

$800.00 IS THE REWARD TO DATE

The Shera Estate Offer $300.00 in Addition to the $500.00 by State and County.

The sheriff was summoned to Rock Bluffs yesterday and in company with forty men from Rock Bluffs and Murray made a thorough search of the surrounding country in the vicinity of Rock Bluffs in an effort to get some clue to the murderer of Mrs. Shera. The people in the community are thoroughly wrought up over it. The Shera estate has added $300 to the $200 offered by the state and $300 by the county, making a total of $800. There will be a meeting of the citizens of Murray this evening and many of the people have signified their willingness to give $25 and some have gone so far as to say they will give $50 toward the apprehension and conviction of the criminal. No arrests have as yet been made. Anyone desiring to add their names to the list of contributors to the reward can do so by handing their names to the Journal, and name the amount to be subscribed. There will be a column printed in the Journal giving the names and amounts added each day.

A VISIT TO THE DEN OF THE KING OF AK-SAR-BEN

It is said that laughing is a very good medicine, and some times it may be better than anything else. Last night the writer had the opportunity to take a good dose of that wonderful medicine while in the metropolis of our state visiting a ministerial friend.

The clergymen of Omaha were invited to spend last evening at the den, and by decree of the King of Ak-Sar-Ben were made special guests of the evening. The writer's host invited him to accompany the Omaha clergy on this occasion. After the initiation was over and the sensation of fright had departed, I found out that I can feel, as man between man who are enthusiastic boosters of the city, and I must say I had the finest time and one I believe, of the ministers who spoke was right, in saying "The Lord knows a preacher needs a jolly time once in a while at least." Indeed it was an object lesson and Rev. Dr. T. J. Mackay hit the point when he said: "Bringing the ministers together, here is an object lesson in the way we should get together, under one common banner and one common Master. As you are boosters for Omaha, so should we all boost for Christ and for freedom." It was on the hand a real lesson for me. Why not boost for my city and I think I boost for Omaha while I boost for Plattsmouth and I think that is what we need. More men with good red blood in their veins, who sacrifice themselves for their city. By the way I want to thank the Honorable Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben for the object lesson they gave to me as a minister who loves Plattsmouth.

Ulrich Inhelder came to Plattsmouth today from his home at Cedar Creek to celebrate his seventy-fifth birthday by applying to Uncle Sam for an increase of pension, he having reached the age where automatically the law gives him more money. On making the application for the increase Mr. Inhelder went before Judge Archer and made out the necessary papers for the increase.

SOME DOINGS IN THE POLICE JUDGE'S OFFICES

Judge Archer had his police court mill grinding this morning and completed three grists to the satisfaction of all concerned. The first was a gentleman from Iowa, who had come across the boarder to get tight. The initials of his name were M. B. Hoover, he was innocent of any intention of breaking the law but he was unaccustomed to the Nebraska brand of booze and got more on board than he needed for the occasion. He had a farm in Iowa and a wife and family, but was short on cash, so the court allowed him to leave his valuable gold watch as a forfeit until he could get home and send the cash, $10 and costs.

The second matter was a complaint against Lester McKinney whom Night Watch Bert Thomas caught in the act of "laming the whey" out of Frank McClover. The officer happened along the Burlington track inside the yard limits when McKinney and McClover were both engaged in the melee, McKinney seemed to have the best of the fight and was holding McClover down and pounding him while the switch engine was bearing down toward the pair all unnoticed by them, so earnestly were they engaged in the fight. Mr. Thomas thinks both would have been killed had he not jerked them off of the track, and into the arms of the law. The incident occurred about six o'clock last evening. The men were thrown in and brought before the judge this morning. McKinney was given ten and costs for fighting. It appears that he started the fight by landing on McClover, the latter was allowed to go without a fine as he seemed to have had sufficient punishment.

CITIZENS WHO SHOULD BUT WON'T GIVE TO ENTERPRISE

It would seem that from present appearances that the energetic committee selected to procure stock for the new enterprise to be located in Plattsmouth were about to fail to secure a sufficient amount to assure its location. It would be a shame to have this enterprise fall through with now after so much hard work has been done by a few of the most hustling citizens. There are those in the city who are plenty able to give, who have failed to give a penny, when the establishment of such an enterprise will do them as much good as any of those who have subscribed, and much more than some of them. We cannot expect to have enterprises located in our midst when such citizens refuse aid.

FAREWELL BALL FOR MISSES PARMELE AND POLLOCK

The farewell ball tendered Misses Hallie Adele Parmele and Ellen Campbell Pollock Saturday evening at Coates hall by George Dovey and Lynn Miner, was one of the most pleasing and delightful events that has occurred in Plattsmouth for some time. Misses Parmele and Pollock are soon to leave for school, and the occasion was in the nature of a farewell to these popular Plattsmouth young ladies. There were twenty-seven couples participating, and from the grand march, which was led by Mr. Lynn Miner and Miss Ellen Pollock, until the final waltz the young people enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The music by the M. W. A. orchestra was most entrancing and it was with regret the happy swains and damsels departed from the festive scene. Light refreshments were served by Misses Edith Dovey, Helen Gass and Jannett Patterson, assisted by Messrs. Pollock Parmele, Sam Windham and Carl Schmidtmann. The patronesses of the party were Mesdames C. C. Parmele, H. N. Dovey, T. H. Pollock and Mrs. Kate Miner.

