ANOTHER OLD CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Peter Mumm Died at Home in This City Today of Tumor of the Brain.

From Saturday's Daily.

Peter Mumm, one of the pioneer settlers of this locality, died this morning after a short illness of less than a week. Although Mr. Mumm had been ill since some time in July, he did not take to his bed until Tuesday of this week. His case was diagnosed as tumor on the brain, and from this disease he died.

The deceased was a man of about sixty-six years of age and had resided in Plattsmouth for more than thirty years where he has always had the respect and esteem of all who had business or social relations with him. He leaves a devoted wife, two sons and two daughters to mourn his loss. The sons are: August and Henry; the daughters are Misses Rose and Pearl.

For a time after settling in Nebraska, Mr. Mumm lived on a farm, disposing of this he afterwards engaged with his brother in the retail liquor business. Mr. Mumm was a member of Cass Council No. 1021 of the Royal Arcanum in which he carried a policy of $3,000. The funeral arrangements have not yet been announced. A more extended obituary of the deceased will appear in the Journal Monday. The wife, sons and daughters have the deepest sympathy of the entire community in this, the hour of their sad bereavement.

F. E. SCHLATER BUYS THE BAUER FARM FOR $17,750

From Saturday's Daily.

A sale by the referees appointed by Judge Travis to partition the two hundred and ten acre farm of John Bauer, deceased, was made of the land today. There was a large attendance at the sale and considerable interest manifested in the sale and the bidding was quite spirited. The sale was kept open for an hour, and at the end of that time the farm was sold to F. E. Schlater for $17,750. The land is a bargain at that sum as it is one of the finest stock farms in the county. The soil in that locality is very fertile and the farm is within three miles of station for shipping grain and the like. The sale was for cash the proceeds of which will be divided among the heirs of the former owner, John Bauer, deceased. At the opening of the sale, William Dal-esDernier stated that as the attorney for the life tenant, John Albert Bauer he wanted to state that while he reserved the right to contest the sale and the division of the proceeds of the farm sale that the purchaser of the farm at the referee's sale that that would be placed in possession of the land and that his client would make no resistance to the orders of the court except in a legal way. The sale was made by D. O. Dwyer, one of the referees, and the matter will come regularly before the court for confirmation at the October term of court.

BROWNE IS ACQUITTED

Cleared of Bribery Charge in Lorimer Election.

FACES ANOTHER INDICTMENT.

Victor in Second Trial May Have to Face Still Another Charge on Allegation of Same Character—Accused Throws Arms About Attorney in Warm Embrace.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Lee O'Neil Browne, minority leader of the Illinois legislature, charged with bribery in connection with the election of William Lorimer to the United States senate, was found not guilty by a jury in the criminal court. This was Browne's second trial. The jury disagreed in the first trial.

The speedy verdict was a surprise to the many who had watched the progress of the second trial and had feared that a repetition of the tedious deliberations of the first jury would close the case.

The reading of the verdict absolving Browne from guilt was greeted with cheers from friends of Browne, who crowded the court room. Browne turned to his attorney, Charles Erbstein, and threw his arms around his neck and for a moment they embraced. The bailiffs were powerless to maintain order and with a rush Browne's friends hoisted him to their shoulders and carried him around the court room continuing their cheers.

A semblance of order was restored by vigorous efforts on the part of court officials and the jury was polled. The basis of the indictment against Browne was that he had bribed Representative Charles A. White of O'Fallon, Ill. his colleague on the Democratic side of the Illinois general assembly, to vote for William Lorimer for United States senator.

Browne, who is a candidate in his home district for a seat in the next legislature, faces another indictment voted by the St. Louis county grand jury in Springfield and based on the same allegations of having bribed Representative White.

The jury, which took eight ballots, was out twenty-one hours. On the first ballot the jury stood eight to four for acquittal. The final juror standing out for conviction was won over to sign the verdict of acquittal.

Credit to Lawyers.

"I owe my life to the lawyers who defended me," Browne exclaimed when he caught his breath. "It is all due to their unswerving and absolute devotion to me. I owe everything to them. I thank them from my heart."

State's Attorney Wayman was plainly put out by the verdict. At first he refused to talk. Later, in his private office, he made the following statement:

"The verdict speaks for itself. The public knows the evidence. I presented the evidence and did everything that a public prosecutor could do. The state of Illinois will reap the benefit of the prosecution regardless of the verdict. I have nothing further to say."

The verdict in the Browne case came as a dramatic aftermath to the sensational incident between Colonel Roosevelt and Senator Lorimer regarding the Hamilton club banquet.

The Roosevelt-Lorimer incident was frequently mentioned by people discussing the Browne trial.

Senator Lorimer was attending a meeting of directors of the La Salle Street National bank when word was given him concerning the verdict. A telephone girl at the bank received the message. Leaving her switchboard, she hastened to the directors' room, where she handed a paper with the words, "Not guilty," to John I. Hughes, a director. Mr. Hughes read the terse message and then handed it to Senator Lorimer. He read it, tore it up carefully and continued his remarks to the directors. Not until the meeting had adjourned did the other directors learn of the verdict.

The senator left the bank for home without discussing the matter and refused to make any statement regarding it. He was as calm and taciturn as though nothing unusual had occurred.

Double Fatality at Watertown.

Watertown, S. D., Sept. 10.—After having once saved himself H. R. Hagan, a section foreman, lost his life in making a heroic effort to take G. W. Patrick, a crippled laborer, from the track in front of a train. Both were killed.

CHOLERA IS INCREASING

Forty-Four Hundred Deaths in Russia in Week.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 10.—The cholera epidemic continues to claim thousands of victims. During the week there were 9,899 new cases, with 4,465 deaths. The total for the season is 170,363 cases and 77,466 deaths.

The epidemic has made greater progress in remote villages because the peasants persist in an attitude of hostility toward the physicians and nurses. A doctor was killed in Yekaterinoslav province and reports of medical men being beaten are constantly received by the sanitary bureau.

Texas Banker Indicted.

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 10.—Charging him with illegally receiving bank deposits, three indictments were returned in the district criminal court here against W. C. Witwer, formerly cashier of the suspended Western Bank and Trust company of this city. The bank failed in January, 1908, for more than $1,000,000.

ALL MABRAY MIKES OUT OF COURT

Judge McPherson's Ruling on Evidence Causes Dismissal.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Sept. 10.—The long procession of "mikes" who filed into Council Bluffs Monday to be present in the United States district court when fourteen of their suits against local men to recover part of the $250,000 they contributed to Mabray and his associates, filed out of town with completely dashed hopes. Every one of their suits, which they had come hundreds and, in some instances, thousands of miles to prosecute, were dismissed upon motion of their attorneys when the ruling of Judge Smith McPherson made it impossible for them to get to the jury in any of their cases with the class of testimony they had to submit.

Judge McPherson was advised of the decision to dismiss all of the cases in time to permit him to recall the order to summon twenty-five extra jurors from points outside of Pottawattamie county. The remaining five suits were dismissed without prejudice, following Judge McPherson's ruling excluding from admission as evidence the private memorandum book containing the names of all of the victims and steersmen, with a complete history of each case, which was found in Mabray's effects when he was arrested at Little Rock by Postoffice Inspector Swenson. This was the only evidence the plaintiffs had to establish the necessary conspiracy to maintain the action in court, and which is said to contain the simple memorandum at one place, "B. Marks."

Judge McPherson held that any man's name might have been written in the book, and that it was worthless as evidence of a conspiracy.

CONDENSED NEWS
