MISS INA HATT ENTERTAINS WITH A FAREWELL PARTY

The pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hatt, Jr., was the scene of a delightful farewell party last evening when the former's sister, Miss Ina Hatt, entertained a number of her young lady friends in a very charming manner. This occasion was in the nature of a farewell as most of the girls leave today or tomorrow for various points out in the county where they will engage in teaching school the coming months.

The time was most enjoyably spent in various amusements which the hostess had planned for the occasion, one of which consisted of a guessing contest, white cardboard, about the size of a small slate and with dainty pink pencils attached to them were distributed and the guests requested to draw a picture of a slate thereon. In this contest the first prize, a slate, was awarded to Miss Elizabeth Kerr and the booby prize, a slate pencil, to Miss Helen Trilety. Progressive dominoes was then indulged in, there being several games played. Miss Helen Trilety carried off the first prize. A luncheon which was both dainty and delicious was then served and which the guests found delightfully appetizing and pleasant. The remainder of the evening was spent in social conversation and it was a late hour when the guests departed for their homes, indebted to the hostess for the splendid entertainment afforded them and very much regretting that they would soon be separated. Those in attendance were: Misses Hilda Brinkman, Mattie Larson, Cecil Hawkenbary, Bess Edwards, Helen Trilety, Fern Long, Hazel and Alice Tuet, Edna Morrison, Jennie Batton, Elizabeth Kerr, Bessie Brendel of Murray, Verna and Ina Hatt.

Removes to Chicago.

W. J. Mulvaney and wife departed for Chicago last evening after a seven months residence in Plattsmouth. Mr. Mulvaney came here to install the electric light plant for the Burlington shops, putting in a plant with about 350 light capacity. Since that time he has been wiring cars and assisting in the engine room. Mr. Mulvaney will still be in the employ of the Burlington, but does not know just where the company may place him next.

Ed. and Phillip Meisinger of Culm transacted business in the city today.

CLOAKMAKERS' STRIKE ENDS

New York Garment Workers Return to Work Soon.

HAS BEEN PEACEFUL AFFAIR.

Industrial Loss to Both Sides is Estimated at Over Ten Millions—Attorney for Manufacturers Says Union Has Won Great Victory—Home Work is Abolished.

New York, Sept. 3.—The cloakmakers' strike, one of the greatest industrial disturbances in the history of American labor, has been settled. Seventy thousand garment workers who have been idle for nine weeks will shortly return to work. Ten thousands of them and those dependent on them—50,000 souls in all—were on the point of eviction and hundreds have already been forced into the streets. The industrial loss to employers and employees has run high into the millions. In loss of wages alone the total has been estimated at more than $10,000,000, while the loss to manufacturers, jobbers and retailers the country over has been computed at ten times that amount.

In spite of the stupendous readjustment involved the strike has been, in the main, notable for its peacefulness. There were numerous cases of petty disorder, and a petition of the manufacturers brought forth from Justice Goff of the state supreme court an injunction in which he ruled that any strike called to demand the closed shop was in restraint of trade.

"No principle has been surrendered by the manufacturers, yet the union may truly claim they have won a great victory for their people. The manufacturers believe in the union and the principle that all who desire its benefits should share in its burdens."

One essential of the victory and one important, not only to the strikers, but to the nation at large, which wears their output is the abolition of all contract work at home. Hereafter garments made in New York will be manufactured under sanitary conditions. There will be no more sweat shops.

RECORD FOR WOMAN AVIATOR

Miss Helen Duetrie Flies Twenty-Eight Miles With a Passenger.

Ostend, Belgium, Sept. 3.—Miss Helen Duetrie, the French aviatrix, established a new record for women pilots in distance and altitude, with a passenger.

With a companion in her aeroplane, Miss Duetrie flew from this city to Bruges and returned, a total distance of about twenty-eight miles. At Bruges she circled above the famous belfry of Les Halles at a height of 1,300 feet. It is fourteen miles by rail from Ostend to Bruges. Les Halles is a remarkable medieval edifice famed for its belfry, which rises 353 feet, and its magnificent chimneys.

