peal in Behalf of Remonstrators of Gering & Co.

Judge Travis heard another applica- court. tion of J. M. Leyda's for some more remonstrating against the granting of a permit by the city council to Gering & Co., to sell malt, spirtous and vinous liquors for medical, mechanical and chemical purposes. The orders were practically the same as of portions of the testimony.

The orders which Leyda asked city certify to the district court a matter of the remonstrance which the now memorable evening when to have the city pay the costs of this transcript which would take some money out of the city treasury which can ill be spared at this time, and been granted to Gering & Co., revoked and held up pending the appeal.

He made a strong and able address to the court in behalf of the motion, Gering & Co., not being present and there being no defense offered to his motion. Judge Travis considered the question and finally entered an order by which "The city clerk, W. B. Elster is directed forthwith to file in this court a correct transcript of proceedings had before the city council in this matter, on payment by J M. Leyda, attorney for remonstrators, of the legal fee charged for the same."

Upon the question of suspending the permit, pending the appeal, Judge Travis stated that there was nothing before the court on which he could base such action and he declined to do so until he had had an opportunity to examine the record and pass upon the questions involved.

This leaves the matter in the condition which the Journal spoke of last night, viz: The transcript is to be furnished to the district court by the city clerk on the payment of the cost therefor by Mr. Leyda and the permit of Gering & Co., remains in force until such a time as the district Weeping Water offering him his and make an examination thereof to determine whether or not the permit shall be revoked and suspended pending a hearing before a jury. The next jury term is set for September.
