Funeral of Anton Choloupka.

The funeral of the late Anton Choloupka, who died last Monday night, at his residence in this city, occurred this morning at 9:30 from the Bohemian St. Rosary Catholic church, Rev. Father Velcek, pastor of the church, conducting the same. A large audience of friends and neighbors of the bereaved family filled the church. The Society of St. James, and the Catholic Workmen, and the Catholic Sokol, attended the funeral, each society in a body, thus showing the high esteem in which the deceased was regarded by his associates and friends. Many out of town relatives were present from Omaha and Crete.

Interment was made in the Holy Sepulcher cemetery, the pall bearers being selected two from each of the lodges of which deceased was a member. The pall bearers were Frank Havlicek and Tom Janda from the Woodmen lodge, Joe Abersalon and Adolph Koubek of St. James lodge, and Joe Holly and Joe Racek from the Catholic Workmen lodge.

Use "Forest Rose" Flour if you want the best results in making good bread. Try a sack and you will buy no other. For sale by all leading dealers.

Large Barn Burned.

Henry Lopp, a farmer residing five miles southwest of Murray, had the misfortune to lose his barn by fire, last Wednesday evening. The origin of the fire is shrouded in mystery, as no one was about the barn at the time, that Mr. Lopp knows of. There was about $200.00 worth of hay and corn in the barn which could not be moved and which went up in smoke. Neighbors assisted Mr. Lopp in taking out his harness and machinery and the horses. There was some insurance on the barn, but not enough to nearly cover the loss. The Journal is indebted to Dr. Gilmour for such facts as could be gleaned concerning the unfortunate occurrence.

In Making Flour

there is just as much difference as there is between mills and millers. Some mills are equipped to make poor flour, others good flour, and a very few such flour as "Forest Rose."

At great expense we have installed the most modern machinery and are fully prepared not only to "Beat the Dutch" but most American millers as well.

Trying Case to Eleven Jurors.

The case of Charles E. Beckwith against the administrator of the estate of Samuel Johnson, is on trial today to eleven jurors, Mr. F. H. Goodfellow, of Greenwood, having been excused by the court after the jury was empaneled. The reason for this unusual proceeding, was that a 'phone message was received by Mr. Goodfellow after the jury was selected, informing him that his little girl had met with an accident whereby her leg was broken. On this unfortunate occurrence being related to the court, Judge Travis excused the juror, and the parties then consented that the cause be tried to eleven men instead of the customary twelve.

The members of the jury selected to try the case, are: C. A. Harvey, G. E. Perry, John Fowler, C. F. Vallery, H. P. Dehning, F. H. Goodfellow, (excused), W. S. Philpot, John Saas, Leo Allen, George Kaffenberger, D. T. Dudley and Elmer Hurchins.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES Are You in

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Plattsmouth women know how the aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headache, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Plattsmouth woman's words:

Mrs. James Hodgett, 1102 Main street, Plattsmouth, Neb., says: "I suffered a great deal at times from dull, heavy pains across the small of my back, especially severe when I stooped or brought any strain on the muscles of my loins. About two years ago I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and they brought me such prompt and positive relief that I have since used them whenever I have felt in need of a kidney remedy. I procured Doan's KIDNEY PILLS at Gering & Co's drug store and do not hesitate to recommend them."

The above statement was given in June, 1906, and on December 30, 1908, Mrs. Hodgett said: "I still hold a high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. I am glad to confirm all I have previously said about the remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Owl Hoots.

Warning—the charter will soon close.

C. L. Martin, the popular liveryman, found time to write five applications for the Owls yesterday.

Several prominent citizens of Cedar Creek left their applications for membership in the Owls yesterday.

O. P. Monroe, the Sixth street merchant, is doing some splendid work for the Owls and wants his friends to call and investigate the proposition.

D. L. Amick returned from Mynard yesterday with a half a dozen applications for Owls in his pocket. D. L. gets there.

Mr. Hugh R. Norton, the efficient and popular Mo. Pac. R. R. agent, is one of the latest "jiners" of the Owls and realizes he made a good move in the right direction, ask him.

J. E. Mason, the wide awake Main street confectioner, is an Owl with authority to receive applications for membership and wants to tell his host of friends about it, see him.

For the benefit of those in doubt—there is no age limit or medical examination to charter members and the charter fee is nominal—join now and save dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. Meisinger Entertain.

George Meisinger and wife, residing west of the city, entertained a number of relatives and friends last Sunday in honor of Mr. George Meisinger, of Green Valley, Illinois, who has been visiting his Nebraska relationship for a few weeks. A fine dinner was prepared by Mrs. Meisinger which was served in the large dining room of their commodious residence. The menu consisted of roast meats, broiled chicken, and every delicacy which a farmer's good wife knows how to prepare to tempt the appetite. Games and music and social conversation enlivened the afternoon. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Meisinger, of Louisville, Neb.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Meisinger, Plattsmouth; Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Meisinger, Mynard; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lohnes, Cedar Creek; Messrs. Jno. Kopia, Plattsmouth; George Meisinger, Green Valley, Ill.; Jno. Meisinger, of Mynard; Misses Mary Vetter, Green Valley, Ill.; Anna Kopia and Miss Isabelle Todd, of Plattsmouth.

Made His Escape.

Cam Seybert, the Louisville marshal, was in the city today looking after business matters. Mr. Seybert stated that the thief who got the watch at Louisville Monday, came to Cedar Creek, where he took the train for the west going through Louisville on an extra freight. Marshal Seybert phoned to Cedar Creek and tried to induce the men there to hold the thief until he could drive to Cedar Creek for him, but for some unaccountable reason the Cedar Creek men declined to do this, and the thief escaped.