C. H. Weldman of Cambridge, this state, was in the city today, passing through en route to his home from Red Oak, Ia., where he had been on a visit for a few days. He will stop a few days in Greenwood, his old home, before resuming his journey homeward. While here Mr. Weldman gave the Journal a pleasant call.

That unless his memory failed him there had been fourteen murders in Plattsmouth precinct since its organization, but never one until this in Rock Bluffs.

THE BIG BASS DRUM RETURNS AFTER LONG TIME

From Monday's Daily.
No one in Plattsmouth was happier this morning than France Balance. Several years ago the "Hewitt Family," a musical organization were in the city, and were minus a bass drum and France kindly loaned them the one he had used so long with the old B. & M. band, one of the greatest bands in the west, with the understanding that they would return it in a short time. But the old drum never came back until France found out it was in some town in Oklahoma and sent for it, and it came in this morning with $1.90 express charges to pay. This for his kindness. France is proud of the old drum, and will keep it, if for nothing more than a reminder of the good old days when the B. & M. band was the pride of Plattsmouth, and well known through the west.

Weeping Water Gets Doused.
According to reports from Weeping Water six and seventy-nine hundredths inches of water fell there during Sunday night and Monday morning. It rained hard and steadily from nine in the evening till six in the morning. The Weeping Water creek is out of its banks and higher than it has been since 1883. Several gardens are under three to five feet of water. County roads are badly washed in places.

Mrs. Philip Albert of Cedar Creek arrived this morning to be the guest of the John Albert home for a short time.

Throw Away the Grindstone—It's Slow! Use a Luther Grinder—Saves Time

Luther's FARM Special

is one of those indispensable farm tools. To the farmer who is discriminating, and looks at quality instead of price, who wants the BEST whether he buys machinery, clothing, shoes or food stuff. To such a one, LUTHER'S FARM SPECIAL will strongly appeal. Up to the time we put out this great labor saving tool he had to be content with the old, slow-cutting grindstone or unsatisfactory emery grinder, but now he can have the service of the most perfect farm tool sharpening device ever invented. There is not a tool used about the farm that is superior to our FARM SPECIAL GRINDER as a labor saver. It sharpens everything in one-twentieth the time it would take on the grindstone. The grindstone cuts so slow that you would prefer to work with a dull tool rather than endure the backache and HARD WORK of keeping tools sharp on it.

IT IS EASY to sharpen tool on the Farm Special. Your ten-year-old boy will tell you it is fun to sharpen everything on this FARM SPECIAL GRINDER.

LEAVES VICTIM UNCONSCIOUS

Resident of Louisville Attacked by an Unknown Man.

Louisville, Neb., Aug. 30.—Just as he stepped from the rear door of his apartments on Main street last night George Tackenberg, an old resident of Louisville was slugged and knocked unconscious by an unknown assailant. Mr. Tackenberg is fifty-five years of age and a bachelor, and he has lived in Louisville for thirty years. He is a cousin of B. G. Hase-meier of Lincoln. The motive for the assault is not known and the identity of the person making the assault was not learned. Although Mr. Tackenberg was knocked unconscious and was unable to make an alarm, the person who struck him did not attempt to rob him, though he might easily have done so.

The opinion is prevalent here that either Mr. Tackenberg must have come upon a burglar or that an attempt was made to put him out of the way. The injured man describes his assailant as a short, heavy set man, smooth shaven and lantern jawed. The local police are working on the case.

Finally Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and I procured a box at Gering & Co.'s drug store. ## C. B. & Q. FIREMAN INJURED IN PACIFIC JUNCTION YARDS

L. O. Conner, a Burlington fireman running out of Creston was struck in the Pacific Junction yards last night and severely injured. It was thought at first that Mr. Conner was killed as he was badly stunned, but he soon revived and was brought to Plattsmouth on a switch engine and Dr. Livingston dressed his wounds and he was taken to his home at Creston on No. 10. The man was injured in his left hip and right arm, sustaining severe bruises but the bones were not broken. Just how the accident happened is not known, the fireman seems to have been in the act of crossing the track when No. 81, a local between St. Joseph and Council Bluffs struck him, knocking him several yards and rendering him unconscious for the time. It is fortunate that Mr. Conner escaped with his life.

Petition was filed in the county court today to probate the estate of Henry W. Ossenkop of near Louisville who died at his home some weeks ago. The hearing on the petition was set for the 19th of September.

PARMELE ORCHESTRA FOR THIS SEASON

Manager Dunbar has made up his mind to exert every effort to give the people of Plattsmouth and vicinity first class bills for the coming season, and in keeping with such attractions he deems it an important feature to give the people good music, and has closed a contract with the home orchestra for the entire season. This certainly should prove an excellent drawing card, and should assist greatly in increasing the volume of business. It is surely the duty of Plattsmouth people to lend a helping hand this season, and with deserving attractions, make the business of the house greater than ever before. In another column you will find the announcement of the opening bill.

Herman Dettman of Elmwood was in the city today looking after business at the court house. Mr. Dettman is one of the active business men of Elmwood.

James Stander, the Louisville merchant, transacted business in Plattsmouth today.
