

SENIORS ENTERTAIN JUNIORS

At the Home of Miss Virginia McDaniel Last Evening.

One of the most delightful entertainments held in this city for some time was that of last evening when the seniors entertained, very informally, the juniors at a shirtwaist party, at the charming home of Miss Virgie McDaniel. For the occasion the front parlor had been prettily decorated in the senior colors, gold and brown and snowballs. Paper streamers and pennants in the senior colors were festooned from the chandelier to the four corners of the room. The back parlor was attractively decorated with pennants and paper streamers in the junior colors, black and gold, and huge bundles of snowballs.

A very entertaining program had been arranged for and which was rendered during the evening. The first number was a selection by the trio on piano, violin and mandolin, by Misses Virgie McDaniel, Hattie Hoffman and Carrie Sherwood, which was a fine number and brilliantly executed. This was followed by piano solos by Misses Hattie Hoffman and Virgie McDaniel, which were charmingly rendered. The program was much increased in interest by the readings given by Miss Marie Douglas and Miss Mildred Cummins. They were at their best and kept the audience thoroughly at attention by their finished style and manner of reciting. Mr. Harrison also gave a recitation, and he was at his best and made a hit with the audience.

A guessing contest was then introduced and which taxed the memory of the guests when they were required to guess the advertisements, the pictures of which had been placed about the room, represented. John Falter captured the first prize and Derwood Lynde the booby prize. The game "Peter Coddles' Trip to New York" was then indulged in, the participation in this causing considerable merriment. Delicious refreshments were served and an hour or so spent in music, social conversation and the like brought to a close another most enjoyable occasion, which the seniors and juniors will long remember.

Returns From Texas.

Ed. Donat returned to his home in this city last night after spending several days in the wilds of Texas. He comes back wildly enthusiastic over the Lone Star state and pronounces it a grand commonwealth. He is enthusiastic over the products of the soil down there and has marvelous tales to tell of orange trees and rich, fertile soil. He invested in several acres while there in addition to the holdings which he had before and is firm in the belief that it is to be the great state of the future. Its large cities especially, attracted his attention and he declares them to be bounding ahead at a rapid pace. While out on an inspection tour of some land, Mr. Donat accidentally was stung by a red ant which poisoned him and through neglect, the infection spread to his blood, the result being a great many eruptions on the face and body. The trouble is not serious but he will have to take some time to eradicate it. The remainder of the party continued on to take in Houston and Galveston before returning and will be in within a few days. He reports them as all well and as having a fine trip.

An Enterprise Greatly Overlooked.

An industry which has not received the attention which it deserves in this city is that of making roofing tile which has been instituted by Herman Tiekotter, the well known contractor. Mr. Tiekotter brought over with him from Germany a tile-making machine which uses cement in its product and which produces what is said to be the finest roofing tile which is fireproof and indestructible. It is everlasting and does not need renewal. While costing about double that of shingles at the start, it more than saves itself in renewals as it never needs to be replaced and will stand the wear of ages. In Germany one of the prettiest sights to be seen in the many colored roofs of the German houses. Mr. Tiekotter puts this tile out in three colors, red, blue and yellow and is prepared now to fill orders. Anyone wanting to use the tile and put in a non-destructible and fireproof roof would do well to consult him. The machinery which he uses is of the latest and is said to be without a superior in the market. Many people have seen him home at Eighth and Day streets and its roof has occasioned marked comment. To all such who have called he has shown the tile and without exception they have pronounced the tile to be of the greatest benefit and most excellent. It would pay everyone to see the tiling for themselves and investigate its merits.

Short Locals

Mike Lutz road overseer for the Plattsmouth district, has been serious ill for a week past from indigestion but today is able to be out and about for the first time. His many friends will be glad to see him back on the job and trust that his recovery will be permanent.

Miss Freiday of Peru, is in the city interviewing the member of the board of education regarding the position of science teacher in the public schools. Miss Freiday comes highly recommended for the position being a graduate of the Peru normal, an excellent preparatory school for teaching.

