

A PIONEER LADY LAID AT REST

A Large Concourse of Sympathetic Friends Follow the Remains to the Silent Tomb.

From Tuesday's Daily
The funeral of Mrs. John F. Buck, one of the pioneer settlers of Cass county, occurred this afternoon at her late residence in Liberty precinct. Mrs. Buck reached the advanced age of 90 years, her birthday occurring on the 23d day of May. She was the widow of Hon. John F. Buck who died a few years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Buck were pioneers in Liberty precinct and were charter members of the First Presbyterian church of this city, which church held its fiftieth anniversary some three years ago.

The subject of this sketch, Mary Shryder, was born in Cayuga county, New York, near Lake Ontario, May 23, 1820, being next to the youngest of a family of three daughters and two sons, born to her parents. With her parents at the age of seventeen she removed to Peoria county, Ill., and was married to John F. Buck, a young farmer November 5, 1839. With her husband she resided in Illinois until the year of 1855 when on the 19th day of May, in company with her husband, she crossed the Missouri river and settled in Liberty precinct on the farm where she spent the balance of her happy and useful life. Mrs. Buck was a woman of broad intellect, having received a good education in her native state. She was well fitted to fill the position of wife and mother and most faithfully she performed her allotted duty.

She was the mother of ten children, five of whom died when quite young. The children dead are Chas. D., James R., George N., Willie E., and Daniel W. Her surviving sons and daughters are Theodore D., of Wyoming, John S., of Washington, Mrs. Sarah Gates, of Ottawa, Kansas, Mrs. J. D. Cross and Mrs. Abigail Klepser, both of Liberty precinct.

Mrs. Buck experienced all of the inconveniences of a pioneer during the early history of Nebraska, and she and her husband took an active part in the formation of society at that time, and were the champions of every enterprise which tended toward the improvement of the moral tone of the community in which they resided.

In 1855 the postoffice of Three Grove was established, and Mrs. Buck's husband was made the first postmaster, and the duties of the position often devolved on Mrs. Buck. Mrs. Buck was a faithful Christian woman and her memory will ever be treasured by those who knew her best.

THE PASSING OF ANOTHER PIONEER CITIZEN

John Armstrong, aged eighty-eight years, died at his home at Greenwood Saturday night. He leaves a wife and the following children: John, William and Joseph of Greenwood, Hugh of Gordon, Neb., Mrs. Orlin Hall of Heyburn, Idaho, and Mrs. Jessie Birdall of Greenwood.

Mr. Armstrong was born in Ireland of Scotch-Irish parentage. He served for a time in the British army, from which he received an honorable discharge. He then came to America and lived in Philadelphia for a time and later in Chicago. From there, forty years ago he emigrated to Nebraska and took up his homestead near Greenwood, where he has lived until his death. He was one of the oldest settlers in that vicinity. During the civil war Mr. Armstrong helped to organize a regiment in Pennsylvania for the union service, and was then himself rejected from the service on the physical examination on account of injuries he had received in the British army.

The funeral occurred Monday afternoon from the home and interment made in the Greenwood cemetery.

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They do the work whenever you require their aid. These tablets change weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, gloominess into joyousness. Their action is so gentle one don't realize they have taken a purgative. Sold by all dealers.

Piling all Driven.
A. P. Finkle, a member of the M. P. bridge gang who have been putting in the piling for the new bridge for the M. P. over the Platte, north of this city, was in the city Saturday afternoon. Mr. Finkle says the work of placing the piling in the bridge is completed. A force of two gangs of men, twenty-two in each gang, have been since last March driving these huge trunks of trees into the river. Some of the piling drove exceedingly slow, the driver in many instances putting in an entire day driving a single piling. The number of piling driven was 599, fifty-eight ranging from fifty-five to sixty-nine feet in length. The force will move this week to Louisville where the work will be commenced on a new bridge at that point.