WHEAT RULES STRONG

Traders Generally Nervous, but Higher Prices Are Maintained.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—Higher prices for wheat were maintained today from start to finish, but only narrowly so, and traders were generally nervous. A small lot, 16,000 bushels, was sold from Chicago to Hamburg at a specially low ocean rate. Another feature of encouragement to holders was the fact that the September delivery was relatively higher than other months, both here and elsewhere. Closing figures were at a net gain of 1/4¢ to 1/2¢. The finish left corn within a shade of last night's quotations, oats 1/2¢ off and provisions varying from 20¢ decline to 12¢ advance. Close:

MORE ROOM IS NEEDED FOR THE INCREASE IN BUSINESS

O. P. Monroe, the new and second hand furniture man on north Sixth street, has been enjoying a good business since he entered this line about two years ago. The old store room became too small and a few days ago he was compelled to rent the adjoining room lately occupied by Mrs. Julia Dwyer as a millinery store. Both rooms are now well filled with new and second hand goods, and he has room to display his line. He has a large line of heating stoves that are ready for the market. He has room now to do all kinds of repairing, and will make this a special department. He has also taken the agency for the Edison talking machines, and has a good line of new machines and a large line of new records. It might pay you to see his line when in the market for such goods.

Sells Out Business.

Miss Marie Kaufman of Cedar Creek who has been running a general store at that village for several years, closed a deal a few days ago whereby she has disposed of her entire stock of merchandise including the good will of the business. The purchaser is Doctor W. M. Wilson of Albany, Missouri. Doctor Wilson is a dentist of considerable experience and comes to Cedar Creek highly recommended as a gentlemanly merchant. Miss Kaufman retains the postoffice which she will still have charge of. The change will take quite a burden from Miss Kaufman's shoulders, as the duties in running the store and also looking after the duties of postmistress were very laborious.

Will Move to Omaha.

R. A. Osburn who has been employed by Zuckweller & Lutz for some time past, has resigned his position here and accepted a position as floor salesman in the jobbing house of Butler Bros., at Omaha, at a good salary. Dick will be located at be pleased to see any of the Plattsmouth merchants who may be wanting goods in his line for the holiday trade. His household goods have been packed this week and next Monday will be shipped to Omaha. Dick takes his new position at that time.

Brings Little Girl Home.

Thursday Mr. and Mrs. John Meisinger, Jr., brought their little four year old daughter, Margaret, home from the hospital where she was operated on for appendicitis about two weeks ago. The little girl is almost well again, though she is not allowed to be on her feet much of the time yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Halmes were in the city today doing their usual Saturday shopping and Mrs. Halmes favored the Journal with two beautiful bunches of flowers, among which were several big, red coxcombs, which are very beautiful. Again we thank our good old friend, and may she live to a ripe old age—say about 150 years or longer.

PETER SITZMAN AND LOUIS KEEZER ARRESTED CHARGED WITH MURDER

Alex. Martin Identifies Them as the Men Who Robbed and Fatally Wounded Mike Geno Near Cedar Creek.

From Saturday's Daily.

Thursday evening about 7 o'clock after the men at the quarry had had their supper, George Sanders, Alex. Martin and Mike Geno, went to the village. Sanders broke a ten dollar bill in the saloon, the men had a few beers and started for the camp shortly before dusk. The three men walked down the railway track and when they were within a half mile of the camp or thereabouts, two men passed them hurriedly. Sanders remarked that this looked suspicious and that the three had best be cautious. Geno said he knew one of the fellows; that it was the son of the woman who ran the boarding house in Cedar Creek and that everything was all right. The two got out of sight soon and before the three had proceeded far, Marten who was about twenty feet in advance of the other two was accosted from the weeds by the two men, one of whom struck him on the arm but not felling him he escaped and ran to camp. The other two men were assaulted with the club and knocked down and robbed, both were unconscious for the instant, Sanders rallying soon, but Geno never regained consciousness. Sanders lost what cash he had, and time checks were taken from both men, which have not yet been recovered. Jno Gauer who resides near where the robbery and murder was committed, heard the cries of the men for help, and ran to their assistance and saw two men fleeing toward Cedar Creek, but did not get close enough to recognize the men. The unconscious man was carried to camp and a doctor summoned from Louisville, but in spite of medical aid, Geno died yesterday about noon.

