of repair work. New harness in stock. Give me a call. Prices right.

POSITIVE PROOF

Should Convince the Greatest Skeptic in Plattsmouth.

Because it's the evidence of a Plattsmouth citizen.

Testimony easily investigated. The strongest endorsement of merit.

The best proof. Read it: J. W. Hickson, Oak St., Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I will never cease to praise Doan's Kidney Pills, as they proved of such great benefit to me several years ago. For some time I was caused much suffering by attacks of lumbago that came on without the least warning. The simplest movement was painful and I was also annoyed by irregular passages of the kidneys secretions. I read so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I finally procured a box from Gering & Co.'s drug store. I was so gratified with the results of their use that I publicly recommended them in 1906 and at this time, I willingly verify that statement. I hope that other kidney sufferers will profit by my experience."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

To Visit Assessors.

County Assessor Soennichsen departed this morning for the county, going out to make the annual visit to the precinct assessors as required by law. Mr. Soennichsen departed for Louisville on the Burlington, and from that point he will take a team and drive out. The trip will take several days as he will have to visit each precinct in the county and note the progress the assessor is making as well as give him instruction upon any questions which may be bothering him.

L. R. Upton, one of Union's enterprising business men, came up from his home this morning to spend several hours in the city looking after business matters. He returned to his home this morning on the M. P. train.