Word reaches the city from near Murray that Dr. Wiley near that place is not so well as heretofore, and that a change in his condition for the worse took place yesterday. His many friends here hope the change is temporary and that he will soon rally and recover.

A. J. Engelkemefer, one of the prominent citizens from near Murray, was in the city today on business and while here called at the Journal office and renewed his subscription to the Journal for another year. The Journal is pleased to go to this estimable gentleman's home and trust that it will do so for many years.

John Group, Louisville precinct's assessor, has finished his work and today turned in his books to County Assessor Soennichsen. Mr. Group is one of that precinct's best citizens and has made an excellent officer, his work being thoroughly satisfactory to the good people of that precinct.

Will Expend $30,000,000.

Four of the new 22 class locomotives which the Burlington recently ordered from the American Locomotive company, passed through the city last evening en route west. Two of the engines went west under their own steam and two others were brought over by the switch crew from the Junction. The engines attracted much attention among railroad men at the depot and are big and powerful engines. Notice of the purchase of these locomotives was given several days since in the Journal. In connection with these engines the following dispatch in the State Journal shows more activity on the part of the Burlington and indicates the expenditure of considerable money by that system in the immediate future:

Chicago, May 12.—The Burlington railroad will expend $30,000,000 during the current year for the betterment of its system, according to a statement given out here today. Of this, $10,000,000 is to go for new equipment and power, an equal sum for new lines and double track and the remainder will be expended for miscellaneous improvements.

The new construction includes 200 miles of road to close gaps between the new route which the Burlington proposes securing from Denver to the Puget Sound country in connection with the Colorado and Southern railroad.

A Farewell Surprise.

On Wednesday evening Miss Laura Moore was made the recipient of a most delightful surprise party. The occasion was made in the nature of a farewell, as Miss Laura will depart for Kansas the latter part of next week, where she will reside in the future. The most enjoyable surprise had been secretly planned and arranged for a number of Miss Laura's schoolmates and friends, who were assisted by Mrs. M. Bajek, and was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bajek on West Main street. The assembled friends and schoolmates enjoyed an evening which will long be remembered. The various puns and pranks were entered into with much interest and enthusiasm, and produced much merriment. During the evening an elegant luncheon was served, which elicited many compliments. Dainty place cards, done in water colors, and bearing the names of the guests were found at each plate. We have it confidentially from one who was there, that for downright enjoyment, the occasion was the best it was ever her good fortune to participate in, the only thing to detract from the enjoyment at the evening being the thought that Miss Laura was soon to move away.

A Slight Mistake.

In printing the item yesterday regarding the visit of Mrs. Arthur R. Wells and daughter to this city, their residence was given as Colville, Washington, when it should have been Tacoma and they were made to be visiting with Mrs. John Shopp when the proper name was Mrs. John Sharp. They are old friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, having come to this country from the same part of England where they had lived, and having later lived here for several years while Mr. Wells was in the employ of the Burlington in their shops here. They have a number of good friends here among the older citizens who will be glad to welcome them back to the city. They also bring back good tidings of Jos. Lake and family who were residents of the city for many years and who are also well known here. Mr. Lake is in the mercantile business in Tacoma and is doing very well there. He was formerly a member of the city council in this city. Mrs. Wells and daughter will make a visit of several days longer in this city with Mr. and Mrs. Sharp before returning to their home in Tacoma.

Probably Will Recover.

Col. H. C. McMaken had not received any additional word from Atchison, concerning the condition of his brother Andrew, mention of whose critical illness was made in the Journal last evening. The absence of any word is construed as being favorable to the sick man and hopes are now entertained that he may recover. Of course, the extreme illness which had been fastened upon him may be such as to absolutely preclude recovery by the wish of the many people in this city who have been acquainted with him for many years, is for his ultimate recovery.

A Happy Surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Spangler and Stella went to Plattsmouth last Saturday, to be present with other members of the family to celebrate Mrs. Spangler's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Wiles, eightieth birthday.

As these occasions in the past have proved so pleasant, and brought so many together, it is safe to say that last Sunday proved a big surprise to Grandma Wiles, and a happy day to all present.—Weeping Water Republican.

