RECOUNT SHOWS FEW CHANGES

Shallenberger Gains Three Votes in Cass County.

DAHLMAN GAINS ONE IN BUTLER.

Attorney General Thompson Gives Opinion on Proposition to Reopen Ballot Boxes, Holding Recount is Legal—Says Action Should Be Taken When Affidavits Are Filed.

Lincoln, Aug. 25.—Attorney General Thompson, in reply to an inquiry from Cass county, held that it is proper and legal for the canvassing boards to open the ballot boxes and recount the ballots when a recount is demanded and the proper affidavits are filed. Several county attorneys have held that the county canvassing boards have no authority to open the ballot boxes and count the ballots until ordered to do so by the court. The attorney general holds further that after the recount is made it is the duty of the canvassing boards to transmit to the state canvassing board the figures as shown by the recount.

The opinion of Attorney General Thompson declaring that if an affidavit is filed demanding it, a recount must be made in any or all counties, will probably cause a complete canvass of the votes cast in the last primary.

Though somewhat abated, owing to the first news received from Butler and Cass counties, interest in the recount of the primary ballots was intense around the executive office. During the day the governor received word that the recount in Butler county had resulted in a net gain for Dahlman of one vote, while Shallenberger gained three votes in Cass county.

MOST men believe in the kind of economy we're proposing to you now; not buying stuff simply because it's low priced, but buying what's good, what you know you can use, even when you may not really need it. We're bound to clear these suits; and at these terms we're sure to do it; you'll be the looser if you don't take yours. Candidate Addresses Voters.

As a result of the primary election held August 16th, I am made one of the Republican candidates for state legislature at the election next November. In view of this fact, I consider it proper to make the following statement:

At the Republican county convention held at Union in July, among other recommendations to go before the primaries was that of my candidacy for representative; my name being presented at that time absolutely without my knowledge or consent, as I have never either sought or held public office.

My activities have always been confined to the clothing business of C. E. Wescott's Sons of which firm I am the junior member.

In receiving the nomination, I am not indifferent to the honor and responsibility attendant.

If the voters of Cass county have confidence that I can render the service they desire in the state legislature, I shall endeavor to merit such confidence and respectfully solicit their support upon the Republican state platform of 1910.

E. H. Wescott.

Before Judge Archer.

Max Herman filed complaint before the police judge averring and alleging that one Alex McQuary had been guilty of violating the peace ordinance and had been fighting. A warrant was issued and the parties appeared before the court. The evidence developed that the row started by McQuary's children applying the name "Sheeny" to Max and his family and instead of making the complaint to the parents of the children Max had thought to correct the children himself and seized one of the boys and began to administer what seemed to Max to be suitable punishment for so grave an offense.

When the father of the child heard of the muss he went to Max and fell on him and smote him entirely too boisterously to comport with Max's idea of law observance.

The court listened patiently to both sides of the controversy and finally refused to "bring forth his celebrated brand of justice," but stated to the parties that if he fined one he would have to fine both, and that if they would go hence and keep on opposite sides of the street and refrain in future from violating the peace ordinance, he would dismiss the complaint without fining either party. The parties readily agreed to do this so the matter was dropped.

W. J. O'Brien Here.

W. J. O'Brien, superintendent of the state fisheries at South Bend and his wife were in the city today. Mr. O'Brien looked after the state car at the shops and Mrs. O'Brien to call on friends. The special fish car has been in the local shops for two weeks for repairs, and Mr. O'Brien was here to look after some little details concerning the refitting and repairs. The fisheries are in ship-shape, the drouth never affecting the crop in the least. The pools and ponds are supplied by natural springs and may be affected slightly by evaporation in a dry time, but not sufficient to cause any trouble. Mr. O'Brien expects to sene the Platte and the Missouri near Plattsmouth again this fall for specimens of fish with which to stock the pools at the fisheries.

TROOPS FOR MILITARY MEET

Five Thousand Soldiers to Be in Omaha This Fall.

Omaha, Aug. 25.—Major Carr, commanding officer at Fort Omaha, has completed arrangements for the military maneuvers for to be held at Fort Omaha in connection with the Ak-Sar-Ben fall festival. Seats are to be erected overlooking the parade grounds with a capacity of 5,000 persons.

It is expected that two additional squadrons of the Seventh cavalry will be in Omaha to take part in the maneuvers. The Second and Third squadrons will make a practice march from Fort Riley to Lincoln and return and arrangements are being made whereby they may be brought to Omaha for a day. These squadrons will prove a big addition to the troops already promised. About 5,000 soldiers will take part.

SHERIFF BRINGS EVANS BACK

Man Accused of Bigamy Declares Friends Will Furnish Bail.

Central City, Neb., Aug. 25.—Sheriff Her returned from Salt Lake City with Othello M. Evans, charged with bigamy, in his custody. Evans was married here on Aug. 3 to Miss Grace Gorman of Grand Island and it is claimed that a previous wife, whom he married at Camden, Mo., in 1897, and from whom he was never divorced, is now living in Kansas City. The complaint is sworn to by G. E. Gorman of Grand Island, the father of the second wife.

Evans was arraigned before Judge Peterson, waived examination and was placed under $2,000 bond. He asserts that wealthy friends in Grand Island will furnish bail.

Elmwood Chautauqua to Quit.

It is said that the chautauquas will be abandoned at Elmwood as they have not been profitable in a financial way. Elmwood has always secured good attractions and they of course come high. It is a big undertaking to finance a chautauqua so as to come out even in towns of that size. It is also a great deal of work on the part of a few.—Weeping Water Republican.

In many localities in the United States the people are greatly alarmed because of an unusually large mortality on diseases of the intestines. If Sick

Don't risk even one single penny!
And I will tell you why I say this.
It is because every package of Dr. Shoop's medicine is absolutely free if it fails.
No one need risk even one single penny.
Just think what this means to the suffering sick!
No risk, no expense, nothing whatever unless health first returns for 30 full days, and without the risk of a single penny, you can use either of my two famous remedies—Dr. Shoop's Restorative or Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy.
Why purchase any medicine whose maker dare not back it just as I do by this remarkable offer?
And besides, I am no stranger to you.
My "No pain" medicine has made Dr. Shoop's Restorative famous in every drug store in the land. The "No pain" medicine says "We take no chance whatever here."
For twenty years Dr. Shoop's medicines have become thoroughly popularized all over America. And I have practiced honest and responsible drugistry in every city and village everywhere to acquire my knowledge of yours. These selected drugs are the only medicines with the sick—and the entire risk is mine alone.
But write me first for an order.
I have an agent in almost every community—but all druggists are not authorized to grant the 30-day test.
So drop me a line, please—and thus save all disappointments and delays.
Besides, you are free to consult me by letter as you would your home physician. Do so freely and fully—if you desire. My advice and the book below are yours—and without cost. Perhaps a word or two from me will clear up some serious ailment. I can only help you—upon thousands by my private prescription or personal advice plan.
Besides, the books will open up new and helpful ideas to you. They tell of my 20 years' experience at the bedside in homes and in hospitals. All phases of medicine and relief are told of here. They tell of my "No pain" "inside nerve" no larger than a pill, which gives relief to the heart its impulse. How the stomach and kidney each have their inside or power nerve. How these organs surely labor when these controlling or master nerves begin to fail. How Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to these falling nerves, and rebuilds, feeds and restores the lost one and power. I can only help you—if it is within the power of medicine to do so. My best efforts are surely worth your simple request. So write now, while it is fresh to your mind, for tomorrow never comes. Dr. Shoop, Box 12, Racine, Wis.