THE GRAND ENTERTAINMENT AT MYNARD

In our hurry Saturday we forgot to mention the ice cream social given by the Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church at Mynard and which was held Friday evening at the S. O. Cole building at Mynard. The Plattsmouth Military band of this city had been invited to furnish several selections during the evening. The automobiles belonging to D. O. Dwyer and John Bauer and one from the Patterson & Thomas garage were loaned the band free-of-charge which delivered them on the scene of the festivities in a hurry. A number of the boys went via the horse and buggy route. The boys entertained the large number in attendance with several selections which were most thoroughly appreciated by those in charge as well as the patrons. The music by the band added greatly to the pleasures of the evening and assisted in making it such a delightful one. Other entertaining features of this evening's entertainment were readings by Miss Mildred Cummins of this city and Miss Anna Snyder of that vicinity. As usual, Miss Cummins and Miss Snyder were at their best and their manner of reciting so pleased the large audience that they were repeatedly encored and to which these talented readers very happily responded a number of times. The remainder of the evening was spent in a social way and in partaking of delicious ice cream and cake at random and which was served throughout the entire evening. The ladies are very much elated over the large number in attendance and appreciate their kind and liberal patronage very much as they realized a neat sum. All in all the occasion was a most enjoyable one.

Editor Quinn of the Plattsmouth News was in town Tuesday and called at the Courier office. He tells us that the automobile subscription contest will close the first of September. Quinn hates to see the contest brought to a close as he has had a good time "trying out" the prize machine and sees nothing ahead of him but walks after the little red wagon is turned over to the winner.

A Splendid Young Man.
W. H. Puls, Democratic candidate for representative, was in the city Saturday and reported at the Journal office. Mr. Puls is one of the finest young men in Cass county. He was brought up on the farm and enjoys a fair education, much better than the customary boy reared on the farm. He is popular with all who know him and between now and election day all the voters of Cass county will have an opportunity of making his acquaintance.

Were Here Last Saturday.
Adam Schaffer, one of those mighty good farmers from west of Murray, was in the city looking after some business matters last Saturday afternoon. He was accompanied by his uncle, George Pillard from out in the state, but who is making a visit with Adam and relatives. Both gentlemen paid the Journal office a brief call.

William Sporer and family from near Murray were in the city last Saturday doing some shopping. While here Mr. Sporer called at this office for a few moments chat and incidentally renewed for his paper. Mr. Sporer is one of the most prominent and successful farmers of Murray, and the Journal is mighty glad to class him as one of our best readers.

William Gilmour from south of the city was here today and the Journal acknowledges a brief call from him.

UNION (Ledger.)

A deal was made Tuesday whereby C. F. Harris became owner of the Darrrough farm northeast of this village.

Ray Frans departed Tuesday evening for Denver, Colo., where he will spend two or three weeks' vacation enjoying the sights.

G. Waley Mills of Walthill, was here to enjoy the re-union and meet his many friends. Waley was a former resident of this village, and he always receives the glad hand when he comes to Union.

W. G. Glasgow and family arrived Tuesday from Lincoln, bringing with them their household goods, and will reside in the Dye cottage in the north part of town. Mr. Glasgow is employed as principal of our schools for the coming year. We are pleased to welcome such estimable people as permanent residents of our village.

Henry Brissey and wife of Auburn came up Saturday to attend the re-union and meet their many friends. Henry was a resident of this village several years ago when the re-union was just sprouting, and he noticed a great difference in it than when he used to help the old Union band furnish music for the occasion.

Word was received here Tuesday morning from Omaha announcing the death of Joseph Young who passed away Monday night. Mr. Young was a resident of this village a few years ago and had made many friends here. He was a member of the local M. W. A. camp, and clerk Joe Buning received notice of his death.

Our friend Moss McCarroll is about the happiest man in this country and to be sure he has a reason for a nine pound daughter registered at his home Monday morning and about all Moss has been heard to say is "girl, nine pounds." We extend congratulations to the little lady and parents, and may she live to be a blessing to her parents.

OVER-INSURANCE THE CAUSE OF MANY FIRES

State Fire Warden A. V. Johnson, after one year's experience in investigating the causes of fires, is of the opinion that over insurance is the indirect cause of most of the incendiary that has come under his notice. He has found cases where small stocks of goods and houses have been insured for double their real value. "Insurance companies do not sanction such methods of doing business," said Mr. Johnson, "and the only way I can explain it is the carelessness of local insurance agents or the greed of the agents to get a commission on the insurance they write. Agents ought to be more careful and make inquiries or at least some show of investigation before they write policies."—Lincoln Journal.

George Shoeman who has been visiting friends at Lincoln, Louisville and other points in Nebraska for two weeks, arrived safe home this morning.

Miss Eva Allison from near Murray was a Plattsmouth visitor today, spending the day with County Superintendent Miss Foster.