WEEPING WATER.

(Republican.)

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. George Conley, on May 5, 1910, a girl.

On Tuesday evening, June 15, Colonel William Hayward will deliver the Weeping Water academy commencement address.

Deitrich Koster contemplates the erection of a large silo. Farmers begin to see the need of silos and in time they will become more common.

A Plattsmouth citizen who whipped his wife made the remarkable excuse that he was drunk. Either drink or house-cleaning will make a man come as near whipping his wife as anything.

The Missouri Pacific bridge at Plattsmouth is being covered with iron, and we understand that they will not place stone piers until the present piling compels them to make a change. It is said they expect to do the same over the Louisville bridge.

G. H. Ferris, tinner for Mr. Wick-ersham, has gone to Fremont to work, commanded and received good wages, but appears to be a bigger spender than his salary will permit, and that is one reason why many of the merchants will remember him long after others forget.

Rural Carrier Jesse Davis has concluded to abide by the inevitable and wait until he is in better condition physically before commencing work. He has had a pretty hard time with rheumatism and gets better slowly, but looks forward to doing business in June. Herbert Ratnour is making the rounds at present.

While moving some articles of furniture Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. A. C. Clizbe wrenched her left limb, and afterward fell to the floor. The muscles were torn loose from the limb, causing a very painful injury that may keep her confined to the house for some time.

PACIFIC JUNCTION.

(Glenwood Tribune.)

Mrs. and Mrs. John Haynie came over from Plattsmouth Tuesday to attend the funeral of their old neighbor, Mrs. Charles Epperson.

E. A. Purcell, manager of the Foster lumber yards, has filed his papers for the office of township clerk. He has been acting in this capacity for several months and is a capable official.

Charles Epperson, who was taken quite sick a week ago with pneumonia, is reported as improving. J. R. Epperson, a son who came here from Des Moines this week to attend the funeral of his mother, will remain for a time with his father.

It is reported that the railroad company has let the contract for nearly a half mile more or riprap work along the river south of Folsom. The work will begin at once. The government might unite with the railroads and thus hold the "Big Muddy" in check.

O. E. Williams, familiarly known as "Doc," formerly night yardmaster here, has gone west along the U. P. road and is in charge of a gang of men. He may decide to locate in the west. Mrs. Williams and children are here for a visit of some weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Register.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Epperson held on Tuesday, was largely attended by old neighbors and friends. Relatives from a distance attending the funeral were Mrs. Al Davidson of Council Bluffs and Mrs. Wm. Eyer of Bartlett, both nieces of the deceased. The bereaved husband and children desire to return thanks to kind friends for assistance in their hour of sorrow.

Greatly Pleased With Montana.

From Saturday's Daily.

George H. Wood and wife of Wibeaux, Mont., were in the city today for a few moments between trains, coming in at 1:12 and returning to Omaha at 1:58. Mr. and Mrs. Wood have recently moved to Wibeaux from Louisville and are greatly pleased with the country. As is well known, Mr. Wood has taken a number of parties from this county to Wibeaux and they have all invested heavily in land in that locality. He has been an enthusiastic Montanan ever since he first went there and he is more so now than ever. He called at the Journal office while in the city and subscribed to the paper which will follow him to his new home. Mr. and Mrs. Wood are most excellent citizens and have been missed in Louisville since their departure. They will make a valuable addition to the fine people of Wibeaux and that little city is to be congratulated upon their acquisition. They made a very brief trip to this country this time and will return to Montana in a very few days.

A Delegation of Ladies.

Mrs. J. W. Gamble returned from Fremont this morning, accompanied by thirty-five members of the Eastern Star, who were delegates to the state convention. At this session of the Eastern Star, Mrs. Gamble was honored with the election to position of Grand Conductress. The ladies who accompanied her are guests at the Masonic home today. We endeavored to procure the names of all the guests but were unable to do so, and therefore will not publish those few.

we were successful in securing. Possibly we may be able to procure them for tomorrow's Journal.