Sheriff Quinton went to the scene of the murders at once and early Friday morning rounded up fifteen or twenty men hanging about the village, and asked Martin to point out the men who struck him. He walked up to Pete Sitzman and Louis Keezer, both known well in this end of the county. Sitzman being the son of George Sitzman deceased and Keezer is a brother-in-law of Sitzman, and both have been around Cedar Creek and both were seen together the evening the murder occurred.

The two men were at once placed under arrest, and last night Deputy Sheriff Manspecker brought them to Plattsmouth and lodged them in the county jail.

A coroner's jury was summoned and a verdict brought in that Geno came to his death by being murdered by Isadore Sitzman and Louis Keezer.

The evidence against the two parties was convincing. There was the track of the heel of a boot which was worn by one of the robbers near the spot where the murder was committed, one of the men arrested had on boots. The sheriff made a search of the rooms of the two and found in one a bloody shirt.

This morning the county attorney and the sheriff placed Sitzman in the sweat box and he confessed that he was one of the two who assaulted the murdered man. Sitzman made a full and voluntary confession and placed the confession in writing, to the effect that he and his brother-in-law planned the assault Thursday afternoon. That they talked the matter over together and concluded that they would get Geno and Sanders. But had given the matter up for the reason that the men did not come down town when they expected and the two had started to the pasture to get the cows, when the three men came down the track toward the camp. Sitzman and Keezer then started after them, and overtook them about a half mile out of Cedar Creek and passed them hurriedly, and some little distance on the two stopped and allowed the three men to pass them.

The two men took a circuitous path and got in advance of the Marten, Sanders rallying soon, but Geno never regained consciousness. Sanders lost what cash he had, and time checks were taken from both men, which have not yet been recovered. Jno Gauer who resides near where the robbery and murder was committed, heard the cries of the men for help, and ran to their assistance and saw two men fleeing toward Cedar Creek, but did not get close enough to recognize the men. The unconscious man was carried to camp and a doctor summoned from Louisville, but in spite of medical aid, Geno died yesterday about noon.

The sheriff empanelled a jury of six men as follows: J. F. Wolf, C. E. Metzger, Henry Inhelder, Dick Frey, Mr. Shryder and Mr. Bach, who heard the evidence and brought in a verdict that the deceased, Mike Geno, came to his death by wounds in the head with a club in the hands of Isadore Sitzman and Louis Keezer.

After signing the confession as stated above, the sheriff took the self-confessed murderers, Isadore Sitzman, to Omaha for safe keeping to await the convening of the district court which meets in October. The murdered man was an industrious Polish workman, and Miss Marie Kaufman who was in the city today, stated that he had worked at the quarry for more than two years and that he had boarded with her mother during that time, and that he was a man of good character, economical in his habits and sent all his earnings to his family in the old country.

DISAPPEARANCE OF JOHN RUBY REMAINS A MYSTERY

From Saturday's Daily.

The mysterious disappearance of John Ruby deepens as the search continues. The Missouri Pacific railroad company is searching their line most thoroughly, but up to the present time nothing has been learned as to his whereabouts. We understand the officers here are doing everything in their power to locate him with the same fruitless results. After the search has been completed along the Missouri Pacific from Everett to Nebraska City, the company will have completed their task, and should nothing result the officers here will have a double task on their hands.

W. A. Kirby took his little daughter, Ethel Bell, to Council Bluffs today to enter the school of the sisters.
