joyed. The officers elected were: Miss Bessie Brendel, president; Miss Lella Vallery, vice president; Arthur Hansen, secretary and treasurer.

An enjoyable Event.

Miss Tessie Stokes and Art Copenhaver gave what is termed a Fourth of July party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Farres on Saturday evening. It was quite a unique affair, and besides other amusements, the principal feature consisted of strips of cloth literally covered with small stars. These strips were furnished to all present, and the ones who counted these the quickest were given a prize, there being two. This furnished considerable merriment. Miss Mary Moore won the first prize, and Verna Harris the second, or booby prize. It was indeed a pleasant affair, as all present unite in attesting. Ice cream, cake and oranges were served.

Those who were present were: Misses Bessie Brendel, Ruth Thomason, Mae Lewis, Ella Harris, Olga Minford, Clara Copenhaver, Marie Davis, Ester Ray, Mary Moore, Verna Harris, Vera Yardley, Margaret Moore, Ella Virgin, Agnes Lloyd, Ester Lloyd, Adelia Fitzpatrick, Willa Moore, Addie Dill, Ethel Dill, Vivian Fitzpatrick, Edith Lane, Louisa Vergin, Lella Vallery, Tessie Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Minford, V. Harris, S. N. Copenhaver, Jake Minnear, Frank Reed, Albert Lloyd, Garland Tilson, Roy Gregg, Virgil Sudduth, Alf. Beveridge, Vance Todd, Tom Tilson, Omar Yardley, Guy Stokes, Harry Creamer, Arthur Hansen, Ernest Thomason, Frank Dill, James Earhart, Robert Burr, Arnold Fitzpatrick, Charles Vallery, Arthur Copenhaver and Will Seybolt.

In Picnic Fashion.

The home of Mrs. Myra McDonald was the scene of a most enjoyable event last Friday. The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church were the prime movers in the affair, and the attended success denotes that they knew what they were about. Mrs. McDonald's home is situated a little over one mile northwest of town, and over one hundred were present to enjoy the grandest feast ever spread before them. Every lady brought a well-filled basket of good things, and when it was spread on the shady lawn which surrounds the house, it demonstrated that the ladies of Murray and vicinity have lost none of their excellent qualities as caterers to the hungry. Chicken, boiled ham, salads, cake, pies, in fact, everything that the heart could wish was there in great abundance. And when everyone was filled to overflowing, enough was left to feed a hundred more. It was a fine place for such an event and it is unnecessary to say that everyone went home feeling that it was good to be there. They did not depart, either, without returning thanks to Mrs. McDonald for furnishing such an elegant place for their day's enjoyment.

Social Entertainment.

The following is the program of the musical to be given by Mrs. Boedeker and Miss Walker, assisted by local talent at the home of Mrs. Boedeker, Friday afternoon, July 1, 1910:

Miss Hiatt, Mrs. Gilmore.

Returns From Their Trip.

Mr. A. M. Holmes and daughter, Mrs. Will Smith returned from their outing in the east Wednesday night. Their appearance denotes that the trip agreed with them and they report a pleasant time. They visited many of the principal points on the Atlantic coast, besides Indianapolis, Chicago and several points in Missouri. They have been absent about six weeks and were delighted to greet their many friends at home after such an enjoyable outing.

Dr. Newell, Dentist.

Murray every Tuesday from 8 a. m., to 5 p. m. All kinds of first-class dental work. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Visits Old Land Marks.

Luther Reynolds of Campbell, Neb., was visiting old friends and the scenes of his childhood Friday. Mr. Reynolds and M. G. Churchill were rollicking lads together, and Mac accompanied him over to Rock Bluffs, where he went to look after the grave of an uncle. They also visited many other scenes, even the old school house where they received their early training. Things have changed in and around Rock Bluffs, and Mr. Reynolds says he would have passed over the place by himself and never known it. He is a son of Dr. Reynolds, one of the pioneer doctors of Cass county, and well known by many of the older residents of this vicinity. Mr. Reynolds is now running a hotel at Campbell.

House and Four Lots for Sale.

House and four lots, one block north of the Murray State bank, a large barn 50x30, cistern, well and wind mill, also a good cyclone cave, all kinds of fruit. The house has a good summer kitchen, also numerous outbuildings. This property can be bought at a bargain if taken soon.

Advance Guard Arrives.

The advance guard of the Brown shows reached this city this afternoon on train No. 92, coming from Wymore where they have just finished a ten days show for the firemen of that place. By an irony of fate the show had just closed when a big fire broke out and the firemen did their best to stem it but the water supply failed and the city suffered a very severe loss. The company which came in consisted of A. H. Brown, owner of the shows, Advance Man Harry Lewis and a large number of performers. The goods and material of the company will be there during the day and tomorrow it will be erected and the shows be open for business by Saturday. This means that the big day's opening will take place as advertised and that all of next week will be given up to a great carnival in which all can participate.

Constipation causes headache, nausea, dizziness, languor, heart palpitation. Drastic physics gripe, weaken, sicken the bowels and don't cure. Doan's Regulets act gently and cure constipation. 25 cents. Ask your druggist.

In the Cattle Business.

J. E. McDaniel has branched out into the cattle business. In connection with Walter Gochenour he yesterday concluded the purchase of and received a carload of fine cattle which will be fed for market upon the Gochenour island south of the city. The cattle were driven out to the island yesterday morning and they are good ones. They were purchased at the South Omaha stock yards through the medium of John McBride, stock buyer for Ralston & Fonda. The animals came up to the expectation of both Mr. McDaniel and backward in expressing their appreciation of Mr. McBride's ability as a cattle buyer. Mr. Gochenour recently concluded fencing off a large part of this island for a pasture and has ample room to feed the animals in. In addition the feed upon the island is heavy and there is no doubt but that in the driest seasons the animals will find plenty to eat and fatten on.

"Had dyspepsia or indigestion for years. No appetite and what I did eat distressed me terribly. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me."—J. H. Walker, Sunburg, Ohio.

The Ladies Missionary society of the Presbyterian church are arranging to have the church painted inside and out. The new cook room which they have just added to the building is about completed. The ladies (God bless them!) always do things when they take the notion.

The Kensington met with Mrs. T. J. Brendel, northwest of town Thursday afternoon. The ladies enjoyed a pleasant afternoon, and also enjoyed the delightful refreshments furnished by the genial hostess.

Col. Seybolt and A. L. Baker went to Omaha Monday night to bring the Col's car (which had been renovated) down, and they had a time on the trip. They punctured a tire at Council Bluffs, and were delayed for some time in getting the same fixed, and when they reached the Iowa side of the ferry they found the approach out of order, and had to wait there until it was repaired. With all their bad luck they reached home in good time.

Shelling corn seems to be the order of the day among the farmers around Murray, and the elevators have shipped out several cars this week. Fifteen cars have been shipped this month.
